In Memoriam.

(RESPECTFULLY INSCRIBED TO THE FRIENDS OF MISS MARY E. AND MISS KATE WOLFE.)

Like as the wave makes toward the pebbled shore,
So do our minutes hasten to their end. Kirke Wade.

How sweetly through the intervening space, misty with blight and change, the sun of memory is shining now upon the hours when, a stranger from a sunny land, we beheld first these scenes, and the fond faces upon whose fairness spring-time hopes were blossoming! How priceless are the reminiscences! how fondly each has lived in our hearts through the trio of years!—those pleasant walks by the beauteous river-side in the pensive evening time, noting the mirrored stars, listing the rippling music of its silver waves, or sailing in the early morn upon its calm, clear bosom. "Fairest of the fair" in all that unforgotten throng, was her, the first of whom we will briefly speak—a child of genius—"veiled spirit of Promethean fire." How vividly we recall the face and form, as on the remembered morn when we saw her first. Even then, she was fading, tho' gently, as orange blossoms bright at morning drop their petals in the bosom of a waveless summer lake resplendent in the prismatic glory of sunset. Thus, as the day-god, brightest shone her life in the hour of its setting. A sad, sad letter, penned by a sister friend, reached us in our far-off home. "Mary was dead!" In a sunnier realm whither she had gone for health and strength, her life had gone out, to a realm within whose endless summers flowers and dew lie like opal gems upon the bosom of its bright green sward, and no darkness comes to the night of its sweet skies. How mournful was the missive embalming the intelligence! We felt as if an exquisite harmony in nature had ceased—as if the light and glory had been suddenly stricken from the universe. But, ah! there are no grave fetters for spirits such as hers: the "hereafter" is brighter even than our hopes or dreams would make it.

Time, upon swift feet of joy and storm, swept by; the years had gone on to join the outward-bound flotilla, slowly drifting to the haven of ages past—annual seasons, fraught with momentous consequences to nations and individuals as well. How impotent is the mightiest bulwark of strength to resist the tide of the sounding, swelling strife! Strong hearts by thousands have ceased to pulsate in the grasp of Him who is the mighty arbiter of planetary destinies; yet still the inevitable wine-press must be trod. "All things with God are possible." Our nation's starry banner will unfurl its beauteous shining folds in surging breezy waves from pole to pole and ocean to ocean once again.

The days in the shining of their hopes have gone swiftly by since that old time. Once more, remembered scenes have greeted us, and the days were bright as those other days upon which we clasped the true hands of friends, ours through the changes and the years. Sitting down to muse in the sweet brooding solitude consecrated to memories of other years, the sound of a tolling bell stole faintly upon our reverie. Another star, to the bright circlet in the firmament of evening, was added. Another soul, by the mighty anchor of its faith and hope and trust, at the shining portals of infinitude was anchored. And the glorious, endless day, in its brightness, was well begun. Kate, too, was gone, to join her fair sister in that brighter realm. From the many friends that loved her, we heard the story of her life, how beautiful and consistent it was, how calm and sweet the death. "He giveth his beloved, sleep!" How ecstatic was the re-union with loved ones gone before! How truthful and beautiful the words of Mrs. Stowe: "The names of such as she are written early upon gravestones!" Earth was too material for the range of those beauteous glory-tipped spirit wings! the area was not vast enough! But, O, how darkly has fallen the shadow of desolation upon the cherished home that she has left! Those dear ones! Well, we know all their anguish ere they laid her to rest—the fair and beautiful, in her summer grave;

"How they watched her, how they wept,
While the death-film darkening crept
O'er her sweet eyes till they slept."

How many, many hearts there are, who mourn her! yet in each there is a spell of sweet peace, and a wish, that is almost a prayer—

"Let me die the death of the righteous,
Let my last end be like hers."

Aug. 1862. S. J. HANCOCK, of Louisville, Ky.

PUMPS vs. HYDRANTS.

The warm weather created quite a run upon town-pumps, and the consumption of the primitive and best of beverages is enormous and sometimes inordinate. In some places, there are but few relics of "auld lang syne" pumps or wells left, and we are glad to see wholesome people hold them in proper respect and veneration.

Stranger! spare that pump!
Touch not its liquid spout;
In youth it quenched my thrist,
And is not yet played out.
'Twas my forefathers' hand
That placed thee in this spot;
Then, spoiler! let it stand—
Its waters harm thee not.

That never-failing pump!
Whose waters bless the town,
That gushes pure and free—
Why wouldst thou take it down?
City fathers! make no laws
To fill those good old wells;
Yes, spare those healthful founts,
For life within them dwells.

When but a wild school-boy,
I seized thy ladle dear,
In all its dripping joy,
And quaffed thy waters clear;
Here, my mother washed my face,
And scrubbed my little hand—
Forgive this foolish tear,
But let that old pump stand!

When hydrants pour forth liquid mud
From reservoirs impure,
And cleanly house-wives scold and mourn
Such evils to endure—
To thee we turn, old pump!
For bev'rage cool and clear—
When clay-streams fill the plugs,
Then thou art still more dear!

To thee, deep buckets bring,
Tin cups and pitchers send,
Free drinks from crystal spring,
The poor man's changeless friend—
Dear pump! thou shalt remain
In this refreshing spot,
Although 't is very plain
"Improvement" loves thee not.

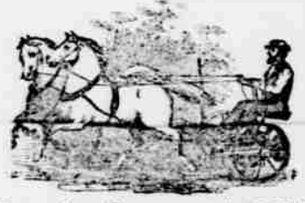
BUCKEYE ALL RIGHT



For the Harvest of 1862!

The most approved Agricultural Implements now in the Market!

MANUFACTURED BY
SLIFER, WALLS, SHRINER & CO.,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Buckeye Reaper & Mower.

