COUNTY STAR AND

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.

At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1861.

"THE UNION," established in 1814-Whole No., 2,462. "CHRONICLE," established in 1843 --- Whole No., S83.

MOVDAY, MARCH 11, 1861.

Whittier on the Union.

mplane, and the southern dutit and by the lakes of the best modes and the first lakes and the facilities and

Betarang page of Jefferson bests Franklin's can height) in the North give up her least in Virth win - a mer divide, with equal hand, a heritage of graves of in twain the starty ring than o'cl them proudly

THE INAUGURAL of President Lin- Amending the U. S. Constitution.

10 NOT BELIEVE one-half the Sen-

We refer to pretended violent personal hase, or so magnified as to be unrelia- equal suffrage in the Senate.

where he is himself responsible, no one damental law? akes more pains to look at every side of -But, at the recent session of Conb lare no ruler-either of a single man, was proposed, as follows: a of a cabal or elique-over him. Firm Joint Resolution to Amend the Conwithout stubbornness—gentle without stitution of the United States.

**Attests—becomes because the states of the states of the Senate and House *akness be seems to have the personal Representatives of the United States of America and the true men, among the common peophilosophers and patriots, will submit like It is, therefore, duly presented as an ad-ax respresses Famer Journal men, and not get out of heart and temper ditional Article of our National Constituthe street of any such and revenge themselves on the cause they tion, and as such is, by the choice of Conhave professed to love.

Simon Cameron, Fa., Secretary Wall. man, naturally considers himself best entitled now in session. to the preference. The appointing power The only question, as we view it, reto the preference. The appointing power arrely knows anything of the contestants. specting the adoption of this Article is, Is Edward Bates, Mo., Attorney General. He, doubtless, may mistake, yet be always if "NECESSARY?" Its expediency or endeavors to do as near right, for the per- its rightfalness may be granted, but its sons and the party, as he can; and the necessity may not be so apparent. Those number and influence of the friends of the who voted against it, believed it to be unapplicants generally determine his decision. ne course, and therefore inexpedient. The Our Member, Mr. Killinger, no doubt Constitution, it is thought by many, is aldesigns to give all a fair chance. The ready sufficiently explicit on that point a banded close of the Quarter (31st March) is a con. This is merely a repetition, in less foreible venient time for changing Post Offices, language, of one of the doctrines of the but all may not be reached as soon as that. Chicago Platform, which reads thus:

Difference of Principle."

This is a motto to be treasured up in the hearts and acted out in the life of the friends of Lincoln at the present time They were formerly of different parties, has the search Benedican part. Just 6. William and are of different temperaments and lecalities. While all agree substantially in the ends to be reached, it may often haprestort the first at Lexington and crimmoned bright pen that they may differ in their estimate of the best modes and times of accomplish-

In his Cabinet, there are Mesers. Seward and Chase, original Anti-Slavery men shim September brings the free between - Cameron, Blair, and Welles, old-time Democrats, who sustained Fremont-and her they describe lengths to great the smalley weed. Batter, and Smith, old line. Whige, who supported Fillmore in 1856. Each of these may have peculiar views of policy licans denies the proposition contained in ted States. He was a particular personal National Convention that nominated Gen. plain dictates of entrained that has done this and Authors the proposition contained that has done this and of expedience, and yet harmonize in the Amendment—a part of their own friend of Henry Clay. His eminent fire Scott—and himself received a handsome to the highest happiness of man, are all by, the sentiment that has done this and Shower ten its tole is tall, it does the chief and the first the state of Secretary of State, is planform—yet the singular spectacle was best for the office of Secretary of State, is rote at Chicago for President. He is pro-

