Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, FEB. 1, 1861.

A DVERTISERS—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics and Professional men in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to sell—would do well to examine the columns of the Lewisburg chronicle, which has a large circulation, in a community containing a rapidly increasing number of active, earnest producers, consumers and traders, as any in the State.

☞ See New Advertisements.

☞We have on file for next week a letter from our naval correspondent "G," at Havana

☞We do not consider expedient or useful the proposed meeting for which we publish a call by request.

LIGHT AHEAD.—Samuel T. Walker, Esq. having come into the management of the Lewisburg Gas Works, the gas may be expected to flow by Saturday evening.

☞Capital sleighing hereabouts for some days past, and well enjoyed, generally, for business, visiting and—for the sake of sleighrides.

☞The only "concession" the South yet offers the North is the privilege of carrying their mails, at a cost to us of One or Two Millions of Dollars a year—they to have the privilege of robbing said mails whenever they choose!

☞James M. Kenster, of the New Castle Journal, no longer "runs his machine" as a Democrat, but as an independent editor. It appears, by his own showing, that he has a horse, with which he visits at his leisure—two unheard-of traits of a country printer.

☞The Williamsport remonstrance against the re-annexation of Brady township to Union county, says: "Brady is now within six miles of the Court House in Williamsport." It is more than that as the crow flies, and double that as many have to go, over a heavy mountain and be "stalled" twice at that!

☞We are indebted to "S. H. F." for Dr. Eastman's Thanksgiving Sermon in Philad., —to Rev. E. L. Bailey, Carbondale, for his Thanksgiving Discourse—to some Michigan lawgiver for their Legislative publications—to Messrs. Killinger and Cameron for Washington favors—and to Messrs. Gregg, Hayes, Patterson, Brady, and Brower for documents from Harrisburg—and to Somebody (we don't know who) for other favors through the mails.

☞The Teachers' Institute now in session in Lewisburg, will be addressed this (Thursday) evening, by Prof. Bliss, and Friday evening by Prof. Sassaman of New Berlin, (at Independent Hall.) Rev. F Hendricks is lending his assistance. Mr. Bates, Deputy State Superintendent, was on his way here, when arrested by a telegraphic despatch announcing the dangerous illness of a child.

☞Last week, a very likely lad in Lewisburg, who has as good a home as any where, took a strange notion to "secede," and got as far west as Williamsport, where his purse gave out. He next sought to travel on his father's credit, who, on being informed of his son's whereabouts, kindly invited him home, and he came. Very much like South Carolina, which wants to "secede," started the wrong way, is cramped for funds, and will, doubtless yet be glad to be under Uncle Sam's roof again, if he will only coax enough.

☞Let's have an Election to pacify the Fire Eaters!" Why, man, there was an election but a few days ago—the largest, and fairest fought contest ever had. That election showed Three Million Majority against the Secessionists—One Million majority for Lincoln alone over Breckinridge, whose friends are kicking up all this trouble. What is the use of holding any election, if the defeated party wont submit? If defeated again, they will "secede" again. If our party is defeated, then—with their example before us—we may secede. Haven't we as good a right to rebel and break things as the slave-mongers have? We have had the Election already—let the minority submit. In four years, another election will occur, when those now in a minority may become a majority. For the present, to propose to trample upon the late Election, is both insulting and absurd.

"The Ruling Passion Strong in Death."—We see by the Harrisburg papers that Gov. Packer appointed his old-time fellow-operator, Phil. Dougherty, to expend the $3000 voted by the State to "furnish the Executive Mansion," and that a part of the old furniture was purchased of the Gov. by Phil. Some natural indignation was expressed that the new Governor was not allowed to make his own expenditure of that sum—but when it is reflected that this may be the last pull at the State's money these gentlemen may have, (until they get a chance in the $3,500 000, Sunbury & Erie,) all comments upon the indelicacy of the thing are needless: the money is gone, sure....This feeble attempt to keep a "White House" at Harrisburg on a small scale, is foolish, as well as expensive to the people; the Governor would save money, and his family enjoy the quiet of their own home better, by having their dwelling private, like other people, and letting all who wish to "see the Governor" go to Executive Chamber.

Judge White and a lot of hungry lawyers, a week or two since, met up the West Branch, somewhere in the woods, to find "Cameron county," but on getting together found no Court House, no Juries, no nothing," but an act of incorporation full of omissions and absurd commissions. So they smoked, told stories, sang some, drank a little, anathemized the Legislature, appointed a committee to prepare a County Act that would "stick," and went home with "many dollar" made except by the Court Crier and landlords who extemporized a county town somewhere in Shippen township.

General Jackson's Will.

