400 Men and $20,000.

It is believed that the Rebel Conscription of Aug. men in their power is pretty much exhausted—that they can hardly raise another considerable army. Our troops might possibly subdue them, but at a fearful cost of time, treasure, and blood. To make the conquest quick and decisive, and to guard against all outside dangers and influences, the Government has determined to call for Six Hundred Thousand more Soldiers, and also to fill up exhausted Regiments. This will make an army of OVER ONE MILLION OF FREEMEN. Union county's share of the requisition upon Pennsylvania, it is supposed, will be Five Hundred men, of whom a fifth are in the field with Capt. Moyer—leaving Four Hundred to come.

Within Nine Months, it is thought, Secession will have its death-blow—the last force is to ENSURE it as far as human wisdom can.

To avoid the necessity of a draft upon patriotic Old Union, an effort is this week being made to raise that 400 by enlistment. Give every one a chance to join a Union.

And as an encouragement and duty towards those who thus step forward, Subscription Books are being circulated through our county, to raise a sum sufficient to ensure a Bounty of Fifty Dollars to all our Volunteers. The County Commissioners have done what they can under the Law. Private aid is now relied upon. Every man should pay at least TWICE HIS STATE TAX, to make up the sum.

It is understood that each County will be required to give its share of able-bodied men, less the number in actual service in a State Regiment—and each Township and Borough must also furnish its due quota.

The more we enlist, the fewer are to enlist, and the less are the chances for being drafted.

It is believed the Old Soldiers will be advanced forward to more active service, leaving the new Recruits to drill and garrison.

The risks in war are not always desperate. Capt. Armstrong, Easton, informs us that he brought back, safe, every man he took into the three months' service. Other Officers have a similar experience. If they are thoughtful and careful, many are decidedly benefitted by a campaign: the strictest moralist is the best soldier, and most healthy and happy man; but often, by recklessness, vice, disease, or hard battles, half of a force is wasted away in a year or two.

Population of Union County, 1860.

Total	15,162

The official Census Report gives our county but 14,145—but Brady is since re-annexed, and 100 is added to Lewisburg and to New Berlin and 30 to Kelly, for known errors. Proportions (after deducting those already in service) may be estimated. The Boroughs having before done most, the Townships will now have the largest share; happily, the farmers contribute after a precious harvest, with a probability of relief before the next hurrying season arrives.

—We thus give what we suppose to be the material facts in the matter. Whatever is done for Volunteering, should be done QUICKLY.

GIVE IT UP!—The Democrats of Blair Co., Pa., have wisely and patriotically concluded not to nominate a Ticket for County Officers—who, because it would have been defeated, after wasting money and toil; and patriotic, because to run Anti-Administration Tickets in the Loyal States is really (we hope not always intentionally) to harass the Administration and encourage the Rebels. Putting down the Rebellion is really the only issue, and if the friends of the Administration put up respectable and competent men, they ought not to be opposed from mere partizan or factious motives.

☞Fuller details of the Battle of Cedar Run or Slaughter Mountain give the Unionists, under Banks, numbering but 7,000, the credit of checking an army of 30,000 who next day began to retreat, and thus failed of cutting off this advanced corps. But it was the hardest-fought field of the campaign, and Gen. Banks and his men won imperishable renown for their skill, pluck, and persistent bravery.

☞The Northern Central Railway has made many thousands by the war, but there is a complaint that it has given no contributions. The Illinois Central and other Roads that have made fortunes out of Uncle Sam, seem to be quite as ungrateful.

☞Alfred Caldwell, grandson of the late Uriah Silsby, of Kelly, was wounded before Richmond, and died in Philadelphia. He was buried from his mother's, in Milton.

Desperate Expedient.

"Quarrel with the Negroes!" is the order from Rebel head quarters. To excite all the low, petty hate and jealousy they can against an afflicted race, and then maltreat them personally, is the aim of the Satanic press, from the N. Y. Herald down to its faintest echo in the woods of Pennsylvania or Iowa. Accordingly, we have read, for some weeks past, of riots in Cincinnati and other cities, got up by blackguards with white faces, evidently by design and for effect.

