LAURA, LAURA, DON'T SECEDE.

Kiss me, sweet-heart! ere I go
Armed and drilled to meet the foe;
Gun in hand, and on my back
A sixteen pounder—haversack.
I go—my country calls—adieu!
To both, my darling girl! be true;
And, come success, come scathe and need,
Laura! Laura! don't secede.

When on the tented field, (perhaps
With rations short, and shorter naps,)
We wheel, present, advance, retreat,
Thou'lt have, O heavens! at thy feet
Some one persuadingly present
Himself and an establishment;
Laura! no such trifler heed;
Though he glitter, don't secede!

Cling unto thy mother, dear!
Let no "Home Guards" come thee near,
Dancing cowcows 'fore thy eyes,
Making light of household ties,
Prating of thy woman's rights,
Gallanting thee about o' nights—
Lest the core should prove a weed,
Basely crumbled, don't secede!

Good-by, Laura! No regrets.
If from balls and bayonets,
From "broils and battles," (BOILS I mean,
For deadlier is the soup tureen,
When badly seasoned, than the bore
Of loudest cannon that can roar!)
Safe delivered, swiftly I
Back to ease and thee will fly.
United, then, in word and deed,
Laura, dear, we'll BOTH secede!

A Plain Case of Fraud.

It is related, by one of the dispatches from the battle-field at Edwards' Ferry, that when our brave boys were trying to make their way from the trap into which they had been led, back across the Potomac, a poor negro with a small skiff employed himself the whole night in ferrying over the fugitives. He succeeded, in this way, in saving the lives, or in securing the escape, at least, of no less than one hundred persons. His master all the while was probably on the Virginia shore, trying to send a Minie ball into the hearts of our men. Now, as the "service" of this fellow did not belong to himself, but his master, what right had he to lend his labor to our suffering soldiers? Was he not defrauding his owner? Will not some of our Generals insist upon "delivering him up" to be properly punished for so audacious a use of his muscle? Of course, no one will be so insane as to propose that he should be emancipated for this timely rescue of so many loyal troops! That would be Abolitionism! that would be interfering with the sacred institution! that would be confessing that negroes are men and entitled to a decent respect!—N. Y. Evening Post.

Too Sharp for Him.

A supercilious and haughty Virginian, named Vinton, had a pass to enter our lines and, meeting a Zouave picket, handed it to his slave, probably deeming himself too good for the contact! The Zouave read the pass, and told the Darkey to go on. When Vinton attempted to follow, he was stopped by a bayonet—

"But that's my pass," he exclaimed, angrily.

"Can't help it; it says pass bearer, and 'bearer' has passed."

"Then I'll call Sam back, and take it. Here! Sam."

"It won't do," said the picket, "that pass is to Alexandria—not to Fairfax; and the nigger's got to have another pass before he can return!"

So the disgusted F. F. V. was forced to turn back, and the "chattel" became a "contraband."

The Louisville Journal says: "Hundreds of those exceedingly sensitive Kentuckians who so eloquently proclaimed that they could never take up arms against the Southern States, inasmuch as those States were Kentucky's sisters, have now taken up arms for the conquest of Kentucky itself. Isn't that enough to make the devil laugh?"

AUTHOR'S WIFE.—"James! James!" (in a louder key) "I have been calling you this half-hour, and dinner is getting quite cold." "Oh, is it? Well, you know I have just killed the cruel old uncle; his property, of course, comes to his nephew Charley, and I am marrying him to Emily. Keep the mutton hot until the ceremony is over, there's a dear."

Take any thousand from the hordes that are hanging on the track of the Nationals in Missouri, and who prate about "OUR nigger," and 999 of them are too poor to buy a baby, if full-grown niggers were selling at ten cents a dozen.—Missouri Correspondent N. Y. Times.

The New York Post learns, from good authority, that certain English capitalists have made a proposition to Mr. Chase to take a hundred millions of the loan of the United States Government at six and a half per cent. interest.

