"PEACE!"

One night a worthless, stinking scamp,
Broke through my bolted doors,
And laid his thieving, wicked hands
Upon my precious stores.

He crossed all the house in all its parts,
He rummaged all the chests;
He stole my silver, and my gold,
And all my choice deposits.

And when I woke from sticky sleep,
He stood before my bed,
And held a pistol in his hand,
Directed toward my head.

I sprang and seized him by the throat—
"You must run that!" I cry,
"Your life—not mine—is forfeited—
You are the one to die!"

I held him in my rightful grasp,
He struggled for release;
"Don't shoot," he cried, "give me the spoils,
And let us make a 'PEACE!'"

LEWISBURG, Oct. 1, 1861.

MR. EDITOR: Though a stranger to you, I am no stranger to the noble cause in which you are engaged. You have my sympathies and earnest wishes for its success, and if the enclosed will be of any service to you, I shall only be too happy to add my mite to the patriotic and elevating influence which your paper exerts over the public mind.

* * *

A Lady's Thoughts on the Present Conflict.

Let it not be supposed, because woman can not actively participate in the stirring scenes of 1861, that she stands by an uninterested spectator. Far from it. In her home, at her fireside, she is cherishing feelings of the loftiest, purest patriotism—patriotism, that has led her to force back to their fountain fetter tears, as she has bidden Father, Brother, Lover, and Husband, adieu, and wished them "God-speed" in the salvation of their country. Here is a trial that comes not to the sterner sex. In their going, go forth the light of her home, the strong arm which shields her from penury and want, and the staff upon which she hoped to lean in her declining years. Still, she gives them up, praying to the God of battles to shield them amid carnage and disease.

To our noble Volunteers, we would say God help you in the right. You have the prayers of hundreds of your sisters, whose hearts, like your own, beat high for our country, and her insulted flag. We would say to you, as said the Spartan mother to her son as she gave him his father's shield, "Come home with this or on it." Let not passing clouds discourage you. Remember, Jehovah reigneth—America shall yet rejoice!

Remember!—It is not denied that Mr. Slenker in Feb. last, was appointed a Delegate under the following Resolutions:

DEMOCRACY AT LEWISBURG.

Resolved, 2, That we deprecate civil war, as we believe that this UNION can NEVER be maintained by force of arms, and that as Democrats we are not willing to take up arms to support a platform which a majority of the people repudiated and opposed at the polls.

3. That we cordially approve the policy of the National Administration, (Buchanan's,) in its wise and conciliatory course in the present perilous condition of the country."

Remember!—It is not denied that Mr Slenker voted for the following:

DEMOCRACY AT HARRISBURG.

Resolved, 5. That the people of the Southern States contributed their exertion and treasure in the acquisition of the Territories, equally with those of other States, and that the principle which recognizes the equal rights of all the States in the union, is founded on the clearest equality and supported by the decision of the highest Court of the country. It ought therefore, to be sustained by every law-abiding citizen until a satisfactory dividing line can be settled by amendment of the Constitution.

8th. That we will, by all proper and legitimate means, oppose, discountenance and prevent any attempt on the part of the Republicans in power to make any armed aggression upon the Southern States especially so long as laws contravening their rights shall remain unrepealed on the Statute books of Northern States, and so long as the just demands of the South shall continue to be unrecognized by the Republican majorities in these States, and unsecured by proper amendatory explanations of the Constitution.

[Says the report: "The reading of the Resolutions called forth much applause, and when that declaring the determined opposition of the Democracy of Pennsylvania to an armed aggression upon the seceding States was read, the whole Convention rose en masse, and with the waving of hats and the violent shouts of enthusiasm, shook the very walls of the building that held them. They were adopted by acclamation."]

Remember!—Mr. Slenker last week in Middleburg stated that the Fall of Ft Sumter brought him to the full determination to support the Government. ☞ It required ten thousand Rebels, raining shot and shell from seventeen batteries for two days, upon seventy men, to convince Mr. Slenker that the Slaveholders were making War! ☜ That is too slow a mental process for a Judge!

Remember!—It is not denied that in Feb. 1859, a Democratic meeting was held at Middleburg, a report of which in Mr. Slenker's Infidel-Secessionist organ at Selinsgrove—the Times) stated—

"ISAAC SLENKER, Esq., expressed himself very decidedly in favor of CUBA, urging the NECESSITY of TAKING IT if it can not be purchased on reasonable terms."

Is not that sentiment, beautiful morality for a Judge!

Disloyal Papers Presented.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 25.—The Grand Jury have presented the Newark Journal, Warren Journal, Hunterdon Democrat, New Brunswick Times, Plainfield Gazette, and Hackettstown Gazette, as denouncing and libelling the Government, leaving them "to the action of public opinion," and recommending "that private and public patronage be withdrawn."

☞ It is hardly necessary to say that all the above papers are "decidedly Democratic." No Republican was yet found or "presented" as a traitor!

☞ The CONSTITUTION says:

"The privilege of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, except when in cases of REBELLION or invasion, the public safety may require it."

"TREASON against the U. S. shall consist only in levying War against them, OR in adhering to their Enemies, giving them aid and comfort."

W. H. Wilson, a Methodist preacher of Baltimore, has been arrested on a charge of being concerned in the smuggling of quinine and other contraband articles, mostly medicines, through the lines of the Federal army into the Confederate States for the "aid and comfort" of the Southern army.

A man named Poorman was killed by two men named Lipton and Hoys, on the Nittany mountains, Centre county, while going from a camp meeting—all drunk. Both the murderers are in jail at Bellefonte.

The Maryland Legislature was broken to prevent its passing a Secession ordinance, notoriously in defiance of the people's will, as an excuse for Jeff. Davis to extend the battle ground to Maryland.

There are a great many "changes" nowadays, in the Editorship of Democratic papers, suspected of Secessionism.

Gustavis W. Smith, late Street Commissioner in New York City, is now an officer in the Rebel Army.