But the worst thing we have noticed for years, was a diabolical deed in Brooklyn city, about the 1st inst. Their husbands and fathers absent, some well behaved, industrious black women and children were working, as they had done for years, in a tobacco factory, when they were assailed by a gang of rowdies, evidently led by some Irish pothouse politicians, who claimed that they wanted the work the blacks were performing. (just as, a few years ago, Irish and Germans were mobbed because they were said to underwork certain fast-living natives.) The women and children were in an upper room, which they barred, and defended themselves as best they could. The hellish ruffians then set fire to the lower floor, with the evident design of burning out a dozen or twenty human beings whose only offence was that God had given them a black skin! Happily, they were rescued by the police, and the fire extinguished. Whether the would-be murderers can be punished, remains to be seen.

This is one of the tricks resorted to by Rebel sympathizers to raise disturbances, and perhaps civil war in the Loyal States, in order to recall our troops, and enable the Secessionists to triumph. Enslaving the blacks at the South, and keeping them in ignorance; at the North, trying to deprive them of the most laborious means of winning a livelihood, and then abusing them for their poverty—is it not all infernally mean?

Haines Township Waking up!

Thursday evening, 14th inst., a large and enthusiastic War Meeting was held in Haines, the lower township of Center county, four-fifths of the audience being German Democrats. That staunch old-line Democrat, JOHN HOSTERMAN, Esq., presided, assisted by other good men. By request, Maj Charles H. Shriner spoke to his old friends, at length, (some of the time in German,) upon the great question of the day. He quoted largely from that undoubted Union Democrat, Gov. Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee, who proved conclusively that the Secessionists have been planning their revolt for years—that they might have passed the Crittenden Resolutions if they had chosen—and that the real design of the Southern leaders is to re-establish an Aristocracy if not a Monarchy and Kingly powers. The speech was listened to with the best attention—and at its close the following plain, unequivocal, out-spoken, loyal Resolution was offered and adopted by acclamation:

"Resolved, That we will, without distinction of party, give our earnest support to PRESIDENT LINCOLN in his honest, manly efforts to crush this wicked and causeless Rebellion against the best and most liberal Government in the world."

☞The Aaronsburg Berichter says 14 or 15 men enlisted with Capt. M'Farland, at the late war meeting there. Also that Brush and Penns Vallies "came up to the mark," and that "two more Companies can be raised, on short notice, among the Breckinridge Democrats" of those places. Good news—which, we hope, may prove verified, as they are already called for, and the other parts of the county had previously done more than their share.

"We hold an entire Change of Administration to be imperatively demanded."

Such is one of the Resolutions of the Party which nominated Barr and Slenker. In the midst of the mightiest, bloodiest struggle ever made between Free Government and Despotism—while a President, who is honestly and laboriously doing his whole duty, has over two years to serve—a Party steps in and "imperatively demands an entire change of Administration!" This is no time to change our Rulers—no time to parley and tamper with traitors, in league with Rebels! The only one claiming the Chair at Washington from Abraham Lincoln, is Jefferson Davis—and do the Slenker and Barr men expect the Freemen of Pennsylvania will indicate a wish to turn over this State to Davis, by voting for men who "imperatively demand" it? Elect Barr and Slenker, and the Rebels and their allies will claim it as the verdict of Pennsylvania against Lincoln, and an order to surrender to the Rebels!

Col. Vance has 25,000 majority as Governor of North Carolina. He is an old line Whig, fought Secession to the last, and was opposed by an original Secessionist and friend of Jeff Davis. How much importance it to be attached to his election—with a Legislature of the same stamp—remains to be seen, but it is a victory of the masses over the leaders of the Rebellion.

☞Hon. John Hughes' uncle—F. W. Hughes, Chairman State Committee—has issued an address to the Democracy of Pa., in which the North is made responsible, primarily, for the war. That is the Slenker and Barr doctrine—the loyal part of the Union in the wrong—the Rebels on the least objectionable side. Their design is, evidently, by confounding the Republicans and Douglas Democrats who support the Administration, with a little knot of ultra Abolitionists who oppose it, to prejudice the people against aiding the Administration to put down the Rebels. Thus we have Hughes in the North, and Davis in the South, equally hostile to the Administration. We have TWO PARTIES—one is the friends of the Union Administration; the other its opponents, one faction fighting it in the North by ballot and intrigue, and the other in arms against it, at the South. It is a plain issue—For the Union, or Against it—no room for a Cowboy or half-way party.