Millions of People on the Atlantic Coast to govern, had no barder task before them forms. open, armed teleliion, electrisged and generous, conceding, and allow much latitude of epinion where so vast questions from each other-jet we all now agree ciently demonstrated their courage and they meant to plan for the best. So let their faithfulness to principle, in the face of Post Master General. His residence they meant to plan for the best. So let their faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest Nations of the Earth they meant to plan for the best. So let their faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest Nations of the Earth they meant to plan for the best. So let their faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest Nations of the Earth they meant to plan for the best. So let their faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest Nations of the Earth they meant to plan for the best. So let their faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest Nations of the Earth they meant to plan for the best. So let their faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest Nations of the Earth they meant to plan for the best. So let their faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest Nations of the Earth they meant to plan for the best. So let their faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest Nations of the Earth they meant to plan for the best. So let their faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest Nations of the Earth they meant to plan for the best. So let their faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest Nations of the Earth they meant to plan for the best. So let their faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest Nations of the Earth they meant to plan for the best. So let their faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest Nations of the Earth they meant to plan for the best national they meant to plan for the best national they make the faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest national they make the faithfulness to principle, in the face of the mightiest national they meant to plan for the best national they make the faithfulness to plan for the faithfu Bear in mind the golden maxim-"In uon-

t has ere this doubtless received a wider The written Bill of Rights and Agreecirclation and more critical scruting than ment of Government denominated the ramotype common-places and matters-of- Divine ordinance, like the Ten Commandtraise, he addresses himself to the one ments engraven on stone, or the Golden tags sing national issue before us-Lab. Rule of the Savier of men. It is merely eny and Union, against Anarchy and the work of human beings, by counsel Issunian. It is, doubtless, wholly his among themselves, to secure every person een composition-every word and sen- in his natural privileges, and to settle catence-and is said to have been revised, see of dispute that might arise. In our and the concluding stirring paragraphs spreading country, and amid the changing they have been so told by thousands of sided, during the morning of the day it circumstances of business, it is not to be was read. Its contents were known only expected that no variation would ever be whimself... As a matter of course, it is needed-and accordingly, that Constituwarmself. As a matter of course, it is needed—and accordingly, that Constitu-smalled by all who are determined to be non-itself has one Armele providing for past, in official Messages, spread the same a Protective Tariff man and against the ments, or compulsion. They represent all poet of success, and of the establishment could it be established, that the settled the Republican press. We commend it to on the application of the Legislatures of two the serious, fair attention of every rightminded person. It is perfect in temper, which, person is perfect in temper, which is perfect in temper. who Despatches sent from Washington fourths thereof, as the one of the other made Constitution, "in black and white." tt Political Topics. Many of them are Provided, That he Amendments which may *bull-cloth lies, got up to fan the flame be made prior to the year one thousand eight tween Anarchy and Law, waging in sever-bull make papers sell. Many of these bundred and eight, shall in any magner affect all slave holding States, there are many e first and fourth clauses in the ninth sec-Surreis between prominent Republicans - without its consent, shall be deprived of its

We The truth is, the friends of the dif- With this privilege of frequent changes. from candidates have not begun to ex. it is a most remarkable fact that over half that the fierceness and personal rivalry of a century has clapsed since any Amendthe Dimiteracy on the eve of Inaugura. ment to this Constitution has been made. tions. Foolish and warm words are al. There were amendments in 1793, 1799, ways spoken on such occasions, but the and 1803-the last, fifty-eight years ago! Republican canvass has had less of it than Is not the simple fact a proud proof of the virtue and efficacy of that instrument-so MR Liscoln is President-that is long a time, in such an expanding, thrierrain. But while he decides for himself ving land, without one change in its fun-agreemen; he hears all as far as he can, gress, one Amendment (moved by Thomas to treats each with respect. He designs Corwin, a leading Republican from Ohio)

Qualifications most needed for his most an Congress assembled, (two thirds of both trivings and responsible office.

