

UNION COUNTY STAR AND LEWISBURG CHRONICLE.

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS. LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, SEPT. 20, 1861. "THE UNION," established in 1811—Whole No. 2,489. "CHRONICLE," established in 1813—Whole No. 910.

At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

PERMISSION SUBMITTED—Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

Republican Union Ticket.

President—SAMUEL S. WOODS, of Union Co.
Vice-President—HENRY JOHNSON, of Lehigh county.
Secretary—JESSE BRAYLEY, of Union county.
Treasurer—JAMES H. MILLER, of Union county.

Union County Ticket.

Nominated by a Three Vote of over 1500 Citizens, under a Call addressed to the Representatives of Union county and the People who elect the NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, IN THE SEVERAL DISTRICTS OF UNION COUNTY, PA.

Associate Judge—JOHN W. SHUBERT, of Easton.
Sheriff—LA FLETTE ALDRICH, of White Deer.
Commissioner—JESSE W. WALTER, of Lehigh.
Treasurer—JOHN A. SHERIDAN, of Lewisburg.
Auditor—EDWARD THOMPSON, of Middleburg.
Clerk—LINDA STRAUB, of Lewisburg.

President Judge.

At a meeting of the Union Committee of Union county, held at the Buffalo House, Lewisburg, Sept. 17, the following proceedings were had:

Whereas, the friends of the Administration of the National Government, in Union county, have expressed their choice for Wm. C. LAWSON, Esq., for President Judge, while those of Snyder and Millin counties have expressed a like preference for SAMUEL S. WOODS, Esq.; and whereas, we are satisfied and competent, and are firm friends of the Government in this time of its trial; and whereas, we recognize the great principle that in all questions of mere personal preference the majority should prevail;—therefore, we the Union Standing Committee for Union county unanimously consent to advise the ratification of the nomination of SAMUEL S. WOODS, Esq., for President Judge of the 12th Judicial District of Pennsylvania, and recommend him to the cordial support of all the voters we represent.

County Officers.

DAVID HENNING, Clerk.
JAMES H. MILLER, Treasurer.
EDWARD THOMPSON, Auditor.
JOHN W. SHUBERT, Associate Judge.
LA FLETTE ALDRICH, Sheriff.

After the adjournment of the Committee, the Officers waited upon Wm. C. Lawson, Esq., and informed him of their action. Mr. Lawson stated that he fully endorsed the proceedings of the Committee.

Our Ticket is now complete, embracing men of the first class throughout. They are fairly nominated—and all that remains is to give them the votes of those who have placed them before the people, and their triumphant success is most nearly certain.

Mr. Woods accepts the nomination, and will visit as many neighborhoods in this county and Snyder, as possible, in the short time before the Election. He will, if elected, hold Arguments Courts Ac. as of ten and as punctually as if he resided in the county, and thinks the issue just can be reduced, within a year, so as to be cleared every Term. (As Mr. Slenker, in a district where he has resided for half a century, "calls" upon the people, Mr. Woods—comparatively a stranger—will be excused for following his senior's example.)

No Third Ticket Needed!

The attempt of a sly old Democrat to get up a second Union ticket in Union county, was an utter failure. Most of the respectable names attached to the Call, were given under misapprehension, and others on reflection withdrew their approval. At the time named, the rain was falling, and the gas was rebellious—still, quite a crowd convened, embracing many of the Democratic wire-workers, who seemed shy about taking the lead, as their scheme would then be too apparent. No Republican was willing to go ahead. Only two of our party who had signed the Call appeared to be on hand, and they both advised their friends to STICK TO THE TICKET! which advice was received with loud and long continued applause, and the meeting, unorganized, dissolved in good humor, and with in the last leaps of dividing the true Union party in this county. The first Union Ticket is virtually endorsed.

West Branch Fair, 1861!

Court Week.

Court commenced on last Monday—Judges Wilson, Slaughter and Wolfe were on the bench. Schell, Sebach, Nisbit and Hagan, clerks.

Geo. W. Farnett was appointed Foreman of the Grand Jury. A very uncommon amount of Session business was on hand—6 indictments being tried, 4 being continued, and 1 bill returned ignominious. The Jury was discharged on Tuesday, P. M.

