Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAR. 22, 1861.

ADVERTISERS—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics and Professional Men in City and Country, Publishers of Books, Periodicals, &c., and all others who desire to extend the circulation of a reliable, widely circulated, and influential family newspaper, which has a large and increasing circulation in a prosperous community, and which, as an advertising medium, commands the confidence of the people, are invited to call at the Office of the STAR & CHRONICLE, in Lewisburg, Union County, Pa.

☞ See New Advertisements.

The Pantorcast and Poems of the Lewisburg Academy will give a Public Reception, at Independent Hall, on FRIDAY EVENING, March 29. Exercises to commence at 7 o'clock. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

☞ Solomon Young, in North Fourth St., has just received a large lot of superior Furniture, which he offers to his customers on reasonable terms. [Advt next week.]

☞ On Wednesday evening of this week, a grand Music Association of Lewisburg will be given for the benefit of the Baptist Sunday School. The although yet beautiful Grove (Queen Esther) was performed in Grove Church, Reading, to the Association, and was received with favor.

☞ The Bill of Fare, and a variety of Household Furniture, of the late Mrs. L. Hedges, is published this morning.

☞ Rev. Wesley evening next occupies the Annual Exhibition of the Senior Academic Class of the University at Lewisburg, in the Baptist meeting house, Lewisburg, to commence at 7 o'clock. Tuesday evening, the Junior Collegiate Exhibition, some hours.

☞ Monday to Wednesday, the usual Examinations in the Female Seminary, Collegiate Academy.

☞ Dr. Wolfersberger, a vacation of four weeks—commencing Thursday, 24th April.

☞ The Bridge Suit was closed on Friday last.

☞ The fire insuring companies give signs of firmness in view of the speculation. Stringency—obligation, and repudiation, are the order of the day.

☞ Gentile have removed their Furniture Warehouse to the more commodious room in Fisher's building, corner 3d and Market Sts.

☞ The January Adjourned Court, for civil cases only, at Lewisburg, commences on Monday of next week. Hon. W. J. Howard is expected to preside.

☞ The Medical Colleges are turning out a fraternal crop of "graduates." Dr. Jas. Kerrigan graduated at the College of Physicians, in Philad., but was also before the Union county, emerging from any of the examinations. Sunbury furnishes two—J. McCarty and F. L. Hoop!

☞ FORGET THEM!—Persons who receive letters at a distance, would do well to subscribe for the STAR & CHRONICLE, have it sent to the above address, and would be more acceptable to friends who left the place of their birth—and as it goes every week, at least, we know it is a great favor conferred.

☞ RESUMED SPECIE PAYMENTS.—The Philadelphia Banks on Monday began again to pay out specie for their paper, additionally. (The Country Banks to have resumed.) Their stoppage of payments, being a result of the Secession and State Party Panic—their resumption will undo some of the mischief done by their foolish yielding to panic terror.

☞ A meeting was held at Centre county, on the south part thereof into a county, comprising the townships of Penn, Miles, Haines, Gregg, Potter, Harris and Ferguson, containing about half the population of the county.

☞ The Lackawanna & Bloomsburg Railroad Company, are erecting a new depot and freight house at Northumberland.

☞ The property of Wm. L. Dewart's property, as advertised by the Sheriff, was sold, and an extension granted for six months.

☞ The first sleeping made to divide Lower Augusta Tp., Northumberland Co. It is to be called the person cut off, Augusta, in honor of the brave deceased Col. Sumter.

☞ There are 61 Liquor Licenses applied for in Northumberland county, April 1.—Seventy-five thirty souls.

☞ Rob't Bridges, recently in the Union at Lewisburg, has accepted a call from the Baptist church in Huntingdon.

☞ The lease of the Ferry for one year, belonging to the Borough of Sunbury, was sold at public vendue $142 to Ira T. Clement.

☞ A gang of grain and poultry thieves, from near Lancaster, have been sent to the Dauphin Jail. One of them turned State's evidence, and a considerable amount of Money, Watches, York, Pa. the Buck Brook Dog-Eyed Democrats Compromising factions on one ticket—the Republicans on the other. The latter carried Burgess and most of the other offices. Was against us last fall.

☞ Mr. Kase, aged 74 years, was killed by strangers the Cascade Railroad bridge in Susquehanna county, when in the way of a moving car and accidentally was crushed to death. He was a worthy, and an estimable citizen.

☞ The dead and decomposed body of an unknown found in a box in the river at Harrisburg, had a heart on which was the name "Hasen."

☞ The Valentine Iron Works, and the Centre Iron Works in Centre county, have resumed operations, since the panic passed.

☞ A fight in Milesburg were quarelsome that it was a stone which wounded another, causing his death in a few days after the injury.

☞ We are sorry to learn that Westminister, located at New Wilmington, Lawrence county, was totally destroyed by fire March 27 ult. Loss about $15,000.

