Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAR. 8, 1861.

ATTENTION.—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics & Professional men in City and Country. Publishers of a paper with as large a circulation as any paper in the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large number of intelligent readers, many of whom are prominent men in their respective localities in a community containing a large amount of wealth, intelligence, and enterprise, would do well to advertise therein, as well as in the State.

☞ Subscribers whose terms expire with the present number are requested to call at our office and renew their subscriptions at once, if they wish to get our paper regularly. In almost every Election District in this County, a Paper of Ten for $10, can be raised, if one or more try.

☞ Owing to the universal anxiety to read Buchanan's Inaugural, we this week issue our paper a few hours earlier than usual. We shall also issue it on Thursday next, in order to have time to print Tickets for the Spring Elections—Friday, 15th inst.

☞ The Term of next week, (15th inst.) for the Annual Elections for Township and Borough officers in this and many other counties. The persons then to be elected, are the men to whom we must look for the protection of our homes, our property, and our rights; and should be carefully selected for their integrity and fitness.

☞ The Night Express Train up the Susquehanna and West Branch was put on again last week.

☞ The eligible corner Lot (with dwelling and other improvements) opposite the Lutheran Chapel in this Borough is offered for sale in our columns.

☞ Sale by Geo. W. Kelly, at the late home of Joseph Kelly, dec'd, in Kelly Tp., Thursday, March 21st.

☞ By Tom. Jull, in East Buffalo, Saturday, March 23d.

☞ Miss Mary L. Neyhart, a graduate of the Lewisburg Female Institute, has taken the School School in Milton. The Misses Rice have charge of the Seminary in Lebanon.

☞ The Millheim publishes two men entitled to that paper—both of whom have paid us like men. Must be some mistake somewhere—at the Advance System always best.

☞ Truman Nagle's sale in Kelly, Thursday of last week, was perhaps the largest of any held in the county—a natural consequence of his advertising it in mediums extensively, and in all the county newspapers.

☞ Some Woodland, and a number of Town Lots, are offered for sale today in our columns. Now is the time to secure Lots at reasonable rates. If not needed for immediate use, you may get them for your family at some future day, or for sale. They afford good chance to bestow extra labor, by setting trees, shrubbery, &c.

☞ We are informed that the Republicans of Millmburg, on the evening of the 4th, fired a salute of 34 anvils—tolled church bells for the out-going, and rung them for the in-coming Administration—killing Secessionism in effigy.

Upon receiving the Message, in Lewisburg Tuesday eve'g, Press' Martial Band paraded with the good old National air, and as Northern "powder was smelt," many of announcing Abraham's position in favor of a great people.

☞ The President and all his Cabinet matured in States which all join each other—except, border, conservative States—six Rates (a native of Virginia) in Missouri, Lincoln, (a native of Kentucky) in Illinois, Smith, in Indiana, Chase, (a native of New Hampshire) in Ohio, Blair in Maryland, Cameron in Pennsylvania, Seward in New York, and Welles in Connecticut. These (with Hamlin of Maine) represent 12 different States. Other distinguished men, in Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, and Kentucky, it is said, was offered seats in the Cabinet, but they—although strong Union men, and in that particular earnestly desirous of the success of the Administration, and the prosperity of the Union—declined, on the ground that their acceptance might and would be misapprehended at home, and elsewhere, doing themselves and the government perhaps more harm than good. But as long as Mr. Lincoln makes no attack upon Slavery in the States, the General Government will find its strong supporters among the candid and intelligent men of the Border Slave States.

Dorsey Henlen, the Irishman who murdered his wife in Williamsport, while drunk, was arrested, but has since cut his own throat, with a razor borrowed from another prisoner, and died. He first put the murdered body in a meat barrel, then dug a hole and buried it under his wood pile. Catheart, under sentence of death in Clearfield county, also for the murder of his own wife, has hung himself in his cell. When will men stop drinking and settling the cause of so much misery and crime?

The new House of worship erected at McKees Half Falls, will be dedicated to Almighty God, on Sunday the 10th of March next. Bishop Glossbrenner of the United Brethren church, and the Rev. Thomas Reese of the M. E. Church, will be present to conduct the services, as well as other distinguished clergymen from other parts of the country.

Rev Henry Hilbish of Freeburg has been elected Principal of the Academy of that place.

