Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, FEB. 22, 1861.

A PROSPECTUS—Manufacturers, Mechanics, Merchants, Professional Gentlemen in City and Country, Publishers—Editors, Lawyers in City and Country, Publishers—Farmers, Drovers, Lumbermen, and all others who would be benefited by a Newspaper—The Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large circulation in the surrounding counties, containing a full statement of all the local markets, is a desirable medium for advertising all kinds of business, and reaches every portion of society in the State.

Union County Court.

Upon reaching Lewisburg Monday morning, Judge Woodward was met by a telegraphic despatch announcing the sudden demise of his deceased wife's sister, (Miss Ellen Scott,) a member of his family, who he had recently left in a convalescent state. As it developed upon him to superintend her burial at Wilkesbarre, he opened the Court but could remain only until noon of that day.

Robt. V. Gowen, of Harrison, was appointed Foreman of the Grand Jury. The District Attorney having no business to lay before them, they examined the Court House, recommended a better mode of warming the prisoners, and were discharged by the Associates early on Monday afternoon!

Dunwoody, Binaghi, and Lyons were elected Wardens of the Court.

Jos. F. Cummings and others, convicted at a previous Court having "sweated" with their prosecutors, were sentenced to pay a nominal fine, with costs, &c.

In the case of the bill against six young men in White Deer, found at last Court, they pled guilty, and were fined each ten cts and costs. It seems that at the late Oct. election there was brought into the Election House, greeting with curious conduct as the oldest inhabitants there had ever witnessed. The recital has fired the county, and framing a sufficient punishment is already inflicted upon the names of his confederates.

Tavern licenses were granted to Thomas Gross, of New Columbia, and Jacob Deckard, of Millmont. D. D. Golden's application was withdrawn—that of D. Brewer being unopposed—and Charles Breisbach's application was dismissed.

John C. Hoats was decreed a divorce from Dolly Hoats.

Tuesday was occupied in helping a bastard [illegible] to be hit"—the other having been convicted in vain under the Law Judge Allen pursued Court, which only terminated on the ground that

"The [illegible]
Had not a primary fellowship,
But were a couple of rascals."

Unto our Associates—save witness failing to put his own name as bondsman—the property was restored, the Jury finding Peter Beaty not responsible now. The mother (Sarah Troutman, of Limestone) was also ordered to put up with the names and residence of the [illegible]—and yet her appearance indicated as was the advantages of education and the position of a wife, she might be a useful and respectable member of society.

Wednesday, Hon. James H Graham of Centre, Conner and Perry and Juniata Judicial district by request of Judge Wilson, presided. An Ejectment case (Eaton vs Bottenfield) occupied that day, and up to the hour of our going to press, Thursday afternoon

—An Adj. Court is appointed 25th March

☞The Union County Agricultural Society, at its annual meeting, exhibited a prosperous state of finances—land and fixtures paid for—$250 in the Treasury, and no debts unless some unclaimed premiums should be called for.

The following Officers were chosen:

President—Col. Eli Slifer.

Vice Presidents—C. W. Schoffle, South Ward; Sol. Ritter, North Ward; James Lewis, Kelly; David Henning, Buffalo; S. V. B. Linnon, Hartley; E. F. Gundy, East Buffalo; Isaac Eyer, Union—(the other Districts not represented.)

Treasurer—Robert H. Laird.

Rec'g Sec'y—John A. Mertz.

Cor'g Sec'y—Thomas Reber.

Chemist—John M'Call.

Geologist—Frances Wilson.

Librarian—Andrew Hauck.

On motion of O. N. Worden, seconded by A. M. Lawshe, it was unanimously

Resolved, That the hearty thanks of the Union County Agricultural Society are eminently due, and are hereby tendered, to our late President, Capt JACOB GUN for his faithful, successful, and self-sacrificing services as President of the Society, from its organization up to this time. We recognize him as one of the most active and sagacious founders of the institution at its feeble commencement, in New Berlin, in 1852. He to-day leaves the Society out of debt, we trust on the high road to usefulness and enlarged prosperity, and with the highest esteem of its Members and fellow Officers.

☞The Grand Jury of Union County at Feb Term had not one bill brought before it, and was discharged on the first day. What county of 15,000 people can show as peaceable and pure a state of society? What do Brady Tp and the upper end of Northumberland Co. say to that?

☞The last Thursday (28th) of Feb. is the day this year set apart by Christians generally, to be observed publicly or privately, for especial prayer that God would convert to His work the students in our colleges and other seminaries of learning.

☞It will be seen that the original, versatile, Gen. Tom Thumb, will be in town next week after next. Mr. Stratton and Mr. Nutt are not the same gentleman, by any means, as all will see by calling on him.

☞Lost in Lewisburg, one or two weeks since, a $3 Chemung Bill (New York.) If the finder will return it to the Chronicle office, the owner will "compromise"—in the right way, by the copper rule, "give and take."

☞We see that Chas T. Huston, Esq., is elected Inspector of Elections, West Ward, Williamsport. A Breckenridge county! but the Douglasites elected the County Delegates to Harrisburg.

☞The Milton Cornet Band have just treated themselves to a new sett of German silver instruments, and intend holding a Concert in Academy Hall, Milton, this evening.

