Feeling of Patriotism.

For six months past, the Unionists of Pennsylvania have felt a "divided duty." On the one hand was a riven and bleeding Country, calling on its heartiest sons to leave their homes and engage in deadly strife to save the National existence. On the other hand were the charms of peace and of home, and the honors and rewards of office and of party ascendancy--the latter important from an earnest conviction that it is necessary that the Government be sustained by Legislation, as well as by Arms. The loss of the Administration have generally, in secret if not openly, employed every artifice to prevent men from enlisting and to foment political and personal strife among those in service. Take for example the blunt opinion of the "Sensational Times," the only Democratic paper in Snyder county, "that any Democrat who enlists is an Abolitionist or a Fool," and we have the animating principle of too many of the leading men of that party. The instances of resistance to drafts come from the same political party. It is true many of them were willing to give and vote bounties to Republican and Douglas Democratic Volunteers; but they checked the liberal impulses of their own friends who would have gone, and kept back all they thought would vote with them. The result is--I or 3 Republican to 1 Democratic Volunteer. The former went with the full knowledge that every vote thus lost endangered party ascendancy in many counties--and was so far a loss. But to give up the land to be ravaged by the foe--to have the Old Keystone reduced to the level of Virginia--would be a greater loss. They thought the salvation of the best of Parties. They have not counted noses to gain some petty office--they have not coolly calculated on gains from the patriotic devotion of their opponents--they have not laughed in secret councils over the fact that their opponents had gone to fight, and left them the Offices. They struck for the lasting good of the whole country--they did duty, and trusted Providence for the future.

The Unionists have spent their time, money, and influence, in meetings and other efforts to sustain the Government, while some Democrats have been just as busy and industrious in trying to prejudice the people against it.

Should our State, therefore--from this absence of her noblest sons in the Army--be found arrayed, in appearance, against the Administration, the Unionists abroad must not take it as the real sentiment of our people, nor fail to credit the people for thus sacrificing party for the general good.

The children of Israel marched to the Red Sea--and through it--at the command of Jehovah. With like faith, thousands of Union men have entered the Army, even while fearful that their absence from home may aid in giving triumph to the sympathizers of the Pharaoh of Slavery.

Voters of the 14th Congressional District.

Whereas THEO. FENN has circulated certain private transactions in handbill form a few days before the election, in order to deprive me of an opportunity to contradict the same minutely, I take this method to inform the voters of the district that said allegations are FALSE IN EVERY RESPECT! I have already prosecuted said FENN, and he is now under heavy bonds to appear at the next Court of Quarter Session of Dauphin county. All persons are hereby warned not to circulate said slanderous bills, otherwise they will most certainly be prosecuted; and I would request my friends in the several townships to inform me of the persons who circulate them, so that I may bring them to speedy justice.

JOHN J. PATTERSON,
Union Candidate for Congress.

Whether Th. Fenn has both an equitable and legal claim against Col. Patterson--or one or the other--or neither--is nothing to the public. It is a matter between them. What the people ask is the man who will best sustain the Government against the Rebellion. Looking at their past conduct, and the political complexion of their friends, we prefer trusting to Col. Patterson.

Organize

(If you have not already) so as to bring out EARLY IN THE DAY, every true Union vote in your district.

The Tonnage Tax!

According to the calculations of Democratic journals, the Tonnage Tax Repeat Bills withheld from the State Treasury of Pennsylvania about TWELVE MILLIONS of Dollars, to be paid by future Taxation, a large portion of it upon Real Estate. Outside of Philadelphia, but one or two men who voted for the Repeat were returned to the next Legislature--such was the People's condemnation!

This year, the talented and eloquent Hon. GEORGE LANBORN, of the Bradford district, received the Republican Union nomination for Congress. But, in State Senate, he had voted for the Repeat of the Tonnage Tax--and such has been the feeling manifested against him because of that vote, that he has declined the nomination, and ROBERT F. CRANK, Esq., of Bloomsburg, is now the nominee. The Democrats of that district have no candidate, but will generally support HENRY W. TAYLOR, Esq., of Bradford, who--as an ultra Republican as London--voted against the Repeat, and thereby won the confidence of the masses of both parties.

Are not the Farmers and all Taxpayers of the Northumberland, Union, Snyder, Juniata and Dauphin district, equally opposed to a measure which added Twelve Millions of Dollars to already sufficiently burdensome State Taxes? Are they not equally patriotic, too? If so, they can manifest their will at the polls. Both our candidates for Congress profess to favor a vigorous prosecution of the War. But Wm. H. Miller, Esq. (as has been stated for weeks, and we see no denial), was not only a BOREK for the Repeat of the Tonnage Tax, but is now the paid lawyer of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad. JOHN J. PATTERSON, on the other hand, not only pledged himself, but VOTED against the Repeat of the Tonnage Tax, as the Assembly Records show.

