UNION STATE TICKET.

For Auditor General,
THOMAS E. COCHRAN, of York.

For Surveyor General,
WILLIAM S. ROSS, of Luzerne.

Turn Out and Vote!

To-morrow—Saturday, July 26—from 3 until 7 in the afternoon, the friends of the Government in Union county are invited to indicate, by direct ballot, their choice for officers to be elected in October. Late rains have made the harvest rather backward, and a fair day may keep some Farmers from the polls—yet we trust that they will generally make the sacrifice of the hour or two required, (and, next year, the Committee appoint the election one week later, to guard against such a late season)—or not complain of those who do take pains to attend.

It is the glory of our country, that each voter has now an equal voice in making a Nomination, and also in the Election, of nearly Officer over us, by the secret choice. No other country under heaven is so blessed. We should, therefore, not only rejoice that such is our privilege, but we should USE that privilege. Every man should indicate his preference, and not leave such an important power to a half dozen men, the candidates or their friends. The rich and the poor—men of every trade and profession, and calling whatever—should vote at the preliminary election, not less than at the legal, decisive election.

WHO MAY VOTE? All in favor of the Union State Ticket, who promise on their honor as men (if the Board of Officers will take their pledge) to vote for that ticket and the one this day nominated, we should say were entitled to vote with us, whatever they may have done last year, or may do next. Last year, some men voted at each election: let a List of Voters be made and kept so that if another election is held, such triflers may be caught and exposed.

For Congress and Assembly, we know of no open opposition to Messrs. MILLER and BEAVER. Those who desire to honor them as the choice of Union county for those offices, will do well so to indicate by their votes.

For Prothonotary, two candidates are in the field—each a well-known, competent man—each making his peculiar claims—each having a son serving in the tented field. Whilst it may be said that either would make a good officer, yet it is right that every voter should express his desire.

For Commissioner, we have a triangular contest—three good, honest, respected citizens—each having his friends, and each worthy of honor. Make your choice.

For the minor offices, there appears to be little or no struggle.

In selecting, it should be remembered, the end to be aimed at is the COUNTRY'S good, and not the CANDIDATE'S. Offices were made for the Peoples welfare, and not the people for the candidate's benefit. Our own interests, and not the interests of those asking our votes, should be the governing motive.

—When our Ticket is made, the hitherto silent "Democracy" will begin to watch for division among disappointed candidates for a chance to make a ticket—either Partizan or Amalgamation—to defeat the true Union Ticket. Our call is wide and liberal enough for all true patriots in these times when we should have but one party. Let the attendance be large enough to indicate that the candidates are—as they were last year—the choice of THE PEOPLE.

We are glad to learn that our candidates have conducted the campaign with much good humor and friendly feeling, and in an honorable manner to all concerned, so that defeat will be no discredit to either.

If the Return Judges be punctual in their attendance by 10 o'clock, Monday, then they can finish by noon, and we can have time to print and send out the result the same day.

TURN OUT AND VOTE!

☞On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, last, spirited meetings were held in Independent Hall, Lewisburg, for the object developed in the call for meetings indicated in another column. Union county has assumed a very noble position in this War—her records will hereafter be pointed to with pride—but yet another (we believe a last) draft is made upon her patriotism. We ask our readers to attend the meetings called in Mifflinburg, Hartleton, New Berlin, Uniontown, and Lewisburg, next week, and devise liberal things for our country's need. Let every one do his full share, in whatever way he deems best, ungrudgingly, and thus aid in ending the strife. Our county should raise 200 men, for a new Company or two, or to fill up those in the field.

WAR MEETINGS are again the order of the day. Liberal money encouragement is every where offered to Volunteers.

☞The People of Lewisburg in Mass Meeting assembled respectfully ask the attention of their fellow citizens of the several districts of Union county to the following Resolves, and their immediate and earnest co-operation in their spirit and letter (if the same shall meet their approbation at the several Meetings appointed:)

Resolved, That a bounty of $25 should in our opinion be paid to each able-bodied man who will volunteer to serve in the Company forming the quota of Union county under the late call for nine months, and $50 to every man of the same description who will volunteer to fill up vacancies in the old companies in the field.