Samuel Oberdorf was appointed Constable for Brady township.

Samuel S. Barton, having read law with George F. Miller, Esq., was admitted a member of the Bar of Union county. The Leximiner Literary Society, at New Berlin, was incorporated.

Comth vs. Hannah Hubson, larceny—four years in House of Refuge.

Comth vs. James Miller, burglary—costs, two years in the Penitentiary, and release of trial on other indictments if he behaves well.

Comth vs. Alexander Saffell, surety of the peace—costs, and bail for good behavior.

Comth Mrs. Devine—same sentence.

Comth vs. Jacob M. Stahl, larceny—verdict not guilty.

Our report ends with Tuesday evening.

A bill was found against a citizen of Brady township for corruptly inducing the late election in that District. It is intended to prove to the world that votes for Lyeonism were bought by the opponents of Union: our friends there intend to have the proof, in black and white, for use if an attempt to renew agitation is made in the next Legislature.

I am not acquainted with either of you, and neither of you is acquainted with me; but as I have a good many friends who are readers of your paper, I thought I would write a few lines for publication. I have been here for nearly two weeks, and am in good spirits: enjoy health, and like soldiering very well—so well that I could not be hired to go back, and all the rest of our men are animated with the same spirit. Our Company is not yet full and therefore we do not know how soon we will leave here. As there are a great many patriotic young men in Union county, (at least they pretend to be) I would give an invitation to all of them to come at once and join us. Can it be that there are so many young men that can be enticed to stay at home in a campaign like this, when our country is in danger, and the Capital of these United States, and the Constitution and this one glorious Union is threatened to be torn to pieces? The Rebel flag is now floating over several of our sister States, and if we all stay at home in the loyal States, it will soon float over the Capital of these United States, and our liberties for which our fathers so bravely and so gallantly fought in the Revolutionary war, will be trampled under foot. Let us be animated with the same spirit that they were, and march at once to the field of battle, and fight for our liberty, and our right. Brave men have gone before you; there is no excuse for staying at home now, when we all have an opportunity of showing our patriotism and loyalty to our country.

Our rations are good, and plenty. They consist of bread, crackers, mess pork, beef, beans, rice, sugar, coffee, pepper, salt, vinegar, and potatoes occasionally; and we get plenty, more than we can consume.

There is nothing particular going on in Camp Curtin. There are about three or four thousand soldiers in at present, and Companies coming in every day. As to Captain James Chamberlin, I think that there is not a Captain in sight of Camp Curtin that takes better care of his men than he, nor is there one that is as kind and as mild in giving command, as he is. Lewisburg may be proud that she is honored in having as brave a man marching towards the field of battle. As soon as the Commander-in-Chief calls, we will start forward this Company, to which some of the brave sons of old Union county and of Lewisburg are attached. S. H.

The Memphis Appeal, which is Gen. Polk's organ, has just published an article on the position of Kentucky, of which the following extract is a specimen:

We only speak the sentiment of the united South, we believe, in asserting that Kentucky can never be allowed to cast her destiny with the North, whatever verdict federal tyranny may force from her people under the duress of the bayonet. The South needs her territory and must have it, though at the price of blood and contest.

Stimulation of enlistments should be the chief concern of the day. We must have more men, or submit to an indefinite prolongation of the war. We have no right to presume upon our ability to vanquish the southern army upon its own soil, and duly restrain the federal authority, except by dint of superior force. If we do not get such a force by enlistment, it will, sooner or later, have to come by draft. But drafting should not be thought of, until all other means fail. Compulsory service would rob the cause of half its glory.

On Thursday, the Rebels in Western Virginia advanced on Elk Water and Cheat Mountain Summit. A few shells from our troops dispersed them. The troops were sent to drive them back and succeeded. Col. John A. Washington, of Mount Vernon, was one of two rebel officers that were shot.

From Campbell's Penna Artillery.

