

UNION COUNTY STAR AND LEWISBURG CHRONICLE.

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.
At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., FRIDAY, JULY 11, 1862.

"THE UNION," established in 1814—Whole No., 2,573.
"CHRONICLE," established in 1813—Whole No., 952.

Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

For a letter from Capt. Linn, dated 20th ult., see next.

President Lincoln visited Generals McClellan and Burnside on James River and at Fortress Monroe, the first part of the week.

IN THE COUNTRY—We are not in a mood for rhapsodizing over the glories of our happy neighborhood, in this time of peace at home—we will not even contrast it with regions where Secession has had sway. Nevertheless, on Monday last, we went into "the country"—at least half a mile—and for the first visited the rural home of Col. Sifer. Seeing some drain tiles to be put down the next time of leisure his hands have been suitable to the work, we learned he had already laid some, in a row and on a side hill North of his house. We think it would materially benefit our farmers, if he would give us a statement of the cost per acre of his tile-draining, and of its effect upon crops when compared with previous yields. The President of the Agricultural Society should "magnify his office" by imparting a knowledge of such experiences.

Burnside to the Rescue!
A large portion of Gen. Burnside's corps has joined the Army of the Potomac, and will swell the host that shall lay low the Babylon of the Slaveholders' Rebellion. Capt. Linn was seen among the troops, so that it seems probable Linn's, Kelly's, Hassenpflug's, two Chamberlins', Church's, Tate's and Roush's Companies—more or less, dispersed from Union county—are now under McClellan. What hopes are cherished for them? and what prayers ascend in their behalf? Heaven give them health, courage, and speedy success!

Men Wanted!
JACOB M. MOYER, Esq., of Lewisburg, is authorized to enlist men under the last call of the President, to aid the general army in finishing up the Rebellion. Mr. Moyer served with the three months' men—is now restored to health perfectly—and we should suppose, has every qualification for a careful, earnest Officer. We hope the noble youth of Union county will again respond—as they and their fathers have always done—to the calls of patriotism. Other States are coming forward well, and let it be a speedy, sure, sufficient reinforcement.

NEW LAW—By a special enactment of 1861, trials for certain minor offenses in Union and Erie counties, may now be had before a Justice of the Peace and six Jurors. By this means, a great expense is saved the County, and also the parties, and the cases do not harass, and cascade as much as when in Court. Two cases of assault and battery have been tried under the law—one in Millburg, and one in Lewisburg—and all hands seem to consider it an improvement.

"A Spectorator" informs us that the 4th of July was celebrated in Plurthorn Hall, College Hill, Lewisburg, at 6 o'clock in the morning. The Declaration was read by J. S. Hutson, of Warren; Oration by G. Barton Miller of Lewisburg; J. B. Probasco, of Greenwiche, N. J. read "The Iris," and another Oration by G. C. Hall, of Humphreysville, concluded the entertainment.

TO THEIR CREDIT—When Banks, Fremont and other Republican Generals suffered losses, they were sneered and hoisted by the Rebels and their Northern Allies. We are glad to say that no Union Republican rejoices over the successive defeats of Gen. McClellan. We desire the Union flag, by whoever borne, to go forward, and not backward—we are for our Country before and above any Party.

WELL DONE!—Some unknown person in New York has sent to Henry D. Moore, Treasurer of the State of Pennsylvania, the sum of One Thousand Dollars. The writer says, "This her due!" Whether he had been robbed the State of that sum, or whether he sent it as a compliment to her patriotism, it is difficult to decide.

Some thoughtless or secondarily Operator yesterday set afloat a report, to which Stanton's name was signed, that Gen. McClellan had been again attacked and driven. In times like these, such reports are cruel, and whether done in malice or sport should be punished.

We learn from Harrisburg that up to Sunday last thirty Companies had been offered to the Governor, under the call for Volunteers. All the New England States, New York, Ohio, and Indiana, are also moving swiftly into line.

Next to the Farmers, our busiest people just now are the makers of the two Lewisburg Reapers and Mowers, who have been extremely pressed to supply the demands upon them—and then the Drills, it is not waste after the Reapers!

The citizens of Milton have appointed committees to raise money and otherwise provide for the necessities of their own soldiers especially. $500 were forthwith subscribed.

