The Drummer Boy of Tennessee

From the Home Journal—By a Lady.

When called the fife and drum, at morn,
The soldier from his rest,
And those, to higher honors born,
From softer couches blest,
There came, a Captain brave to seek,
Deep in her yearning glad,
By love made said, and, fearing, weak,
A mother, and a lad—
Yes, they had come, from Tennessee,
Waking the beat of reveille.

There, penniless, and widowed,
Her story soon she told:
The hands of traitors had not spared
Her husband's life, nor gold;
And now she brought her ONLY SON
To fill the Drummer's place,
Thus young his duty bread to earn,
His country's foes to face;
For he had learned, in Tennessee,
To beat the call of reveille.

The boy looked up with eager gaze,
And, with heart beating stout,
He cast upon the Captain's face
Both kindliness and doubt;
For he had marked his tender years,
His little, fragile form.
"Don't be afraid," he said, with tears,
"For, Captain, I can drum!
And I have come from Tennessee
To sound the Union reveille."

"Well, call the fifer—bring the drum—
To test this noble youth!"
And well his part he did perform—
A "Drummer Boy" in truth!
"Yes, madam, I will take your boy,"
The Captain kindly said.
"Don't bring him back," her quick reply,
"Unpolluted with the dead!
And Union Lee, of Tennessee,
Shall play for you the reveille."

Then, after a weary march was made,
To sound of drum and fife,
And well the "Drummer Boy" essayed
To play the "march of life:"
The soldiers loved, and sought to share
Their part of good with him;
The fifer on his back did bear,
Across each swollen stream,
This Drummer Boy from Tennessee,
Who beat with him the reveille.

Next came the battle-shock, and doom
Of one great "LYON" heart—
The victors' shout, the victims' groan,
Fulfilled their fearful part!
O'er all that blood-stained field of woe
The darkness threw its pall!
The wounded, drained on flying foe,
Were, lost the "morning call"—
Our Drummer Boy, from Tennessee,
Resting, for HELP, the reveille!

Upon the beaten sod he lay,
Amidst a life less for,
Whose dying hand had sought to stay
The life-blood's ebbing flow—
The quivering drum yet echoing
The beating of his heart,
Th' encamping angel beckoning
From drum and life to part—
And LODGE LEE, of Tennessee,
AWAITS THE FINAL REVEILLE!

Rhode Island takes the Lead.

This gallant little State was the pioneer of civil and religious freedom as rights. To this day, color makes no political distinction among her citizens. Establishing the first liberal College, she started also the first Cotton Factory in America. To the Revolution she gave Ellery, Hopkins and Greene—a Perry to the Navy—and Channing and Wayland to literature. When the Rebel leaders thought to steal Pennsylvania, New York city and Rhode Island to set as tails to their kite, how were they surprised to see Rhode Island's Governor among the first to take the field for the Union, at the head of the best of armed troops! With Burnside, Casey, &c., she has been quickest to respond to every call for men or means. Some of her towns or townships have raised as high as $350 as bounty to every volunteer.

Her Governor, Wm. Sprague, has been claimed as a "Democrat," and appears to be one in the true sense of the word, but is not and never was of the party which has disgraced "that once honored name." To Gov. Sprague it has fallen to cut the Gordian knot as to enlisting colored men in the war for the Union: relieving the President of all responsibility, he receives them as legal men of Rhode Island, in the following manly and stirring call:

State of Rhode Island & Providence Plantations,
Adjutant-general's office,
Providence, Aug 4, 1862.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 30.—The 6th Regiment, ordered by the Secretary of War under date of October 23, 1861, and order issued thereafter from this Department, No. 105, Dec 28, 1861, will consist entirely of colored citizens. Enlistments will commence immediately. Camp will be established under Gen. Robbins, who is directed to organize the regiment.

The Quartermaster-General will furnish rations and equipments on requisition.

Our colored fellow citizens are reminded that the regiment from this State in the Revolution, consisting entirely of colored persons, was pronounced, by Washington, equal, if not superior, to any in the service. They constitute a part of the quota from this State, and it is expected they will respond with zeal and spirit to this call.

The Commander-in-Chief will lead them into the field, and will share with them, in common with the patriotic soldiers of the Army of the Republic, their trials and dangers, and will participate in the glories of their successes.

By order of WM. SPRAGUE, Com. in Ch.
EDW. C. MAURAN, Adj. Gen.

Ignorance and Slavery go "hand in hand." The aristocracy hold the common people down by keeping them in comparative ignorance. Hence we find, where Slavery rules, there are no Free Schools. And one of the first works of Congress, after freeing the Capital of the Nation from Slavery, was to pass

"AN ACT to provide for the Public Instruction of Youth in Primary Schools throughout the county of Washington, in the District of Columbia."

Saturday, 9th Aug. '62, was a terrible hot day. Thermometers raged up to the 90s. In New York city and suburbs, 30 persons died from the effects of heat.

Col. JEREMIAH RITTER, of East Buffalo, is respectfully recommended to the voters of Union county as an Independent candidate for Commissioner at the next October election.

Col. Ritter is a hard working mechanic, but submits his claims to the decision of the Democratic Convention.

NOTICE TO BATHERS.

THE public (and especially Ladies) have recently been much annoyed when called upon to pass along the River Road above town by the indecent exposure of boys and young men bathing in close proximity to the road. The criminal code of Pennsylvania makes such conduct punishable by fine and imprisonment. I hereby give notice that I will have the law rigidly enforced against all who continue the shameless practice.