Representations of the Congress assembled, (two thirds of both Houses concurring.) That the following artiele be proposed to the Legislatures of the ser-THE OFFICES - By next week, probe crais area as an amendment to the Constitu-

ART is. No amendment shall be made to the American flag and probably (until a better spirit prele appointed in a place—that is certain. In Congress the power to abolish or interfere, which will authorize or give and probably (until a better spirit prestrong, and good. If it be not worthy of disorganizing spirit may contained the not worthy of disorganizing spirit may contained to the formation which will authorize or give and probably (until a better spirit prethe appointed in a place—that is certain. In Congress the power to abolish or interfere, valls) will not even take it into consideration which will authorize or give and probably (until a better spirit presuppose to be a native of that State. He pled upon the American flag at Covington, obedience, reverence and support, as apus nothing in comparison of yielding. I proximating to the lemands of consciouce, immeasurable This the favored one-where there are within any State, with the domestic institu- tion. One of the loyal States, then, vo- is a bale-looking man, of about sixty years Ky., a few days since, has been fined $20 tions thereof, including that of persons held to ting (the Seceders silent or averse) against and connected with the Press and confest of the Bouse, this amendment was aptered and connected with the Press and confest of the Prodigal Son was a Scripture case and connected with the Press and connected with the Pre But one thing is sure, and that is, and in the Senate by 21 Year to 12 Neys tience may bring them all in.

Of course, there are now (as ever) ma- tion, to the Legislatures of the several

"Resided. That the maintenance inviola the Star and Chronicle. "Every Difference of Opinion is not a of the rights of the States, and e-pectally the Difference of Principle." udgment exclusively, is essential to the bal we denounce the lawless invasion by armed force of the soil of any State of Territory, no matter under what pretext, as among the gra-

Moreover, a few weeks ago, on motion of another Republican, the same sentiment as that embodied in the proposed Amendment passed the House by a wannimmes vote. To repeat the vote, seemed child's play. To gravely state a self-evideut fact, was as silly and foolish as for a congregation of divines to vote that men are not at liberty to kill and eat their

of the majority is clearly against him on any question not involving vital principles.

Washington and his Cabinet, with Four and analysis and present voting against one of the fundational articles of their creed, and every assumed the sound at the son, Fred W. Seward, Washington and his Cabinet, with Four and proposity is clearly against him on present voting against one of the fundational and resisted the son of the fundational and resisted than Lincoln and his Cabinet have in ad Another of jection to its acceptance was, moustering the Laws to Thirty-One Mil- that it seemed one of a series of attempted lions of People scattered from Ocean to menuecs and efforts to degrade the Repub-Ocean, with Three or Four Millions in licans, on the part of the Slaveocracy, ed to Northumberland county. His father Point, afterwards studied law and settled in execution. If the wisest statement of the law and settled in execution. a late powerful dominant party? With treasons, they were not willing to look at inheritance from him but a virtuous, mansuch difficulties before them, R publicans anything like negotiating with traitors, —both in and out of power—should be generous, conceding, and allow much latinessary tautilegy.

State the age of 16 or 17 Simon one of the Judges of the Court of Claims, the best men in a community from active particular, which sits at Washington, but his Reputbest men in a community from active particular, and fortification of the Federal Constitution, are before them. The Patriots of the Our own opinion is, that the main body Bear in mind the golden maxim—"In nonselection, Liberty; in coentials, Unity; to the rebels in arms, but for other reaencycle femiles mountain gates, Nelections and in all things, Cherry."

Bear in mind the golden maxim—"In nonessentials, Liberty; to the rebels in arms, but for other reaencycle femiles mountain gates, Nelections."

Sons—we think it would be well for the Legislature of Pennsylvania, and of all the other States, to ratify this Amendment. rathed by the Legislatures of three-fourths of ren. To disabuse these people it may be

> Besides these, in the great contest beal slave holding States, there are many on of the first article; and that no State good and true public men, fighting a desperate battle for the General Government in its integrity, who claim that such a decision, from the great mass of the States, embodied in the highest and most permanent legal authority, is necessary for their standing and triumph.

