Bold Move, at the Heart of Rebeldom.

Col. David Hunter did the best Union fighting at Bull Run, and was sent west to supercede Gen. Frement when it was thought the latter had exceeded the Act of Congress in relation to freeing the not by their frowns stop or pass a measure, Slaves of Rebels. Gen. Hunter was next they held a "Southern Caucus," or meetordered South, where he has been for some ing of "Anti-Abolition members," which time observing the course of events. Late generally terrified enough doughfaces from papers contain the following :

The persons in those three States - South Cardina Georgia and Florida-heretofore held a Simis, are therefore declared for over free. DAVID HUSTER,

Fr W Switt, Acting Assistant Adjutant General Gen. Hunter was a personal friend of Pres Lincoln in Illinois, and it is therefore thought what he deems a military necessity will not be revoked. That venetable D mocratic leader, Amos Kendall, argued in a recent published letter that if the Rebels, in their obstinacy, persisted in prelonging a mad, hopeless contest, their punishment was only increasing, and the confiscation of all they had, slaves included, would not only be just and expedient but also constitutional. Jefferson made a remark that that section might one day be controlled by the African race.

The Relels having been arming and training the Blacks themselves, it seems a burning shame and cruel folly to have our men shot down by compulsory soldiers, and we not retaliate, in self defence, and employ on our side those who would fight Rebels with a good will. It is said Gen Hunter will have a force of Blacks in readiness, by hot weather, to save the lives and strength of the Whites. It is found that the Blacks are the only true, reliable friends of the Union in that quar-

Thus Providence seems to be working out the problem of Emancipation by military power, without Partizan, Presidential er Congressional "intervention." This mier-earried out-releases One Million Sizes from bondage, and One Million Wines from barbarism. If not overruled, I will show the Slaveholders elsewhere what they must expect-for the Union as the latter provokes the trial of strength.

The President and the Lutherans.

We do not notice the Loyal Resolutions of the U.S. Lutheran Synod copied in one "Democratic" Lincoln-hating paper -but they are hailed with gratification by all the undoubted Union papers. Annexed is the reply of President Lincoln to Rev. Dr. Pohlman, Chairman of the Committee that presented the Resolutions:

"GENTLEMEN : I welcome here the representatives of the Evangelical Lutherans of the United States. I accept with gratstade their assorances of the sympathy and support of that enlightened, influential and eyal class of my follow citizens in an important crisis, which involves, in my judgment, not only the civil and religious liberts of our own dear land, but in a large depres the civil and religious liberties of builed in many countries and through many ages.

"I'm well know, gentlemen, and the will knows, how rejuctantly I accepted the issue of battle forced upon me, on by idvent to this place, by the internal thomes of our country. You know the tave brought into employment to sustain twent against which there has been brought not one complaint of real injury, at home or abroad. You may all recollect, that, in taking up the sword thus forced into our bands, this Government appealed to the prayers of the pious and the good, and declared that it placed its whole dependence upon the favor of God. I now, humbly and reverently, in your presence, retterate the acknowledgement of that dependence, not doubting that, if it shall please the Divine Being who determines the destinies of nations that this shall remain a united people, they will, bumbly seeking the Divine guidance, make their prolonged national existence a source of tempora, and to all classes and their suctenore, and to all classes and conditions

Now, to err is buman, and the innocent may possibly in some cases have been summarily arrested with the guilty. Yet no candid man can doubt the President's integrity in the performance of duty, for he could not wish to make enemies, or to alienate friends of the Union -oppearances were doubtless against all such, and they have been released as soon as, and whenever, thought expedient. The Executive of every Power has to judge what is necessary for self-defence in desperate emergencies.

For thirty years, where Slavery reigns, it has crushed out all Constitutional rights of life, liberty, property, of speech, press, and public assemblages-but not a word was uttered by these sham Democrats in favor of an "outraged Constitution" even in time of Peace! Bere are Irish, Scotch, Indian, and Negro Slaves in market, and it is known that for a long time Germans, English, and other Europeans-among them quite probably ancestors of some of our readers, the richest, proudest families in the landwere sold to pay expenses of passage here, &c. It will be seen the colored persons bore the best recommendations!

Now, how changed! No Slavery of any color is allowed in Pennsylvania-Lotteries are prohibited-and counterfeit coin is comparatively less. And Benj. Franklin ecame conspicuous for his efforts against African Slavery, being President of an Abolition Society at his death.

It may seem slow, but one century's contrast shows great advances throughout the world in human freedom...except in our Secession States, where (Pharaoh like) they seem to be invoking deadly War to hasten Emancipation.