☞We learn that EIGHT Regiments have been sent from Harrisburg, but as they are not completely organized, we omit their names, &c. For the same reason, we postpone our incomplete list of Capt. Moyer's "Union County Fencibles," which is now full and expected to march yesterday.

Not a death has occurred among the thousands at Harrisburg, and all start off in good trim.

☞Rev. Wm. R. M'Neil has become pastor of the Williamsport Baptist church. ...Rev. Arthur G. Thomas, Chaplain to a hospital in Philadelphia.—A Baltimore Baptist minister, chaplain for a while to a Jeff. Davis Regiment, has crossed the lines to Baltimore, and taken the Union oath.

☞Lancaster county sent the first new regiment from Pennsylvania, Col. Franklin, and with Thad. Stevens, Jr., among its officers. But New York sent down a full Regiment, first, commanded by Col. Van Valkenburg, of Bath, and Lieut. Col. Diven, of Elmira—both, Republican Members of Congress.

☞The Democracy are quoting some of Col. Forney's former mistaken opinions, to justify them in their present equivocal position. That is wrong: you should take Forney since he gives up his Party prejudices for the good of the Country, and not when blinded by Democratic partizanship. Appeal "from Philip, drunk, to Philip, sober."

☞Ex-Gov. Ritner spent one night with the boys in camp at Harrisburg, last week. It reminded him of his camp life, fifty years ago. He is in good spirits, and boasts of SEVEN grandsons, volunteers. Ex-Governors Ritner and Porter agree on the War question.

☞Edward M'Pherson is re-nominated as the Republican Union candidate for Congress in the Adams district. He is the right kind of a man—attentive to his duties in Congress, and helping in the Army during vacations.

CLINGMANS.—Ten relatives of this name have enlisted in the Union Army from Stephenson Co., Illinois, one of whom (Thomas S., son of Josiah) died and another is a prisoner.

☞We are indebted to the "Committee" for a copy of Gen. Henry Walbridge's Oration on the 4th July before the Common Council &c. of New York, in Cooper's Institute.

☞The Milton Company, "Davis' Sharp Shooters," elected Dr. I. B. Davis, Captain; Wm. A. Bruner and Wm. H. Wolfe, Lieutenants.

☞Wm. Smith, of East Buffaloe, shot a crane last week, which stood five feet high without boots, and was 6 feet 1 inch from tip to tip of wings.

☞If the Milesian could for once have the fairness to copy the article to which it refers, its readers will see where the "endeavor to deceive" comes in.

☞Rev. J. B. Clark, pastor of a Presbyterian Church in Allegheny City, has raised a Company in his Church, and marched as its Captain to Harrisburg.

☞Wm. Smith, the colored emigrant from Milton, express himself as highly pleased with Hayti.

Henry W. Morrill, of the 29th Ohio, at the battle of Port Republic, having a hole shot in the rear of his pants large enough to allow a large part of his shirt to "float in the breeze," mounted so that the enemy could see the white flag, and asked, "Do you suppose the enemy will fire on a flag of truce?" Just then, the Rebels let drive a heavy volley, when Morrill jumped quickly back, saying, "I guess they will!"

A committee of Free Colored Men recently waited upon Pres. Lincoln. He urged upon them the general policy of Colonization, as best for all concerned, and pointed out Central America as a desirable place. The interview was respectful on both sides, and the visitors promised to give the subject their best attention.

Total Loyal fighting men	4,959,238
Total of Rebel do	1,365,292
Total in divided States	488,276
Total of Colored Men	450,000

With Three Millions and a Half more of fighting men, there is a corresponding superiority of material means in the Loyal States. But the Rebels have the advantage of compactness, on their own ground, with prior preparation, and habits of warfare—they are sacrificing, literally, everything for their cause, and have four millions of slaves to sustain them while in a death struggle for complete supremacy.

☞But our Power must be USED resolutely—fully—unsparingly—to the end, or we might as well be the weaker party.

A rousing War meeting in Wheeling, Va., requests Carlisle to resign his seat as their U. S. Senator, and go South where he belongs. This Carlisle, with Wickliffe, Vallandigham, &c., vote and talk just as Breckinridge did until he threw off the mask.

The Canadians are ridiculing and abusing the Americans who come there now, accusing them of a desire to avoid the draft. (The English, by the way, begin to hint that Canada is more trouble than profit to the mother country.)

