Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, JAN. 25, 1861.

ADVERTISE.—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics and Public officers in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to enquire into the merits of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers and dealers, as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞ Peter Newmau's sale of Farm Stock, &c., in Buffaloe Tp., Tuesday, 26th Feb.

☞ Jersey Shore and Muncy are applying for Booms in the River at their places respectively. Why not have one at Lewisburg also?

☞ Do you want to learn to write a neat and business-like hand? A resident of Lewisburg offers his services in that line. See Advertisement.

☞ We are requested to say that Lady Members of the Teachers' Institute to be held in Lewisburg next week, will be provided with board without charge, and gentlemen at 50 cts. per day.

☞ The next annual session of the East Baltimore M. E. Conference is called for Wednesday the 13th March, at Chambersburg, Pa. Bishop Simpson is expected to preside. The Baltimore Conference meets at Staunton, Va., same day.

☞ There is hanging at the Lewisburg Post Office a very life-like portrait of Dr. STEPHEN W. TAYLOR, the framer of the University at Lewisburg. Any person desiring a copy of it, can have it by applying at this office, where we are making out a club. The price is 50 cents per copy

BLOODED CATTLE, of superior worth, will be sold (with other valuable property) by Wm. Frick, at his Farm in Kelly Tp., near Lewisburg, Saturday, 16th Feb. Good stock raisers, in this and neighboring counties, would do well to extend this notice

☞ Our Obituary record this week honors the memory of Mr. Carothers, the first Printer in Lewisburg. His estimable wife, we are told, furnished the principal original matter, and made selections for the paper, upon which he performed the manual labor, being a superior pressman. We will give a year's Chronicle for a copy of his Gazette....We also notice the recent death, in the lower part of the State, of HON MAXWELL, who published The Advocate of Union, at Mifflinburg, about 1816, and was a noted Editor in Lancaster &c. during subsequent years.

BOLD HORSE THIEF.—Wednesday forenoon of this week, a stranger, with his hand in a sling, and thickly bandled up, called at A E Kapp's, just above Northumberland, and solicited the use of a horse to go over into Dry Valley, stating that as he had been hurt, and desired to get there. The young man to whom he applied, gave him a horse, saddle, &c., with which he stopped at the Buffaloe House, in Lewisburg, his hand all cured, took dinner, represented himself as a drover, and tried to sell the horse. Some thought it looked like one of Kapp's horses, and while they were trying to divert his attention by a pretended trade (that they might in the mean time telegraph to Kapp,) the stranger slipped away, and re-crossed the Bridge—Mr. Kapp, arriving, took his horse. The thief was pursued, but escaped.

☞ The selection of Col. ELI SLIFER for Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, is received with favor, as far as we have observed, by the press of all parties and sections—as we might prove by numerous quotations. We believe he is the second person, not of the legal profession, who has been chosen to that important post—Gen Samuel M'Kean, of Bradford county, a farmer, and afterwards a U. S. Senator, being the only previous exception. The incumbent needs to be a good business man, of general acquaintance and sound judgment, vigilant, incorruptible, cautious, and of an affable and friendly disposition. His relation is two-fold—requiring the closest intimacy with the Governor, and yet to be the confidant of all outside parties desiring to communicate with him. In all these particulars, we take it, Col. Slifer is happily qualified—while, upon all strictly legal points, the Attorney General is of course the proper and responsible officer....Ten years ago, Col. Slifer, a boat-builder, commenced his official career—serving repeatedly as Member of the House—then as Senator—then as State Treasurer, three terms—and is now, as official organ of the Governor, in perhaps the second station in the State...His Deputy is Samuel B. Thomas, a lawyer of Delaware county, of whom we have no previous knowledge.

Gen. Jonathan Wolf, of Brush Valley, gives notice, in the Democrat, to the Centre county Brigade, to be ready to march on our days notice, "in defence of the Union."...A Company of one hundred young men is proposed to be raised in Centre county, to go to Washington and see that Lincoln is inaugurated.

Elias Hicks, of Bloomsburg, was driving over the Susquehanna, in the ferry boat, at Mifflinville, when his horses became frightened, and sprung overboard. Happily, they were rescued from the chilly, ice and cold, and all escaped, after much danger.

M. W. Jackson, Superintendent of the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad Company, has resigned his position as Superintendent of that road, to take effect on the last of the month.