Resolved, as the equitable way of bearing the burden of raising the necessary funds for paying them bounty, that we do ask at the hands of the Commissioners of the County the pledge of the faith of the county for the sum of $50,000, said sum to be afterwards payably assessed and collected as our other county rates and levies, excepting that all persons so as above volunteering shall be exempt from the payment of any part of the same.

☞The Middleburg Telbune says the "official tally papers" (showing that Mr. Miller is the choice of the majority of our party in Snyder county for Congress) "were carried off to Lewisburg." We have not seen them—can not learn that they are or have been here. We had only an abstract of the vote, in figures copied, as we were told, by H. K. Ritter, Esq., from the original papers, as published by us—which the Tribune might have copied, long ago, if disposed.

But the Volksfreund, of the 9th inst., gives the figures, by Districts, showing a majority of 290 votes, for the Crawford County System—a vote, we suppose, taken from the same "official tally papers" as the vote for Congress. We suppose, therefore, the papers were in Middleburg, two days after the Convention—and whoever copied one portion of the returns, might have copied the other if so disposed.

Glorious Campaign!

Gen. Curtis has accomplished the most plucky, continued, and dangerous exploit of this war. His army left Rolla, Mo., in Feb last—fought the great battle of Pea Ridge, in North-Western Arkansas—and on the 12th July reached the Mississippi at Helena, Ark., having traveled 600 miles in an enemy's country, exposed to all sorts of dangers, and 2500 cavalry, in advance, marching the last 65 miles in 24 hours. There has been but little suffering, comparatively, and few losses. The enemy were often whipped in skirmishes, and Gen. Albert Rust was defeated badly in a pitched battle on the 7th inst. The army is in good condition—has received new supplies after its five months' isolation—and will probably proceed against Vicksburg. Honor to Benj. R. Curtis, of Iowa, and his brave Western boys! They report little Union felling except among the blacks.

☞The Selinsgrove Times and Sunbury Democrat—which are regarded as the most decided sympathizers with the Rebels in this region—have both commenced a furious assault upon Maj. Charles H. Shriner, since his appointment to the Union State Convention. He can stand it. Nothing is surer to excite the hostility of such sheets, than a Union Democrat going for his Country before his Party. If he would denounce the Administration, throw every obstacle he could in the way of the Government, and join the sneaking efforts to play into the hands of the Rebels, he would still be a "reliable constitution Democrat." But as he has, from the first, stood by the Union's authorities—with Holt, Stanton, Cass, Dickinson, Butler, and thousands of the best men of the Democracy—he is denounced in the most unmeasured terms!

☞The Cedar (Iowa) Democrat, glorifies over an old friend, thus:

"Mr. Slenker has ever been a Democrat, but none of your wire-pullers or tricksters. He would never stoop so low as to intrigue for a nomination or election to any office. He is a War Democrat."

That may do in Iowa, but no one in this region doubts that Mr. Slenker was as anxious, and worked for his election last year and for nomination this year, as hard, as any other office hunter. Don't get off your dry "joaks," David! upon Isaac. His "War Democracy" defeated him last fall, notwithstanding the Rebel sympathizers all voted for him, and will all vote for him again, as well as many good men who are deluded with the false label "Democracy."

☞The guerrilla shots of the Rebel battery at Sunbury against Rev. T. M. Reese, eliciting "no response," it is now turned upon Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Milton, 4th July orator at M'Ewensville. The offence of both these gentlemen is denouncing Rebellion and half-way Secessionists in a manner that makes some people think they mean them! But the Sunbury man keeps up the name of the Ex-Parson of Virginia for Congress—his "politics" and position on the war question are quite satisfactory to patriots of the Democrat and Times order.

☞No more Government hospitals seem to be needed in Pennsylvania. The Relief Committee of Williamsport are proposing a building near the Depot for the entertainment of sick and wounded soldiers passing along there—a thoughtful and patriotic arrangement.

☞Capt. Milton Opp is recruiting in Williamsport.

☞Our released prisoners from Richmond agree that their fare was very hard indeed, yet they do not complain, as they believe they had as good as the Rebel resources afforded. The City seemed to them one vast Hospital of sick and wounded. Capt. M'Cleery paid $7 for a shirt that would have cost $1 at home—and everything was in that proportion. The bloody fight of Monday, June 30, left some of our wounded, in a Hospital, without food until the Thursday following, when they were taken into Richmond in an omnibus.

