UNION COUNTY STAR AND LEWISBURG CHRONICLE.

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.

At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, DEC. 20, 1861.

"THE UNION," established in 1814---Whole No., 2,502.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843---Whole No., 923.

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY---
Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

UNION COUNTY COURT is progressing very satisfactorily. The following Jury Trials have gone through:

Geddes, Marsh & Co. vs. I. Palmer's Adm'r. Verdict, $741 11 for Pltf.

Seybold vs. Witt—$311 58 for Pltf.

Krick vs. Reed—verdict for Deft.

Com'th vs. E. & J. King, for obstructing highway—Defts guilty.

Com'th vs. John & Elizabeth Bentley, for complicity in the larceny of J. Miller and W. Johnson, two years ago—John is convicted and Elizabeth cleared.

R. Speer vs. C. Speer—sent to the Jury this morning.

On motion of Mr Miller, Court ordered upon record the usual notice of the death of a member of the bar, Wm Cameron, Jr.

Jacob M. Mayer, of Kelly Tp, on examination, was admitted to the bar.

Two or three Commonwealth cases, on payment of costs &c. by Defendants, were abandoned.

Grand Jury was discharged, Tuesday.

GOOD EXAMPLE.—The Harrisburg Telegraph states that the members of the "Roberts Infantry," a Company in Camp Curtin from Beaver county, signed the following agreement:

"We the undersigned, soldiers of the Roberts Infantry, believing that for accidental injuries are the bane of the camp, destroying alike the health and peace of the soldier who indulge in them, do pledge ourselves, on our honor as soldiers, that we will not touch, taste or handle intoxicating liquors of any kind while we are in the service."

If those boys live to their bargain, no Company will be healthier, happier, more peaceable, fight better, gain more honor, save more money, or look back upon camp life with more unalloyed, honest, heartfelt pleasure. Drinking officers and men curse most of the Union armies. Liquor has lost us battles already—it has taken lives, and ruined characters.

☞Howard's Express carries, gratuitously, all contributions for carrying on the "Cooper Shop Refreshment Saloon, No. 1009, Otsego St., Philad'a." This is a benevolent organization to feed all Soldiers passing through that city to the seat of war. They have refreshed as many as 7,000 in a day, and ask aid from country friends in this good work in the very time when soldiers most need good food.

☞David Baughman, formerly of Crotzerville, stole a horse in Jefferson Co., sold it to Wm Schroyer in Selinsgrove, and was taken up..... Amanda Wise, the silly girl who fired Mr Snyder's barn in Penns Tp (which the Times ascribed to the "Black Republicans") was by court sent to the Penitentiary for 10 years.

☞Who ever knew so delightful an "Indian Summer," at so late a period, as that of mid-December, A. D. 1861—in Central Penn'a? It has been very much colder, and more snow has fallen, one or two hundred miles south of us, on a line from San Francisco, through Virginia, on to Turkey in Europe.

☞Seth Kinman, the old Hunter of Union and Lycoming counties, is now on his way from California to Europe, with another Elk-Horn Chair, which he will first exhibit at the World's Fair in London, and then take on for the Emperor, Louis Napoleon, at Paris.

☞The West Branch Insurance Company, at Lock Haven, have appointed an Agent at this place, as will be seen by its Card among our New Advertisements today. We have dealt with this Company satisfactorily for some years.

☞We see that Mr. Miner, of Wilkes-Barre Record, has been prosecuted for an unintentional error—corrected as soon as possible—as to a legal proceeding. Very small-souled must he be who would seek such revenge for no intended offence!

☞The Penn'a State Treasurer gives an abstract of his Annual Report, which shows that on the 1st inst. we had in the Treasury nearly a Million of Dollars more than last year at this time.

☞The German Reformed congregation of Lewisburg and vicinity have purchased as a Parsonage, for the sum of $1600, the house (and acre of ground appurtenant) owned by Griggs Marsh, in Lewisville.

☞Samuel T. Kleckner of New Berlin is 1st Lieutenant in Co. C. of Capt. Diller, in Col. Powers' 79th Penn'a Reg. They were stationed at Fortress Monroe, but it is understood have sailed for Port Royal.

☞One day this week, a man unknown to our informants took a horse tied to a post in Milton, passed thro' Lewisburg, was arrested near Mifflinburg, and taken back to Northumberland county.

☞The County Map noticed in another column is well executed and ornamented, and is desirable to every one who wants information respecting our county.

☞The Winfield Dry Valley people this morning started off several boxes of "goodies" for their "boys" in the "Rankin Guards" under Capt. Church.

☞D. A. Jarvis is 1st Lieut. in Capt. Wm Bell's Co., F, of Col. Frischmuth's Regiment of "Curtin Hussars," and is operating at Hilltown.

