☞The immortal THOMAS JEFFERSON, in his "Notes on Virginia," gives the following prophetic words of warning on the irrepressible conflict between tyranny and equal rights:

"Can the liberties of a country be thought secure, when we have removed their only firm basis—a conviction in the minds of the people that these liberties are of the gift of God! that they are not to be violated but with his wrath! Indeed, I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just; THAT HIS JUSTICE CAN NOT SLEEP FOR EVER!*The Almighty has no attribute which can take side with us in such a contest."

The War which the insanity of Slavery has forced upon itself, renews Jefferson's thoughts in the mind of the writer of the annexed strong, stirring lines.

From the Lancaster Union.

'TIS COME AT LAST!

'TIS COME AT LAST!

'Tis come at last—the conflict dread
Twixt Freedom's host and slavery's hordes;
Cannon resounds in rhetoric's stead,
And sabres clash in place of words:
The politician's craft is o'er—
Tware well dispensed with, long before.

Pow, dreadful curb, and brainless fools,
And moral mendacripts, to doom
That Peace can live while Slavery rules!
A vile conceit, a guilty dream.
No league hath long cemented stood
In groans and shrieks, and tears and blood:
And groans and shrieks enough have risen
To rend the earth from strand to strand;
And tears and blood enough have flowed
To thrice o'erwhelm our hapless land:
A faithful record God hath kept,
Though men have thought His Justice slept.

'Tis come at last! I see it now
In myriads mustering for the fight;
Men of the free, unblenching brow,
Strong in the consciousness of right—
Behold stern retribution's rod,
The vengeance of an outraged God.

So stalks His Justice ever forth,
Where pride and cruelty, grown strong,
Have made a prison house on earth,
And marred its lovely scene with wrong:
Much more when crime, so deeply dyed,
Beneath His Holy Word would hide.

Ah! tyrants, did you think to hold
Bible and lash in either hand,
At once to sheep in Jesus' fold,
And bear the wolf's ignoble brand—
Your slave pens by God's temple rear,
And web your headman's groans with prayer?

Well, hasten! before your altars bow,
Seek Southern priests' and prophets' aid,
For Freedom's hosts are gathering now,
And on they march with thundering tread!
The time has come the test to try—
Your blot, now, shall live or die!

Press on, ye patriot hosts, press on!
God fights not on th' oppressor's side;
Your country's flag aloft be thrown,
The Freedom's emblem, Freedom's pride:
Guilty Concession's day is past,
The reckoning day has come at last!

Compromise! scheme conceived in hell!
Moloch to sit on high with God;
Put lust with chastity to dwell,
Give crime and virtue one abode!
'Tis well the shameful compact ends,
God's covenant bow now o'er us bends!

'Tis come at last! The rocking ft—ft—
The booming gun—the leaping flame,
Foretell that fraud and wrong must yield,
That God will vindicate His name:
Shout! patriots, with each clarion's blast—
'Tis come at last! 'Tis come at last!

SAD DEATH.—James Mitchell, a native of Carlisle, and a soldier of the war of 1812, died at the Cumberland county poor house last week, aged seventy-three years. Mitchell was one of the fifteen Pennsylvanians who volunteered to man Perry's fleet, previous to the battle of Lake Erie, and was on board the Lawrence during the sanguinary conflict. At the close of the war, he received a vote of thanks, and a silver medal, from the Legislature of Pennsylvania. He was without family, and for years his habits were such as to render the promptings of benevolence useless in his favor, and he died a pauper. —How sad, that those whose valor would have made them welcome and honored, do by their vices make themselves loathsome to those for whom they fought! Let the Soldiers of 1861 and '62 take warning!

WARNING.—Charles Buttrick, at the Holyoke Machine Works, Massachusetts, wore a very long, heavy beard, which was accidentally caught by a revolving spindle. His instant death was only prevented by the mass of red wool being torn out by the roots—rather hard payment of a dirty luxury of laziness. Crop your face close as you can.

