

UNION COUNTY STAR AND LEWISBURG CHRONICLE.

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, DEC. 13, 1861.

"THE UNION," established in 1811--Whole No., 2,501.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843--Whole No., 922.

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY--
Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

PROSPECTUS—We have printed a quantity of Subscription Papers for Star & Chronicle for 1862, which we will be glad to give or send to any one desiring a copy. We offer some Premiums. (See last page.)

We learn from various sources that the Court at Middleburg, this week, is progressing very satisfactorily under Judge Woods. The Grand Jury was discharged Tuesday noon, when it was requested that those who could not reach home that day might have pay for another day. Court refused, stating that all the Jury, if there on their own time and expense, could get home that day.

That is the true principle—Let every man who works for the County, work as he would for himself, and as he would have others work for him—this would save 25 per cent. of our County Taxes. As it is, our "miles" are mostly stretched rather than shortened—Assessors have amazing short days, and too many of them—and Jurors seem to conspire to do the least work in the longest time possible. Witness Grand Jurors doing nothing the first half day, adjourning unnecessarily, getting pay for a day for which they work not a home, if they choose, the same evening. Witness Traverse Jurors delaying their verdicts to prevent being called again on a case. Witness Jurors (in Lewisburg as at New Berlin) answering to their names in the morning, and then at their private business all the day. Behold the absent witnesses, the "unprepared," and "waiting" counsel and clients. Count up the "damages" paid for red herrings to estates. And then—after all those gaily have thus in fact robbed the County—how then do you account about the County Taxes?

Many of these wrongs are "customs," which should be abolished. With a new administration, is the best time to begin. The Judges, Commissioners, and other County Officers, are the special, sworn guardians of the People's rights and interests. But, to operate harmoniously and effectively, they need and seek the hearty cooperation of all concerned. Remember, our Court costs OVER TEN DOLLARS AN HOUR!

Senator Wilson, it is believed, will introduce a bill banishing Salliers from our Camps. While there are some respectable men thus engaged, yet, by all that can be learned, they are entirely unnecessary, as Government supplies in abundance all our Soldiers really need. Many of the Salliers, however—perhaps most—are unprincipled scoundrels, demoralizing the men by drinking and other dissipation, and in various ways robbing and swindling out of the money Government intends for their families and their own benefit in future. Out with them!

Hon. Warren J. Woodward having resigned and moved to Reading, Gov. Curtin has appointed AARON K. PECKHAM, Esq., of Tunkhannock, President Judge of the 26th District, composed of Wyoming, Sullivan and Columbia counties. His appointment was recommended by the Bar of those Counties. We know Judge Peckham, in former years, as a gentleman of unsullied reputation, untiring industry, public spirit, and possessed of every mental requisite for a sound and safe magistrate.

The Old Franklin Almanac for 1862—only a dime—has the greatest amount of curious and useful information of any Almanac we have seen. It comprises 48 large, double-column pages—sent by mail (post-paid) on receipt of 10 cts by A. Winch, 329 Chestnut St., Philad. Its Chronicle of the Great Rebellion against the U. S., comprises all the important events, from the Breckinridge Secession at Charleston, April, 1860, to Nov. 11, 1861. Forrest has it for sale.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.—As there were no State Ticket or Congressional men last fall, and the Assembly Tickets were much complicated, its Party aspect is not clear. The Williamsport Bulletin says: "It has been ascertained, since the final count of the Return Judges, that the Union and Republican majority, in the last election in Pennsylvania, was 45,000. Had there been a State Ticket, and a full election, our majority would have reached 80 or 90,000."

The young men in and near Uniontown, Brady Tp, have formed a Society for mental improvement, called the Farmers' Debating Society and Literary Association. Well and faithfully conducted, no doubt these associations are both useful and entertaining. Our thanks are due for the honor its members have conferred upon us—yet the more they rely upon their own intellectual resources, the greater their strength and progress.

H. W. Croizer has opened a News Agency, and receives subscriptions—at the reduced Club rates—for a great variety of Papers and Magazines. Those desiring to join in this manner would expedite by calling before Christmas, or New Year's at latest. See Advt.

Improvements in Lewisburg—1861.

In our annual "tour of observation" this pleasant week in mid-December, we noted down the annexed additions, during the season to the real wealth and comfort of our borough.

On lower Market St., Aaron Wolf has erected a two-story brick dwelling. The Presbyterian church have enclosed their property with a fence, sodded, and adorned it with trees.

Jonathan Wolfe and Wm Brown Jr. have repaired and remodelled their corner properties.