Now--judging of the future by the past--which is the safest man? Which is the most economical? Which would best represent the masses (not the Railroads) of our district in Congress? If you are a Republican, Col. Patterson is the regular nominee of your party. If you are a Democrat, and have too much old party feeling (even in this awful time, when there should be but one party in the loyal States, against the Rebellion) to vote for a Republican, then vote for John J. Patterson, Esq. who had 1100 majority over Miller in Northumberland, the only county wherein the popular choice was in reality expressed, (Miller's Conferees being all wire-worked by Caucus Delegates.) Those opposed to any who aided the Tonnage Tax Repeat, can choose between the two following:

CONGRESS

CONGRESS
John J. Patterson.

Brady all Right again.

Last week, at Sunbury, the "constitutional" of the Brady Township Re-Annexation Act was tested. Mr. Foreman of Brady was taken for debt, by the Sheriff of Lycoming county, after the re-annexation of Brady to Union county. Foreman objected to the jurisdiction of Lycoming, and Judge Jordan of Lycoming at once decided that Foreman belonged to Union county. Three Williamsport lawyers appeared on the appeal to the Supreme Court, and after arguing their side of the case, the Judges told the Lewisburg lawyers it was not necessary to take up time in replying--the re-annexation was a "fixed fact."

Thus have the people of Brady by repeated petitions and elections--thus have the Courts of Lycoming and of Union--and thus has the Supreme Court decided that lower Brady is part of "heavenly Union." And thus have a few Williamsport lawyers bullied those concerned, and added costs and caused neighborhood jars, year after year--to no good purpose.

The Lycoming Bradyites vote hereafter, at the old Platt house, on Penny Hill, in Lycoming county.

Auditor General.

This office has been invariably re-elected, heretofore, in our State. His experience, in detecting fraudulent, trumped-up claims, is worth thousands to the State, yearly. We have never had a better man than Mr. COCHRAN in the office. Re-elect him, and he will rightly bar many claims which the most honest successor--without his experience--might allow to pass. It is the most important Office to guard the State Treasury. Aside from it is a political test, it is matter of State Policy to re-elect Thomas E. Cochran!

Make up Clubs.

Election Day (Tuesday, TO-DAY) will be good chance for friends in the Townships to get up Clubs for our paper. $5 for 4 copies, or $10 for 10. Cheap enough for anybody!

The Rebel "raid" into Pennsylvania stirred up her Soldiers--and Miller's "raid" into Union county has stimulated her Republican voters to try and roll up an old-fashioned majority.

The Millerites try to deny their chief distributed the Fenn electioneering handbills--but they were brought and peddled, all over the district, by Miller's friends exclusively. Shame!

Promotion for Good Service.

We learn that Gen. Baronside has, without the request or knowledge of Dr. Theodore S. Christ, promoted him to the rank of Brigade-Surgeon--a rank which gives honor and incidental advantages, but no additional pay. This is one evidence among many of the strict and conscientious attention to his duties, which has marked Dr. Christ's professional career in the Army, and which shows that there are some Surgeons who are honest and faithful, while others are careless and unfit. A stranger in town the other day, stated that Dr. Christ saved his life by his attention, although he belonged to another Regiment, and was under no legal obligations to attend to him at all. Were all the Surgeons thus kind and patriotic, there would be few if any just complaints come up from the Army about the needless sufferings of sick and wounded. The appointing powers--as every man comes to them with pockets full of the strongest recommendations--must almost unavoidably make many mistakes in commissioning Surgeons as well as Officers generally--but it is not easy to recall a trust. We are glad, therefore, to learn so many commendations of the Lewisburg Surgeons--Hayes, Christ, and McCormick--and rejoice to see that some are sometimes discharged for cause.

The recent conference of loyal Governors at Altoona is still urged upon the General Government a permission for those exhausted by severe labors to go home to recruit, as more cheap and sure in the long run. It seems to us this is reasonable, especially as in some instances, gentlemen of Union county assure us, there are careless or wilfully disobedient surgeons or stewards of hospitals who neglect soldiers in their charge.