MURDER.—On the night of Saturday, 9th inst., an aged man named Acker, near Richfield, in Juniata county, was cruelly murdered—probably for his money, he having a short time before received some money for a farm he had sold, but had parted with the cash. He had gone to bed, but his housekeeper was up, and let two men into the house, somewhat disguised. On his getting up they demanded his money, when he gave them Ten Dollars, all he had. They were not satisfied—Mr. Acker wanted to take down his gun, when one of the ruffians fired a pistol at him. While this was transpiring, the girl fled from the house and gave the alarm. The neighbors upon arriving found Mr. Acker dead upon the floor, his scull broken with a hatchet. We have since been told that two men, named Zimmerman and Lower, have been arrested, and have confessed the murder.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Wednesday of last week, Horatio J. Wolverton, Esq., of Sunbury, who had been suffering from a pulmonary disease for some years, died very suddenly from hemorrhage of the lungs. Mr. W. had gone into a shoe-makers shop to have something done to his boots, and while sitting on one of the shop benches, drawing off one of his boots, he commenced bleeding, and died in death in a few minutes.—Gazette. [Mr Wolverton attended the University at Lewisburg some years and then entered upon the practice of law with success. He was 35 years. He leaves a young family.]

NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILROAD.—At an election held in Baltimore, on Thursday week, the following gentlemen were elected Directors: Simon Cameron, John S. Gittings, E. C. Robbins, W. T. Walters, Wm. Corbin, Jr., A. E. Kapp, Alex Smith, J. H. Hollaman, John A. Wright, Wm. J. Palmer and J. E. Eby. At a subsequent meeting, A. B. Ward was elected President of the road, and J. D. Cameron, Vice President. Under the management of these gentlemen, the road will no doubt continue to flourish.

The telegraph announces that the celebrated Gaines case is ended, by the judgment of the Supreme Court of the United States. On all points the decision was in favor of Mrs. General Gaines, who will realize property worth two millions of dollars, situated in New Orleans. The case has occupied the attention of the press and the public for thirty years, and the peculiar history embraced in it is familiar to attentive observers of the current events of the times.

MAN KILLED.—On the 9th inst., Gould Wilson, at Huston township, Clearfield county, was instantly killed while putting logs into Stoneraising creek, near his home. It seems the logs were piled up, and as he was in the act of waiting by three of them rolled off the pile, and passing over him, caused his death. He was about 30 years of age, and leaves a wife and several children.

The U. S. Supreme Court decided adversely to the Kansas and Ohio claims case; which was pressing that any government of a State should surrender fugitives on proper proof; and that a State could not impose any duty on a State officer, &c.

In the Missouri Convention, Ex-Gov. Stewart introduced a resolution declaring that the U. S. Government had committed no act to justify either coercion, secession, or revolution; and declaring that Ohio, that we have the best government in the world, and intend to keep it.

Brigham Young is said to be in favor of Secession. He is fearful of governmental interference in his "peculiar institution."

TO DYSPEPTICS.

All who suffer with this distress which the disease inflicts in one form or another of its many phases, can be permanently and speedily cured by using

THE OLD FOUNTAIN BITTERS.

The Weekly Scientific of Sept. 15, says:

Dyspepsia is one of the prevailing diseases of our country. Thousands suffer from it, and the almost universal failure of existing remedies to relieve and cure it, is a fruitful source of misery. But in spite of these adverse circumstances, the proprietors of the Old Fountain Bitters, Messrs. Fowle & Co., of Boston, have succeeded in producing a remedy which is capable of curing the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia, and which is rapidly gaining a reputation for its wonderful efficacy.

The following letter is from a well known Clergyman who has suffered excruciatingly for a long time, and who has tried all known remedies and methods of cure without relief until the Old Fountain Bitters were tried with success:

CLINTON, Oneida Co., N. Y., Sept. 10, 1859.

Gentlemen:—Having used several bottles of your celebrated Old Fountain Bitters for that terrible disease, Dyspepsia, I feel it a duty to bear testimony to their efficacy in my case. About seven years since I found that this disease had fastened its fangs upon me, and continued to fasten upon the roots of my constitution, defying me by day and by night. For a long time previous I was unconscious of the nature of the disease which afflicted me, and the opinions of the physicians left me as much in the dark as ever. After months of suffering, I purchased a bottle, and trying various remedies, putting myself under water cure treatment, and visiting the South, without receiving any benefit, I commenced, by recommendation of Dr. C. Burrows of this town, taking the Old Fountain Bitters, and soon found that the disorder was being driven from my system. I now feel like a new man, and, unless I am greatly mistaken, I suffer less inconvenience from that terrible disease with a single bottle than from all the quantity which filled me of nearly pounds of flesh. I now weigh one hundred and ninety-three pounds, and can digest pretty well, and therefore recommend a trial of this remedy to all who are afflicted with and I cured of dyspepsia. To my friends in particular, I cannot too strongly recommend the Old Fountain Bitters, as a sure remedy, and I remain, yours truly,

HENRY BOYNTON,
Minister of the Gospel.