Both our Foundries are putting in new Engines, and preparing for an enlarged business.

The Eagle Mill engine has machinery attached for making staves, and a circular saw.

On N. Second St., B. F. Hursh has a two-story wooden dwelling, corner above the School Building, and Martin Chappel a two-story front.

On N. Third St., Mrs. Ann LeFevre and Mrs. Sarah Cornelius, commodious additions to their dwellings.

On N. Fourth St., two-story brick dwelling by John Stannert.

On N. Fifth St., two-story wooden dwelling for Mrs. Elias Dreisbach.

On N. Seventh St., two-story brick dwelling by Ziba Meixel.

On S. Fifth St., two-story wooden dwelling by Wm. Myers.

On S. Fourth St. the Evangelists have covered a large and well-built church edifice, the basement of which will be opened for public worship on Sunday morning next.

A Cotton Port Opened!

The London Times, of the 11th ult., in speaking upon the probable success of our great Naval Expedition, very truly and almost prophetically said: "If the Federal Government can seize a Port, and open it even nominally to the trade, they thereby take away the grounds of complaint which Europe has against them. They show that it is not they who prevent cotton going out, but that it is the Southerners who keep it in. That they will get cotton in any large quantity, no one can believe, for the Confederate, or State Governments, will, of course, take care that every bale, and probably every negro, shall be removed from the neighborhood of the enemy. But still the Federals will have seized, to some extent, the demand of foreign nations, inasmuch as they will be able to say, to us and to the French, 'Here is a Port—enter it, and take all the Cotton you can get; you are at full liberty to trade with all whom you can find to trade with!'"

Even before the above was penned, the Union fleet had opened Port Royal—the finest harbor in the very center of the South. It is probable a Collector will be appointed—probably an influx of Northern men and capital, who will build up a Free City that shall rival anything in Cottonland.

Mysteries—Among Bank Directors chosen in Lebanon this year, appears the name of the Editor of the Courier. The fact demands investigation. It is everywhere understood that printers have no surplus cash—generally allowed that Col. Worth gets up about the best paper in the region. Why, then, do the capitalists of that strait band seem to wish to tantalize him by calling him into their midst every week to hear the sound of gold, and see pictures of dollars by the thousands? why tempt him by glances and glimpses that concern him not? Certainly not for an insult, nor are money-changers given to joking; verily, what can it mean but that Money-bags seeks the Printer as the best of evidence as to who pay promptly, and whose promise is best at Bank?

VERY "VICE"—The Democrats are very unfortunate in their Vice Presidents, of whom four died in office, viz., Gerry, Gen. Clinton, Tompkins, and King. And four others turned Traitors, viz., Burr, Calhoun, Tyler, and Breckinridge—each of these latter deserved the halter as much as ever John Brown did, and Tyler and Breck may get their deserts yet.

McClellan, on bidding farewell to Gen. McCallan, said, "General, do not allow yourself to be embarrassed by men who do not comprehend this great question. Carry out your own ideas, set upon your own judgment, and you will be vindicated. God bless you."

The most popular Song among the Union soldiers on the Potomac, is said to be styled "Old John Brown." Will some of our boys there let us see how it looks, and give us the "chune" if they can?

Sanford's Opera Troupe has engaged Independent Hall, Lewisburg, for Saturday evening, Dec 21, (next week)

Benj. F. Eaton has taken charge of the Millburg High School, Mr. Passmore retiring on account of ill health.

The Female Aid Society of Beaver township have now nearly ready two hundred pairs of knit socks, which they intend to sell to the Government, and appropriate the money to purchase articles for the Sanitary Commission for the benefit of the sick soldiers. Well done, for the ladies of Beaver.

Wm. Flinn, an Irishman, was last seen alive, heavily drunk, in Bellefonte. Last week, his wasted remains were found in a teno-corner, near Millsburg—dead from whiskey and cold.

Our Boys going to the War.

By Mrs. E. M. Oakes, in the "Independent."

As down the red October hills
The swollen torrents leap their rills
Past broken flames and waiting mills
With rushing noise,
So, hand to hand, with paring thrills,
Sweep forth our boys.

Not fierce to hate, but strong to dare,
They hunt the traitor in his lair—
The lowest fall has one to spare
From home's sweet joys,
The faint heart still breathes the prayer,
God save our boys!

No hushings in oppression's hold,
No lawless mob in rapine hold,
No patriot cast in Freedom's mold
With base alloy—
But from the mine earth's finest gold,
Our sterling boys!

What hopes, what faith engird them round?
What songs of cheer to Heaven resound?
What prayers that peace may yet abound,
Each heart's earnest?