L. H. Wilson, of Milton, has been appointed Notary Public, by Gov. Packer.

Court in Lewistown last week—Hon. Samuel Linn, of Bellefonte, presiding, in place of Judge Wilson, who is yet disabled from his broken limb.

☞ The Fort Scott (Kansas) Democrat of 12th inst., has the following account of a border fray in which LEWIS MERRILL, late of New Berlin, bore a part:

"On the 4th inst., Lieut. Merrill, of the Dragroons, was stopping for the night at the hotel in Mound City, where also Dr. Jennison resided. After supper, Merrill entered into conversation with a couple of elderly gentlemen, whom he took to be farmers. In the course of the evening, remarks turned upon the existing difficulties, when the Lieut. related some stories he had heard in regard to Jennison having been driven from Wisconsin and Illinois. At this moment, Jennison entered the room and took a seat. As Merrill concluded his remarks, Jennison said: 'And the next that was heard of him, he dropped down here in Kansas, didn't he?' 'Yes,' replied Merrill, not knowing the Doctor, 'and it's a pity he hadn't dropped off the hind end of a cart, with a rope around his neck, before he started.' Upon this, Jennison sprang to his feet, and pointing a revolver at Merrill, stated who he was, and demanded a retraction. Merrill caught hold of the Dr.'s arm, and told him that he was unarmed. Jennison then offered him another pistol, but, with the first already cocked and pointed at his heart, it would have been worse than folly in Merrill to have accepted it. Jennison again demanding that he retract, Merrill replied, that, as far as the remarks he had made were concerned, had he known that Jennison was present, he would not have made them; but, as for his sentiments, he had his opinion of Jennison, had a right to it, and should retain it; and Jennison accepted this as a sufficient apology."

The house of John Hummel, in the borough of Northumberland, was burned to the ground one Friday afternoon recently. The fire is supposed to have been caused by children playing with matches in a waste room. The most of the furniture was removed and saved. The building was a fine brick edifice, upon which there was no insurance.

John Conrad Menges, of Washington township, Snyder county, hung himself on last Monday night week, in his barn. His age was about 30 years. We understand that he has been subject to fits of insanity, in one of which, he, no doubt, committed the act.

Rev. A. J. Hay, of Northumberland, has accepted a pastoral call from the Baptist church at Manayunk. Rev. George Wolff, near Milton, will remove to the German Reformed church in Myerstown, Berks county.

John K. Hays, of Williamsport, had his pocket picked of his wallet, containing one hundred dollars in notes and orders, at Harrisburg on Inauguration Day.

A very valuble cow belonging to Edward C. Humes of Bellefonte, walking over the ice near Spring Creek bridge, broke a leg, and was killed to end her sufferings.

Wm Forsyth, Esq., was appointed, by Gov. Packer, Notary Public at Northumberland.

There were ten prisoners in the Lycoming county jail at the opening of the Court, Monday last.

AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC has now arrived and is now ready for delivery, gratis, by our Druggists to all who call for it. Our readers may be surprised to know that this little pamphlet which has become so much a favorite in our section has quite the largest circulation of any one book in the world, except the Bible. It is printed in many languages and scattered through many nations as well as supplied to almost the entire population of our vast domain. Every family should keep it, for it contains information which all are liable to require, when sickness overtakes them and which may prove invaluable from being at hand in season. If you take our advice, you will call and get an Ayer's Almanac, and when got, keep it.

THE VALUE OF GOOD HEALTH can not be over estimated, and no better legacy can be transmitted from parent to offspring than a sound and robust constitution. What are honors and distinction without health? what are riches without the capacity to enjoy the blessings of life? These thoughts are not apt to suggest themselves to any of us, until, enfeebled by sickness, we look about for some means of recovery. To all troubled with that dread disorder Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, or any form of Lung or Throat complaint we can confidently recommend Dr. O. Phelps Brown's great remedy the ACACIAN BALSAM. Its effects surpass, in healing qualities, all conception. It is the only medicine in the world, that, by its combination of rare ingredients, eliminates an electric power which, acting upon the nerves, the stomach, the lungs, the heart, the brain, etc., infuses additional vital force into every organ, and by the renewed action and energy thus obtained, expels all morbid influences from the body, produces a reaction which checks diseases, and produces even in the worst cases, a restoration to perfect health, in a short time.