Mr Otto, an old gentleman of Mahanoy, was killed at the Treverton Bridge, by a train on the Railroad, Wednesday week. He had been to Sunbury attending to business, and went down on the Northern Central train. Upon getting out at Treverton station, he walked on the railroad track, and, being deaf, was run over by a train coming across the bridge.

The present winter has been everything desirable for promoting the healthy condition of the Wheat crop. Traitors may have conspired to destroy our country, but Providence has not deserted us.

He is Inaugurated!

Besides Toombs' threat of "ten thousand men with swords drawn crossing the Potomac" to prevent Lincoln's inauguration—and Wise's boast that he would not submit to Lincoln as President—and the brags, and various mysterious, oracular hints, and winks, and bets, among Post Masters, "roughs," and others in the North, that "you'll never see Old Abe in that char"—and the diabolical plot to assassinate him, by Baltimore "Plug Uglys," which was ferreted out by detective police and averted by Lieut. Gen. Scott.....notwithstanding all these, LINCOLN and HAMLIN, on Monday the 4th inst., were peacefully inducted into office as President and Vice President of the United States.

At 11, A. M., Messrs. Buchanan and Lincoln, with two of the Committee of Arrangements, proceeded in a carriage in the procession as arranged, and entering the North door of the North wing of the Capitol, when the two former proceeded to the President's Room. A large police force was stationed at the door, and none but the ladies and those mentioned in the Programme were admitted. Quiet and good order prevailed throughout the proceedings. The Oath was administered to Mr. Lincoln at 2, P. M., and received with evidently serious emotions. As he stepped upon the platform, the Band struck up "Hail Columbia," and cheering continued half an hour. He delivered his Inaugural Address, in a clear and firm voice, before (it is said) the largest audience ever gathered on such an occasion. It was received with great applause—the private citizen, James Buchanan, swinging his hat and hurraing with the loudest.

Generals Scott and Wool were on duty with ample forces scattered over the City to preserve order, but Toombs, Wise, and their confederates kept a safe distance.

Ex-President Buchanan behaved handsomely towards President Lincoln, surrendering to himself and family the People's Mansion early on the 4th. He leaves more than he found there, including the California E & Horn Chair, made by Seth Kinman, formerly of Union Co. Pa.

The most fanciful and only partizan affair in the procession was an elaborately prepared car, carrying thirty four young ladies, emblematic of the sisterhood of States, guarded by Wide Awakes.

On reaching the White House, President Lincoln met Gen. Scott, by whom he was warmly greeted. The doors were thrown open, the President took his position in the reception room, which thousands of persons passed through. The President appeared in excellent spirits, giving each one a cordial grasp and smile.

At evening, the inmates of the White House were left to prepare for their much needed rest, but the City was alive with an Inauguration Ball on the grandest scale, and private parties and receptions by distinguished Republicans and private citizens.

BY TELEGRAPH.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The Senate unanimously confirmed the nominations of Messrs. Seward, Cameron, Chase, Welles, and Smith. Bates and Blair were voted against by Mason of Va., Congman and Bragg of N.C., and Mitchell of Ark. To-morrow, at 10, the Cabinet meets. Wigfall and Hemphill of Texas leave to night to assume seats in Montgomery Congress.

BALTIMORE. Mr. Buchanan was rec'd here enthusiastically this afternoon, and will be escorted to Lancaster to-morrow by the Baltimore City Guards.

RALEIGH, N.C. As far as known, the Inaugural is satisfactorily received. Returns from 62 counties show 65 Unionists elected to 33 Secessionists.

KENTUCKY. Union men favorably impressed with the Inaugural's language.

Louisiana—Mississippi. The Inaugural generally condemned as a war declaration.

Montgomery, Ala. Flag of Southern Confederacy agreed upon—hoisted over Capitol yesterday at 4. P M.

Change of Sentiment.

The Springfield Journal says:

"There has been, since the late Election, a wonderful change among our Fusion friends. An election held today in our city, would undoubtedly give a majority for the Republican ticket. The action of the South will soon make an united North."