On the day of my last, we marched from Camp Barry, east of the Capital, to this place. Upon our arrival we cut our way into a dense wood, and are now completely concealed from the "Seach" and the rest of creation—at least, travelers and scouts might stumble upon us before they could observe us. Our Camp is really delightful; any one who has a taste for wild-wood adventure and novelty, can not fail but enjoy it. During these warm days, the shade of this retreat is really luxurious. At night, we have the most delightful serenading. As I write, the hum of the surrounding Regiments, and the distant beat of the drum, the chirrup of the cicadas, the katydid, and many other insects, are all borne to the ear in sweet harmony. The boys, too, have just started up a camp meeting hymn, and a dozen voices are shouting

"The glory of the Lord is coming down, Ae"
Tenallytown, from which our Camp derives its name, is about three miles above Georgetown, at the turnpike gate. The road diverges at the gate, just as at "Battletown," on the road from New Berlin to Middleburg, and in general appearance the place has a striking resemblance. Camp Tenally extends for miles along the turnpike. The Penna Reserve Corps is nearly all here. Two Companies of our Artillery Regiment are not with us. Capt. Cooper's Battery is at the Great Falls, about 12 miles from us. On Saturday, they threw some fifty rounds of shells into the camp of the enemy, and drove them back. Capt. Simpson's Battery is in the advance, which has crossed the Chain Bridge.

Last Friday, I had the pleasure of crossing over and riding for several miles across the Virginia hills. A more rocky bed than the Potomac here presents, could not well be imagined. The water is low, and, excepting the channel, the river bed is exposed. The Chain Bridge is a beautiful and substantial structure. I felt tempted to give a description of its strong and really ingenious defenses, but discretion, and the fear of a court martial, forbid. The first object to attract my attention on the Virginia side, was the ruins of a large stone mill, battered down by the heavy guns. Six months ago, this was a flourishing business place; now, it is but a mark of the progress of war. The families in the surrounding hills, that were wont to have their grists ground here, have mostly fled from their homes, and the protection of the best Government ever organized, and are now facing the grinding despotism of the Southern Slavery, their homes destroyed and themselves ragged and starving. Among those of our troops furthest in advance, I observed the Highlanders and Col. Baker's California Regiment. In the latter is our friend "Gibson, the Hatter."

Our State Reserve Corps is beginning to attract much attention amongst the "distinguis" personages of creation. On Saturday, Gen. McCull had us out, and created William Russell, the Romance writer of the London Times, along our lines. He resembles very much our friend Charles Merrill, Esq. His appearance on horseback is about as amusing as some of his letters. He is evidently as little skilled in the use of the reins as in the art of telling the truth. See Cameron and others arrived before we left the field. Today Col. Simmons' Regiment started early to the city and escorted Gov. Curtin and suite to the field. Upon his approach, a salute was fired from the Fort. As he entered the field, another was fired from a Battery of our Regiment. He presented a beautiful flag to each Regiment. Our position was too distant to hear the speeches. William Russell, Samuel J. Rae, and other reporters were present, and I presume the public will hear through the press what was said.

The "Shifur Guards" are all well, well drilled, and make a good appearance. We have generally two days cooked rations on hand and are ever ready to march at a moment's warning. For the past week, a battle has been daily anticipated. But the Rebels seem to be withdrawing as our army moves forward, and we may be taken to another field of action. There is talk about our Artillery Regiment being transferred to Gen. Fremont's command. Martin Reed, and Fry, of the Lewisburg Infantry, are here, and intend joining a Company of Cavalry Regulars.

The Provost Marshal of Baltimore, on Friday last, made a clear sweep among the secession leaders of Maryland. He arrested Henry May, Henry M. Morfif, W. G. Harrison, Ross Winans, Mayor Brown, F. H. Howard, editor of the Evening, Thos. I. Hall, Jr., editor of the Baltimore South, and several others.

It is reported from Missouri that Green had arrived at Glasgow with a considerable force, and had there a federal guard of four teen men, and containing 4,500 stand of arms and a large amount of provisions.

Gov. Magoffin vetoed the resolutions of the Kentucky Legislature requiring the expulsion of the Rebels from Columbus. Both Houses afterward passed their veto.

Words of a True Patriot.

Letter from Maj. Gen. Butler.

[The Lowell Advertiser has the following from the last year's Breckinridge Democrat candidate for Governor of Massachusetts: It is a sharp rebuke to the miserable party hacks who use the name "Democracy" to cover up Treason. It indicates the true policy for all true men—support the Administration without distinction of party.]