FAIR PLAY--Personally, there are on both tickets this year clever and respectable men, who we hold no controversy with except as they affect national issues, the lower siding the higher candidates. Last year, however, with equally respectable candidates, the Democratic County Ticket was largely traded off to swell up Stenker's vote. This year--since their Judges have decided that the brave Army boys shall not vote--they have more hope and will hang together better. Let our party do the same. Every man on our local ticket was nominated, in a direct vote, by an honest and handsome majority over their respected competitors. Never were men more fairly nominated--they should not one of them be forgotten or deserted. Stand or fall together!

The clap-net out-ery against the Taxation made necessary to defend everything we hold dear under good government, is hypocritical, or it means Repudiation. The former annoys and injures the public interests. The latter would rob Soldiers, discredit the Government, break Banks, defraud those who loaned money to meet the public wants, and inflict more woe and ruin than half a century of taxation. A National debt will have (together with its evils) two good effects--it will bind our people in strong self-interest; and it will make them more careful in clothing, and tend to check the rage for extravagance, corruption, and high salaries.

HOW DID THE SOLDIERS VOTE?

Pa. Union--1861	Illinois--1862
Rep. Union 11,351	Rep. Union 10,198
Dem. 3,173	Dem. 1,987
Rep. Un. maj. 8,178	Rep. Un. maj. 8,211
Rep. Un. vote in both States 21,549
Democratic do 5,160

Rep. Union maj. 16,689

These two are all the States which gave the Volunteers a right to vote. The figures show that four out of five Soldiers are Republicans or Douglas Democrats.

There are hundreds and thousands of persons, foreign born, who have been coming for years past, who now--with the probability of a draft before them--swear they are not naturalized! Of course such seamps will not be allowed to vote this year, and should be punished for past frauds upon the ballot box. This cleansing of the polls will greatly increase the Union voters.

That eminent Roman Catholic writer, ORESTES A. BROWNSON, is the Union candidate for Congress in the Newark (N. J.) district. He is an earnest and capable man, and agrees with Archbishop Hughes and others of the best informed Catholics on the necessity of preserving the Union, and of acting independently of all former party names.

To-Day!

Tuesday, Oct. 14th, 1862, is Election Day. This Congressional District gave a majority of 2,500 for Lincoln, and should sustain his Administration--against the Rebellion--by at least an equal vote.

In Philadelphia, we learn, the Capitalists and owners of State and National stocks, of all parties, are combining against the Anti-Administrationists. The attempt to injure the Public credit, by crying out Taxation, is monstrous.

An Inside View of Secession.

[The Washington Republican received from Capt. Harrover, of the Second District Regiment, a letter, taken from the body of a rebel soldier in one of the late battles in Maryland, which has been forwarded for publication. We make the following extracts from this epistle, which illustrate one phase of this wicked rebellion. We omit names and principal localities, so as not to involve the writer in difficulty.]

North Carolina, July 4, 1862.

My dear Son: I hope these lines will find you doing as well as a poor soldier can. I have good news to write to you. We have examined your age, and find you were born on the 18th of July, 1811, consequently the conscript law won't catch you. Show the enclosed certificate of your age to your Colonel, and come home, as you have a right. They say they have pressed all over and under the conscript age for ninety days longer. When that is out, come home, for you have as good a right to come as any of the rest. Though, I suppose, they will make some other law to hold you if they can, for they have broken three pledges already--1. To let you all come home when your twelve months were out. 2. If you would enlist they would give all furloughs to come home. 3. On the 10th they would let off all under and over age. They have not and will not fulfill one of these solemn pledges. They are not going to do anything they say they will, if they can help it, for they know they are badly whipped. Now they are conscripting. The conscripts are the maddest men you ever saw. They say they don't intend to fight. They can make them do it but they can't make them fight. The most of them say they intend to go to the North the first chance, and I don't blame them, for there is no justice in such a war. There never will be peace till they kill off all the men, or they all rebel and come home, for it is given up by all the smartest men in this country that the North will whip, and the sooner the better. I don't want you to fire another gun at the North, if you can help it. Do like some of the rest--shirk out of it. They say it is no disgrace.

Light from Texas.

HON. A. J. HAMILTON--or "Jack Hamilton," as he is familiarly called in Texas, made a speech in Brooklyn, N. Y., the 2nd inst. He is a native of Alabama, and represented Texas in the last Congress. He said that was the first time he ever made a speech on free soil. He stated that the attempt of the slaveholders to subvert free institutions, and to make serfs of the non-slaveholders, "has severed my allegiance to slavery, if ever I had any of it." Himself a slave owner, he declares his solemn conviction that the system of slavery at the South must be destroyed, if we want to save the liberty of the white man there and here. "If they compelled me to elect between my children and their negroes, a fool could tell where I would be found. That issue is before you, fellow-citizens, to-night. It is upon me; it is upon every man from Maine to Mexico; shirk it if you can." He rebuked the cry of "the Union as it was." He declared that he did not want the Union as it was in Texas, in 1861, before the rebellion broke out, where men were martyred for expressing the opinions of Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe. He wanted a Union where a man could freely express his opinion on any subject.