AT LAST!—Wm. B. Mumford, a rank, defiant, undoubted Secessionist, has been tried, condemned and hung, for his crime, in New Orleans, by Gen. Butler. This is said to be the first execution for treason against the Government, since the Rebellion commenced—it should not be the last by a great deal. All of John Brown's men were hung, that could be taken.

☞A good bill of fare offers—the literary feast connected with the Commencement of the University at Lewisburg, next week—Sunday to Thursday. Half fare tickets, good from 24th July to 4th Aug., may be had at Philadel., Harrisburg and Sunbury.

☞Capts. T. Chamberlin and M'Cleery and Lieut. M'Fadden have this week been at the Balt. Union Infirmary, improving, and hoping soon to reach home.

G. Curry Kelly is among the wounded Pennsylvanians taken to New York.

☞Jos. R. Orwig of Mifflinburg, and Jos. W. Kepler of Lewisburg, are also recruiting, in co-operation with Capt. Moyer, and have all made a good beginning.

☞Serg. M. L. Schoch of New Berlin, has returned from Capt. Hassenplug's Company, to recruit.....Capt. J. M. Linn is home on a brief visit.

☞Capt. John D. Brown, one of those driven out of Miller county, Missouri, by the Rebels, has died in the Union service.

☞Rev. Dr. Wm. Shadrach has been summoned to Washington, to see to his wounded son, a volunteer in our army.

☞C. R. Evans, D. B. Miller, and A. G. Tucker are raising a Company for the nine months' service.

☞Northumberland County Union Convention meets on the 4th of August.

The Governor does not think it necessary to convene the Legislature.

About ten thousand dollars were subscribed at a War Meeting in Harrisburg, Monday.

At M'Clellan's Head Quarters, last Friday, about 450 wounded Union prisoners arrived, released on parole until exchanged. It is reported all the wounded (many of whom were reported killed) will be released. The list includes the following:

Capt. Thomas Chamberlin, Co. D, 13th Pa. Reserves
Lieut. Thos. H. M'Fadden, D, do
" A. E. Johnson, D, do
Capt. John H. M'Cleery, H, do
Lieut. D. F. M'Mahon, A, do
Lieut. D. L. Montgomery, 17th U. S. Infantry.

ONE LAST APPEAL.

BY DR. O. W. HOLMES.

Listen, young heroes—your country is calling!
Time strikes the hour for the brave and the true!
Now, while the foremost are fainting and falling,
Fill up the ranks that have opened for you!

You whom the fathers made free and defended,
Stain not the scroll that emblazons their fame!
You whose fair heritage spotless descended,
Leave not your children a birthright of shame!

Stay not the question while Freedom stands reeping!
Wait not till Honor lies wrapped in his pall!
Brief the time meeting be, swift the hands clasping—
"All for the wars!" is enough for them all.

Break from the arms that would fondly caress you!
Haste! the fair hand-maid of valor are drawn!
Mothers shall pray for you, fathers shall bless you,
Maidens shall weep for you when you are gone!

Never or now! calm the blood of a nation
Poured on the turf where the red rose should bloom!
Now is the day and the hour of salvation—
Never or now! peals the trumpet of doom!

Never or now! roars the horse-throated cannon
Through the black canopy blotting the skies;
Never or now! flaps the shell-blasted pennon
O'er the deep gore where the Cumberland lies!

From the foul dens where our brothers are dying,
Alone and foe in the land of their birth,
From the rank swamps where our martyrs are lying
Pleading in vain for a handful of earth;

From the hot plains where they perish outnumbered,
Farrowed and ridged by the battle field's plough,
Comes the loud summons; too long you have slumbered,
Hear the last angel-trump—Never or Now!

Patriots! Citizens! Countrymen—to Arms!

There is now no excuse for any, even the poorest, for not joining the National Army!

$25 Bounty from the County!

$25 Bounty from the U. S.!

$13, one month's pay, in Advance, making sixty-three dollars! on being mustered into service!

This Rebellion must and will be crushed! Men of Union county to the Rescue! WAR MEETINGS have been appointed at the following places:

Hartleton, Monday evening, July 28.
Mifflinburg, Tuesday evening, July 29.
New Berlin, Wednesday evening, July 30.
Uniontown, Friday evening, Aug. 1.
Lewisburg, Saturday, August 2.