Of the abundance and extraordinary goodness of Fruit, great and small, given us this year, all possible should be saved for our soldiers and sailors. Fruit, ripe and dried, will be peculiarly grateful and healthful to them.

Gen. Cassius M. Clay has made a rousing speech, in Washington, in favor of Confiscation and pushing the War. He thinks Russia and France our friends, but the Government of England are not.

VOLUNTEERING PAYS.—It is said that in Truro, Massachusetts, the quota assigned to the town has been enlisted from one family consisting of four persons. They received a bounty of $325 each—total $1,300; clubbed the funds, purchased a farm for the "old folks," whom they leave in possession while they go to the war.

Gen. M'Call, late of the Penn'a Reserves, has been released from Richmond. He is bitter against the Rebels, whom he thinks should be conquered even if necessary to resort to extermination.

President Lincoln, in a War Speech at Washington, defended Sec. Stanton—stated M'Clellan had had all the forces feasible—and intimated that Gen. Halleck was now the Military Adviser.

All the main portion of the village of Horse Heads or Fairport, above Elmira, was burned Monday last. Loss, $100,000, with 15,000 insured.

The Sunbury Gazette, the oldest Democratic paper in Northumberland county, supports Cochran and Ross, instead of Barr and Slenker.

The New School Presbyterians report 1466 churches, 1555 ordained ministers, and 395 candidates; and 135,454 communicant members.

Illinois voted down a new Democratic Constitution by 13,990 votes—a majority which the Soldiers' vote increases.

FROM THE MILESIAN.

ESQ. JULIA J. P. INN.

Who shall describe, in words of truth,
Our simple mourned departed one?
This was the language of her heart:
"Thy will, O Lord, be done."

O, strong with her was God by day—
The guard of hers at night was He;
Her parents, husband, children, friends,
She loved them well, and loved them long.

Yet not one murmur from her lips,
When home she left the shining pole;
Her grave how on city clocks her will
Into the righteous will to rest!

See, in her loveliness and youth,
The gentle of God's redeeming grace;
Behold the styles Saint's crown
Shine in her sparkly smiling face.

"Thanks be to God, the grave is won!" Comes there not
From the heaven, silent, peaceful grave,
A voice which tells me to refrain
Who died the sainted world to save?

With broken hearts, we mourn her loss;
But, Lord, the chastening hand we yield;
Can guide our feet through sin's dark gloom,
To meet her in the realms of light.

LEWISBURG, July 25, 1862. J. AIKEN.

☞The engine house of the Cattawissa R. R. Co., at Milton, was burned about 12 o'clock last Sunday night. Three engines, which were housed at the time, were also destroyed.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 16.—On the 9th, at Tazewell, Tenn., Col. Cochran, of the 14th Ky., was attacked by four Rebel regiments, whom he awaited until they came within 150 yards, when his fire killed and wounded 250 Rebels, and checked their advance. Our loss is 3 killed and 15 wounded. The Rebel account of a victory in that region is not believed.

Col. T. F. M'Coy, of Lewistown, having received his appointment as commander of the 107th, has left for the seat of war.

The notorious Dr E. B. Olds, of Ohio, has been arrested under the law for discouraging enlistments.

The 44th N. Y. Regiment has sixty-eight holes in its flag from the shots of the Rebels.

Tuesday Morning's News.

Capt. Moyer is to be Quartermaster of the 131st Reg., which expects to move to-day.

The 129th Reg. has Jacob G. Frick (late of Northumberland) Colonel; W. H. Armstrong, Esq., late of Lewisburg, Lieutenant Colonel; Thompson G. Evans, of Lewisburg, Sutler.

New Orleans advices show that the Rebel attack on Baton Rouge was an utter failure. The Rebel ram Arkansas was destroyed.

M'Clellan is reported at Williamsburg.

Cassius M. Clay is sent West on duty.

Col. Corcoran is released.

MARRIED.

By Rev. A. G. Hole, 7th inst., WM. J. FREED, Milton, and MARGARET CHRISTY, Northumberland.

Died,

In Lewisburg, 16th inst., KATE, daughter of Catharine and the late Samuel Wolfe, in her 20th year. She had "chosen that good part" which lingering disease could not take from her.
