THE PROMISED LAND.

Selected for the Chronicle by James Pross, Sept. 29, 1862

There is a fair, a happy shore, a haven for the soul,
Where storms and tempests never roar,
and billows never roll;
Days of delight are there in store, as countless as its sand,
And tears of sorrow flow no more in that celestial land.

The pass with dangers is beset, and found indeed by few,
But, O, there's One who lingers yet to steer us safely through:
The Christian's barque shall know no wreck, nor tempests overwhelm,
Unwearied Faith patrols her deck, while Jesus takes the helm.

Gigantic rocks on every side rise tow'ring from the deep,
And who would safely stem the tide, must watch and never sleep:
But, faint not, ye who toil and row! salvation rides the wave—
A Savior's arm's extended still—a lifeboat sent to save.

Around His throne shall these appear, in sweet communion met,
When manhood's leaf is in the sere, and this world's sun hath set;
The barque that hails that happy shore may furl her weary sail,
To brave the angry deep no more, nor tremble in the gale.

Seraphic choirs await us there to wipe all tears away,
And tune their harps to songs of love, and sing this holy lay:
"Cease, weary pilgrims! cease to roam—
hail! hail! ye chosen band,
This is your bright and happy home, this is the Promised Land."

Matrimonial.

[We clip the following advertisement from an Eastern paper.]

"I have lived solitary long enough. I want somebody to talk to, quarrel with—then kiss and make up. Therefore I am open to proposals, from young ladies and young widows of more than ordinary respectability, tolerable tame disposition and hair of any color but red. As near as I can judge of myself, I am not over eighty or under twenty-five years of age. In height, am five feet eight, or eight feet five, sure. Weight, 135, 315, 513, one of the three; recollect each figure perfectly well, but as to their true arrangement am somewhat puzzled. Have a whole suit of hair, dyed by nature and free from dandruff. Eyes butternut brindle, tinged with pea-green. Nose blunt, according to the Ionic style of architecture, with a touch of the composite; mouth between a cat fish's and an alligator's—made especially for oratory and the reception of large oysters. Ears long, and elegantly shaped. My whiskers are a combination of dog hair moss and briar bush—well behaved, and fearfully luxuriant. I am sound in limb and on the nigger question, wear boots No. 6, when corns are not troublesome, and can write poetry by the mile, with double rhyme on both edges—to read backward, forward, diagonally or crosswise. Am a domestic animal, and very docile when towels are clean and shirt buttons all right. I say my prayers every night, (musquitoes permitting,) and as to whether I snore in my sleep, I want some one to tell me. Money is no object, as I never was troubled with any, nor never expect to be."

DABNEY, the "Scout of the Rappahannock."

A correspondent of the Evening Post, with Gen. Pope's army, had the following notice of a negro scout, illustrative of the idea many military men hold that negroes will fight well and faithfully: "One man—the guide in the two exploits of our Cavalry—deserves brief mention. He is certainly a marked man—loyal, true, and brave to a fault. Virginia may well be proud of him, and the Rebels of this vicinity have testified their appreciation by subscribing and offering a reward for his head of fifteen hundred dollars. His skin is somewhat darker than ours; but the front rank of our brave soldiers has willingly given him place, and his services as scout and guide have been invaluable. He was a slave two months ago, and now, at seventy five cents a day, he is worth a dozen of the best of us. I notice on his buttons the "Esse potit placidam sub libertate quietem" of Massachusetts. The old Bay State need not be ashamed to have her proud motto borne by Dabney, the dreaded scout of the Rappahannock.

Trying to Avoid the "Draft."

Our exchanges relate many amusing instances occurring at the "exemption" offices. One of the best is thus related by a New Jersey paper:

"The next aspirant was one Yaweob Schneirder. "What is the matter with you, Yaweob?" "Vell, mine pack is most proke." "Local or chronic?" asked the clerk. "Locale or kronice, vats dat?" "I mean is yours a standing complaint?" "Nein, I lays in der bed generally." "Well, how did you hurt your back?" "Vall, I vas some beer drink last week, in der saloon, and I goes mine house in, an den I goes my stairs up, and I tumbles my window out, and I strikes de sidewalk on my pack, and I lies in der bed for three months." "Ah," said the clerk, "You fell out of the window last week?" "Yaw." "And you laid abed three months, how do you make that out?" "Ich nix for stay, Ich can nicht so much English speeken all der while." Yaweob didn't get his papers.

A DECLARATION.—Rev. Hiram Eddy, of Winsted, Conn., who has just been released after a year's captivity in the South, was received with public demonstrations of rejoicing on his arrival home: "I am for the Union ten thousand times more than ever before; my hairs have whitened during the year of my captivity, but for every white hair I have scored a black mark against this rebellion."

Borough Ordinances.

Be it ordained by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Lewisburg, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same—

That in all cases where obstructions and nuisances of whatever kind have been or shall hereafter be removed, by the High Constable or street Commissioner, from the sidewalks, streets, or alleys of this borough in pursuance of any ordinance, resolution or direction of the said Burgess and Town Council, or by the High Constable in pursuance of his general warrant, it shall be the duty of them or either of them, after giving ten days' personal notice in case of residents within the borough whose interests may be affected thereby, or in case of non-residents ten days' notice by not less than three hand-bandbills posted in the most public place in the vicinity of said obstructions, &c., to sell the same at public sale, and, after deducting the expenses attendant thereon, pay over the proceeds of such sale to the Borough Treasurer for the use of said Borough; and it is further enacted that where the obstructions are of such a character, that they can not be removed without great expense, such as drift-logs, lumber, etc., in the landings, the Street Commissioner or High Constable or either of them shall proceed in the manner herein before directed to sell the same, after notice as aforesaid, without first removing them from the landings or streets.

