THE LOYAL DEMOCRAT.

Mouth not to me your Union rant, Nor gloze mine ears with loyal cant! Who stands this day in Freedom's van, He only is my Union Man ! Who tramples Slavery's Gesler hat, He is my Loyal Democrat!

With whites, engirt by chains, too long We strove to make our fasces strong; When Rebel hands those fasces rend, Must we with whips and chains still mend? If "Democrats" can stoop to that, God help me! I'm no Democrat!

Thank Heaven! lines are drawn this hour Twixt manly Right and despot Power; Who scowls in Freedom's pathway now, Bears "Tyrant" stamped upon his brow; Who skulks aloof, or shirks his part, Hath "Slave" imprinted in his heart.

In vain of "Equal Rights" ye prate, Who fawn like dogs at Slavery's gate; Beyond the slave each slave-whip smites, And codes for Blacks are laws for Whites; The chains that negro limbs encoil, Reach and custave each child of Toil!

O. Northern Men ! when will ve learn "Tis Labor that these tyrants spurn? Tis not the blood or skin they brand, But every Poor Man's toil-worn hand; And we who serve them - knowing this Deserve the slave-lash that ye kiss!

Spring-time is here! The past now sleeps-The Present sows-the Future reaps! Who plants good seed in Freedom's span, He only is my Union Man! Who trends the weeds of Slavery flat, He is my Loyal Democrat!

New York, May 23, 1862. A. J. H. Denesye. THE NATIONAL ROTEL POISONING. THE MINTERA SOLVED.

It seems to be pretty well established, that the poisoning affair which occurred at the National Hotel, at Washington, was a part of the Rebel Conspiracy. The object was to destroy James Buchanan, who was stopping at this house before the inauguration, so as to make the traitor, Breckinridge, President, in order to carry out their plans successfully. This Buchanan knew, for he was informed of it, and placed upon his guard. The effect was, that the miserable old gentleman threw himself into the hands of the conspirators, and when implored to exert the power of the Government against the Rebels, by a friend, it was said, he confessed that "he dared not do it, because his life was in danger." But few persons can realize the bellish character of the Rebel conspiracy.
