Onward!

Since President Lincoln and his Secretary of War have confined Gen. M'Clelland's entire care to the Grand Army of the Potomac, matters have assumed a much better aspect, on the Seaboard and at the West. No one man can direct operations everywhere. Our Generals catch the spirit of the times when measurably their own masters, and the result is seen in the decisive victories in North Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri. In a recent conversation with three Brigadiers, at one of his receptions, Mr. Stanton publicly said, "You must fight. If we are defeated, it can not be helped; if victorious, so much the better. But you must fight."

The following "war bulletin," thanking Gen. Lander for his brilliant sweep in Virginia, contains the true Napoleonic ring:

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, Feb 17, 1862

To Brig-Gen F. W. LANDER.

The President directs me to say that he has observed with pleasure the activity and enterprise manifested by yourself and by the officers and soldiers of your command. You have shown how much may be done in the worst weather and the worst roads, by a spirited officer, at the head of a small force of brave men, unwilling to waste life in camp when the enemies of their country are within reach. Your brilliant success is a happy presage of what may be expected when the Armies of the Potomac shall be led to the field by their gallant Generals.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Sec'y of War.

Important Legislation.

An Act providing for the assumption of that portion of the direct National Tax which has been apportioned to the State of Pennsylvania, passed both Houses of the Legislature, and on Monday received the Executive signature. At the same time official notice of the fact was served on the Secretary of the Treasury—so that there remains only the passage of the receipt for the full amount of this tax, between the Treasurer of the United States and the Governor of Pennsylvania, to show that the State's indebtedness on this score has been fully liquidated: thus relieving the people of the commonwealth from taxation on this account for the year ensuing—a condition which the people of no other State in the Union can boast.

A comparison of this, with the fact of the superior force which Pennsylvania has now in the field, speaks highly in favor of the wise policy which has governed the disbursement of her finances and the control of her resources. It has relieved the people of the burdens of a war which is now crushing the energies of citizens of other States, and it will also place the credit of the Commonwealth in a position to command the contribution and the confidence of the whole country.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

The Captives.

The prisoners from Fort Donelson are distributed through the Western cities, and generally seem reconciled. The privates seem brave enough, but are inferior to the Union soldiers in intelligence, arms, discipline, and stamina.

Col. Corcoran, Col. Lee, and Maj. Revere, were not among the 400 returned Union prisoners who arrived at Fortress Monroe. We have sent the Rebels men of equal or higher rank, but they refuse to return the favor to the individuals! S true it is that Slavery is one of the "twin relics of Barbarism."

It is intended to make Col. Corcoran, a Brigadier General. If the Secesh don't release him then, they'll have all Ireland down upon 'em!

P.S. Since the above was in type, Cols. Cogswell, Lee and Wood, Maj Revere, 4 Captains, 5 Lieutenants and all (abt 380) of the Union prisoners at Richmond, released, and reached Washington. They say others, including Col Corcoran, are on the way from N.C., S.C., and Al. They do not compliment the Rebels for their general treatment of our men.

Halleck on the Victory.

ST. LOUIS, Feb 19.—The Major General commanding this department, congratulates Flag Officer Foote, Brigad Gen. Grant, and the brave officers and men under their command, on the recent brilliant victories on the rivers Tennessee and Cumberland. But the war is not yet ended. Prepare for new conflicts, and new victories. Troops are concentrating from every direction. We shall soon have an army which shall be irresistible. The Union flag must be restored. Everywhere the enthralled Union men, in the South, must be set free. The soldiers and sailors of the great West are ready and willing to do this. The time and place have been determined on. Victory and glory await the brave!

By order of
Major General HALLECK
N H. M'LEAN, Assist Adj. Gen.

Ord Serg. Charles Plummer, of the 51st New York, died of typhoid fever shortly after the Roanoke battle. To Chaplain told him "Burnside is swimming" when Plummer gasped the words "Thank God!" and life departed. His real name is Charles P Tidd, he being one of the nineteen men who took Virginia under Capt. John Brown, and escaped.

Nearly all the officers and privates who entered the tobacco prisons at Richmond, pro-slavery Democrats, have come out red-hot Abolitionists. Most of the army, except a few West Point officers, are said to be tending in the same direction.—Bloomfield (Pa.) Advocate.

Hugh Young, Editor of the Wellsboro Agitator (Tioga Co. Pa.) declines the proffered U. S appointment to one of the West India islands.

DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., Philada.

LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE, Chronic or Nervous Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits, can be effectually cured by using

HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

These Bitters do not contain Alcohol in any form. One of the ingredients is the Oil of Calisaya Bark, the other ingredients are Roots that grow in Germany, from whence they are imported expressly for this medicine. In bottles containing a quart, the Oil of Calisaya Bark alone costs more than the price charged for the Bitters.

As a Tonic, these Bitters have no equal. They will give tone and strength to the system more speedily than any other bitters or medicine now known to the public. Those who doubt this assertion are requested to call for a pamphlet, and read the certificates of some of the most eminent men in the country, who have used the Bitters in their practice and in their families, and who concur in pronouncing them superior to any other bitters or tonic known.

These Bitters are entirely Vegetable, and contain no Alcoholic Preparation. Hence they are the best tonic in the world for all those diseases of females arising from debility or want of tone in the system. They are also the best remedy in the world for children of feeble constitutions. Delicate females, who cannot take the ordinary bitters in consequence of the Alcohol which they contain, will find these Bitters just what they require to give them tone and strength.

Although these Bitters are highly recommended for all the diseases mentioned in this pamphlet, and will cure nine cases out of ten of all those diseases, they are not recommended as a remedy for all diseases, but for all cases where a tonic is required they are unequalled by any preparation in the world. Even in cases where Mercury or Calomel has been administered, these Bitters will counteract its effects upon the system sooner than any other medicine now known to the public. Those who have been salivated by Mercury will find in these Bitters a sure remedy for that disease. Those who have injured themselves by the use of Calomel will find in these Bitters a sure remedy for that disease. Those who have injured themselves by the use of Calomel will find in these Bitters a sure remedy for that disease. Those who have injured themselves by the use of Calomel will find in these Bitters a sure remedy for that disease.

CAUTION.—Be sure and ask for HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., Philadelphia, Pa. All others are counterfeits.