AMBROSE'S Coal Oil No Chimney Hand Lamp. The following are some of its advantages:

1st. Dispenses with the chimney, which is expensive and cumbersome.

2d. The light is at once accessible for lighting and kindling purposes.

3d. Burns less oil than the chimney lamp.

4th. Burns the different grades and qualities of coal and carbon oils, from a density of 38 and upward.

5th. Can be carried around with about the same facility as a candle.

6th. Length of time in burning improves the quality of the flame. The lamp may be burned a week without trimming and will not smoke.

The burners can be attached to any lamp, so that persons having lamps need only change the burners.

DR. HOOFLAND'S
BALSAMIC CORDIAL,
FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF
Coughs, Colds, Influenzas, Croup, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Incipient or Settled Consumption, and all Affections of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, Accompanied with Debility, and for the relief and cure, in all its various forms, of Patients in advanced stages of the latter disease.

THIS Balsamic Cordial is entirely a Vegetable production, combining the healing properties of the Balsam, with the invigorating qualities of the Cordial, rendering it an agreeable remedy for the purposes intended, that there are but few cases of disease which will not, at an early period, succumb to its blessing and life-giving properties.

For ages has the treatment of pulmonary diseases occupied the greater portion of the attention of the scientific of the medical world, but none acquired more eminence in his treatment of these diseases, than the celebrated Prussian Dr. Hoofland, the originator of the Balsamic Cordial. His labors devoted to the production of remedies that would stand unrivaled. How well he has succeeded, the American people are able to judge—and we positively assert, that no preparations that have ever been placed before them, have received the same amount of benefits on all classes of society, as the remedies of Hoofland, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., of Philadelphia.

The Cordial is designed for a class of diseases more general and more fatal than any other to which the people of this country are subject—those originating from a "slight cold." That eminent authorities, Dr. Bell, says: "I will not say that Colds are to our inhabitants what the Plague and Yellow Fever are to those of other countries; but I can aver confidently that they usher in disease of greater complexity and mortality than these latter

DR. C. M. JACKSON—Respected Friend:—Having for a long time been acquainted with the virtues of thy BALSAMIC CORDIAL in Coughs, Colds, Inflammation of the Lungs, &c., I thus freely bear testimony to its efficacy. For several years I have never been without it in my family. It is also quite a pleasure to state that I have used it with entire success in the treatment of Bowel Complaints. Thy friend truly, JOHN M. WHITALL,

An excellent and Stomachic preparation of IRON put up in pill form, and carried by combination in hydrogen, entertained by the highest Medical Authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities in the blood, depression of vital energy, nervous and other forms of debility, Dyspepsia, and indeed its necessarily in almost every conceivable case.

Invalidism in all maladies in which it has been tried it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Bad Digestion, Jaundice, Intermittent and Remittent Fevers, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mercurial Affections, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fever, Prostration from Fever, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease, or of the continued distribution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative will prove its unequaled value, and which no description can sufficiently attest. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very sexual instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emulated with symptoms of spasm, or nervousness, continued sensation, extreme debility, total prostration of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for persons familiar to medical men, the operation of the preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary. So unlike the old modes, it is vigorously tonic, without bone-earthing and constipating effects, regulates appetite, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or inducing a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably efficient and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dysentery, innumerable as its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant tenesmus.

In unchecked DIARRHŒA, even when advanced to Dysentery, continued, sanguineous, and apparently mortal, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In SCROFULOUS TUBERCULOSIS, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effects of the most exactly balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females can not be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the consequences arising them.

In RHEUMATISM, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter case, more decidedly—it has been universally well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In INTERMITTENT FEVERS it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box. Sent by mail prepaid to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

LINDSEY'S Improved BLOOD SEARCHER,
A STANDARD MEDICINE
For the speedy, radical and effectual cure of ALL diseases arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD!

