R. F. Hursh is Administrator of W. H. ...

A Military Book is advertised.

Lewisburg Mission was taken up at the ... Conference session and placed ... the charge of George Hoover. It ... consists of the Lewisburg Circuit ... which meets for worship at A. ... Hall, Lewisburg.

☞ Mr. Mowry has for sale photographs of the Lewisburg Company, taken just as they were ready to march.... Mr. J. Goodman has the national flag, in red, white and blue, in his store.

☞ Lt. Samuel W. M'Dowell, having in consequence of his absence in the service, tendered his resignation as pastor of the Christian Church in Lewisburg, that church, by a unanimous vote, declined accepting his resignation and also passed resolutions approving his course.

☞ The Lewisburg Bridge Company have been very generous in the free use of their facilities to all persons going to and from the Railway with military companies. Dr. Vice-President (Wm. Cornelius, Esq.) and Treasurer, (Alex. Neidig) are old soldiers, and enter heartily into the movement for sustaining a good government.

DRILL—DRILL!—Any wishing to enter the military service should prepare for service by getting together evenings in proper localities, and drilling under the best instructors they can get. By this means they can be prepared for battery, while yet at home, and without expense to themselves, or the Government.

☞ Lewisburg furnished the first company from the West Branch, and was among the earliest at Harrisburg.... A second company has been here prepared, 25 from Mifflinburg and Hartleton, under the command of Capt. Jacob Neyhart, with the proposed name 'Stiller Rifles' ready, as we suppose, to march when needed. Capt. Charles D. Rush, of New Berlin, is also mustering a company. This would make the third company from Union county.

☞ Byron (or some one else) says that "Glory is simply having a cannon-ball sent through your body and getting your pay by an eulogy under a name spelt wrong in the newspapers." All the notice we saw in the City press of the arrival of the Lewisburg company at Harrisburg was that "a fine company has just come in from Lebanon, commanded by Rev. Mr. M'Clenker." Put Lewisburg for "Lebanon," and M'Daniel for M'Carter, and you have it.

☞ The Study of the Art of War is now necessary for all those contemplating the service. The South have been studying and drilling systematically, for years, and especially for months past, and are therefore in that respect best prepared for center. The North, West, and East must now pay less attention to the divine arts of Peace, and for the good of this and coming generations must better study the necessity of the ability to confront and thrash the oppressive monster, War. The Work advertised in our columns is highly recommended for this end.

☞ We already notice Lewisburgers or former students and graduates of our University enlisting elsewhere. W. Henry Armstrong, Esq., first Lieutenant of an Easton Company. Cyrus Strickland went with one of the three companies from Center. Dr. Asa P. Meyhert, of Scranton, offers his professional services. James Miller was seen with a Wilkes Barre company. Wm. H. Yerkes, Esq. of Norristown is Quartermaster for 4th Regt. Jos. Satzfad of New York happening in Harrisburg as our company came along, joined it, and entrusted his money to one of our citizens. We expect the University cheers will suffer from the current drafts upon the young and ardent.

The Government is stopping clearances for the Rebel ports, seizing contraband goods bound South, and blockading the ports as far as is possible to do so. This "peaceful" works well.

The Unionists have burned the Gosport Navy Yard, near Norfolk, and also some U. S. vessels, to keep them from the hands of the enemy in arms.

Companies have gone to Harrisburg from Shamokin and Sunbury. Others are organizing in Delaware and Brady townships, Turbutville, &c. &c.

☞ A flag-staff, with the banner of the Stars & Stripes, was raised at the Upper Foundry, on Market Street, Lewisburg, last Saturday afternoon—the work of the Foundry men principally, as we understand. Addresses were delivered by Messrs. Aiken, Dill, the Purdy's, Thomas Chamberlin, Geo. A. Frick, Mr. Bates the foreman, and perhaps others of which we are not informed.... We can not enumerate all the flags and banners, broad and little, that adorn our streets.