The Breckinridge "Southron brudren's" money is 40 to 50 per ct. discount among themselves. The "Abolition, Black Republican, Old Abe Lincoln's" money, is at par, and equal to gold in market, even before the Tax Bill to redeem it has passed. What a contrast!

☞Norfolk, Wilmington, Charleston, Mobile, and Galveston, are all the important harbors we now have to "re-possess" from the Rebels. Trade will doubtless ere long be opened, with some at least of our harbors, for articles not contraband.

James Spurgeon, Stambourne, Essex, England, the grandfather of the popular C. H. Spurgeon, of London, is still living, in the 86th year of his age, and preaching also to the people to whom he has ministered for fifty years. He is a Congregationalist.

It is stated that Charles Carroll and Charles M'Tavish, descendants of "Charles Carroll of Carrollton," are warm supporters of President Lincoln's Emancipation measures. They are large Slave-holders, and men of much influence, in Maryland.

PRICE LEWIS, a former resident of Walcottville, Conn., was hung as a spy at Richmond, a few days since. He had made several trips to the Rebel camps successfully, but was caught at last and manfully paid the penalty.

The Rebels have sometimes been scant of big projectiles. At one battery was found chunks of bar iron, pebbles, iron candlesticks, broken bits of machinery and a general museum of varieties, sewed up in bags, for canister shot.

Thurlow Weed writes home that the fighting qualities of American Volunteers, as shown at Fort Donelson, &c., excite the wonder and admiration if not the fear of military men in Europe.

Danville, a one-horse town away back in North Carolina, is surmised as the new Capital of the "Sudern Confed'r'cy," as soon as Richmond is "skedaddled" from.

Nathan Bangs, D. D., for nearly sixty years a leading Methodist preacher, died last week, in New York city. He was a native of Connecticut.

The Buffalo House, Lewisburg, is one of the best hotels in Central Pennsylvania.—Danville American.

George Rahn, Associate Judge, died in Pottsville, 6th inst.

BUCKEYE ALL RIGHT

For the Harvest of 1862!

The most approved Agricultural Implements now in the Market!

MANUFACTURED BY

SLIFER, WALLS, SHRINER & CO.,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Buckeye Reaper & Mower.

THE unprecedented success of the "Buckeye" is the strongest proof of its superior excellency. The BUCKEYE has caused a complete Revolution in the Manufacture of REAPING AND MOWING Machines, and its reputation is so well established that it is scarcely necessary to particularize its advantages. We will, however, call the attention of the farmers to a few of its merits.

The TWO DRIVING WHEELS—the Pawls and Springs, by which the machine may be thrown out of gear, or be backed without unbraking the Knives—the Steel Cutter Bar—the Wrought Iron Guard, with Hardened Steel Face or Cutting Edge—the Double-Hinged Joint, by which the Cutter Bar may be Folded—the long Crank Shaft—the Steel Spring and Wheel, by which the Cutter Bar may be raised and lowered so as to cut as low to the ground as may be desired—the Steel Pitman and Brass Box—its Light Draft—(no Side Draft)—no weight on the horses' necks—backs as easily as a cart—all of which form a combination of advantages which no other machine possesses.

No Gearing on the Driving Wheels.

A team of horses weighing 900 lbs. each, will cut an acre of grass an hour with ease.

The machine is furnished with two Cutter Bars—one for cutting grass, and the other for cutting grain (each expressly adapted to the use intended).

No effort will be wanting to maintain the Buckeye in the enviable position it now occupies, that of being the Best Machine in the World!

—The subscribers return their sincere thanks to their friends for the generous support they have received in introducing the celebrated Buckeye Reaper and Mower into Central and Northern Pennsylvania, and are much indebted to them for their warm greetings and kind offices in recommending it to their friends and neighbors.

For Certificates, &c., see Circulars, which may be had of any of their Agents.

They also manufacture Meyer's Patent Piston Grain Drill, which is acknowledged to be the BEST SEED SOWER IN USE, and the only one which

SOWS OATS PERFECTLY!

Also, the Keystone Clover Huller, which cleans thoroughly, without in the least injuring the seed. Will clean more in the same time than any other machine in use.