The N. York Township Elections show Republican gains among the farming people—cool, calm, reading men, who vote intelligently and dispassionately. The course of Slavery in her present Revolutionary attempt to destroy if she can not rule, has made thousands hate who before regarded it with indifference, and makes its former opponents more set and decided. Honest men, everywhere, begin to see the fact that Slavery has no more regard for Whites than for Negroes—it uses them both for its own ends, and when it can not cheat or cajole them, it tries to alarm, injure, and coerce. It is the cause of most of our troubles as a nation, and should be allowed no more power to agitate and degrade the mass of the people. Now is the time to put it down as the ruling power, and unite all good men in the Union Party.

The City Authorities at Washington extended courtesies to Mr. Buchanan and Mr. Lincoln, the old and the new Presidents. The Baltimore City Guard tendered their services to escort Mr. Buchanan home to Lancaster. [They are getting wise in Baltimore, since Lincoln gave them the slip.]

The people of Virginia (in all but 16 counties not heard from) demanded by a majority of 32,000 votes, that the acts of their Convention in session shall be submitted to a popular vote before going into effect.

Recent advices from England and France confirm the report, that the Southern Slave Government meets no sympathy from either the people or government of those countries.

"The darkest scene we ever saw was a born blind darkey in a windowless cellar at midnight groping with an unlighted dark lantern after a black cat that wasn't that!"

☞ Of a little inkier hue is the grim, eyeless monster Secession, begotten in the nethermost pit of heaven's first rebel, by Tyler, Cobb, Floyd, and Twiggs—traitors and ungrateful wretches, before whom Judas Iscariot and Benedict Arnold would blush and turn pale!

Before going out of office, Buchanan pardoned Vondersmith, who by forged papers yearly swindled Government out of thousands for pretended Pensioners. The two worthies will probably reach Lancaster about the same time.

Captain Meigs, whom Secretary Floyd saw fit to remove to Florida because he would not become his tool, has been restored to his work on the aqueduct at Washington.

Mr. Hayes, presented in place a bill "relative to the Commissioners of Union County." [Why not let the people of Union county know what the bill is?]

COMMENDATIONS.

From Hon. James Buchanan, late President of the United States.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1, 1860.

My friend, Mr. Newell, has requested me to express my opinion of the Photographs which he has taken of me during my late visit to Washington. I am happy to say that I have been highly pleased with them. They are executed in the finest style of the art, and I have no doubt will be duly appreciated by all who may call at his Gallery.

From Hon. Simon Cameron, late Minister to Russia.

I have much pleasure in stating that I considered your Photographs of me, taken during my late visit to Washington, as very good likenesses, and that I have frequently received compliments upon them from my friends.

From Hon. James Pollock, late Director of the Mint.

Having carefully examined your Photographs, I pronounce them to be unsurpassed in the art. Your rooms are also admirably adapted to the purpose, and I take great pleasure in recommending you to the patronage of all who appreciate true art.

LINDSEY'S Improved

BLOOD SEARCHER,

A STANDARD MEDICINE

For the speedy and permanent relief and cure of ALL diseases arising from an IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

THIS medicine is becoming, as the most miraculous cures of the most obstinate cases of

Scrofula	Cancerous formations,
Rheumatism,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Salt Rheum, Sore Eyes,	Scald Head,
Ulcers in the Throat,	Humors, Blotches,
Tetter, Pimples,	Carbuncles,
Dyspepsia, Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Neuralgia, Headache,	General debility,
Mercurial diseases,	Loss of Appetite,
Liver Complaint,	Low spirits,
Female Complaints,	Want of Energy,

all of which have their origin in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a correct likeness of David M'Creary, of Naylor Township, Clearfield Co., Pa., made affidavit before me on the 1st day of August, 1859, that he was cured of Scrofula in the worst form, by the use of Lindsey's Blood Searcher, after being reduced to a skeleton, and given up by the physicians of Clearfield county, and by Dr. Lindsey, of Curwensville, Clearfield county, and by Dr. Lindsey's Blood Searcher alone. Also, Mrs. Catharine Cunningham, of Curwensville, Clearfield Co., Pa., who was afflicted with Cancer that ate a hole through her breast, and has come was worse, if possible, than M'Creary's.

The certificates of these two remarkable cures, one of which was sworn to before a Justice of the Peace, and the other before a Notary Public, can be seen at the office of the Agents.

For particulars of these and numerous other cures, see pamphlets, which can be had gratis of the Agents.