NEGROES AS SOLDIERS.—Alex. Hamilton in 1779 wrote a letter to John Jay in which he earnestly recommended the employment of negroes as soldiers. It is well known that they were thus employed to a considerable extent during the Revolution.—Exchange.

Casper Attucks—a negro—was the first man shot dead by the British in Boston, in the War of 1776. The Rhode Island Regiment of Colored Men was praised in history.

☞Col. Wynkoop's regiment of cavalry left Harrisburg, on Wednesday, for Kentucky. One Company is Bryson's, from the region back of Milton.

☞Lieut. W. M. Haban, of the Flying Artillery, has made head quarters with a Company in Lewisburg, for the purposes of drilling and recruiting.

☞Wm. Dreisbach is now running the new Chamberlin Steam Flouring Mill on West Market street, Lewisburg.

☞How hard for some "Union" men to conceal their secret joy for a possible outbreak with England!

☞George Junkin, D. D., driven from Virginia by the Secessionists, is on a visit to Milton, his home 30 years since.

☞A good Farm is advertised to-day.... also, some valuable Town Property, Timber Land, &c.

[Reported for the Star & Chronicle.]

New Columbia, Dec. 12, 1861

By request of the County Superintendent, a special meeting of the "White Deer Educational Institute" was convened, &c.

After appropriate prayer, Dr. Heckendien gave some excellent practical remarks with regard to the aims of a Teachers' Institute, and the most approved manner of conducting its exercises.

The question, "Should teachers prompt pupils in reading?" and "Should Algebra be taught in common schools?" were debated.

Adjourned to hold the 5th regular meeting at Brunner's School House, Dec. 28, 1861.

WILSON LEISER, Sec.

☞Will you give an exercise to the following: "Compare your own impressions with those given in the paragraph."

The rich has no better claim than the poor to the advantages of education, neither than supposing to be of right class. Rich or poor, having no better advantages than the poorer lowermost in the scale, the former has the better chance of success. The same vice versa. I and I can only hold these opinions.

Respectfully yours, W. L.]

EXPECTED EXCITING NEWS AT WASHINGTON.—Dec. 16.—The latest news from England has occasioned no sparkling excitement among public men. The sullen tone of the British press having unmitigated. Hence the announcement of expression of surprise. At present the dispute between the United States and Great Britain looks grave, the money public votes has established to await the result of diplomatic formalities. So will it be again.

Latest News

Gens. Butler and Phelps, with several regiments of New Englanders, have landed and taken possession of Ship Island, which commands the most important entrance to New Orleans. We have rumors of fights there, and the Rebels are doubtless hurrying forces there to meet the Union Army.

An Expedition from Port Royal has started for Fernandina, a town on the coast of Florida commanding the Railroad across the head of the Peninsula to Pensacola.

Large hostile armies are approaching each other in the neighborhood of Bowling Green, Ky. A force of Unionists were attacked by a body of Rebels thrice their number, but the Rebels were defeated.

The rebel armed Schooner "Royal Yacht," was captured off Galveston, and destroyed. Several of her crew were killed, and 8 wounded are among the 13 taken prisoners. We lost 2 killed, and 7 slightly hurt.

Gen. Kelly (Union) is pushing on from Romney towards Winchester, alarming the Rebels at Harper's Ferry.

Gen. Scott has written a letter which is having a good effect in calming down the excitement in England against the U.S.

Latest—By Telegraph.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—No official communication has been received yet from Lord Lyons in regard to the Mason and Slidell affair, but an amicable adjustment is probable. One of the Cabinet officers remarked to a party of gentlemen in the lobby of the house to-day, that there need be no fear of any trouble with England—that Secretary Seward had satisfactorily arranged everything.

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Secretary Chase produces brilliant and decisive military and naval results. The Trent affair to be amicably adjusted.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 19.—A despatch received here from Gen. Pope's head quarters states that after a forced march, yesterday, he got between the enemy encamped six miles from Chilhowee Johnson (over 2,000 strong) in Clinton and Henry counties, but as soon as they heard of his approach, they retreated towards Rose Hill, Johnson Co., leaving all their arms, munitions, baggage, &c. in our possession. Gen. Pope threw forward a body of cavalry and a section of artillery in pursuit, following with the main body of his army. He captured 1000 fleeing rebels, and a train of 70 wagons with clothing and supplies for Price's army was also captured.

Col. Geary was attacked, but he repulsed the enemy—no loss on our side.

CAMP CALIFORNIA, Dec 14, '61.

We received this week two numbers of your paper. A special friend, it does us good down here in Virginia to get hold of the Lewisburg Chronicle and learn news from home. We left Camp Curtin, 8th Nov. Encamped a mile from Washington for a week, then marched further, to guard the Rail ad. We are three miles west of Alexandria, encamped in a cornfield belonging to a man who it is believed is a Secessionist—we don't allow him to come to our camp. We belong to Gen. Sumner's Division of 16 Regiments. You may travel from here for miles and it looks like one continued line of tents. All seem eager for a trial with the Rebels. We drill every day, and our Gen. says we are the best drilled Reg in his Division.