As the Amendment, then, is a mere iteration of a well-known and admitted Republican principle-and as it may do something to dissipate the evils which wicked and designing men have created in the South, and thus greatly strengthen the hands of the better classes-we should, as at present advised, vote for its ratification. If the Slave States choose to sponsibility. We shall have shown our willingness to go to every extent possible to satisfy all reasonable men. We shall stay the ravages of Tresson. We shall ple of the South, who compose the nucleus of Republicanism there.

by three fourths of sate regressioners, and my o claims by charge that they by three fourths and purposes, as part of have "seconded" and declare that they "About this time" (as the Almanae says) the said Constitution; namely:

ART 13. No amendment shall be made to and probably (until a better spirit pretions thereof, including that of persons need to the Amendment, it would fail. But as fach having peculiar claims and hopes, In the House, this amendment was apgress, submitted, for ratification or rejec- Wm. H. Seward, N.Y., Secretary State. Simon Cameron, Pa., Secretary War. Salmon P. Chase, O., Secre'v Treasury. Caleb B. Smith, Ind., Secre'v Interior.

> ABRAHAM LINCOLN, born in Kentucky, Feb. 12, 1809, little or to schoolingfarmer's boy, fict-boatman, store keeper, surveyor-Captain in the Black Hank nar-lawyer-and Whig Member of the Illinois Legislature and of Congress ... is too well known to require any personal introduction.

HANNIBAL HAMLIN, born in Maine, Aug 27, 1809-printer, lawyer, and farmer-was 4 years in the State Logislature, once Governor, twice elected Member, and twice a Senator in Congress...also needs only this allusion to his history.

Sketches of the New Cabinet.

WILLIAM HENRY SEWARD is a native

he shall stand before kings.") In 1824, ington City. and yet may be in another. Some few Printer for a time. In 1831, Gen. Jack- ners of Mexican Claims by Gen Taylor or subjects. Robeltion against such a post of Secretary of the Treasury by the is not a Free Trader as charged by some while to change my habits now." Republicanism there.

There are 34 States legally in the against him, but will act with the Republicanism The United States forts built in South

-was some time Post Master at Hartford, for that offence.

ARRAHAM LINCOLN, Ell., President. Department, and can thus do justice to HANNIBAL HAMLIN, Me., Vice Pres. one of the great "peculiar institutions" of the Yankees. He is styled "Governor." served in the Navy Department with honor under President Polk, but the Repeal of Montgomery Blair, Md., Post M. General. deed, "and the end is not yet." Lincoln principles around which the scattered rather than see it dishonored and overdoubtless led to the appointment.

to secure a respectable although not a cul- promptly to perform their duty. country its proud pre-eminence. It is no bretate education. In 1843, he served in Law and Government have their four- natural instinct, but the outgrowth of legiate education. In 1813, he served in a company raised to resist an anticipated dations in the dispersion principles and new stern suffering and firm resolve, of long acompany raised to resist an anticipated dations in the Divine and human experience and patient endurance. It is attack of the British upon Norfolk. An minds. They are founded on the will of one of the highest and hest developements of the human conscience and understandolder brother baving migrated to Missouri God, on esuscience, and their adaptation of the human conscience and understandof Urange county, New York, here 16th (of which Territory he was Secretary from to promote the highest happiness of all ing. Its very operation shows the difficul-May, 1801. Graduated at Union College, 1807 to 1820.) Edward also settled in St. beings. There is nothing more sacred or ty of its acquirement. It unites personal 1820 - taught a select school for a time Louis, and in a few years reached indepen more precious, among human interests, freedom with public order, and renders in Georgia—but, about 1822, settled as dence, and eminence, in the legal profeshis home in Auburn, N. Y., where he has his home in Auburn, N. Y., where he has sion. He was a Judge in St. Louis -- pro- There is nothing more benign, more vital, Constitution to assault, and, even as we since resided. In 1850, he was elected a sided over the River and Harber Conventor more glamous among divine things often see in our State governments, tears State Senstor-in 1838 and 1840, Gover- tion at Chicago-was nominated and con- than the law and government of God. it down and builds it up again at pleasure, nor of the State by the Whigs-and has firmed as Secretary of War under President There is no surer symptom of a depraced yet recognizes the same Constitution as a since served two terms, with most distin- Fillmore, but declined from domestic con-We do not suppose one of the Repub.

We do not suppose one of the Repub.

