THE WARNING.

"O when," the widow cries, "shall all this sorrow have an ending?
How long before this agony shall cease, how long, O Lord?
How long beneath these storms of war must our torn hearts be bending?
Until, to let our people go, your Pharaoh speaks the word?

"My sons, my eldest born, they're torn away from my embraces,
Slain on the battle-field they lie, by ball and bayonet gored;
No mother's smile was near them to illume their failing faces;
Oh God! how long cry Pharaoh shall speak the magic word?

"When shall our husbands, brothers, sons return in life and vigor?
When shall their groans of anguish thro' the land no more be heard?
When shall we cease to see their mangled forms in Death's pale rigor?
"Whene'er your stubborn Pharaoh gives the signal," saith the Lord.

When with the flowers of peace shall our loved land bloom like a garden?
When into plow-lines shall our heroes beat the avenging sword?
How long, O God, wilt thou permit our Pharaoh's heart to harden?
O! save our ruin-threatened land and bid him speak the word!

God's hand hath written on the nation's wall, in plain inscriptions,
The warning: "let my people go, or, as I live, the sword
Shall slay your first born, as of old it slaughtered the Egyptians!"
Yet Pharaoh's heart is hardened and he will not speak the word.

Your sons shall shed their life-blood, and the curse of desolation
Upon your homes and hearts in retribution shall be poured;
Your glory shall diminish, ye shall perish as a nation,
Except ye heed my warning: "Free my people!" saith the Lord.

How the President Feels.

The Chicago Journal says, the President's anger is up, for once, and now look out to see the fur fly. He has been disappointed and mortified beyond measure by recent events. It will take a week or two to repair matters, and then for cigor. Some of the peacock officers who have failed to come up to the scratch, will have to give place to men of brains and stability. No more fooling—no more trifling will be allowed. "Old Abe" is mad—his old western dander is up, and I have heard him use some pretty strong language within a few days past in private conversation. The President and Halleck will now run the machine themselves, and entirely on war principles. The West can not possibly feel more chagrin at the discouraging situation of affairs at the present moment, and the President feels worse than any other man in this nation possibly can. "Are we going to be whipped to death?" asked an Ohio Congressman of the President. "Whipped!" exclaimed the President indignantly. "There's no such thing in the books—these Southern rascals will find themselves buried under a Northern avalanch sooner than you think, and like the boy who was struck by lightning, they won't know what ailed them. Never say whipped while there is a God in Israel." This the President said with much emphasis. He does not dream of such a thing as failure in this war. He sees how great mistakes have been made, and they will be remedied as far and as soon as possible, and guarded against in the future. His great wish, just now, is that he was a military man. If he was, he would himself go forth and lead our army to battle.

WELL TURNED.—The former Breckinridger, Gen. B.F. BUTLER, has freed more slaves than all the Abolitionists in the land—as a "military measure." In New Orleans, he found the original commission of the captains of "Native Guards," who were colored men regularly enrolled in the Rebel service. Butler recites their merits at length, as stated by the Rebel Governor (Thomas O. Moore,) and then accepts the same Native Guards in the Union service! Instead of being compelled to fight on the wrong side, by Traitors, they are now, by the constituted authority, authorized and invited to cast their influence on the right side! You are right, Ben. Butler!

BENJ. FRANKLIN'S maxims are many of them of lasting value. The following is very applicable to our day:

"LIBERTY will not descend to a people: a people must raise themselves to liberty: it is a blessing that must be earned before it can be enjoyed."

Of the same character is the old motto, "Eternal Vigilance is the yearly price of Liberty."

"Know ye not, who would be free
Themselves must strike the blow?"

Amos Myers, of Clarion county, has been nominated for Congress by the loyal men of the District of which that county is a portion. The American Citizen, of Franklin county, pronounces Mr. Myers a man of spirit, energy and undoubted patriotism, and well worthy the distinguished position in which he will be placed by the loyal voters of that district, on the second Tuesday of October.