While tears fall on the hallowed ground,
Where sleep our boys,
One thought, one prayer to Him all-wise
At morn and evening sacrifice,
Till Freedom, sweeping from the skies,
Her wings shall pose;

And our victorious anthems rise—
"God bless our boys!"

Will You Think?

A New Orleans despatch boasts of a splendid review in that city, comprising a Regiment of 1400 Free Negroes. One Company raised a Black Flag, "We give and take no quarters!" Thus, while the South forces bond and free Blacks to fight against the Union, some Northern men would prohibit their voluntary aid for the Union! All right for colored soldiers to shoot down our loyal brothers—but all wrong to allow the same class to shoot down rebel traitors! Such is Democracy in our day—it esteems the lives of our own good citizens under arms for their country, as of less value than the unjust property of our foes in arms!

One day recently, a part of McCall's division protected a foraging party which brought in 25 wagon loads of wheat, 10 loads of corn, 5 loads of potatoes, 2 loads of beef, 27 fat hogs, 1 yoke of oxen, 7 horses, 5 slaves, and other articles too numerous to mention, without loss. Expeditions of this kind are daily undertaken but generally result in shipwrecks wherein the Unionists or the Rebels suffer losses, of men or property.

GLASGOW, Mo., Dec. 8.—The notorious Sweeney, and his band of robbers, who have, for some time past, kept this section of the country in terror, were captured, yesterday, at Rogers' Mill, near here, by a detachment of cavalry under Captain Merrill. Sweeney's pockets were surprised and captured, and his whole band, 35 in number, taken without firing a gun.

The barn and outbuildings of Mrs. George Broussard, of Georgetown, occupied by herself and Dr. Weiser, were destroyed by fire on Friday week. About 600 bushels of corn and other grain were burnt in the barn. Mrs. Broussard's loss is over $2,000, only about $300 of which is covered by insurance. Dr. Weiser lost his buggy, hay, hogs and other property, worth about $500.

WAR AND SLAVERY.—Curtis hit the nail on the head in his recent lecture in Boston when he said, "The mower sweeps across the field to gather the harvest, and not to destroy snakes and vermin; but, if the snakes and vermin come in his way, they will be destroyed."

"That is a good 'National' sign which an Eastern Merchant put up—
"NO NORTH—NO SOUTH—
NO EAST—NO WEST—
NO TRUST!"

A party of 15 Yankees went out from Hilton Head the other day, and came up in range of a Rebel battery. Stopping to reconnoitre, the Rebels, (quite a number) took to their heels, Ball-Ran fashion, and the 15 took possession, unharmed by the fire of the retreating party.

GARNETT DAVIS, an old-line Whig friend of Henry Clay, is elected as U. S. Senator from Kentucky, in place of traitor Breckinridge. He had 84 votes in the Legislature, to 12 for all others. Davis had 1 m. j. in excess over Mr. Guthrie, who was in Pierce's Cabinet.

Henry Reader, of M'Kensville, while out in the mountains hunting met with an accident by the discharge of his gun, the contents passing through his right hand, taking off one of his fingers.

A lad was so seriously injured, by being caught in the machinery of one of the mills at Mountsville, that amputation will be necessary.

On motion of Messrs. Maynard and Willard, George M. DePui, Esq. was last week admitted to practice in the courts of Lenoxy county.

The Sophronkapan Society of the Missionary Institute, Selingsgrove, will hold its Anniversary on the evening of the 19th inst.

Forty citizens of Center county, (of the 15th P. R. g.) are now prisoners at New Orleans.

Dr. W. H. Miller, and S. G. Morrison, Esq., of Williamsport, have each received a patent for army canteens.

Some, varying from $5 to $45, were sent home by 35 members of Capt. Gobin's Company, Sunbury.

The Lenoxy Gazette, Williamsport, has entered upon the 61st year of a "numerous old age."

The last Court in Juniata county took up three days.
Counterfeit 50 cent pieces, dated 1853, light weight, are in circulation.

The 115th Penn'a Regiment, is "preparing" at Philad. The Harrisburg Telegraph says a fasting of the flag ends of Companies, and Regiments there, is determined upon at head quarters. It is right that the men should be in more pleasant service, and learning something, instead of hanging about, worse than useless, for the private benefit of individuals. There are 20 Regiments and 4 companies thus "preparing" for weeks and months.

Adams' Express took from Boston about fifty tons of "unhanging fixings" for the Massachusetts volunteers in the vicinity of Washington. The principal part of this large quantity of articles was sent by the families of the soldiers.