Suished ability, in the Senate of the Unisiderations—was President of the Whig against the will of God, violence to the in an unconstitutional manner as a public slave-holder and apologist voting for it! late an Editor of the Albany Evening P. Blair, editor of the Globe and bosom tempt and resistance becomes believes the energial of t So strange are the workings of legislative Journal, is his chief Assistant in the office. F. Blair, enter of the Good and posons tempt and resistance are the workings of legislative Journal, is his chief Assistant in the office. Friend of Gen. Jackson during the latter's unsignant; and deserve to be, and ere should it be granted! Simon Cameron was born in Lancaster Administration -- brother of Frank P. Blair long will be, visited with fearful penalties. The darkest sin of the present Secession county, Pennsylvania, about the year of Missouri—and son-in-law of the late 1799, but his parents—his father a Scotch—Hon. Levi Woodbury of New Hampshire.

Let it be remembered, also, that "whose-movement is, that it is breaking down covereffendeth in one point, is guilty of all."

The levi Woodbury of New Hampshire. man, his mother a German—soon remored to Northumberland county. His father

Hon. Levi Woodbury of New Hampshire.
Montgomery Blair graduated from West sarriy imperfect in structure, and diffective of society. It is profaming the sanctity Democratic speakers and newspapers, and conspicuous, and his liberality and faithPresidents and Governors have for years follows to friends are proved in the continent.

It is understood that all these gentlemen obsciouses. It is no longer government, sible on this continent.

Were the President's own selection—none but usurpation. Resistance then, becomes Were these Seconding States incurably Presidents and Governors have for years fulness to friends are proverbial. Always were forced upon him by outside arrange- justifiable; and just so far as it has pros- disaffected toward the present Unionthe last less, but is received with candor and less own amendment. It is as follows:

Lope by independent men, and, without

ART. V. Congress, whenever two-thirds

The Government of these United States

For separation—we should not be for re
Lope by independent men, and, without

ART. V. Congress, whenever two-thirds

ART. V. half have been shut out from those States—so leave the Democratic party-shell, and tors, and three Ex-Governors, three U.S. Sensleave the Democratic party-shell, and tors, and three Ex-Judges. By nativity or their obligations faithfully until they could minded, that fearing men. It has grown their obligations faithfully until they could not under the fostering care, and been pulled in under the fostering care, and the care the fostering care the care th men there are really laboring under that great delusion, and are thereby causelessiv. The laboring under the feedble properties of the Administration illustrate the heart and vertebre rified by the moulding influence, of Christian amendment of the Constitution. Even ing yet unexpired.) and was the expressed business States of Maine, New Hampshire, ity, for a wise adjustment of cheeks and might be honorably and patriotically subchoice of the State for President at the Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, balances, it is probably the best govern- mitted to, and the remaining Union still Massachusetts, Connecticus in three-necessary to put this Amendment into the Chicago Conventions. His industry, ener-Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, Ohio, f great service in his Department.

The Cabinet, as sub-executives and intinity of thirteen coloures in the remote healing the wounds, and diffusing new Salmon Pontland Chase, born at mate agents of the President, will do much horders of the world has risen in power, vigor. But this violent and reckless rend-Cornish, New Hampshire, in 1808, lost to make or mar the Administration. They wealth, and intelligence, until it is second ling away of these States in the lawlers his father when nine years of age, studied are statesmen of decided talents, capable to no nation on the globe. Millions of way in which it is attempted to be done, for a time with his uncle, Bishop Chase, at of winning additional bonors. Or they the subjects of other governments less is not to be tolerated. It is not simply Worthington, O., but graduated at Dart- msy, by their own carelessness, ambition, peaceable, less prosperous, less just, have destruction to every principle of govern-Worthington, O., but graduated at Dartmay, by their own carelessness, ambition, sought its benign protection, and have not ment—it corrupts the very sap, it kills mouth in 1826. Read law with William greediness for family favors, or more gross been disappointed. Milliams more are wait the root, it destroys the whole tree! Wirt, in Washington City, where he was corruption, (such as have eternally dis- ring this moment to follow in their steps | There is, therefore, no alternative. The admitted to the bar, and also conducted a graced some of their predecessors) tarnish Under these circumstances, language, con-separation which is against law, which vi-Select Boys' School-but settled for life not only their own but their President's ception even, fails us in attempting to olates every organic principle of our exisin Cincinnati. He was twice Governor of reputation. Mr. Buchanan's worst deeds portray the enormity of those acts which tence, must not be allowed. Ohio, during which time he detected the were under the influence of his Cabinet.

