

UNION COUNTY STAR AND LEWISBURG CHRONICLE.

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS. LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., TUESDAY, SEPT. 10, 1861.

PHRENOLOGICAL SEMI-WEEKLY.
Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

Union County Ticket.
Nominating by a direct vote of over 1600 Citizens.
Articles to be called for at the following places:
... (List of names and addresses) ...

West Branch Fair, 1861!
The Union County Annual Fair is called at Lewisburg, Thursday to Saturday - Oct. 3 to 5 - 1861. Premium List &c. in our next.

The Breckinridge Democrats of Northumberland county last week carried their ticket, on a direct vote, as follows:
President Judge—Alex. Jordan, Sunbury 1206
Associates—Abram Shipman, L. Augusta 1525
... (List of names) ...

The old Democratic organs—the Gazette and the American—do not appear to approve this ticket, for two reasons: 1st, all the best paying offices (President Judge excepted) are in the little neck on the West Branch; and 2d, they are in favor of a Union Ticket this season.

From Campbell's Penn'a Artillery.
WEDNESDAY I, A. M., Sept. 4.
I have just been about transmitting orders to "cook a day's rations," and "load a day's forage." Anticipating we may be off before dawn, I will write you a few lines, doubting whether I will have a more favorable opportunity again for days.

Yesterday, an engagement was hourly expected at Mason's Mill, opposite the river, in sight of the Capitol. In fact, since our last, we have been continually on the alert; one night of last week were ordered to harness and stand to horse ready to march at a moment's notice.

Burying the Dead at Manassas.
A gentlemanly correspondent of the Star, who visited the battlefield at Bull Run three days after the last contest, gives the following interesting account of the personal appearance of our noble, brave men, young and old, who sunk to their poor graves while fighting for the protection of distant homes, and for the perpetuity of the Flag of the Free.

It was a sad sight—the battle field that day. The enemy's dead still lay scattered in every direction, and the silent vultures had begun to circulate above them. They were well clad, and were larger and stouter men than ours. Nearly all of them were lying upon their backs, some of them with their legs and arms stretched out to the utmost.

Quantities—Why did not Stringham and Butler push on Southward, instead of coming home to tell what a great blow they had struck? Why do not Holt, Johnson, and other Southern Unionists, devote their time wholly to the Border States, instead of these States where there is little or no Secessionism? Do Southern Unionists expect to be idle while Northerners risk life and treasure and ease to restore to them a good government?

President Lincoln makes no secret of the fact that when the rebellion is suppressed, he intends to make a new dispensation of offices in the gift of the Government. His designs to ignore the alphas, "Republics are ungrateful," and to improve on the motto, "To the victors belong the spoils!" He has frequently said that he longs for the time when he can prove his love for the saviers of the Republic, by placing them in offices of honor and of profit.

The East Session OF THE LEWISBURG ACADEMY
Will commence on Monday, 25th of September, in connection with the History. The various sessions will commence January 2, 1862.

Church Consecration—God willing, the New Methodist Church will be consecrated on Sunday the 17th of September, at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Mr. T. J. Jones will officiate. The following are the names of the members of the congregation:

General Election Proclamation
The General Assembly of this State, entitled "An Act to regulate the general elections of this Commonwealth," enacted on the 25th day of July, 1861, is enjoined on me to give public notice of such elections to be held, and to appear in such manner as officers are directed in the Act to do.

I, District, at the late Commissioners' office in and for New Berlin borough.
I, District, at the house of Thomas Pander, in and for Union township.
I, District, at the house of Thobald Sarsel, in and for White Deer township.
I, District, at the house of James Lawson, in and for Kelly township.
I, District, at the house of George Wolfe, in and for East Buffalo township.
I, District, at the house of James McCreight, in and for Buffalo township.
I, District, at the house of John Decker, in and for West Buffalo township.
I, District, at the public school house in and for North Ward in Lewisburg borough.

The general importance, to every citizen, and especially to every taxpayer, of the session of President Judge—to serve for the longer period of ten years—is sufficient reason for making time to fix upon a candidate. The major party in Union county, by a decided vote of the people, named Mr. Lawson, their first choice—a gentleman born on our soil, and who has advanced to middle life with a good reputation as a lawyer and as a man, far friends in Union county, by a vote unanimous in convention, proposed Mr. Woods, a native of that county, of fair standing personally and professionally. Snyder county, by a bare majority, gave a casting vote in favor of Mr. Woods. Almost unknown as Mr. Woods was in this county, our people deemed it advisable to wait an inquirer before deciding permanently. Had Mr. Lawson been nominated, Mr. Woods would also have asked time for consideration.

