WANTED-MEN!

Three hundred thousand men Are wanted, now, to fight— All earnest, brave, and strong, To crush the foulest Wrong That e'er assailed the Right.

Our valiant bands are thinned. Who ever knew, before, So lew so many meet, And conquer in retreat?

They must retreat no more Fill up the shattered ranks! Come fathers, brothers, sons ! The times are big with Fate-We must not longer wait. But to the field at once!

Our glorious sires of old Left in the ground the plough-They dropped their sickles then For good of fellow men-So must their children now.

Come from your peace-crowned homes, Ye tillers of the soil, Whose ruddy cheeks and hands The fiery summer brands-All brown with honest toil!

Come from brisk commerce's streets, The busy city's roar! East, North, West—far and near, If Freedom still is dear, Come, strike for her once more!

Three Hundred Thousand more Must hasten to the fight. So fierce the foe, and strong-Shall be do more for Wrong Than we, brave boys! for Right?

An Honest Confession.

ALEX B.JOHNSON, Esq., of Uties, New York, a life-long and ardent Democrat, and an influential member of the party to which he is attached, in a private letter to an old political friend, which has been published, says':

Gov. Seymour is out for the war, as are the Democratic leaders generally. I maintain that the Democratic party is more responsible for the war than the Abelitionists. The South would never have hazarded rebellion, if they had expected an undivi-ded North. The Democratic party had for many years told the South to resist Northern aggression, and even as late as the great Democratic convention at Albany, to Febuary, 1861, the speakers who were mest applauded said, that, if there was to be any fighting, it should commence at the North, against those who would correc the South; but after thus seducing the South into Rebellion by false assurances, they all repudiated their promises, and were among the first to volunteer against the They are thus acting the part of Satan, who, after seducing men to sin, assists in punishing them therefor. If anything could add to the baseness of their position, it is the general-belief that they are attempting thereby to get into power, that when it is obtained they may betray the North as they have the South, by returning once more to their first love as aids of the rebels."

Such men are never to be trusted more. If honest, they misjudge-if disbonest, they are corrupt. Either way, their political career should be ended.

A Speech to the Point.

Senator Wright, Democrat, of Indiana, made a seul stirring speech in the Senate, SLIFFR, WALLS, SHRINER & CO., on the 15th of July, of which the following is an extract :

"A General in the army who will not employ every negro that comes within his lines to work, to labor, should be turned out instantly. As that army moves along, every bit of property belonging to the rebels must be taken. If your President does his duty, before ten days, in my judgment, there can be $30,000,000 worth of property belonging to Rebels taken pos-session of in the North. Gentlemen have The TWO DRIVING WHEELS—the no idea of the amount of property held in Pawls and Springs, by which the machine the Northwest by Rebels, from John Slimay be thrown out of gear, or be backed deli down. Sir, you have got more Rebels than you think you have in this country, and it is the duty of our Government to show firmness and parsa and parsa in try that we are determined to carry on this war as a war.