Our Losses.

The inquiry is often made, why are there such varying statements of our losses? and why does not the Government report at once officially? It should be remembered that the scene of the late actions below Richmond cover very many miles of woods, swamps, &c.—that many of the Captains and others depended upon to report, are killed, and otherwise unable—that they are more or less disarranged, and stragglers continually coming in—and especially that the duties and dangers immediately before them are of more pressing importance. It requires time and inquiry to report correctly, of fidelity, and even then the best and most honest differ in opinions. Many of the privates lost every writing material, and rest next in their intervals of labor, drill, march, and combat. These are reasons why they are not more speedy and complete in details. We give such as we have of those we feel most interested in.

Lieut. Thos. G. Craig writes, last inst., that he was held by private Reader, of the Sifer Guards, that Capt. Thomas Chamberlin and Lieut. Theodore H. M'Fallen had both been shot in the legs, and while in the charge of a Union Surgeon fell into the Rebel hands. Capt. Easton was killed, and his battery lost, but Lieut. O. escaped six days' encounters without a scratch. James Thurgan writes from Fortress Monroe, July 6th, that he saw Joseph Leopold, of Capt. M'Clery's Milton Company, and Curry Kelly and David Hanck, of Thos. Chamberlin's, among the wounded, there. Hanck had only two fingers shot off, and all were well cared for by Dr. M'Clery of Northumberland.

We glean from the Philadelphia Inquirer of 9th inst., the following list of killed, wounded, and missing, in the 5th Penn'a. Reserves:

Killed.
C. J. Simons, G. Simmons, Vermont.
Capt. James Taggart, Northumberland.
Capt. R. W. Starbuck, Towanda.
Lt. Wm. Riddle, Bradford Co.
18 Privates, including
John Kibb, Co. D. (Milton).
Wounded, and left on the field.
Capt. John H. McClery, Milton.
Lt. Theo. H. M'Fallen, Lewisburg.
Lt. O. M. Hildebrand, Co. G.
Lt. D. H. Macken, Co. D. (an error).
Wounded.
(In Co. D.—Thomas Chamberlin's)
O. B. Woodward, Corp. A. Batesworth
Daniel Covert, Wm. Travel
George Harbison, Daniel Gilbert
Levi Markle, John Hartman
Sam'l A. Reed, George Irwin
Charles Snyder, A. E. Johnson
York A. Woodward, Geo. C. Kelly
Jacob Campbell, Charles Meyer
Jas. A. Morrison

Missing.
Lewis Jones, Joseph Joll
John P. Kaylor, D. L. Hicker
John C. Roberts, Geo. B. Saylor
Total, 5th Regiment—22 killed, 161 wounded, 31 missing—257 in all.

Capt. James Chamberlin writes after the battle. He reports no losses in his Company, but thought his brother Thomas to be wounded and a prisoner. Nothing heard from Captains Tate's, Church's, and Roush's companies. Gen. M'Call is supposed to be a prisoner, but wounded.

L. Bagle, of the Milton Company, (who returned home yesterday) brought a report that Col. Simmons and Capt. Taggart were only wounded, and prisoners.

Public Meeting—Saturday Evening.
A Military Hospital on the North or West Branch, it has been thought, would be advisable, to bring the sick and wounded nearer their friends in this quarter, and to give the benevolent better chances to aid those who are suffering in our behalf. Milton and Williamsport have been asking for such an institution in their midst, and two preparatory meetings have been held for the same object in Lewisburg, and Committees appointed. The gentleman deputed to lay the memorial before the Governor, is to report this (Saturday) evening, at 6 o'clock, in Chamberlin's Hall, where all interested are invited to attend.

The Conferees for the Center, Clinton, Lycoming and Union Senatorial District, met in Leck Haven, last Tuesday, when John Irwin, Jr., of Centre Co., was chosen President, and Sam'l H. Orwig, of Union Co. Secretary. On motion Maj. Charles H. Striner, of Union Co., was unanimously chosen Delegate to the Union State Convention in Harrisburg, 17th inst. Although an old line Democrat, Maj. Striner has been, during this contest, with the friends of Douglas in sustaining the Government without any ifs, ands or buts.

