John H. Goodman, one of our most enterprising merchants, it will be seen is now "on his own hook" at the old Hayes stand.

Rev. H. S. Ingham, D. D. will be installed as Pastor of the Lewisburg Presbyterian church, 10th inst. Services, at 11 A. M., by Rev. Messrs. Youmans, Boyd and Westcott.

THE FAIR at Lewisburg is well attended, and commences with the finest weather. Hon. Wm. M. Meredith is unexpectedly detained, but Prof. Russ speaks at 2 o'clock tomorrow, and the Program will be awarded on closing to-morrow.

DO NOT BELIEVE the thousand and one LIES which are manufactured by the opponents of the Republican Union ticket.

Boys! "Prepar" for us a little: 1-20 miles from Lewisburg to Lewisburg, any further than 10 miles from New Berlin to Lewisburg and 40 miles from New Berlin to Lewisburg?

An honest German in Snyder, when impudently voted for Stenker, pertinently replied, "Yes, he was my lawyer, a good many times; but I paid him well for that! I vote for Woods!"

Capt. Hasenpflug's "Soldier Guards" are attached to the 51st Penn's Reserve, which is under marching orders. Thus has Pennsylvania sent out 50,000 men.

J. A. Green, Navy cadet, appointed Military Surgeon; Wm. Can. Green, 2d Lieut. 1st Infantry.

The sneers of "shrinking from freedom in bleeding Kansas," are now felt to be real in Missouri, which invaded that Territory. The intrusion of Southern soldiers to force Missouri into Secession, provoked some retaliation upon Secessionists by Union men. A Lewisburg lady, under date of 22d Sept., says our friends in Miller county, Mo., are in a state of great fear and misery, and know not what to do! Tens of thousands of these happy families are now suffering from this wicked attempt to extend and fetter the Power of Slavery.

In Union and Snyder, the story is told that "but one of the Millin county bar oppose Mr. Woods." We have seen several letters from Lewisburg lawyers, warmly in favor of Woods, and are informed that quite a majority of the Bar (although Democrats) support Mr. W. for President Judge. Three lawyers serving in the Army, (two Democrats and one a Bell man) support him.

And we venture to name—among the distinguished Democrats of Millin who we think will bear honorable testimony to Mr. Woods' worthiness and competency—Hon. Ephraim Banks, Gen. James Turner, Dr. Thomas Van Valken, Gen. John Ross.

In Westmoreland county, Gen. Henry D. Foster, late Democratic candidate for Governor, is making Union speeches with Hon. Edgar Cowan, U. S. Senator, for a Union ticket which sustains the Administration.

The Germans in Luzerne county have held a public meeting and resolved to support the Republican-Union ticket, in opposition to the "regular" Democratic.

U. S. forces from Fort Pickens have taken and burnt a Rebel privateer, and killed 50 Rebels, under the walls of Pensacola, which seems ripe for Union.

The U. S. fleet at one month of the Mississippi has resumed a light which the Rebels had extinguished, and effected a landing on a point which disturbs New Orleans greatly.

Hon. Frederick R. Wright of Luzerne, spoke in Sunbury and Williamsport in favor of the Union Ticket, and pointing out that shell into the ranks of the Breckinridge Democracy.

Isaac Wolf, of Middlebrook township, Snyder county, with three of his children, fled within ten days, leaving only the wife and mother out of a family of five.

Tax-Payers Read and Ponder.

Judge Woods' eight years of Circuit Court duty averaged $1,674 per year, as stated by the Commissioners in 1851.

Judge Woods' first eight years of Circuit duty averaged $1,209 per year, as stated by the same Commissioners in 1843.

That was for Union and Snyder. Since the division, Judge Woods paid last year for Court Expenses, $2,556.

That was for Union and Snyder. In 1843, Judge Woods paid for Court Expenses, $1,000, or 6000.

In these 10 years, the population of the whole old county has increased only about 5,000, or 6,000.

All this shows the difference in the business turn of the men, for Wilson is as well disposed a man as Lewis, but he has not the same tact and energy. All who know Mr. Stenker, must be aware that this is the greatest deficiency as a lawyer.

THE UNION.

McMiller.—We in the country take few newspapers, but we read and remember them far better than you in town. We wondered why you have not long ago noticed how that a few years ago a certain set of men pointed out to our readers the merits of a certain candidate for Governor, who they called "the Union ticket."

Why will you call "Regulators and Catholics excavate from the catacombs of the past the scoundrelly" of the kink-and-bygones-philological era (there's a shingle in our town, too, you see) when "Breyman's Cow" was the goddess of battle, and the "Lana Times" was her prophet? In these "times of peril"—when Dixon & Co. want to elect a lot of Democratic officers in a Republican county—why will you stir up the slinking agent? The fact is, Mr. Stenker never accepted the Stenker clique's nomination, and has required it to be withdrawn. Mr. Egan does not trouble himself about the matter, one way or the other, as we are informed both are very worthy men, but were put up mostly to be used as "change" in making votes for Judge.

THE PRESENT JUDGE of a District, to serve for ten years, is by far the most important of the offices to be filled this fall in Pennsylvania.

In several Districts, a single candidate is happily agreed upon; in others, each party presents its choice; and a fair but moderate discussion of their merits is in progress.

Our own district is perhaps the easiest, most pleasant and desirable of any in the State—three small counties, contiguous, and filled with a thriving, peaceful population. A salary of near $3,000 a year—or $20,000 for the term—adds zest to the contest, and should be well earned.

Our two candidates in many particulars resemble each other. Both are men of fine personal appearance, of good moral character, and have strong friends and as resolute opponents. Both have been teachers of youth, and both are mainly the artificers of their own fortune. Both are natives of the district, and have respected and influential family relations. Both are prominent members of the same church's organization. Both are independent in money matters—and both are willing.

