Lewisburg, Pa.

FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 12, 1861.

ADVERTISE!—Manufacturers, Merchants, Mechanics Public Officers in City and Country, Publishers—all who wish to buy or sell—would do well to employ the columns of the Lewisburg Chronicle, which has a large and increasing circulation in a community containing a large proportion of active, solvent producers, consumers and dealers, as any in the state.

The Post Master calls upon all his patrons to settle up, as a "crisis" has occurred which makes it necessary, and he has been lenient with all.

Mr. Randolph notices the opening of the Summer Session of the Academy.

Sheriff Crossgrove calls, officially, the next regular Union County Court.

John Squires, a superior workman, in Dr. Brugger's block, has removed his Boot and Shoe Store into a better room, next door.

Brown Brothers, (at Sassaman's old stand) announce the first lot of new Merchandize in general, which has reached town this year. They intend to sell good goods at fair rates.

Charles M. King, at White Deer Mills, again announces New Goods also.

Col. Henry W. Crotzer offers for sale, at wholesale or retail, a valuable assortment of Books, Fancy Articles, Staples, &c. &c., to close out his establishment. The chance is good for bargains.

E. P. Romine is selling Peach Trees, Apple Trees and Grape Vines, cheap.

Oliver P. Shively—one of our most industrious and enterprising young mechanics—having come upon Market St., advertises his stock and offers his services.

Pres. Loomis announces the Summer Term of the various Departments of the University at Lewisburg.

James Scott, at his new Shop, will sell Boots, Shoes, &c., at Auction, next Saturday afternoon and evening.

J. M. C. Ranck, Esq., offers his Professional services to the public.—Office on Market St., Lewisburg, just above the Bank.

☞See the first advertisement in second column of our fourth page. If any of our readers wish to obtain any of the articles there enumerated, they are informed that we will send on Tuesday of next week, and they can join in the order. We received a large number of plants, last year, in good condition.

☞At the recent session of the East Penna. Conference of the Evangelical Association at Glen Rock, York Co., the interests of Union Seminary were warmly commended, and A. Eyer and J. H. Leas chosen Trustees. The next session was appointed at Millheim, Centre Co., 1st Thursday in March, 1862. The following are among the appointments made:

II—CENTER DISTRICT.

Presiding Elder—E. Sosh, Elliottsburg, Perry Co.
Centre—J. M. Young and J. M. Weiser, New Bloomfield.
Liverpool Circuit—J. Goodenough, Newport.
Mifflinburg—Ab. Krause, N. Berlin; Mo Walter, Millheim.
Lima—P. Heisinger, New Berlin.
Sunbury—I. May and J. W. Clair, Sunbury.
Selinsgrove—Ph Graham, Selinsgrove.
Union—H Althouse, Samuel S E Davis.

III—SUSQUEHANNA DISTRICT.

Presiding Elder—REV. W. SCHOTT, Lewisburg, Un. Co.
Juniata Circuit—Jacob Hertzler and S T Lusk.
Lewisburg Mission—Simon Wolf, Lewisburg.
Columbia Circuit—George Handley, Evansville.
Lancaster Circuit—George Hunter, Evansville.
Wyoming Mission—Samuel Smith, Falls.
Loudoun Circuit—H A Dieffenbach, Jerseytown
Cherry Circuit—A Reutch, Loudoun.
Bloomsburg Circuit—Alex Longsdorf, Westport
Lycoming—N Reuber, Westport; John Young, J. Shore Westport Mission—H E Fries, Westport.

☞The flow of population to the Oil Regions of Western Pennsylvania is noted in all parts of our State, and seems to be destined to produce important results—reducing the Whale trade materially, ensuring the completion of the Allegheny Valley and Sunbury & Erie Railways with their collateral roads, and filling up those counties with people. Levi B. Herbst of Lewisburg has been there several times, and left this week again with Daniel Seaman, Benj. Fessler, J. C. Wolfe, and James Irvin of this place, and Messrs. Stamm and Burns of Winfield. T. G. Stayborn of East Buffalo and James M'Mahan of Lewisburg have also "stuck stakes" in the region, and we hope may all "strike ile" by good rewards for their labor and risk.

BURGLARY.—On the night of the 31st ult., in the absence of John Richard and wife (who rent a house on the late Moore property, in Kelly township) one Daniel Hanselman, living with Wm. P. Dougal, forced his entrance into Richard's and stole $25 in half dollars. Of this sum, he expended $21 with Goodman of Lewisburg for clothing. Hanselman was arrested, confessed, and sent to Jail for want of bail. Richard got back his money, and Goodman got back his clothing from Hanselman. So that the latter has made a very poor speculation—one day's strutting in a suit got by stolen money!

