The Lewisburg & Millburg Turnpike Company on the 4th inst. elected the following Officers for one year:
President--George F. Miller.
Managers--J. F. Potts, Adam Sheekler,
George W. Martin, Deane,
Governor and Clerk--James F. Linn.
To let Contracts--L. B. Walter.

Messrs. Truman H. Parry and C. O.
Bachman have started a quite neat, revolutionary paper in Sunbury--the Northumberland County Democrat. It is the simplest, pure, uncompromising, genuine, original, Dr. Jacob Townsend Sarsaparilla Democratic organ.
The two English and one or more German Democratic journals in that county seem not to be well read. The new paper has the motto--
"Democracy is the Shield of Freedom." Heaven help us from the "freedom" of the States which voted for the Democracy last fall!

But what and that together? too, and our country will be the better for it.

Dr. Winslip, the modern Sampson, recently delivered one of his lectures in Lewisburg, explaining how he made himself one of the physical wonders of the world. With an ordinary constitution, and a moderate amount of strength, by course of exercise he has got to be one of the strongest men of whom we have any account.

Messrs. Moon and Hark offer again to supply the people of Lewisburg with Milk and Cream in season. We all need these "extras," and as they are well-known and reliable men,
we trust they will meet with good encouragement.
