Negro Stealing.

During the debate on the bill to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia, in the House, some rather sharp hitting and counter-hitting took place. Among the effective repartees was one by the ever-ready Lovejoy, as follows:

Mr. Wadsworth denounced the Republicans as about to steal the property (!) which the inhabitants of the District had toiled for, upon which Mr. Lovejoy related this incident, of which he had the proofs in his hand. A free colored man in the District married a woman who was a slave, and by her had a child. He entered into an agreement with the master to pay him $1,000 for their freedom, which after years of toil he accomplished. But the colored man, by the laws of Slavery, was not a competent witness to prove the contract, and the wretch who "owned" his wife, repudiated it, after he had received the stipulated sum. When the success of the Emancipation bill became apparent, the woman and her child—this wife and mother, redeemed, but still enthralled—were sent to Maryland, and are now actually in a slave-pen in Baltimore, awaiting a purchaser. "What," said Mr. Lovejoy, "what does the gentleman from Kentucky call this? Is this stealing, or what is it?"

The "gentleman from Kentucky" made no reply.

THE END COMING.—The U. S. Senate has confirmed a new Treaty for Suppressing the African Slave Trade—no one voting against it. Its friends think the regulation now agreed upon between Great Britain and the United States, will effectually stop that inhuman traffick in human flesh. This would have been done long ago, had the Slave Power not been so strong at Washington.

—Remember, that, in A. D. 1862, in the first year of Lincoln's Administration, a Slaver pirate was actually hung in New York, and our Government is in earnest for putting a stop to the barbarities of ocean slave-trading. The world moves!

PARSON BROWNLOW is a virtuous man. The Louisville Journal says, "he has repeatedly assured us that he never swore an oath, never played a card, never attended a horse race, never told a lie, never broke the Sabbath, never voted the Democratic ticket, never wore whiskers, and never kissed any woman but his wife." This is literally true as far as known. With some failings, he is after all one of Nature's true noble men, actuated by glorious motives. His story of Secession's doings in East Tennessee, will soon be published by Geo. W. Childs, Philadelphia.

To a Secession Sympathizer.

'Twill be no thanks to you, good sir!
'Twill be no thanks to you,
When our troops come marching home from war,
The Red, the White, the Blue,
Still floating o'er them like a cloud
Of glory as they come,
While a nation's blessing, long and loud,
Shall shout their welcome home!

Oh! then, 'twill be no thanks to you!
You frowned upon their toil;
At best, 'twas folly in your view—
Until you saw the spoil.
You sighed, and looked amazing wise
At Justice's long delay,
And talked about a "Compromise"
To keep the hounds at bay.

Oh! yes, 'twill be no thanks to you!
You never spoke one word
Where heart and hands and all were due,
That I have ever heard—
One cheering word of sympathy,
One patriotic prayer—
One word of faith and hope, to be
A charm against despair.

Yet, you shall reap what they have sowed,
A country shall be yours:
For heroes' blood in streams has flowed,
A richness that endures.
Go, eat the fat, and drink the sweet
Bought by the brave and true—
And yet, remember, as you eat,
It is no thanks to you!

ROMAN RECORDER.

Among the men who fought for the Union at Pittsburg Landing, was HENRY CLAY—grandson of the illustrious Statesman—a son of the Henry Clay who fell at Buena Vista. It is not always that great men have their talents or patriotism reflected in their offspring. But the gallant Harry of the West still lives in the loyalty of some of his descendants. Daniel Webster's son Fletcher, is also in the Union service.

Gen. Fremont has ordered the summary punishment of the guerillas, or land pirates, which infest some counties in his command. One company hung or shot 16 of these two-legged rattlesnakes—outlawed villains—and this Jacksonian policy is making the Rebels sick of their business.

Gen. Burnside is said to be the special terror of the Eastern Rebels, for the reason that he makes no fuss, or parades, or "grand reviews," but is always AT WORK, keeps his men busy, and therefore in good trim and out of mischief, and he is constantly striking in some unexpected quarter.

A child of five, having seen her father for the first time, he having been absent in California, was much astonished that he should claim any authority over her, and on an occasion of rebellion, as he administered punishment, she cried out: "I wish you had never married into our family."

Old and New School Presbyterics recently met, the same day, at Elizabethtown, the home of Gen. Scott, in New Jersey, and all visited him at one hour. The Old Hero was much gratified with this attention, and paid his particular respects to a colored minister.

Michelet, a Frenchman, says: "England was always a mystery to me until I visited it. I found it a great sand bank enveloped in fog. The fog fed the grass, the grass fed the sheep, and sheep fed the men."

Nathan Calloway, of Americs, Wabash county, Ind., 78 years of age, is the father of a little urchin three weeks old. The boy is named Andrew Jackson Stephen A. Douglas Calloway.

"Harper's Weekly," which has caricatured Lincoln, Greeley, and other distinguished Union men, has been prohibited from circulation in the Yorktown region.

The emancipation question is now being pretty freely discussed on the stump in Missouri, as it was not before the Slaveholders' Insurrection.

How do the Rebels like "Old Scott's Anaconda," as far as they feel it?

Entirely Vegetable. No Alcoholic Preparation.

Dr. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED
GERMAN BITTERS,
Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., Philad'a,

WITH SPECIFIC FOR
LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach.

SUCH as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fulness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits, will positively prevent YELLOW FEVER, BILIOUS FEVER, &c.

The Proprietor in calling the attention of the public to this preparation, does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptation to the diseases for which it is recommended.

It is no new and untried article, but one that has stood the test of a twelve years' trial before the American people, and its reputation and sale are unrivaled by any similar preparation extant. The testimony in its favor given by the most prominent and well known Physicians and individuals in all parts of the country is immense, and a careful perusal of the Almanac, published annually by the proprietors, and to be had gratis of any of their agents, can not but satisfy the most skeptical that this remedy is really deserving the great celebrity it has obtained.

(From J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.)

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through dislrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes he has to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to "Hoofland's German Bitters," prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of health and mental vigor, which I had not enjoyed for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them. J. NEWTON BROWN.