☞At the recent commemoration of Easter Sunday, Rev. Benj. Bausman assisted Rev. C. H. Leinbach in the reception of 22 members by the German Reformed church in Lewisburg. The same day, Rev. J. C. Bucher received 14 new members in the German Reformed church in Mifflinburg.

☞James Redpath is now a General Agent of Emigration to Hayti, and has an Office at 221, Washington St., Boston. Respectable colored people desirous of migrating thither, can by corresponding with that office learn the inducements held out for such enterprises.

☞Fowler & Wells, 308, Broadway, New York, publishes a little work, "How to Get a Patent," full of information on the subject, with the Law of 1861—by Thomas P. How, solicitor of patents. It is a serviceable hand-book. Price not stated.

☞The Street Commissioners of Lewisburg is making thorough work of clearing out the alleys, &c., without respect to persons. All right—only written notices are not as fair as printed ones, in these days, when any matter of consequence is generally treated with printer's ink.

☞There is no prettier printed or more ably conducted Republican paper in this State than the Berks & Schuylkill Journal, whose Editor has KNABB'd the Reading Post Office.

The man accused of poisoning his wife in Perry county, has been tried and found guilty of murder in the first degree.

☞Answer to last Enigma—

CONFIDENCE RIGHTFULLY RESTORED.—This is certain to be the case with those who, when suffering severely from any form of Disease of the Lungs, resort to Dr. O. Phelps Brown's Arcadian Balsam as the proper remedy. In no instance does it fail of giving complete satisfaction. If Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Coughs and Colds assail the system, if the heart, the liver, the nervous system be deranged, our worst foe it, the Arcadian Balsam will permanently eradicate these disorders, and make whole the invalid. When the patient is reduced by illness, emaciated, pale and careworn, try the Balsam, and mark the result. Forthwith the the disease is taken in hand, the countenance brightens, rest is obtained, strength returns, the appetite improves, the hacking cough and debilitating perspiration ceases, hope is awakened, never to be extinguished, and disease is conquered. All this may be and is accomplished by the Arcadian Balsam.

This sovereign remedy none need be without; it is within the reach of all.

DR. O. PHELPS BROWN'S ARCADIAN BALSAM price $2 per large bottle may be obtained of J. BAKER & CO., Lewisburg, Sole Agent, who has also a number of specimen bottles, price 25 cents, that all may have the opportunity of trial.

COUGHS, COLDS AND LUNG DISEASES.

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, however long standing and severe in character, are quickly cured by that long tried, efficient and faithful remedy—

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

The universal opinion fully accords with that lately expressed by the "Paradigm," which says: "Wistar's Balsam has achieved many remarkable cures of Pulmonary disorders—Its success being so great that taken in time it is deemed a specific." The thousands of Certificates in the hands of the proprietors from those who from long suffering disease have been "redeemed, regenerated disenthralled," and now by this remedy enjoy immunity from pain and suffering, are still better evidence of the fact.

From H.M. VAN GEZER, Esq.
LAWRENCE, Union Co., Pa., May 7, 1860.

This certifies that my wife has been afflicted with Consumption for the last four years, and had become so reduced that she was unable at times to walk across the room, and a good part of the time unable to be out of bed. She would be seized with violent attacks of coughing, until she would be almost exhausted and helpless. She received the attendance of as good physicians as could be found in the city of Philadelphia and the country, but to no effect. I was at last induced to try Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and the effect for the better was truly astonishing. Before she had taken two bottles she felt and appeared almost as well as ever, so much so that it is seldom necessary for her to use any now, except occasionally from having caught cold from exposure, or from sudden and unfavorable change of weather. I have always been opposed to Patent Medicines, and pronounced them humbugs, but I must say that Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is an exception. I unhesitatingly recommend it to the public as decidedly the best and most efficacious remedy in cases of consumption.
WM. VAN GEZER.

☞Caution to Purchasers. The only genuine Wistar's Balsam has the written signature of "I. Butts" and the printed one of the proprietors on the outer wrapper; all other is vile and worthless.

Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston, and for sale by Harris & Duncan, and J. Walls & Co., Lewisburg.

COERCION.—In the Alabama Convention, the following passage occurred:

"Hon. Nich. Davis, of Huntsville, declared his belief that the people of North Alabama would never abide the action of that Convention, if denied the right of voting upon it. Mr. Yancey thereupon denounced the people of North Alabama as Tories, Traitors and REBELS, and said they ought to be COERCED into a submission to the decrees of the Convention. Mr. Davis replied, that they might attempt coercion, but North Alabama would meet them upon the line, and decide the issue at the point of the bayonet.