☞Public sale at the late John L. Gearhart's, in Buffaloe Tp, near the Brushach Church, Friday, March 29.

Gen. George W. M. Nutt,

And Miss BELTON—probably the two most perfect Dwarfs of the day—will give their closing levees in Independent Hall, Lewisburg, this afternoon and evening. The prices—15 and 10 cents—are so low that all desiring can attend. Schools will be admitted as such at specified rates.

We have called upon the little General and the little Lady, the former of whom has the company of his older brother, and the latter that of the daughter of the manager, and find them intelligent youths, most perfectly formed. The General is a hearty eater, loves to play out doors, drive, or ride horses, and enjoys uninterrupted good health. His slow growth is accompanied by no pain or disfigurement. Miss Belton we found industriously engaged in sewing, and makes one think of the busy little fairies "we used to read about."

Our people generally will not regret the time or expense of visiting and hearing this petite couple. The afternoon would be the best time for ladies, or those to infirm health, to attend. To-morrow, they may be seen in Milton.

☞It is not designed to take up money at the proposed Kansas Meeting, next Monday evening, but to provide ways that all our citizens may contribute. Our friends in the country, out of their immediate, should give something—and remember, most of the starving and dying in Kansas are farmers, whose hopes of crops were cut off by the drouth, and who, in their scattered homes, amid severe snows, had neither strength nor ways to secure the means of subsistence to themselves, their children and their boasts—help your brother farmers, the country settlers, who most need it.

☞We learn from Mr. Hayes—per John A Gest, Esq U. S. Steamer "Wyandotte," who arrived here Wednesday evening—that the Brady Township bill passed the House almost unanimously, Wednesday morning; the matter to be finally decided by a vote of the township. (At the Township Election on Friday last, the "friends of the Union" carried the day by a divided majority.)

The bill commuting (not wholly repealing) the Tonnage Tax on the Penn'a Railroad, passed the House last week by a two to one vote—both our Members voting against it.

A Sunbury (now Philadelphia) & Erie Bill was also passed by a large vote—Hayes for, and Patterson against it. For the bill, 18 Dem. Reps; against it, 10 Democrats.

If the people desire to arrest either of these before the Governor or Senate, they must move vigorously, or the plots will be consummated.

Mr. Hayes presented a petition from citizens of Hartley, Lewis and West Buffalo, in Union county, for a law relating to roads in said townships. Referred to the Committee on Roads, Bridges and Canals.

"GREAT FALL OF GRAIN"—Saturday evening last, part of the flooring of a storeroom, on the Main street in Millinburg, gave way under the pressure of some thousands of bushels of Wheat, there stored. Hundreds of bushels fell into water standing in the cellar. The building was formerly occupied as a Store by J. & J. Young and T. G. Orwig & Co. The wheat belonged to Wm. Young.

EXCESSIVE COLD—After the Lewisburg and Spruce Creek coach had left Spring Mills, on Thursday last, and proceeded but a short distance, the driver and passengers discovered a carpet-bag lying in the snow, near the road. The driver dismounted and secured it, after which he moved on a few rods when he espied a large walking-stick. On seeing this, apprehensions were aroused, and the terrible suspicion that the owner of the bag and stick might be frozen was soon confirmed by the discovery of a man, who, overcome by the cold, had laid himself down to die. He was lying in a fence corner, his head being placed among some pine boughs which answered as a pillow, and partially protected him from the wind. When they undertook to raise him up, he was found to be frozen fast to the ground, and, apparently, dead. Restoratives were instantly applied, life appeared to revive, he was placed in the stage brought to the Old Fort, where, under the humane treatment of the host and his lady, he was fully restored. He says his name is Snyder, and that he is a resident of Union county.

On the same day, a man was found in a sleigh, on the pike between Millroy and Lewistown, perfectly unconscious, caused by the intense cold which prevailed at the time. Under the care of his rescuers, he was soon enabled to pass on his way rejoicing.—Bellefonte Press, 14th inst.

The body of an unknown man, was found floating in the River at Muncy, by Fleming Edwards, on Wednesday week. He is supposed to be an Irishman, aged about 30 or 35 years, 5 feet 6 inches high, had thin red whiskers, dark hair, and had on steel mixed satinet pants, muslin over alls, knit woolen under-shirt, heavy coarse boots, with a small patch on the leg of one of the boots, short woolen stockings, black cloth vest, and a leather strap buckled around his waist. An inquest was held by Wm P. I. Painter, Esq., and the body interred on Thursday last in one of the public lots in the Cemetery.

The Governor has issued his writ for the execution of Cathcart, convicted of murder in Clearfield county. The condemned will suffer the penalty on Friday the 12th day of April next.

The body of the Irishman who fell through the railroad bridge at Northumberland and drowned, last October, was found near Selinsgrove a few days ago.

A man named Wm. Weaver is confined in the Perry County jail awaiting his trial for poisoning his wife.

☞Thanks for numerous new patrons for the STAR & CHRONICLE this week. Our list of regular subscribers is now the largest it has ever been. (If any did not avail themselves of the chances for Clubbing, they can do so on Spring Election Day—10th March.)