The Lewisburg Gazette (heretofore neutral) says of the two candidates in this District for President Judge—
"Mr. Sienker is an old man, and unless we are woefully informed, at that stripe in politics whose position in the great national contest now going on is with the peace party that is saving the Union, for that is the only peace the traitors would make unless overcome by the strong arm of the government. Mr. Woods comes into the field unopposed, and with Snyder county, thus obtaining six votes out of nine. Having then been fairly nominated, we trust the voters of Union will put a stop to that species of trading, which, ten years ago, sacrificed their own nominees, and would now do the same with ours. The man who denies legal ability to Mr. Woods can at once be met by the fact that he was one of the most successful practitioners at the bar in this county; that he has a name for the Union, and will faithfully administer the laws, now too much neglected, no one can for a moment doubt."

Black Property.
[We take from an article in Brownlow's paper (the Knoxville Whig), the following account, which shows in what light slaves in time of war have hitherto been treated by Southern politicians and generals. The Paxton case is so necessary in order to show how much better Southerners are treated by the present commanders, than by the Jacksonian policy, which may soon become a necessity and a practice in the present war. The extracts are these:]
In 1858, Gen. Jessup had captured many slaves and Indians in Florida, and ordered them west of the Mississippi. At New Orleans, the slaves were claimed by their owners, under legal process; but Gen. Gaines, commanding that military district, and a man who was never tainted with abolitionism, refused to deliver them to the sheriff, and appeared in court, making his own defence. He asserted that, in time of war, all slaves were belligerents as much as their masters. The slave men, said he, cultivate the earth, and supply provisions. The women cook the food, nurse the wounded and sick, contribute to the maintenance of the war, often more than the same number of males. The slave children equally contribute whatever they are able to the support of the war.

The capture of Forts Hatteras and Clark produces great alarm in North Carolina. Hundreds of her citizens are taking the oath of allegiance to the U. S., and it is said four Members of Congress will appear at Washington under the certificate of her acting Governor, Mr. Speaker Clark.

MARRIED.
The Rev. Mr. Jones officiated at the wedding of Miss Mary Ann Jones, daughter of Mr. J. M. Jones, and Mr. W. J. Jones, son of Mr. W. J. Jones, on Sunday the 3rd inst. at 10 o'clock. The bride was attended by Mrs. J. M. Jones, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Jones. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Jones.

LOST OR STOLEN—A small black cat (Burrhead) with a white collar and a red bell. If any person should find it, please to inform me at my residence, No. 125 North Second Street, or to bring it to my residence, No. 125 North Second Street, and a reward of five dollars will be paid for its recovery.

Sheriff Sale.
By virtue of a writ of Alias Vend. Exp. issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Union county, and to me directed, I will expose to Public Sale on Friday, the 13th day of September next, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, a certain lot of ground situated in the town of New Columbia, White Deer township, Erie county, bounded north by public road, east by Front Street, south by lot of Mary Fisher, and west by Second Street, containing ONE-FOURTH OF AN ACRE or less, whereon is erected a two-story brick building, with a two-story back porch, the appurtenances as the property of David Farris.

Onward!—Monday, 9th inst., Yearling's Cornet Band of Millinburg, conveying a escort of forty carriages, conveying 45 or 50 of Cap G. H. Hasenpflug's Company, from the west end of the county mostly. At Lewisburg they received an accession of 25, when the crowd passed over to the Depot, where they were addressed in patriotic terms by C. H. Stricker and R. B. Barber, and passed on to Harrisburg, there to make a complete and fair organization. They are a superior body of youth, and will confer credit on Union county. Give a number as from the Lewisburg Infantry.

At the Democratic Conference in Lock Haven, Wednesday last, Wm. H. Blair, Esq. of Centre Co., was nominated for Senate. Mr. Blair, we believe, is "sound" on the Union question, but has always been a double-dipped Laocoeus. We are sure that Centre county can not claim that she should have a Senator for the third term in succession, nor will she if Union, Lycoming or Clinton have as true a Union man to present for the votes of the Unionists.

HARRISBURG, Sept. 9.—It is reported that Gen. Rosencrutz, in West Virginia, has had an engagement with the Rebels under Lee, the latter being defeated.

Read the daily accounts of harrassing, robbing, kidnaping, and murdering by citizens of the Cotton States, upon the Union portions of Missouri and Virginia, (which have never even pretended to "secede") and say if any devil ever deserved such punishment as they! Invaluing peaceful sections, to rob, ravish, and hang innocent persons, and then say "All we ask is to be let alone!"

The Nashville Gazette says that a number of Northern printers engaged in the Southern Methodist Publishing House had left for the North.

To All whom it may Concern.
There will be a Public Examination held by the County Superintendent in the School Building in the North Ward, Lewisburg, on Tuesday the 12th of September, at 9 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of examining Teachers preparatory to employing them for the Public Schools of Lewisburg School District. Said Schools to commence on Tuesday the 1st day of October, 1861, and to continue five months. There will be ten Teachers employed, and persons desiring of a situation will please present themselves at the time and place above stated for examination. By order of the Board,
WM. JONES, Sec.