THIS medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of

Scrofula	Cancerous formations,
Cutaneous diseases,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Eruptions on the face,	Sore Eyes, Scald Head,
and, shallow Ulcers,	Rheumatic disorders,
Tetter affections,	Costiveness,
Dyspepsia, Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Mercurial diseases,	General debility,
Liver Complaint,	Loss of Appetite,
Low Spirits,	Foul Stomach,

Female Complaints—and all diseases having their origin in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of David McCreary, of Naples Township, on the 31st day of August, 1859, made affidavit before Justice Gourley that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by Dr. Phelps, of Bedford county, and by Dr. Nelson, of the Eclectic College, Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which his disease increased in portions of his left cheek, more entirely eat away. He had given up all hope, when he heard of the Blood Searcher, and was induced to try it. Four bottles effected him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but the invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable cure may be seen in a Circular to be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to a case of Nancy Hockley, of Edinboro, Armstrong Co., cured of SCROFULA after being unable to walk for three years.

To be cured a lady in Accomville, Clearfield Co., who was afflicted with Scrofula in a most severe form.

To the case of Mr. Mosser, residing in Carrollton, Cambria Co., Pa., who was badly afflicted with Cancer in the left side of the neck, and his case was worse, if possible, than McCreary's.

The published affidavits in these cases—every one of which was sworn to before a Justice of the Peace—and many also be found in a Circular to be had of any of the Agents.

COMMENDATIONS.

From Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, M. C., Ohio

My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) Picture is more life-like than any they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never before seen which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.

From Hon. E. Joy Morris, late Minister to Italy.

The expression, beauty and softness of your pictures, combined with their durability of color and both features as indestructible, can not fail to commend them to the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

From Gov. James Pollock.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil Colors, under the new process conveyed upon and have great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but by the artistic finish in all its aspects, and recommend him to the public as deserving of encouragement to the beautiful art. 47 1861 JAMES POLLOCK.

Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says:

"I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of more than a quarter of a century in the City of New York, that all the liquors and Wines which I bottle are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon in every particular."

Every bottle has the Proprietor's name on the wax and a fac-simile of his signature on the cerrincate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at RETAIL by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

[Read the following from the N. Y. Courier:]

EXTENSIVE BUSINESS.—NEW YORK MERCHANTS.—We are happy to inform our fellow citizens from time to time of such evidences where the genuine merit of any article is appreciated, and the proprietary and foundry successfully established. Such is the case with Udolpho Wolfe, one of the best quality Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. He does not intend to give an elaborate description of this household celebrity, but simply to call attention to the fact that the public may rely upon any statement which may appear with reference to his goods. [Read the card in another column, dated 12, 19 and 21, Market street.] He has also a large and handsomely fitted up Wine and Liquor Saloon, at 63 and 65 Ann street, near Broadway, where he will be pleased to see his friends and customers. Amongst the Wines and Liquors, the Schiedam Schnapps is highly recommended by Physicians, and Port Wines, Sherry and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and Cork Rum, are warranted unadulterated to any in the country. He has also three large cellars filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in bond, and his Private House key ready to let. Mr. Wolfe's card will be found in another column. Let the public remember the name, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business meets the approval of every lover of his species. Private families who want pure Wines and Liquors to medicine, may depend on the genuineness of Mr. Wolfe, and every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to call on him for a supply, or send for their bottles, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a case, as such a merchant, should be sustained against his rival of the same, proprietors in the United States, and Europe, and the Colonies. Sold by J. BAKER & CO. Lewisburg

DR. O. PHELPS BROWN'S
ACADIAN BALSAM
FOR THE PERMANENT
CURE OF CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, COUGHS, COLDS, GENERAL DEBILITY, &C.

THIS remedy is offered as effectual a source of speedy cure for the large number that are annually falling victims to that fatal class of diseases of the throat and lungs which are also subject to its cure.

Every person who has suffered from an attack of Bronchitis, or Asthma, or Coughs, Colds, and Consumption, knows that the usual remedies are entirely powerless to afford relief, and that the disease must run its course. The Acadian Balsam will relieve in a few hours, but not in all cases. It makes a direct attack upon the disease, and in the most violent cases will relieve in a few hours
