We have an other in the successful in "nobody hurt," but the people aroused! The Wide-Awakes, who swelled Lincoln's majority in Union county to one thousand, might well afford to laugh at the insuit of the Argus, because it is coupled with a boast that the Democratic party is doing just what the Republican party has so zealously labored to accomplish—the decreased to the carry on the carry of the carry of the carry on the carry on the carry on the carry of the carry of the carry on the carry on the carry on the carry of the carry of the carry on the carry on the carry of the carry o see any Rebel army come in or about this we have reasoned patiently—but they just what the Republican party has so zealously labored to accomplish—the dezealously labored to accomplish—the de-jects and discuss them in the order in which feat of a tyranical Slave Origarchy which they are named. We have noble examples in our community. The loyalty of the Democratic party in the North is not questioned, but there are quite too many individual exceptions, even in our own town and county. In Miffinburg, we have one who boasts of his sagacity to see the righteousness of the rebel cause, and his extraordinary courage to advocate the same publicly. I presume about a score of fellow-Democrate sympathize with him, yet have not the same courage to openly oppose the Government, and when they are pressed upon the point they acknowledge the Administration is right-and thus they are

The leading editorial in said paper is headed, "FIGHTING FOR THEIR OWN SUBJUGA-TION," and is addressed to the very Democratic volunteers whom the Argus is boasting of! If the Argus is right, the Day Book must be wrong, and rice cersu. The following occurs in the same number of the Day Book, editorially : "If Seession be ever so scrong, the means resorted to to put it down are infernal and infamous." But a further exposure of the filthy sheet is unnecessary, masmuch as the New York close the poisonous fountain by withdrawing from it their patronage.

WIDE AWAKE.

[Since our correspondent has made a comparison with Fort Sumter, we propose a contrast. Instead of allowing an enemy to erect battery after battery to destroy our position, we think the true policy is to denolish every work of falsehood, of any efficiency, raised against the cause of Truth. To allow our fees to have their own way about everything, is to ensure our own injury. Retaliation (not revenge) is often necessary for self defence .- Et.
