PROSPECTUS.

THE

Union County Star and Lewisburg Chronicle

COMMENCES a new volume, January, 1862. Its main design is to furnish a reliable, interesting Family Newspaper. We have several Correspondents among the Soldiers, and, (having the TELEGRAPH in our office,) often give News in advance of the Dailies. We sustain the Administration in its efforts to put down Treason, maintaining that Slavery, having caused the Rebellion, shall ultimately pay its cost.

Convinced, from six years' practical experience, that the Advance Pay System is the best for all concerned, we shall continue it. We therefore ask all former patrons, and others so disposed, to renew or begin their subscriptions, at the rate of 12½ cts. per month, $1 for 8 months, $1.50 per year, &c. Payments from a distance may be made in the new 1 and 3 cent postage stamps, gold, or notes current in Penn'a.

As some reward for those who may be kind enough to speak a good word for our paper to their neighbors, or who wish to send it away as a present to distant friends, we offer the following Premiums, and Reductions to Clubs, (the papers to be sent wherever ordered, on receipt of the pay:)

For the largest Cash Club at $1 each—sent in on or before Saturday, Feb. 22, (last day of Feb. Court)—a good $5 FAMILY BIBLE, lettered in gold with any name desired.

For $25 with 25 names, an extra copy, and either of the following desirable $1.25 Books: "The Horse and his Diseases"—"Township and Local Laws of Pennsylvania"—or "Eliza Acton's Modern Cookery."

For $15 with 15 names, an extra copy, or either of the last named Books.

For $10 with 10 names, or $5 with 4 names, the amusing little book, "HYMENOLOGY."

For every $1.50 subscription, "HYMENOLOGY."

We now publish a half-sheet, semi-weekly, for our County subscribers, but do not promise to continue to be at that extra trouble and expense except as long as the War News may require it and our patronage may warrant. Those who prefer a whole sheet, weekly, can have it in that form.

The "Union" newspaper was started 47 years since, and as the Senior of the Chronicle has been engaged in it 13 years, the "Star & Chronicle" may be considered as an "established" journal. It enjoys the best patronage of any in the County, making it one of the best Advertising mediums in Central Pennsylvania. We give, Officially, the County, Sheriff's, Borough and Post Office Advertising; also, Markets, Marriages, Deaths, and Local News, as well as general intelligence, and try to merit the many favors we have heretofore received from the public. O. N. WORDEN, / J. R. CORNELIUS, / Editors and Proprietors.

The Knitting of the Socks.

The Winter is upon us—we have passed the Equinox;
Call the wives and maids and widows to the Knitting of the Socks!

By the Potomac River, the wind is blowing cold;
The frost-nip rusts the maple, and dims the marigold.

And on Missouri's borders, are waving to and fro
The pine trees and the dry reeds that beckon to the snow.

And the sea-board is rebounding to the surging of the main,
As fog-bells and light-ships ring and rock in the hurricane.

O, a voice comes through the tempest, clear like a crystal bell—
"All's well!" adown the wind-gust, from the pacing sentinel.

And in the lull of the night-blast, between the swirls of sleet,
Comes the "stamp, stamp," of the sentinel, for cold, cold are his feet.

Fifty thousand maids and matrons, and widows a hundred score,
Up, up! and ply the needles, let our soldiers freeze no more.

And sweet music to your hearts will steal, as each pacing sentinel
Feels the sentiment he utters in his baritone "All's well!"

Ho! buxom wife and widow and maid with the glossy locks,
Draw 'round the loyal hearthstones to the Knitting of the Socks!