THE unprecedented success of the "Buckeye" is the strongest proof of its superior excellency. The BUCKEYE has caused a complete Revolution in the Manufacture of REAPING AND MOWING Machines, and its reputation is so well established that it is scarcely necessary to particularize its advantages. We will, however, call the attention of the farmers to a few of its merits.

The TWO DRIVING WHEELS—the Pawls and Springs, by which the machine may be thrown out of gear, or be backed without vibrating the knives—the Steel Cutter Bar—the Wrought Iron Guard, with Hardened Steel Face or Cutting Edge—the Double-Hinged Joint, by which the Cutter Bar may be Folded—the long Crank Shaft—the Steel Spring and Wheel, by which the Cutter Bar may be raised and lowered so as to cut as low to the ground as may be desired—the Steel Pitman and Brass Box—its Light Draft—(no Side Draft)—no weight on the horses' necks—backs as easily as a cart—all of which form a combination of advantages which no other machine possesses.

No Gearing on the Driving Wheels.

A team of horses weighing 900 lbs. each, will cut an acre of grass an hour with ease.

The machine is furnished with two Cutter Bars—one for cutting grass, and the other for cutting grain (each expressly adapted to the use intended).

No effort will be wanting to maintain the Buckeye in the enviable position it now occupies, that of being the Best Machine in the World!

—The subscribers return their sincere thanks to their friends for the generous support they have received in introducing the celebrated Buckeye Reaper and Mower into Central and Northern Pennsylvania, and are much indebted to them for their warm greetings and kind offices in recommending it to their friends and neighbors.

AMBROSE'S Coal Oil No Chimney Hand Lamp. The following are some of its advantages:

1st. Dispenses with the chimney, which is expensive and cumbersome.
2d. The light is at once accessible for lighting and kindling purposes.
3d. Burns less oil than the chimney lamp.
4th. Burns the different grades and qualities of coal and carbon oils, from a density of 38 and upward.
5th. Can be carried around with about the same facility as a candle.
6th. Length of time in burning improves the quality of the flame. The lamp may be burned a week without trimming and will not smoke.

DR. HOOFLAND'S

BALSAMIC CORDIAL,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Croup, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Diseases of the Bowels, arising from Cold, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief and (if at all possible) cure of Patients in advanced stages of the latter disease.

THE Balsamic Cordial is entirely a Vegetable production, combining the healing properties of the Balsam, with the invigorating qualities of a Cordial, producing a combination so well adapted to the purposes intended, that there are but few cases of disease which will not, at an early period, succumb to its healing and life-giving properties.

For ages has the treatment of pulmonary diseases occupied the greater portion of the attention of the scientific of the medical world, but none acquitted more eminence in his treatment of these diseases, than the celebrated Prussian Dr. Hoofland, the originator of the Balsamic Cordial. His life was devoted to the production of remedies that would stand unrivaled. How well he has succeeded, the American people are able to judge: and we positively assert, that no preparations that have ever been placed before them, have conferred the same amount of benefits on suffering humanity, or have elicited so many commendations from all classes of society, as the remedies of Hoofland, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., of Philadelphia.

The Cordial is designed for a class of diseases more general and more fatal than any other to which the people of this country are subject—those springing from a "settled cold." That eminent authority, Dr. Bell, says—"I will not say that Colds are to our inhabitants what the Plague and Yellow Fever are to those of other countries; but I can aver confidently that they usher in disease of greater complexity and mortality than these latter

Read what the eminent Organ Manufacturer, JOHN M. WHITALL, says of the BALSAMIC CORDIAL.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Respected Friend: Having for a long time been acquainted with the virtues of thy BALSAMIC CORDIAL in Coughs, Colds, Inflammation of the Lungs, &c., I thus freely bear testimony to its efficacy. For several years I have never been without it in my family. It is also given me pleasure to state that I have used it with entire success in the treatment of Bowel Complaints. Thy friend truly. JOHN M WHITALL.

LINDSEY'S Improved BLOOD SEARCHER,
A STANDARD MEDICINE

For the speedy, radical and effectual cure of ALL diseases arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD!

THIS medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of

Scrofula,	Cancerous formations,
Cutaneous diseases,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Pimples on the face,	Sore Eyes, Scald Head,
Old, stubborn Ulcers,	Rheumatic disorders,
Tetter affections,	Gentleness,
Dyspepsia, Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Mercurial diseases,	General debility,
Liver Complaint,	Loss of Appetite,
Low Spirits,	Foul Stomach.

Female Complaints—and all diseases having their origin in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of David M'Creary, of Naples Township, on the 31st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gurley that he was treated for the cure of CANCER by three physicians of Bedford county, and by Dr. Newton of the Eclectic College, Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which he sp. most, and a portion of his left cheek were entirely eaten away. He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and (although sadly disfigured) there is no question but this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a Circular to be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to a case of Nancy Hinkney, of Hilerton, Armstrong Co., Pa., cured of SCROFULA after being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the case of a lady in Ansonville, Clearfield Co., who was afflicted with Scrofula in its worst form.

To the case of George Meisel, roofing in Carrolltown, Cambria Co., Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it cut his entire nose off, and his case was worse, if possible, than M'Creary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the Blood Searcher—may also be found in a Circular to be had of any of the Agents.

COMMENDATIONS.

From Hon. LEWIS D. CAMPBELL, M. C., Ohio

My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the Newell Picture is more like than any thing they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presented so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.

From Hon. E. JOY MORRIS, late Minister to Italy.

The exquisite finish, beauty and richness of your portraits, conjoined with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, can not fail to commend them to the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

From Col. JAMES PAGE.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil Colors, and am pleased to say, I regard it, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but the artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art. 872m6 JAMES PAGE.