Last Tuesday, there was quite an alarm. Several Regiments were ordered to have three days' rations cooked immediately—all was bustle, the boys in good spirits, to see who would be ready first. We were ready by noon, but no orders to march—retired to rest as usual—at midnight, had orders to march in 20 minutes—were all ready—but retired again, the alarm proving to be a mistake.

I send you the Roll of our Company. Towards the last are the names of several enlisted in Snyder and Northumberland, and others brought in by Lieut Shields [from Chester county, we believe.]

I will let you hear from us as soon as anything takes place worth knowing.

Your sincere friend, T. C.

SHOT.—The first public execution has taken place in the Union Army of the Potomac. A private in the Cavalry, named Wm. H. Johnson, alleging that he wanted to go to see his mother, in New Orleans, left our lines and met a force (as he tho't) of Rebels. He told them he had deserted and gave them information of importance. They happened to be Union men, who arrested and exposed him, and his guilt was so flagrant that he was tried, and shot in the presence of 7000 men of Gen. Franklin's division. The manner of execution is as follows: twelve men are drawn by lot from Companies, eleven of whom have balls in their cartridges, and one is blank, but nobody knows whether he has the blank or a ball. Eight men fire at the heart, and if they fail of effect, four of them fire at the head. The first fire not killing at once, the second squad fired, four balls taking fatal effect on the head of the traitor—a sad, horrid punishment for a heinous crime. He confessed he had been well treated, but yielded to a sudden temptation to desert. He was a young man and enlisted from one of the Cities.

The expenses of the U.S. Post Office Department will be less, by Two and a Half Millions of Dollars, this year, than last, since the mails have been stopped in the Rebel States.

Jeff. Davis, it is said, has one great love, and one great hate. His great hate is for the peace men of the South; his great love is for the peace men of the North.

Nearly all the Irish population in Baltimore have been Secessionists, but they are now rallying for the Union against England.

The Charleston Fire.

As tenement after tenement was enveloped in flames, the panic was awful, and thousands of persons evacuated their houses and filled the streets. The buildings in the lower part of the City, where the fire broke out, were principally of wood, and extremely inflammable, which accounts for the remarkably rapid progress of the fire.

Gen. Ripley, who superintended the movements of the troops, who had arrived at the scene about this time, ordered several buildings on the route of the conflagration to be blown up, and after some delay the order was executed.

The Charleston Courier of the 13th gives a list of between 200 and 300 sufferers, and says that the loss is estimated at from $5,000,000 to 7,000,000.

Five churches were destroyed—the Cathedral, St. Peter's Episcopal, the Cumberland Street, the Methodist and Circular Church.

The Charleston Mercury says five hundred and seventy six buildings were destroyed.

Mr. Russel, at whose factory the fire originated, thinks that it must have been occasioned by an incendiary or by the negligence of the negroes employed there.

The Anderson Body Guards have left the camp at Carlisle, Pa., for Kentucky. Wm. F. Post, Charles B. Webb, and Giles Waterous, of Montrose, are members of this body, which has representatives from almost every county in Penn'a.

MURDER.—Peter Buch, a German of 71 years, got into a quarrel with an Irishman, John O'Malley, at a grocery on "Spirit Hill," in Providence township, Nov. 22d. Both were intoxicated. Buch stabbed O'Malley to the heart, and is now in jail. So says the Wilkes-Barre Record.

Mason, the traitor, is the author of the infamous Fugitive Slave Law. How does he like looking out of his "jug" in Boston harbor upon the city where hundreds of U.S. soldiers were degraded by aiding to force the poor fugitive, Anthony Burns, from freedom back to slavery?

A member of the Arkansas Legislature with 39 or 40 of his neighbors, recently joined a Union force in Missouri. Three Union men in Tennessee have been hung on charge of bridge burning. Lodges of Union men, numbering many thousands, are alleged (by both friends and foes) to exist in nearly all the Secession States. Their power may yet be felt, and soon.

The Rebels have had to draft soldiers in Tennessee to supply the demands. It causes great excitement among them—riots, open resistance, and bloodshed.

The noble deceased American Senators BAKER and BINGHAM, have had appropriate honors paid them in Congress. A motion is pending to expel Senator Bright of Ind. and Johnson of Mo. as traitors.—Senator Wilmot of Penn'a returned home on account of ill health.

Paul Powel, private in the Union army near Washington, was shot dead for his insubordination in the face of officers. A soldier's first duty is obedience.

The Shamokin Register states that S. K. Gilger raised last season on one vine, five pumpkins, weighing respectively 88, 86, 78, 77 and 62 pounds—a total of 381 pounds of pie-timber from one seed.