CONFINED—An apparently crazy man, who has been annoying the people of Chillisqueque, by insulting women and otherwise, was last night caught, and is now in the Jail at Lewisburg. He is a middle-aged man, about five feet five, very strong and violent, and from a paper in his pocket is supposed to be named Josiah Walker. Newspapers with whom we exchange are requested to copy this, that his friends or acquaintances may have him properly attended to at once.

Shall the People's Choice Prevail?

At the late election in Snyder county, the vote was by ballot, and the tally lists were returned to the Convention, with two Delegates similarly chosen. Upon counting up the votes for the two offices most contested, they were found to be thus:

County	Democratic	Republican
West Beaver	55 21	56 22
Beaver	41 53	77 29
Center	56 3	24 34
Franklin	31 47	3 74
Jackson	26 3	19 19
Middlecreek	6 29	18 15
Monroe	17 33	44 3
Penna.	34 27	56 4
Perry	6 16	11 7
West Perry	3 19	3 19
Schenango	51 63	86 11
Washington	39 14	38 15
Chapman	43 28	31 30
Total	423 266	472 269
Majority	55	215

Miller's maj. 55 Ritter's 207
Miller has a majority of Popular Vote, and Patterson had one set of Delegates more than Miller. Now the interesting and important question arises, Shall the Conferees represent the People or the Delegates? There is no doubting, no disputing the fact that Miller is the first choice of the voters. It is for the other counties to say whether that choice shall be regarded, or whether they will run the risk of attempting to make the Minority govern, as they do in Rebellion.

Ritter had a majority of the People and of the Delegates also.
—The vote was largely in favor of the Crawford County System. Abraham C. Middlecreek was nominated for Commissioner. Dr. John Y. Schindel and Moses Specht for Auditors. And Dr. B.F. Waggoner for Coroner.

The Breckinridgers in Juniata Co. re-nominated Dr. E. D. Crawford for Senator, and John P. Wharton for Assembly. The Sentinel says the Resolutions are:
"A series of waddy-waddy, half Union, half Secession, half-whore, half black, straggled-out, miserable, unmeaning, nothing—except seeking limitations of patriot, inspiring, raising demands, and expiring, that would bring down the very mountains to tumble with all honest (high) men in order to place Democrats in high places in the synagogue."
What is known as the "Crawford faction" was triumphant, and much dissatisfaction was apparent.

A new regulation has gone into effect on the Philad & Erie Railroad. Passengers purchasing tickets before entering the cars, will save
On 3rd class and 2nd class 2 cents
On 1st class 1 cent
That is, those riding under 30 miles will be charged ten cents excess if they pay their fare in the cars, one half of which will be returned to them at any office on the line of the Road, on presenting a coupon, to be given them by the Conductor; and passengers traveling between 30 and 80 miles, will be charged twenty-five cents excess when paying fare in the cars, ten cents of which will be returned as above. Passengers will therefore save money by procuring tickets at the station before leaving.

We re-publish the following recommendation, which appeared only in part of our Tuesday's edition:
Surveyor General—Judge Cunningham.
Since McClellan's re-nomination for Auditor General is considered on all sides the best, and the only one, it is urged by many for Surveyor General. He was a Delegate to the Charleston Convention, and a consistent Douglas man—a man of ability, energy, popularity, and every way worthy the station. Give the glorious West the office!

The house of Thompson G. Erans, on South Fifth St., near the Seminary, had some of its rafters split with lightning in the storm of Monday last. No one in the house was injured, although some were slightly "astonished." Next day, we saw Morrow, the lightning rod man, putting up some conductors to ward off such visitations in the future.

THE FIRST!—The first man elected to the next Congress, is a Republican—M'Bride, of Oregon—and that is a GAIN of a Republican Member!
It is a good beginning. Let the Union men follow it up, and not a Doughface be permitted hereafter to misrepresent any Free State of this Union.

MURDER!—On the night after the 4th, a German, named Schrayshausen, was taken from the outhouse of a lager beer saloon in Williamsport, dead. Two men were committed to prison charged with his death in a drunken fight. He leaves a family.