DR. O. PHELPS BROWN'S ACACIAN BALSAM price $2 per large bottle may be obtained of J. BAKER & CO., Lewisburg, Sole Agent, who has also a number of specimen bottles, price 25 cents, that all may have the opportunity of trial.

Among the many preparations which nature has supplied to relieve the afflictions of humanity, there is no more favorite one for a certain class of diseases than the "medicinal gum" of the Wild Cherry Tree; but however valuable it is, its power to heal, to soothe, to relieve, and to cure, is enhanced ten fold by scientific and judicious combination with other ingredients, in themselves of equal worth. This happy mingling exists in that of medicine known as

"Combination and a form indeed"

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

whose value in curing Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, Pulmonary Affection and incipient Consumption, is unestimable.

STRONG TESTIMONY.

LEWISBURG, Union Co., Pa., May 5, 1860.

S. W. FOWLE & Co., Boston: Several years since my wife was taken with a violent Cold, and for two years following was afflicted with a severe Cough and pain in the breast, during which time she tried many different medicines without any beneficial result, and finally became so weak and debilitated that for six weeks she was confined to her bed with but little hope of recovery. As a last resort we gave your WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY a trial, with the most gratifying result. Although her cough had become so violent and distressing that she was unable to rest a single hour, yet, before she had taken One Bottle of three days, she slept well all night, and before the bottle of the medicine was exhausted, the Cough had entirely left her. Since then we have used the Balsam in our family with efficacy in all diseases of the lungs. I have recommended it to our neighbors in all cases of Coughs, Colds, &c., with the same result. I believe it to be the best remedy known for all Lung diseases, and heartily recommend it to the public, feeling sure that all who try it will agree with me.

C. B. HERBST.

☞ Caution to Purchasers. The only genuine Wistar's Balsam has the written signature of "I. BUTTS" and the printed one of the proprietors on the outer wrapper; all other is vile and worthless.

Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, and for sale by Harris & Dunlevy, and J. Wallis & Co., Lewisburg.

He was a native of Northumberland, when he learned the printing business with Andrew Kennedy the elder, and went with John Binns to Philadelphia, as a pressman. After working in various places, he published a paper at Danville, at Bloomsburg, and Berwick, then printed the first paper in Lewisburg, styled the Gazette, in the large stone building where Dennis Philbin now lives. For a few years afterwards, he printed the Times, at New Berlin, for the proprietor, John A. Nesbitt, Esq., and then the Union Democrat, in Lewisburg, in 1848 or '9, and printed in the room house now occupied by James C. M'Clure. In 1850, Binns foreclosed, bought the office, and published the Lewisburg Journal several years. For the last 20 of his latter years, Mr. C. suffered from partial blindness, when he sought any employment by which he could earn his bread, and was happiest when he was busiest—he almost wished to die from regret that his toils and sufferings are past.—Com.

COMMENDATIONS.

From Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, M. C., Ohio

My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the Ambrotype Picture is quite like than any that they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so much a natural, all the features and expression of countenance as this.

From Hon. E. J. de Mosaic, late Minister to Italy.

The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraits, coupled with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, can not fail to commend them to the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

From Com. JAMES POE.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil colors, executed in a style of superior finish, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but the artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art. 5-30d6 JAMES POE.

REITMEYER again before the People for the Fall Trade, with the most extensive assortment of BOOTS and SHOES ever yet offered to this community, which are all fresh from our Eastern Markets, and have been selected with great care, so that he is prepared to offer greater inducements than ever, and having experienced the advantage for the last six months in selling cheap for cash, he has become convinced that it is the only safe rule, for without money it is hard to do a successful business, and there is no other system that will justify a man in selling goods below a regular percentage. He again invites the special attention of all cash buyers, far and near, who would be pleased to see him with a call, and examine his large stock of BOOTS, SHOES, GAITERS, TRUNKS, CARPET BAGS, MOROCCO SKINS, FRENCH CALF SKINS, &c., &c., from which he will fit you out with anything in his line at prices that are again shaking the news, "We still go to Reitmeyer's for cheap Boots & Shoes."

Thankful for past favors from all quarters, he hopes, by strict attention to business and a disposition to please all, to receive a continuance of the same.
