great Pennsylvania bunter, of Manohester, Wayne Co. Pa. He has slain over fifteen and panthers, and bas been perhaps the must successful bunter that ever lived on the American continent. Eighty thousand copies will comprise the first edition. It will doubtless be interesting-as the editor, we are informed, is a man of enterprise and literary ability. (The price of the book is not stated in his notice.)

ANOTHER .- "Uncle Jared Robinson," between 80 and 90 years old, was lately found dead in his bed (without sickness, previously,) at his son's, on the river just above Tunkhannock, Ps. He is said to have slain 500 welves, and a "proportion" of other "varmint," and even in his old age would camp out alone, for days, after game, which brought him quite a livelihood. We are not aware that his adventures have had a historian.

The Spring Elections.

The Elections for township and borough officers, throughout this County, will take place on Friday, 21st. It is to be hoped that these elections will be attended by DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP. every tox payer, and that good men may be chosen to fill the various offices. The Justices of the Peace, School Directors, these who do not attend the elections, or who use their influence in favor of incompetent men, for these positions, do the community in which they live a serious wrong. Former politics is of less account, but be sure to put in no office any man of the Breckenridge breed, or who prates about "Lincoln war," or "Abolition war," or who holds his sort of "Democracy" as above his country : for such a man is not to be trusted, anywhere. And see to it that you do not let a few worthless or designing men get up your tieket. Take an early start, to bring out good menand then see that they are elected !

Sharp Shooting.

Our sunburnt friend of the Central Read, whose Bill is easily recognized, tells the following conversation between a Rebel and Federal picket :

Rebel. "I say, can you follows shoot?" Federal. "Wa-al, I reckon we can, some."

Rebel. "Down in Mississip', we can knock a bumble bee off a thirtle blow at three hundred yards."

Federal. O, that sin't nothin' tew the way we shewt up in Vermont. I belonged tew a military company there with a hundred men in the company, and we went out for practice every week. The Cap's draws us up in single file and sets a eider barrel rolling down bill, and each man takes his shot at the bung-hole as it turns up. It is afterwards examined, and if there is a shot that didn't go into the bung hole, the member who missed is expelled I belonged to the Company ten years, and there ain't nobody been expelled ! - Rochester Express.

Thus it appears that all accusations made by disappointed contractors, designing politicians, or even ex-parte Congressional BLUE and White PLASTER for sale by committees, are not fair or true. "One is good until the other is told," however, to be well furnished without some well although there are many who "would rath selected Pictures. This want can now be er tell lies on six months' credit than tell supplied at the truth for cash."

Probably not one Contracter out of a hundred has been proved dishonest, and when so proved, State or National authorities have both interfered, and stopped the frauds and impositions as far as possible But there should be Punishment also.

Rebel Gasconade.

The correspondent of a Virginia paper, writing from Nashville just previous to the fall of Donelson, said :

"Large and enthusiastic publicmeetings are being held every night, the militia is drilled every day, and if the city shall be doomed to fall into the hazards of war, it will only be abandoned after a heroic detense by its people worthy of an ansestry whose laurels in the field and cabinet are

That's the way the chivalry talk when out of danger. The "heroic defense" of Nashville consisted of a stampede fortyeight hours before the Union forces arrived.

Although not disposed to faser or precimment Patent Medicines in general, through district of their ingreducts and effects, 1 yet knew of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes he has to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to "Hoodand's derman follows," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this sity, because I was projudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic materia. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shewmaker Esq., for the removal of this prejunite by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when cuffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three betters, and he decouragement to try them, when cuffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three betters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felfor six mentals before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and in friend for directing me to the use of them.