In June, 1843, Gen. Jackson, in his retirement at the Hermitage, wrote his will with his own hand. In it, among other bequests, are two, which ought, at this time, to be published for present reading. The sentiments therein expressed, in this solemn document, evince more than Roman patriotism, and should sink deep into the hearts of the people. Here is the literal language of the illustrious dead:

"Seventh. I bequeath to my beloved nephew, Andrew J. Donelson, son of Samuel Donelson, deceased, the elegant sword presented to me by the State of Tennessee, with this injunction, That he fail not to use it when necessary in support and protection of our glorious Union, and for the protection of the constitutional rights of our beloved country, should they be assailed by foreign enemies or domestic traitors."

"Eighth. To my grand-nephew, Andrew Jackson Coffee, I bequeath the elegant sword presented to me by the rifle company of New Orleans, commanded by Capt. Beal, as a memento of my regard, and to bring to his recollection the gallant service of his deceased father, Gen. John Coffee, in the late Indian and British war, under my command, and his gallant conduct in defence of New Orleans in 1814-'15, with this injunction. That he wield it in the protection of the rights secured to the American citizen under our glorious Constitution, against all invaders, whether foreign foes, or intestine traitors."

A chap up the Ozinachson sued an editor in Williamsport for insinuating that he carried a burnt paving-stone in his caputcover. Tried at last Court. Jury found Deft not guilty, but must pay costs. As much as to say, Though true, you needn't have told it.

Effort is being made to erect Lycoming county into a separate judicial district. No wonder the people of peaceful Brady township seek to escape the load of taxes for crimes and litigation which this proposition fairly foreshadows.

"W. W. C." informs the Renwick Gazette that Gen. Wm. A. Stokes, of Westmoreland Co., Pa., has accepted the appointment to Orator before the Societies at the next Commencement of the University at Lewisburg, last of July and 1st Aug. 1861.

At the burial of Dr. Frick in Danville last week, the coffin was covered with the banner presented by the Ladies of Lewisburg to the Columbia Guards when on their way to the Mexican war.

The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Editorial Union will be held in Fulton Hall, Lancaster, Wednesday, Feb. 20, at 2 P M

☞We do not believe the last twelve years' "Union meetings" have had any influence except to encourage rebels and scoundrels, and humiliate honest lovers of law and constitutional freedom. A large and united assemblage in Beaver Tp, in Snyder Co, recently expressed the following sentiments, which, however true and manly, will have no more effect upon the traitors in arms than "Hush, my babe! lie still and slumber," would have upon a thunder-storm:

Resolved, That we have undoubted authority [Judge Douglas!] for saying that no law of Congress has been more faithfully executed than the Fugitive Slave Law.

Resolved, That upon examination of our national political affairs, we are persuaded we have not violated the rights of the South—that they have no just cause for Secession—and therefore we do not feel like humbling ourselves before Southern fanaticism.

COMMENDATIONS.

From Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, M. C., Ohio

My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the "New and Future is more life-like than any thing they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presented so true to nature, all the features and peculiarities of countenance as this.

From Hon. E. J. Morris, late Minister to Italy.

The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your pictures, colored as they are with their surpassing richness of coloring and delicate shadows, are unsurpassed, and entitle them to the admiration and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

From Col. James Page.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a man as well as an artist, whose skill in the delineation of the human face divine would make a grateful present in expressing the sentiments even one, but owing to the excellence of the likeness, and its artistic finish, in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art. 8m866 JAMES PAGE.

LINDSEY'S Improved BLOOD SEARCHER,

A STANDARD MEDICINE

For the speedy and permanent cure of ALL diseases arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD!

THIS medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of

Scrofula	Cancerous formations,
Cutaneous diseases,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Pimples on the face,	Fever Sores, Fever Heads,
Old, stubborn Ulcers,	Rheumatic disorders,
Tetter or Salt-rheum,	Costiveness,
Dyspepsia, Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Mercurial diseases,	General debility,
Liver Complaint,	Loss of Appetite,
Low spirits,	Foul Stomach,
Female Complaints—and all diseases having their origin in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of David M'Creary, of Napier Township, on the 21st day of August last, made sightly by the use of Lindsey's Blood Searcher, after he had been given over by three physicians of Beaver county, and by Dr. Watson of this place, to die. They said he had a period of months of light remaining, before death would close on, and a portion of his left cheek were entirely eaten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although sadly ill disfigured, there is no question but the invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable cure may be read in a Circular to be had at any of the Agents.

We also refer to a cure of Negro Hannah, of Elderton, Armstrong Co., Pa., cured of Scrofula after being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the cure of a lady in Amsterville, Clearfield Co., who was also afflicted with Scrofula in the worst form.

To the cure of George Mason, residing in Carrolltown, Cambria Co., Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it eat his entire nose off, and his case was worse, if possible, than M'Creary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the "Blood Searcher"—may also be found in a