The Sunbury American says that one of the conferees, (the editor of the Selinsgrove Times,) who made the nomination of W. H. Miller for Congress, openly defended the doctrine of secession, and is now the ally of the Breckinridge Democrat of that place in aiding his election.

In a Rebel force of four thousand which passed through Springfield, Kentucky, last week, there was a company of negroes completely armed and equipped for military service. Isn't that unconstitutional!

THE DAY SCHOOL BELL.

A New Singing Book for day schools, called the Day School Bell, is now ready. It contains about 200 choice Songs, Rounds, Catches, Duetts, Trios, Quartets and Chorusses, many of them written expressly for this work, besides 32 pages of the Elements of Music. The Elements are so easy and progressive, that ordinary learners will find themselves entirely successful in instructing even young scholars to sing properly and scientifically, while the tunes and words have such a variety of style, attractive and cool stirring music and sentiment, that it will be very hard indeed to find a day school that will not be delighted to go on with zeal in acquiring the harmonious and healthy principles of singing, forgetting pitching and unintelligible exercises of school life. In compiling of its elements, its variety and adaptation of music, and its excellence and number of its songs, original, selected and adapted, it claims by many competent judges, to be found to be the best ever issued for Seminaries, Academies and Public Schools. A new compiling of the Elements, Tunes, and Songs are given in a brilliant, novel and get up. It is compiled by HORACE WATERS, author of "Sabbath School Bells," Nos. 1 and 2, which have had the enormous sale of 750,000 copies. Price—paper cover, 20 cents, $18 per hundred; boards, 25 cents, $22 per hundred; embossed, gilt, 42 cents, $36 per hundred. 25 copies furnished at the hundred price. Mailed free at the retail price.

GREAT Work on the HORSE.

The Horse and his Diseases.

By ROBERT JENNINGS, V. S., Professor of Pathology and Operative Surgery in the Veterinary College of Philadelphia.

The book contains 384 pages, appropriately illustrated by nearly 100 Engravings. It is printed in clear, open type—the price, half bound, $1, or in cloth extra $1.25.

IT TELLS how the origin, history and distinctive traits of the various breeds of European, Asiatic, African and American horses, with the physical formation and peculiarities of the animal, and how to ascertain his age by the number and condition of his teeth—illustrated with numerous explanatory Engravings.

IT TELLS how of breeding, breaking, stabling, feeding, grooming, shoeing, and the general management of the horse, with the best modes of administering medicine, also how to avoid biting, kicking, rearing, shying, stumbling, crib-biting, restlessness, and other vices to which he is subject—with numerous explanatory Engravings.

IT EXPLAINS the symptoms, causes and treatment of strangles, fever, distemper, chronic cough, catarrh, influenza, bronchitis, pneumonia, pleurisy, broken wind, thumps, sore mouth and ulcers, and decayed teeth, with other diseases of the mouth and respiratory organs.

IT NARRATES the causes, symptoms and treatment of worms, bots, thrush, strangulation, stony concretions, rupture, poley, diarrhœa, jaundice, hematuria, bloody urine, stones in the kidneys and bladder, inflammation and other diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver, and urinary organs.

IT TREATS of the causes, symptoms and treatment of lung, blood and bone spavin, ringbone, navicular, shoulder, broken knees, wind galls, foundered, sore feet and gravel, cracked heels, scratches, canker, thrush and worms; also of sweeney, rarbin, epilepsy, staggers, and other diseases of the feet, legs and head.

IT TALKS about the causes, symptoms, and treatment of Selsh, gall, wounds, bruises, fever, scarlet fever, mumps, surfeit, locked jaw, chronic cough, cramp, colic, diseases of the eye and heart, &c., &c., and how to manage castration, bleeding, trephining, rowling, bringhernia amputation, tapping, and other surgical operations.

IT GIVES Prof. Ramey's method of taming horses—how to approach, halter or stable a colt—how to accustom a horse to strange sounds and sights, and how to fit, saddle, ride, and break him to harness, also the form and law of warranty—the whole being the result of more than fifteen years' careful study of the habits, peculiarities, wants and weaknesses of this noble and useful animal.