U. S. Steam Frigate Minnesota, Off Cape Hatteras, Aug. 27, '61.

My Dear Friend: I have received your note, as well as those of many others of my true friends in Massachusetts, asking my opinion about political questions, and some kindly suggesting my name as a candidate for Governor, at the ensuing election. I reply to you as representing them all, because our intimacy will permit more frankness than would seem meet toward those less closely connected.

As I have stated to you, and as I have publicly repeated, when I left home, I left all politics, in a party sense of the term, behind me, and I now know no politics, in any sense save as represented by the question—How best to preserve the Union and restore the country in its integrity. Peace is desirable to all, and to none more so than to the soldier, who has left his friends and his home to do his duty to his country. But however desirable, it is not to be purchased upon any terms, save the recognition of the authority of the Federal Government over every inch of territory which ever belonged to it. Upon no condition whatever, other than this, would I consent to peace.

A peace involving the disintegration of the Union, or until the supremacy of the Government is for ever established, would be simply a declaration of perpetual war of sections. Were the Southern Confederacy to day acknowledged in the fullness of good faith, two months would not elapse before cause of war would arise, sufficient not only to justify, but to demand a renewal of the conflict. No two months have passed, in the last ten years at least, in which outrages have not been committed upon Northern men in the South, which had they been perpetrated by a foreign nation, would have demanded redress of grievances, under pain of a suspension of diplomatic relations. But we have borne these outrages because there was no tribunal to the arbitration of which we could submit them, and it was against the genius of our people to appeal to arms. Therefore, I see with pain upon the part of some of those with whom I have acted in political organizations, a disposition to advocate peaceful settlements wherein there can be no peace. This war must go on, not for the purpose of subjugation—but, if those who have commenced it bring upon themselves that condition as an incident, it will only be another illustration of the fruit of sowing the wind. Besides these, there are no other policies.

On the matter of the nomination—I can not consent that my name shall be used by any party. While on some things, as you are aware, I do not agree with the principles upon which both the State and the National Administrations were inaugurated, yet we are a long way past that. The Republican party, having won a political victory, both in the State and the Nation, is entitled to the patriotic endorsement of every man to give it a fair trial in the administration of the Government, and in that, it should, as it does, take the lead in official position.

And now there is left nothing for us to contend against, save any corruption, inefficiency or impropriety of administration, which I do not intend to be rebuked as well by Republicans as by Democrats. But as far as regards the personnel of administration in the State, I believe Gov. Andrew has endeavored faithfully, zealously and efficiently to put our Commonwealth on the side of the Nation, and to sustain the Union. I therefore, for one, would not desire to see a change in the Executive, although I doubt not the people will demand changes in some of the minor offices. I do not say that I would vote for Gov. Andrew, but were I at home I would not vote against him. Let it be understood, that, without distinction of party, and without raising party issues, all men who love the Union are determined to stand by it and the country until this rebellion shall be quelled, and then we may hereafter divide as we please upon the differences of administration of Government.

To you, my dear friend, I need urge no justification for this course. You will appreciate it, for you are aware of the sacrifice, both of feeling and of position I made a year ago, in the earnest endeavor to save the country from this calamity, which I then partly foresaw, and acting in the best light I had, endeavored to prevent. And I am ready to make a like sacrifice now to repel that which I then sought to avert. I need to thank you and others of my friends for this, among many other kindnesses you have shown me. Very truly yours,

BENJ. F. BUTLER.

PAID—PAID—Paid "puffs" and "corrections" of Mr. Slenker in the order in this District.

Somewhat it is hard to make the people think him a heavy, genuine, sound, reliable Union man, when all the Secession papers, Doctors and spouters in the District are in his favor!

The Relief Board of Union county this week granted $170 per month among the families of 22 Volunteers.

Vallandigham, the "penetrator," (or rather, to do him justice, the traitor,) has been tested in his bravery in Dayton, Ohio. The Journal of that place says that Val. was proscribed with a bill of fifty-five cents for whiskey, which he refused to pay, whereupon creditor eviled him a second Val. drew a revolver, creditor ditto, at the sight of which latter Val. took to his heels and finally sought safety among the cinders in a milliner's shop near by.

The New York Daily News, a Secession sheet, is dead. So they go, and after election there will be dozens "more of the same sort" found "suspended."