Ohio, during which time he detected the were under the influence of his Cabinet.

Ohio, during which time he detected the were under the influence of his Cabinet.

Ohio, during which time he detected the were under the influence of his Cabinet. defalcation of a State Treasurer, and put Mr. Lincoln is not to be moulded thus. who think they have found such intolerable Government, and to the last extremity. the finances of the State in a satisfactory We rejuice to read that he will hold to a evils in the character and workings of this But is not this counselling war? No; and greatly improved condition. He personal responsibility every Member in government, as to call for its destruction in no proper sense of that word. It is served one term in the U. S. Senate, and his own Department, for his appointments by violence . What low, madequate, and only asking that the government shall not was elected, again, for six years from the and management: and while, as President demoralizing views of the sacredness of tamely submit to its own death! That is 4th inst. Without either the wish or so- from the outset, he desires and respects neglect or reject it, upon them be the re- licitation of himself, he was tendered the the opinions of all, he decides for himself. hands upon both, for the sake of avoiding taining its jurisdiction over them—faith-

At dinner at Erie, some gentleman of-President, and accepted in accordance with the urgent advice of friends, while yet avowing his preference for the Sena
"I have lived fifty years without the use torship. Although once a Democrat, he of any liquor, and I do not think it worth the description of Country Post Massive fourths of said Legislatures, shall be by States—by 1 over the number that more ardent personal friends than Salman waters cost the country nearly $19. more ardent personal friends than Salmon 000,000. All in the rest of the Union P. Chase; and his integrity is undoubted. cost a little over $11,000,000.

and connected with the Press-and confes- The Prodigal Son was a Scripture case sagacious politicians of New England. As gauce and ended in a pig pen!

sage County Star & Lemisburg Coronicis that the unsuccessful applicants, if true —two-thirds of each House voting for it. THE NEW ADMINISTRATION, the sole representative of that section in THERE NEW ADMINISTRATION, From the Einghannian (N.Y.) Standard. tinction by having been a candidate. He at such it was true-red by having been a candidate. He at such it was true-red by the candidate of the control of th THE CRISIS. the Missouri Compromise dissolved his con-sion of ideas on questions of public expeditions of public expediti neral, was born near the James River, in mount sucredness and utility, is compara- thrown. Virginia, in 1753. His parents were tively casy. These who have the momen. Received for law is a deep and abiding Quakers, but his father lost his standing tous work of ferming and gording public scattment in the hearts of American freein that Society by bearing arms under La-better than to fix these great and indispu- obedience of our nation of sovreigns, to fayerte at the capture of Cornwallis: be table facts firm's upon the minds of men, rightful authority, is the standing marvel died in 1805, leaving a very small estate and thus promote their toward proce and of the old world, and has done more than among twelve children. Edward managed exhances, and prepare them faithfully and all other causes combined to give our dying while he was but a boy, and with no in Missouri, where he was elevated to the not establish a system of government that In doing this, it disturbs every element of pack upon his shoulder, and footed it to lican principles resulted in his dismissal ticipation in the uffairs of state, and thus, which declares itself on its very face to be Harrisburg, where he bound himself as a by Buchanan. Judge Blair is a favorite, through a faulty administration, unnecesare before them. The Patriots of the Curvat open and their Revolution of ten differed materially on of the Republicans in Congress, and their printer to James Peacock. Graduating of his party in the South and West, and sarrly multiply its exils. But necessary revolutionary—a treasonable step! It is measures, and were at times estranged allies not strictly of the party, have sufficiently attempt at national suicide! It is indicated in due time, he worked at his trade as a well adapted, it is claimed, for the office imperfection of the sheerest madness, and every journeyman in Washington City-where of Post Master General. His residence not rebit of its sucred character, nor re- cative of the sheerest madness, and every