The Democratic Printers have not yet heard of the Oregon Election!—or rather, probably, they still try to delude their readers with the idea that they can sweep the field next Fall.

John C. Knox, late of the Supreme Court, is among the Delegates appointed from Philadelphia to the Union State Convention in Harrisburg, 17th inst. Judge Thompson, M'Michael, Forney, Gilpin, &c., are his associates. Philadelphia will speak, with potent voice, against the Breckinridge faction headed by Slinker. There is a general rush to escape proscription by the people along the Mississippi River. On one island below White River, there are said to be 2,500 refugees.

The Week of Fighting.

From Tuesday, 24th June, to Tuesday, 1st July, there was a series of actions before Richmond, as severe and destructive as recorded in any week of history. The number under McClellan being unknown, that of the Rebels must of course be guesswork. It is evident that each side had over 100,000 men. The enemy were probably at least, as they have joined all their great armies in one, and have called out colored soldiers to their aid. It was determined to remove the Union army from the York to the James river. By the treachery of some one in our ranks, or from close observation, this fact became known to the Rebels. They therefore massed their best troops together, to harass and fall upon our lines in motion. Day after day the Rebels swamped in great numbers, upon the most exposed portions of our retiring lines. The Rebel line was many columns deep, so that when the first were cut down, those after would press the next forward to the work, like a border of buffaloes on the plains. There was no chance to retreat—no room to yield—every fronting tank was kept up by those in the rear. Hundreds of Rebels fell at the broadsides of our guns, but others were at once pushed into their places. On the final, desperate encounter—Tuesday of last week—the Rebels drank whiskey and gunpowder, and marched to the cannon's mouth as recklessly and as stupid as it were of wood, determined apparently all to conquer or to die.

These results were skillfully made with superior numbers, but were always met and foiled by the cool bravery of the Union men, who frequently charged and drove back the enemy, as well as moved them down in heaps. But our forces had to move at every chance, to reach their safe, chosen line, and when in motion were again attacked—thus wearing them away, and some times leaving their dead and their worst wounded to the tender mercies of the Rebels.

Reports vary greatly—the Union losses by death, wounds, imprisonment, sickness, &c., being estimated from 10,000 to 20,000, and that of the Rebels from 20,000 to 75,000. There is no question but the Rebels suffered much the most, as the Unionists had the best guns and the best fighters. The Rebels failed in their aim of breaking up our army, and we have reached the goal for which we started. A short rest, reinforcements, and gunboats, will soon show that the Rebels' valor and losses were in vain.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—No intelligence of special public importance has been received from the Army of the Potomac for several days past, further than that it is improving in strength and efficiency.

Boston, July 10.—The new Massachusetts five per cent scrip for a loan of $3,500,000, has all been taken at one-half per cent premium. The total amount of the bids was nearly three millions.

Senator Dixon, Representatives Blair, Diven, Van Valkenburg, Pomeroy and others have left Congress to raise Regiments under the last call.

On the 4th, Gen. McClellan issued a stirring and patriotic address, closing with the promise that "this army shall enter the capital of the so-called Confederacy," and the Constitution and Union "shall be preserved, cost what it may in time, treasure, and blood."

July 5.—Gen. McClellan's left wing yesterday captured 1000 Rebels and three batteries. Our forces have gained seven miles up the river. The Rebel garrisons Tazewell was taken, with important papers.

Vicksburg has fallen into the hands of the Union fleet. A bombardment took place on Thursday and Friday week, and the town must have been nearly rained. The particulars have not yet reached us. It is stated that 5,000 negroes have been set to work to dig a canal across the neck of land so as to change the direction of the Mississippi and leave Vicksburg high and dry for inland. Vicksburg won't be worth much as a city by the time our fleet has done with it.

The reduction of Vicksburg was in progress at our last accounts, satisfactorily to the Unionists, except that Com. Farragut was wounded in the head when his fleet passed the Rebel batteries. The contrabands are cutting off the city by the Canal, vigorously.
General Halleck reports a victory of considerable importance near Booneville, Miss. On Tuesday last Col. Sheridan of the 24 Michigan Cavalry and two regiments, in all 728 men, were attacked by 4,700 rebels, whom he defeated and drove back after seven hours of fighting. We had only 41 killed, wounded, and missing. Gen. Halleck was so well pleased that he recommends Col. Sheridan for promotion.
Gen. Grant, in Arkansas, has been compelled to outlaw guerrillas and declare that where they destroy the Government property, the damages shall be levied and collected from personal property of Rebel sympathizers in the vicinity.