And it is further ordained by the authority of the same, that hereafter the washing or cleaning of carriages, waggons, or vehicles of any kind, upon any of the bridges within the bounds of this borough be strictly prohibited, under a penalty of $2 (one half thereof for the use of the Borough and the other for the use of the informer,) to be collected and enforced in the same manner as like penalties are collected and enforced by law.

NOTICE TO BATHERS.

THE public (and especially Ladies) have recently been much annoyed when called upon to pass along the River Road above town by the indecent exposure of boys and young men bathing in close proximity to the road. The criminal code of Pennsylvania makes such conduct punishable by fine and imprisonment. I hereby give notice that I will have the law rigidly enforced against all who continue the shameless practice.

THE DAY SCHOOL BELL.

A New Singing Book for day schools, called the Day School Bell, is now ready. It contains about 250 choice Songs, Rounds, Catches, Duets, Trios, Quartettes and Choruses, many of them written expressly for this work, besides 32 pages of the Elements of Music. The Elements are so clear and perspicuous, that ordinary teachers will find the matter entirely successful in instructing even young scholars to sing correctly and scientifically, while the tunes and words embrace such a variety of lively, attractive and soul-stirring music and sentiments, that no trouble will be experienced in inducing all to unite with zeal in acquiring skill in one of the most healthy giving, beautifying, improving, happiness-diffusing accomplishments that ever adorned life. In simplicity of its elements, in variety and adaptation of music, and in excellence and number of its songs, original, selected and adapted, it claims by much to excel all competitors. It will be found to be the best ever issued for Seminaries, Academies and Public Schools. A few sample pages of the Elements, Tunes and Songs are given in the larger and cheaper form. It is compiled by HORACE WATERS, author of "Sabbath School Bells," Nos. 1 and 2, which have had the enormous sale of 700,000 copies. Prices—paper cover, 20 cents, $15 per 100; boards, 30 cents, $22 per 100; cloth bound, embossed, gilt, 40 cents, $30 per 100. 25 copies furnished at the 100 price. Mailed free at the retail price

A large assortment can be seen at the new warerooms, No. 481 Broadway, between Grand and Broome streets, which will be sold at extremely low prices. Pianos and Melodeons from manufacturers, new and second-hand. Second-hand Piano and Melodeons at great bargains; prices from $25 to $100. Sheet Music, Music Books, and all kinds of Music Merchandise, at war prices.

Opinions of the Press.

"The Horace Waters Pianos are known as among the very best. We are enabled to speak of these instruments with some degree of confidence, from personal knowledge of their excellent tone and durable quality."—New York Evangelist.

Sabbath School Bell No. 2.

Sixteen copies issued. It is an entire new work of nearly 200 pages. Many of the tunes and hymns were written expressly for this volume. It will soon be as popular as its predecessor (Bell No. 1,) which has run up to the enormous number of 620,000 copies—outstripping any Sunday School Book of its size issued in this country. Also, both volumes are bound in one to accommodate schools wishing them in that form. Prices of Bell No. 2, paper covers, 15 cents, $12 per 100. Bound, 25 cents, $18 per 100. Cloth bound, embossed, gilt, 30 cents, $25 per 100. Bell No. 1, paper covers, 12 cents, $10 per 100. Bound, 20 cents, $18 per 100. Cloth bound, embossed, gilt, 25 cents, $25 per 100. GREAT Work on the HORSE.

The Horse and his Diseases.

By ROBERT JENNINGS, V.S., Professor of Pathology and Operative Surgery in the Veterinary College of Philadelphia.

The book contains 284 pages, appropriately Illustrated by nearly 100 Engraving. It is printed in clear, open type—the price, half bound $1, or in cloth extra $1.25.

IT TELLS YOU the origin, history and distinctive traits of the various breeds of European, Asiatic, African and American horses, with the physical formation and peculiarities of the animal, and how to ascertain his age by the number and condition of his teeth—illustrated with numerous explanatory Engravings.

IT TELLS YOU of breeding, breaking, stabling, feeding, grooming, shoeing, and the general management of the horse, with the best modes of administering and treating diseases, also how to treat horses for balking, kicking, rearing, shying, stumbling, crib-biting, rolling, and other vices to which he is subject—with numerous explanatory Engravings.

IT EXPLAINS the symptoms, causes and treatment of strangles, sore throat, distemper, catarrh, influenza, bronchitis, pneumonia, pleurisy, broken wind, thrush, chronic cough, roaring and whistling, lampas, sore mouth and ulcers, and decayed teeth, with other diseases of the mouth and respiratory organs.

IT NARRATES the causes, symptoms and treatment of worms, lots, colics, strangulation, ahoy constriction, ruptures, palsy, diarrhœa, jaundice, hæmorrhages, bloody urine, stones in the kidneys and bladder, inflamation and other diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver, and urinary organs.

IT TREATS OF the causes, symptoms and treatment of bone, blood and bog spavin, ringbone, sweenie, strains, broken knees, wind galls, forcheder, scratches and grease, scalded heels, scratches, canker, thrush and corns; also of mercurial, partial, epilepsy, staggers, and other diseases of the feet, legs and head.

IT TALKS about the causes, symptoms, and treatment of fistula, poll evil, clanders, farcy, scarlet fever, mange, surfeit, locked jaw, rheumatism, cramp, galls, diseases of the eye and heart. Also, how to locate, point, vaccination, bleeding, trephining, roweling, firing, hernia amputation, tapping, and other surgical operations.

IT GIVES YOU Barry's method of taming horses—how to approach, halter or stable a colt—how to accustom a horse to strange sounds and sights, and how to lift, saddle, ride and break him to harness, also the form and law of warranty—the whole being the result of more than fifteen years' careful study of the habits, peculiarities, wants and weaknesses of this noble and useful animal.
