UNION COUNTY STAR & LEWISBURG CHRONICLE---NOV. 26, 1861

ADVENTISING -The first two verses of Variety and News Depot. the first chapter of the Chronicles of Success, reads thus :

"Who hath sadness? Who hath wo? With shinneth the streets with gloom of countenance and perplexity of mind? Who losoth confidence and patronage, and sinketh into poverty and forgetfulness? He that advertisely not. He that doth not make husself known through the papers. He who by his negligence in this matter deprivets himself of gain and secureth to himself loss. His business wisdom is Ledger, Weekly, Clipper, Police Gazette, Merfoolishness. His lack of knowledge, yes, his stinginess sticketh out, and the discerning shuu him.

"Who hath gladuess? Who hath joy? Who hath growing business and full coff.rs? Who payoth his notes promptly? Who gaineth the confidence and patronage of men, and riseth to affluence? He that a location liberally-that through the journals of the day maketh bimself and his business known 1 He hath chosen the J. MERRILL LINN Commences in for the State of Lova, part of windom, and his riches and honor increase like light in the morning. His studies grow th tread. His complacency increase the His fame extendeth. His Livery Business and happiness coduceth, and he is honored and . blessed of all men-particularly by prin-Lers."

A PATRIOTIC FAMILY -- Sig of the seven sons of Mrs. Anna Williamson, re-Filing in Patterson, N. J., have left to j in the National army; the seventh has announced his purpose to follow within a month. The Guardian says : "We visited the old lady the other day, and she informed us if she had six more she would rejsice to give them up at the demand of her country. She says if her bushand filled, All work warranted to give satisfaction were living, he would also have gone ; and, if they got short of men, she is willing to go herself."

ANOTHIR -Eight members of the family of Fair, of this city, have volunteered in Uncle Sam's army. Their average heighth is six feet. William Fair, Jr., was wounded at the battle of Bull Run, and is now a prisoner at Richmond. If any family in the State of Ohio, or any other State, can turn out more six foot men for the defence of the country, we would be glad to hear from it .- Doyton Union Democrat.

A little before the war, the rebel Mason was invited to visit Boston, by Mr. Winthrop. Mr. Mason replied, "Sir, I shall not visit Boston again until I come as an Ambassador." What a prophet M. is, to be sure !

Some genius has conceived the brilliant idea of impressing all the lawyers and quack doctors into the military servicebecause their "charges " are so great that no one can "stand " them.