☞ In Mifflinburg, Saturday last, a spirited meeting in favor of sustaining the Government was addressed by Rev. Mr. Gibson, Col. Barber, Maj. C. H. Sumner, and T. G. Craig. Of the Cavalry, 10 were told to volunteer as cavalry—an arm of warfare not yet called out by the Government.... Another "Grand Union Demonstration" was called for Mifflinburg, last (Thursday) evening.

☞ On Monday evening, a Union meeting at New Berlin was addressed by Judge Weaver, Dr. Rooke and J. C. Bucher, Esq.

MONDAY MORNING.—The Brady Artillerists, numbering 103, from Muncy, passed down this morning, in good trim. John Bowman, Captain; Wm. A. Brauer, Printer, late of Sunbury, 1st Lieutenant; James D. Brewer, Second Lieutenant.

In this company we observed Hulley P. Allright, formerly of Lewisburg, who informed us that there were half a dozen with him from the upper end of White Deer Tp., Union Co.

☞ The Woodward Guards, and a Rifle Company, started from Williamsport, Tuesday morning, each 90 strong, and the former uniformed. Rev. Joshua Kelly and John H. Price were elected among the company,—the former offering to serve as Chaplain in rest, and to fight in battle, and the latter an officer of some rank.

☞ A fine Union Flag was raised at the Lewisburg Depot, on Tuesday morning, by Mr. Harkenburg, over the storeroom he is there erecting—and a short, appropriate address was delivered by Rev. Thomas M. Reese.... We notice that A. Ammon is erecting a stretcher on the opposite corner—that C. R. M'Kinley has the National flag flying—and a public house is again opened at the east side of the Lewisburg Bridge, by Mr. M'Dowell.

☞ The Milton Company were to have gone down yesterday, but were informed in the morning were detained. Captain—Wm. P. Dougal, (Kelly Tp.); First Lieutenant—Samuel Shadman, who served under Scott in the Mexican War. A number of young men remain as the nucleus for another company.

☞ Tuesday evening last, national flags were put up, and speeches made, at Brown Bro's Store, and at the Eagle Mill. On Wednesday evening, a superior flag, paid for by general contributions, and wrought by ladies gratuitously, was suspended from the Armory in Chamberlain's block. We were told another was to be put up last evening at Cox Self's—another to-day at the Court House, &c. &c.

☞ Our friends must excuse us if we fail to notice in detail all the patriotic movements of this nature—we have not the room to spare. All over the Free States (and in some of the Slave,) we see, and are told, are similar manifestations of the love for The Good Old Flag of the loyal, united, determined masses.

☞ A patriotic lady thinks we at the North, instead of so much attention to flags, banners, rosettes, &c., should save our money, needle-work, &c., for shirts and other comforts for the soldiers in the common service.

☞ Thos. T. Baker shows us a letter from Huntingdon county, stating that five of his tr-thers have enlisted—thus showing the tide of resistance rising along the Juniata against the insolent and bloody oligarchy now trying its strength against twenty millions of freemen.

Dr. I. BRUGGER requests us to say that he will gratuitously attend the families of the absent volunteers who may need and desire his medical services.... Dr. W. Leisen makes the same generous and thoughtful offer.... We will send our paper, without cost, for the campaign, to families, similarly situated, making known their wish for our record of events.... We doubt not there are many farmers and others in the County who will offer money, provisions and clothing, to aid the Town Council or others entrusted with the duty of handsomely sustaining those who, for the common welfare, are risking comfort, health, limb, and life, at the country's call.

☞ The Ladies of Lewisburg and vicinity, feeling interested, are invited to meet in the Lecture Room of the Baptist church this (Friday) afternoon at 3 o'clock, to take means to prepare surgeon's bandages for such of our soldiers as may need them.

☞ Answer to Enigma—"The surrender of Cornwallis."—And the Lyre.

☞ Answer to Puzzle—Parliament.—And a Lyre.