Report has it that Gen. Booge has 40,000 to 50,000 Rebel soldiers, Missouri, that they were short of provisions, &c. It is about time the "shout of provisions" story had a fair going. We have had the Rebel army in a state of starvation ever since Bull Run, but they seem to stand it wonderfully well.

Mobils is now pretty well fortified, and the inhabitants affect to believe that it can not be taken. They have got 10,000 troops, two gun boats, and a ram. Confidence is a good thing, but has Mobils been from New Orleans, Port Royal, Baton Rouge, Grand Gulf, and Island No. 10?

Among recent captures by our cruisers are the English schooner Lucy from Havana, schooner Curley from Havana, British schooner Will's the Wisp, and the Morning Star from Nassau. A steamer was surprised on Dead Man's Bay loading with cotton, but her crew set her on fire and she was destroyed.
Some rebels broke into a room in the rear of the Williamsport Court House, and damaged the type, &c. of the Democrat. $500 Reward is offered for the conviction of the perpetrators, and $200 for conviction of any assistants in the outrage.

Richmond papers claim to have 5,000 Yankees prisoners. They recommend that McClellan be started into "respiration."
Commander Wilkes, the captain of Mason and Slidell, has been ordered to take command of the flotilla in James River.
The annual meeting of the Susquehanna Telegraph Company will be at Danville, 25th July, 1862, at 2 P. M.

The Republicans of St. Cloudsburg, in their 4th of July Celebration, raised $500 for the soldiers.
Gen. Sigel stands in command of Gen. Fremont's force.
The wife of Col. Elliot has died with grief over her loss.

Rev. R. H. Brown, of the Protestant Episcopal Church, will preach in St. Paul's Church on the 4th of July, at 10 o'clock, morning, July 13, at 9 o'clock. The public are respectfully invited to attend.
Elywood's Religious Herald has never appeared in this market. It can compare with any other paper for clearing out the distributors that fasten and grow upon us. They are the Philosopher's stone of life, that bids defiance to disease, and will leave us no alternative but to die of old age.
If Religious Herald's Herald will not cure in the last stages of Consumption, we know from experience it affords great relief. Despondency is a difficult disease to cure, but Hovey's Religious Herald will soon overcome it. Read the Advt in another column.

CONGRESS.

The two Union Democratic papers of Northumberland county have proposed, as a substitute for the National Convention, the holding of a National Convention in Harrisburg, Pa., on the 17th inst. The Whigs and Republicans of the District will recognize in him an old, unswerving supporter of their principles. Union county presents him as a candidate for Congress, and a number of his friends in the District will recognize in him an old, unswerving supporter of their principles. Union county presents him as a candidate for Congress, and a number of his friends in the District will recognize in him an old, unswerving supporter of their principles.

ASSEMBLY.
It is customary and proper, when our Legislators have served faithfully, to honor them and secure experienced men in our Capitol, by a re-election. Judge BEAVER, as far as we have heard, has been a credit to the District while in Harrisburg, both as a citizen and as a Member of the Assembly. His political views are sound, his character and work in our public stands fair. We therefore recommend Judge Beaver for re-election, next Fall.
MANY

PROTHONOTARY.
Fellow Citizens—I am honored as a candidate for the office of Prothonotary of Union county at the next General Election—subject to the decision of the July County Convention. Having been served by numerous friends, I hope to receive a liberal support. If I am nominated and elected, I will perform the duties of the office with fidelity and economy.
JOHN CROSSBOW, Lewisburg, May 23, 1862.

Fellow citizens—When we draw the line along the river and parallel with the River that we find the people of Union county situated West and East of the River, we find a wide and fertile valley, and a fine view of the Mountains. We should be proud to have the honor of being elected to the office of Prothonotary of Union county at the next General Election. I have been served by numerous friends, and I hope to receive a liberal support. If I am nominated and elected, I will perform the duties of the office with fidelity and economy.