"Seest thou a man diligent in business? Montgomery county, not far from Wash- us to labor for the removal of its defects, up every principle of government authorisons—we think it would be well for the declined a flattering nomination for Conand the general improvement of its char- ty, and introduce a state of things where gress, as it interfered with some business rior, a native of Massachusetts, was a Whig the truest spirit of obedience, and with an anarchy will hold perpetual struggle with other States, to ratify this Amendment. It may not be "necessary" in one sense, and yet may be in another. Some few Printer for a time. In 1831, Gen. lacks son (unsolicited) appointed him a Visiter Mr. Fillmore. He is represented to be a crument, is an unmitigated crime. It is ondary consideration. The Gulf of Mexiagainst the principle involved in the at West Point. No man has done more man of vigorous intellect and considerable a greenes affine against society—against co might swallow up every State that has Amendment, which would decide and plainly guard the point. Very many honcest men in the South have been led to believe that the Two Millions of Republilieve that the Two Millions of Republiwith various Railway and Canal enterpriless known to the country than his fellow tramples upon conscience, and compels so many people, or of so much territory, cans, now coming into power, are in favor ses has happily exhibited. His financial Members of the Cabinet, is understood to men to violate the plain commands of that makes the disaster, but the introdu of abolishing Slavery among them-for ability, developed as Cashier of the Mid-have much of Mr. Lincoln's confidence. Und, it has lost its foundations of support, tion of a tractest precedent, which would dictown Bank for some thirty years, was It is understood that all these gentlemen and forfeited its claim either to reverence or make all reliable, free government, imposlaw, and the majesty of government, must shall, as heretofore, exercise its authority they have, who are willing to lay violent over these States, calmly, steadily mainevils only remotely expected, and sure to fully, firmly, unfinchingly, executing the be infinitely aggravated by this process laws. "But this will lead to war." when they come, if they come at all ! every not of the enforcement of law is a What a fearful account will they have to declaration of war. It is war to compel a render to posterity, whom they will have man by law to pay his debts. It is war certainly thrust down from the very fore- to arrest and imprison a house-breaker. front of Christian civilization and progress. It is war to catch a pirate, or hang a murand made the prey of internal fends, the derer. If blood must be shed, as seems ambition of military leaders, or perhaps now inevitable, in the enforcement of con-the will of God, and the requirements of repeat it, therefore-there is no alternasociety, then there is no Government wor- tive. Lawiessness must not triumph. The and anarchy would be proclaimed around severy throne and every executive chair on the globe. Nothing is sacred! nothing is safe! What infarnation! what extremity truth is indisputable-one duty is plain. Our government is perfect enough to nection with the authors of that atrocious | teney, it is well that there are certain fixed | citizen should prefer to die in its defence, made the acquaintance of Welles while on thoughts and uncettled judgments of men thrown. And, smidstthe gathering clouds a visit to Hartford some time before his may raily. To meet this or that emergency of darkness, here is our bope. The people nomination, and the intimacy then formed of the time in which we live, may be diffi. love our Government, revere our Consticult; but to recognize truths which do not tution, and cherish our Laws. They will vary through all time, and to feel the obey them. They will enforce them. EDWARD BATES, the new Attorney Ge claims of duty towards interests of para- They will never see them rathlessly over-

"The supreme law of the land." It is a ove that number of States.

thrive and spread as does the iron hearted Though it has been in operation less oak, though some of its branches are lopped gy, and segacity in knowing men may be Indiana, Kentucky, Illinois and Missouri. Though it has been in operation of the sweet, pure sap, within, scon than a single century, under it a commu- off-the sweet, pure sap, within, seen subjected again to European domination! stitutional obligations, let the responsibil-Our Federal Government, preserved and ity rest where it belongs. Whatever inadministered in its integrity, is wise, conveniences and evils opposition to this