The country needs honest, brave, men! it needs them now. The country is in a critical condition, and needs every soldier. Come forward, then, men of all classes and professions! Men of Union county, come forward! All the assistance and bounties granted by the United States Government, and by the State and county authorities, will be fully secured to men and officers.

The following able Speakers will be present, to address the meetings: Rev. Thos. M. Reese, Rev. Dr. Dickson, Rev. R. A. Fisk, Rev. S. H. Mirick, Rev. C. H. Leinbach, Rev. T. F. Curtis, Rev. J. G. Miles, G. F. Miller, Esq., Maj. C. H. Shriner, Wm. Tanner, Esq., A. H. Dill, Esq., Joseph C. Bucher, Esq., Sam'l H. Orwig, Esq., and others. By order of the Governor.

Advice from Warrenton say that "the news that Gen. Hatch has reached Charlotteville, and cut off the most important source of Rebel supplies, is the subject of great rejoicing in the army.

AT SEA, July 15, 1862.

The 50th Pa. Vol. received their pay on the 10th inst., and at ten o'clock that night had orders to pack up for a move. We received the news with great joy, although we knew not where we were to go. We left Beaufort in the "Ben Deford," the same vessel that took us there seven months before. The day was very hot, but it commenced raining. Towards night, water was scarce, and the men on the boat were charged 10 cents for a glass, and 25 cents for a canteen full of water. I reported the fact to Lt.-Col. Brenholts, and he in turn to Gen. Stevens, when there was a muss kicked up, and we got water free. We reached Hilton Head at dark, in the midst of a severe storm, and lay in the street all night.

In the morning, we marched to the building occupied by the bakers as a flour depot. Hunted up the camp of the 79th Pa. Vol., where I found James Pross 2d, and Daniel B. M'Gregor, of Lewisburg, and boarded with them that day; and I must say I have not been treated to better fare since joining the Army. Pross still blows the fife, and M'Gregor is ensign or color bearer. They have a tent to themselves, and are fixed better than any others I saw, even among the officers. With them I visited the 45th Pa. Vol., where I found Burt Blair and Kep Walls, but Dan Christ was at the new camp, three miles away. James Mitchell, of Williamsport, came to see me. I was surprised to find them all looking so well.

Sunday the 13th we came aboard at daylight, and took in tow the gunboat "Flambeau," which was disabled at James Island. We have on board the remains of the brave 8th Mich., who went into battle with 420 men, and after the battle but 224 answered to their names. They have suffered in every engagement, and have but a third of their men left.

On the 16th we reached Hampton Roads, and cast anchor to await further orders. The boat was so crowded that some had no shelter but the sky. We had a severe storm. While lying here the boys were all glad that we had got past Hatteras.

On the 17th we started up the river for Old Point Comfort—run aground, but got here about noon. As soon as I got my knapsack off, I hurried to the camp of the 51st Pa. Vol. and almost thought myself in Lewisburg again, to see Capt. Linn, Lts. Beaver and Kelly, Adj Shorkley and many members of Companies H, E, and K, old acquaintances, and all the Lewisburg boys looking well and hearty.

We are encamped about two miles from Newport News, on the banks of the James River. It is a beautiful location, but the weather is warmer than it was in South Carolina. Yesterday I was on guard, and did not get to camp until dark, when I stretched blanket to keep the rain off me, and went to sleep, having lost two nights rest. I slept very soundly on the ground, the rain pouring down and running through my blanket. Our tents were condemned—we have none now, but will have soon.

We have just heard of the good fights of the Penn'a Reserves, and trust that when the time comes we also will not disgrace the old Keystone State. My respects to all. DANIEL M. REED.

GEN. POPE has issued a series of orders, which propose to make the Rebels pay the piper, if they will have war, and should be adopted by every General in the army. This putting Union soldiers to guard Rebel hen-roost, pig-sties, and fences, has gone on about long enough. If the rebellion is ever to be quelled, it must be done by force—not coaxing—and the more vigorous and rigorous the policy pursued, the sooner it will be brought to a close. Let this rebellion be put down, with such severity that bad men will shudder at the bare thought of instigating another. The world needs no more Mexicos or South Americans.—Williamsport Gazette.