The Standard estimates the majority of the People's Union War candidates, at the approaching election in New York, over the Richmond Caper Secession candidates, at two hundred thousand. This figure is not an exaggerated estimate. The figure is more likely to reach Three Hundred Thousand.

The Spanish Minister has secured our Government that the Captain-General of Cuba has not ordered the recognition of the Rebel Confederacy.

Gov. Magoffin of Kentucky, in obedience to the recent action of the Legislature, has issued a proclamation informing the Rebel Government that it is expected to withdraw its troops from that State.

At a theatre performance in Philadelphia the other evening, the fig-leaf dress of some of the women performers took fire, and six were burned to death, and others injured.

Mrs. Fanny Barrows, aged 93, a native of Groton, Conn., who was 12 years old at the time of the battle of Fort Griswold, and assisted in making garments for the Revolutionary soldiers, is now knitting socks for the Rhode Island volunteers, in Providence.

Lieut. Col. Francis B. O'Keefe, of the 14th New York Regiment, having been found guilty of drunkenness, has been cashiered.

The Secretary of the Treasury has paid the State of Pennsylvania 40 per cent. of her advances for account of the war, amounting to $200,000.

We learn from Sedalia, Mo., that Dr. Jamison, the "Kansas Jayhawker," with a small force, had fallen upon a party of 500 Rebels, under Dr. Staples, a notorious ruffian, and killed their leader.

At West Lily, Marion county, Mo., Col. Moore engaged a Rebel force of about 100 men, entirely routing them.

Charles K. Buchele has returned from his mission to South America, in good health. He declined addressing a "Democratic" meeting.

It is known that there has been a serious and troublesome variance between Gov. Curtin and Sec. Cameron as to the ordering of soldiers from Pennsylvania. By the labors of Hon. John Coville and Pres. Lincoln, an understanding has been gained, and peace restored.

The officer killed on Saturday, the 31st ult., on Mumson's Hill, by a rifle shot fired by Major Minturn, was George W. Hughes, of Maryland, a son of Gen. Hughes of Baltimore.

On the 15th inst., the Rebel Gen'l Lee attacked the Unionists near Gen. R. Reynolds along the Cheat Mountain line. Lee was repulsed with great loss. It is believed that Lee, Floyd, and Wise, are on the wane in Western Virginia.

Gov. Curtin is sending fresh regiments to Washington.

The reception of Thos. G. Perry, of Prince George's county, Maryland, who came to Gen. Sickles' camp to reclaim four slaves, was not flattering. He was informed that they were better than he, that he was a nigger thief, and received other unflattering personal news. Garrison himself could not have outdone these bald-pate Irish Democrats.

Two of the nominees of the New York State Democratic Ticket have declined—Lynn Tremaine, the candidate for Attorney General, and Dr. Bronck, the nominee for State Treasurer. Both are loyal, and can not stand on the White Feather platform.

Twenty Baltimore Secessionists were arrested on Saturday about eight miles out of the city on their way to Virginia, letters and sundry stores being in their possession.

The Cleveland (Ohio) Plaindealer repudiates the Peace platform of its party in that State, as tens of thousands of Democrats will the partizan platform in this State.

SENDAY, Sept. 15.—This afternoon, 450 Rebels attacked Col. Geary's force at Harpers Ferry—a hot engagement, lasting two hours, when the Rebels were driven from every house and breastwork they occupied. We lost one killed, and the Rebels 10 or 15.

Horace Greeley was tried in Oswego, N. Y., for an alleged libel, charging corruption on Speaker Littlejohn of the Legislature. The Jury stood 10 for acquittal, 1 for nominal damages, and 1 for conviction. Not agreeing, were discharged.

Col. John W. Lowe, of the Twelfth Ohio Regiment, who fell at the head of his Regiment in the thickest of the fight in Western Virginia, on the 10th inst., was a man of intelligence and bravery.

Some gambling places in Washington have been routed during the past week by the Government. Cause, Purser Gallagher of the Navy, has expended public funds among them.

Church Consecration.

God will bless the New Denmark Church which will be consecrated on Sunday the 15th October. The service will commence at 10 o'clock. Rev. Mr. A. B. in the evening. Secular meetings in a hall at 7 o'clock will be held on the same day. A full attendance is desired.
