Freedom, national; Slavery, sectional!

The War for Slavery

Has assumed larger proportions for a few days past. The supplies for Maj. Anderson were stopped...

In the mean time, the President and Cabinet have been night and day at work, in finding how the Government really stood...

The greatest activity has prevailed in New York, in fitting out and sending off under sealed orders all the national vessels that could be drawn together...

These news create great trembling and excitement throughout Samboia, but the leaders seem to meet it with a determination to sustain themselves in their treason at any loss to the South of blood or treasure...

A thousand false rumors are set afloat by "sensational" editors, so that it is hard to give reliable news. It is a matter of universal rejoicing that the Government do not betray their counsels...

WASHINGTON, April 10--12 o'clock.--City comparatively quiet to-day, though everybody anxiously awaiting tidings from Charleston...

CHARLESTON, 12 o'clock.--All is quiet here to this hour, though in city and in harbor there is every preparation for war.

CHARLESTON, April 10--2 P. M.--Up to this hour, there has been nothing here to begin war. Excitement of yesterday subsided, nevertheless everything is ready for any contingency.

WASHINGTON, April 10.--Great excitement prevails here--seven companies volunteers are mustering and are under arms to repel invasion.

Secretary CAMERON has won golden opinions by his reply to two young officers, last Saturday, who were ordered off with sealed orders. They asked the Secretary whether their orders would lead them to any position of antagonism to the South...

Attitude of France and England. It is rumored in the street to-day, that secret agents were dispatched to England and France by the Administration...

It is said that these agents have returned, and bring the most favorable reports; that both England and France will set their faces against a Slave Confederacy...

mined to take immediate and vigorous measures for the enforcement of the laws, at all hazards.--N. Y. Evening Post.

Resolved, That the Democracy of New Rochelle adopt as their party platform the Constitution of the seven Southern Confederate States.

DOWNFALL OF TRAITORS.--The Washington Constitution, a fierce disunion organ, first died the pauper's death. Next, the Philad. Pennsylvanian, the mouth-piece of the rebels and traitors within sound of the Liberty Bell, has died.

FROM KANSAS.--Mr. Burt, the agent of the New York Legislature, expended, principally for seed wheat, corn &c., about $35,000 out of the $50,000 authorized to be expended by that State in Kansas.

LEWISBURGH, April 6.--The following is the vote for U. S. Senators at the joint session of the Kansas Legislature: James H. Lane, 55; S. C. Pomeroy, 52; M. J. Parrott, 50; F. P. Stanton, 29; A. J. Lane, 11; scattering, 8.

A MISTAKE.--Statements are going the rounds of the press, to the effect that goods are being imported into Southern ports, free of duty. This is not so.

So HE DIED!--The infamy of firing that first dastardly shot against the U. S. unarmed ship, Star of the West, was claimed by one St. Clair Morgan, an officer in the South Carolina force.

DEATH OF JUDGE M'LEAN.--John M'Lean, of Ohio, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, died at his residence in Ohio, Thursday morning, last week, in his 76th year.

The Republicans have made large gains in most of the municipal elections in New Jersey this month.

According to the National Republican, the P. T. Herbert who is working to get Arizona out of the Union is the ex-member of Congress from California, who killed an Irish waiter at Willard's Hotel, in Washington, five years ago.

Parson Brownlow says, that, 1780, Gen. Ben Lincoln refused to surrender the American forces at Charleston to the British Commander; and the residents of that city, being Tories, have hated the name of Lincoln ever since.

The Lewisburg Post Office, being worth over $1000 per year, without night or Sunday mails, and patronized by about as civil and intelligent a people as any other, (three-fourths Republicans, too) was very naturally an uncommonly strong effort put forth, by several worthy persons, to obtain the appointment of Post Master here.

At the late preparatory service of the Lutheran church, in Muncy, forty-six members united with the church--sixteen by baptism, twenty-three by confirmation, and seven by certificate.

Horrible.--Hetsy Davis, aged sixty-seven years, residing with two brothers in Ross township, near Perryville, Allegheny Co., Pa., was found lying by her bedside in a dying condition--her left leg having been horribly lacerated by a dog, as was supposed.

The name of the Lock Haven & Tyrone Railroad has been changed to that of the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad, and a re-organization taken place, for the purpose of resuming work upon that improvement.

In Senate, on the final passage of the Brady Township Bill, the Yeas and Nays were required, and are as follows: Yeas--Messrs. Board, Baugher, Board, Conell, Finney, Gregg, Hall, Hamilton, Hestland, Imbrie, Landon, Lawrence, McClure, Meredith, Nichols, Parker, Robinson, Serrill and Penny. (Speaker, pro tem) 20.