Examine Your Ticket.

Let every voter examine his ticket. Compare it with the names as published in our paper. The Breckinridgers have circulated spurious tickets for Congress. They have printed tickets for Wm. C. Lawson, George F. Miller, and Wm. J. Robinson, and are circulating them through the district. These gentlemen are no candidates.

Some over-heated copper-head Democrats--alias traitors--of the little village of Hartford, in the small county of Blackford, in Indiana, have determined to resist the draft; they broke up the boxes, destroyed the enrollment and drove away the Commissioners. A battalion has been sent from Indianapolis to regulate the Hartford rioters.

The Baltimore American says the correct pronunciation of the name given to the last great battle in Maryland is Antietam, the accent being on the second syllable. The names of places where our battles with the Rebels have occurred will never be memorable for their inherent poetry.

There is a man in Lorain county, Ohio, who, having been examined by the drafting Surgeon for various diseases, and pronounced sound as to all of them, fell back upon the morals of the question, and declared a draft to be immoral and unconstitutional, because it was a game of chance.

James W. Pennington reached home on Saturday by the cars, badly bruised by being thrown from a wagon while traveling in the upper end of Dauphin county.

Committed--Yesterday, a man calling his name "Martin," was arrested at New Berlin, and committed to Jail at Lewisburg--he answering to the description of the murderer of the little girl, German, for whose detection $1500 reward is offered. (The same day, a man was sent down from Port Trevorton, and another was arrested in Danville, for the same crime.)

Penn'a is Invaded!

Thursday, about 3,000 Stuart's Rebel Cavalry crossed into Maryland at Hancock and yesterday reached Chambersburg, Pa., and took doubtless hold Chambersburg--taking all they want, and paying in their worthless scrip. They met no opposition.

Monday's News.

The Rebels at Chambersburg burned the Depot and destroyed all the Railroad property they could get hold of--gathered about 1000 good horses, (10 of them Col. A. K. M. Clure's), and hastened on towards Gettysburg--divided--and probably took the backward track with all the plunder they could "tote" along. They took a wide sweep, and came in from the West. McClellan and Canby immediately sent forward troops to try to cut off their retreat, which we hope may be successful, tho' the Rebels are great riders and "go" for dear life. The money of Chambersburg Bank, and the rolling railway stock had been put beyond their reach.

This is humiliating enough. And with such an exhibition of Rebel insolence and confidence, should there be any longer TWO PARTIES IN OUR STATE?

Harrisburg, Monday Noon.

The Rebels made 94 miles in 24 hours, and Pleasanton, in pursuit, 78 miles in same time. McClellan says they crossed at the mouth of the Monocacy. Firing was heard during last night, and Pleasanton may have caught them.

VICTORY IN KENTUCKY.

A severe battle in Perryville, Ky., 8th and 9th inst. Last accounts represent the Unionists successful. The Rebels are badly defeated.

Small matters some times make great political changes. The Jersey Shore movement against Mr. Armstrong for Congress, was because Mr. Armstrong killed the Jersey Shore Boom Bill! And Williamsport opposes Judge Hale because he did not get through Congress a bill giving $10,000 of the Nation's money to Lycoming for her splendid Court House! (This is unjust to Hale, who carried the bill in the House, we are informed, but it failed in Senate. Lewisburg offers a sufficient Court House and Jail without any cost, and we opine Congress will hereafter think twice before they throw away $10,000 entirely unnecessarily.) And Deffenbach and other "uncompromising Democrats," are running H. A. Childs, Esq., as their candidate for Congress.

On Thursday last, Henry Tracy, Cashier of the Schuylkill and Susquehanna R. R., Pinegrove, brought to Harrisburg, for use in the general and branch hospitals, eleven hundred bandages, the joint work of the Sunday School scholars in that locality. God bless the Sunday School scholars of Pinegrove.

WILMINGTON, DEL., Sept. 27.--One of the new "Monitors," an iron-clad vessel of superior model and finish, was launched here yesterday, amidst the greatest enthusiasm. She is built upon the plan of the celebrated Monitor, and will prove herself not inferior to it either in execution or value.