We prefer the election of Mr. Woods on account of his superior competency and ability. We believe him to have a better legal mind, in quickness of apprehension, application of facts, and general learning. His practice has not covered so many years, but was most productive of labor and of successful results. His activity, energy, and power of endurance, infused into the other members of the Court, would have a happy effect. Those who know the habits of the two men, and the peculiarities of their mental organization, must admit that Mr. Woods would accomplish twice the most business in a given time. He would bring us back to the lively and efficient administration of Judge Lewis—he would not be merely a slight and temporary improvement upon our last.

We care not what he may think upon questions of finance, or matters of mere expediency not affecting fundamental principles, but a Judge of all others should be firmly based upon the great, immutable doctrine of the equality of human rights. A right Judiciary is the people's safety. In all ages of the world, Judges who sustained caste, and aristocratic prerogatives, and serfdom of various kinds, have been the greatest foes of constitutional liberty. Originally of the same party, Mr. Woods left it when he found it was persistently devoted to the extension of human bondage, while Mr. Stenker steadily adhered to the party in all its changes and degradations from the Jeffersonian standard. Mr. Woods represents the progressive, liberal, earnest, American principle; Mr. Stenker stands unflinchingly up to the Dred Scott, Breckinridge Slave Extension Resolution, for which he voted at Harrisburg, in February. These are our convictions. We have no more personal antipathy to Stenker—nor under no obligation to Woods. What we want is the most efficient man of the most correct principles. Whichever may succeed, we shall do what we can to make his term of service pleasant and profitable to the district. And we do not see that either would, in the fear of God, try to do justice between man and man. Close the

Those who voted for Liscow, would most naturally vote for his warm friends, Johnson and Woods. On the contrary, Fuson's (Bell's) friends would as naturally favor Blair and Stenker.

Friends in Luzerne, Clinton, Center, Snyder, and Millin, are hopeful of Republican-Union majorities over the Breckinridge-Democratic tickets open and secret.

How they Vote in 1861!

THE LOYAL STATES, UNITED! The vote in some of the townships of Vermont at the late election, proves how wrong the Union feeling is in the Green Mountain State. There were three candidates for Governor—Hubbrook, Republican-Union; Tracy, Independent Union; and Judge Smalley (late Chairman of the Democratic National Committee), Democrat.

Putting the two undivided Union votes together, we find little room for Secessionism—see here!

Latest News. By Telegraph.

A report comes from the South, saying a fleet of seventy vessels, large and small, were coming up the Illinois to attack New Orleans.

Ben McCulloch calls for fifteen regiments of militia for service in Missouri.

Five Companies of Kentucky and four of Ohio troops attacked the rebels at Claymansville, Western Virginia, completely routing, killing thirty, and taking seventy prisoners. The rebels' camping were interrupted by Col. Hunt, who killed forty and took a large number of prisoners. This is the most effective blow given the rebels in this part of the valley. When the Kentucky left Charleston, a battle was going on between Col. and Wm. Floyd and Floyd at Sewall's mountain; the Rebels were getting the worst of it and falling back on their fortifications at Lewisburg. Nothing important from the Potomac.

Building Association. The Annual Meeting of the Lewisburg Building Association will be held on Saturday, Oct. 5, 7 o'clock, P. M. Officers will then be elected for the next year. CHAS. S. JAMES, Secy.

Attention, Volunteers! Volunteers are wanted to fill up a Company, now forming, to be attached to Col. Welch's Regiment, now at Harrisburg. Col. Welch is one of the ablest, most experienced officers in the Pennsylvania service; and Capt. Link has long service, and is also an experienced officer. Every requisite for comfort and health of the soldier, that experience suggests, will be furnished—good food, warm clothes, &c., in addition to the regular pay, which will be monthly. Thirty days' subsistence is given, from the first day of enlistment, or subsistence at the Headquarters of the Company at Lewisburg. Privileges of disabled soldiers, or widows, or the soldier or his family, (dependents) will remain any money advanced to a soldier's family, without task. We want good, reliable men, who will wish them to report to our Headquarters at Lewisburg immediately. Pay of Sergeants, $75 to $100; Corporals, $16; Privates, 13, per month. Stick to the Ticket!

Important, via Phila! John H. Goodman, Lewisburg. Our older readers will remember how a few years ago the old Argus clique about the time they were threatening Fyer and Gandy with the Penitentiary, came out with a double-column, in big type, for their candidates, who were defeated about $300 each!—In their "morning" paper, they copy a similar "loud" and extravagant puff of Stenker, from the Argus, an Independent, not Republican paper, the Editor of which runs as a Woods candidate for Delegate, was understood to support Woods in his paper. He had had notice enough to turn a sudden somerset. When we tell our readers that that Editor's name is Israel Geddish (which the Argus does give full value for his enemies' remembering that he was a bitter assailant of Judge Casey, and aided in bringing about our late unfortunate choice for Judge. Let us be wiser in 1861, than we were in 1851!

Stenker.—True men always like an open, frank, manly opponent. Instead of coming up squally and stating their fair objections to Mr. Woods, we hear of persons circulating privately and telling their falsehoods and insinuations against him, that can not perhaps be known in time to be controverted. To all backbiters we can say in brief, "Mr. Woods received a UNANIMOUS nomination by the Union Convention of his own county of Millin!" Guaw that file a while!

Mr. Stenker is not my choice—yet I don't love Mr. Woods, it is some times said. True, Woods is but little known in Union, nor Stenker in Millin. But we can not personally know all for whom we vote. But ask Judge Beaver, who lived in the same town with him—ask Gen
