UNION COUNTY STAR AND LEWISBURG CHRONICLE.

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.

At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., TUESDAY, NOV. 4, 1862.

"THE UNION," established in 1814---Whole No., 2,590.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843---Whole No., 969.

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY---

Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

☞Gen. Thomas is in Harrisburg, and was yesterday (Monday) to commence the mustering of drafted men into the old regiments.

☞Sale of the Leiser farm property &c., to-day.

The Long's Mill property, New Berlin, was struck off to John Seebold, between $900 and 1000.

Potter, the Banner County!

Little Potter, on our Northern border, with 12,000 population, had sent out over 1000 Volunteers, but as 200 or 400 of them were in New York State organizations, Potter had to honor a "draft" for 75 to 100 men—thus having one out of every twelve of her entire population in arms for the Union! After all this, she voted, on the 14th of Oct., as follows:

Cochran	1103—777 maj
Slenker	326

Almost 4 to 1 on the right side. Six townships gave Slenker not one vote. And a few others were most charmingly right—thus

	Cochran.	Slenker.
Harrison	110	6
Hector	58	5
Sharon	120	10
Ulysses	166	1

The Journal, conducted by M Wilson M'Alarney, (late of Lewisburg,) is the only paper in this truly patriotic county. The Editor thereof assisted in raising a Company, and was offered a Lieutenancy, which he declined in favor of one he thought more worthy and capable, and, not being able to pass inspection as a private, returned to his journalizing. There was little opposition to the Union County Ticket in gallant Potter. But "Andrew Jackson" ran for Sheriff, (Independent,) and, falling only 300 short, proved that he was twice as popular as his old party!

P. S. Tioga comes in, 2702 for Cochran, 806 for Slenker—Bradford, 5824 for Cochran, 1761 for Slenker—about as good as Potter, barrin' the Volunteers. Five districts in Tioga—and, in Bradford, LeRoy—gave Slenker "many vote."

☞The Snyder and Northumberland county drafted men make just about one regiment, and have chosen Samuel T. Kleckner, of New Berlin, Colonel; Thad. G. Bogle, Milton, Lieut. Colonel. The following are the five Captains from Snyder county:

Michael Smith—the two Beavers.
George Kuhn—the two Perrys, Washington.
Mich. T. Heintzelman—Chapman.
Hulen Harrison—Jackson, Monroe, Penns.
*Henry S. Boyer—Franklin, Center, Middlecreek.
James B. Roney, late of Milton, is one of the Northumberland Co. Captains.

*NOT ROBUT.—The Selinsgrove Post states that Henry K. Ritter, Esq., Member elect of the Legislature from our district, although not drafted, has been elected Captain of a Company from Snyder county, (in place of Prothonotary Boyer, discharged,) and has accepted the honor thus tendered. We have been aware for a year past, that Mr. Ritter was anxious to enter the service, (and was only prevented by peculiar circumstances;) and he was a volunteer in the September expedition to Hagerstown. But he is now the choice of the people for the General Assembly; he is no longer his own, but in law and honor is called to a high duty, from which he has no power or right properly to exempt himself. The unanimous call of a hundred fellow citizens is of less force than that of four thousand. We need true men in the council chamber, as well as in the field. Baker's place in the U. S. Senate may be filled, but can hardly be made good. Another election would cost far more time, money, excitement and risk, than any breath an inexperienced, though patriotic Captain like Mr. Ritter, might probably do in the field. We hope either he will reconsider and decline, before January, or that the Governor will refuse to commission Mr. Ritter to leave the post of responsibility to which the mass of the people, and not a portion of them, have first called him.

What we Lose.

The absence of the Soldiers appears to cost the Administration SEVEN Congressmen in Pennsylvania—Grow, Campbell, Patterson, M'Pherson, Blair, Stewart, and Wallace. In spite of their absence, we defeat Biddle and Glossbrenner; and had they all been at home, or had they voted, the Democrats could not have elected more than two or three Congressmen. From the same cause, undeniably, we lose the State Ticket, several Assemblymen and Senators, and scores of important County officers.

Similar results from the same cause were wrought in Ohio and Indiana.

Iowa—whose Soldiers vote—is stronger than ever for the Administration.

We believe the Illinois and Wisconsin soldiers vote: they will not vote so as to please the Rebels

The Wilmington (N. C.) Journal (Rebel) says that seven regiments of negroes, which have been in camps of instruction under white officers for three months, and which have become remarkably proficient in drill, have arrived to garrison the towns and fortifications during the sickly season. [But we hear no Democratic howl over the "arming of niggers" to help the Rebels.]

☞Gen. Scott has published a letter, recapitulating his efforts to induce Pres. Buchanan to stop the Rebellion when a few hundred men could have done so. It has nothing very new, but it combines facts that make Buchanan's cause look more like treason than imbecility.

From the Evangelical Messenger.

LAY FOR THE FAMELESS.

Arise from the homes of the mourners,
Arise from the valley of fear,
Arise from the wigwam and cottage,
While voices are call'd to the brave,

Brave patriots, thousands in number,
Arise at the sound of the fife,
Leave in sorrow and slumber,
To answer the country's need by name!

The will of each son of the battle
Has wrought him a conquering sway,
The hearts of your foes are appalled,
And the issue of many a day.

When others when mercy was forfeiting,
Exempted from danger's wrath,
Arose at your country's call unbidden,
Each volunteer first in duty rewarded.

Now, now, through amplified and wreathless,
And bloody your garments on the sod,
Your foes to meet the shrinking of battle
Shall live with the future and God.

Let lightning with thunder and drumbeat,
The signs that the world of the gale,
Let horses with gallop and hoofbeat,
Tear upon your graves on the vale!

Ye hear not the storm and the thunder,
Ye feel not the lightning's power,
Ye know not the hour and the moment,
When you must to mingle no more.

Ye are called to the fields of your country,
And the summons ye gladly obey,
And fall in your manhood and beauty,
Ye martyrs of liberty's day.

Ye fall not a prey when the warriors
From the mountain-side fly over the plain,
And fall in your own native soil and gory,
Beneath hireling's fierce storm and rain.

Let from Zion the blast of her trumpet
Arouse to the holiest way,
And sound in the ear of the coward
From his long, long sleep of day.

Let blood-red mountains be rocky,
And plains be and streams swell,
They grieve not for in all where ye slumber,
All over the land where ye fell.

Rejoice where ye peacefully slumber,
And rest where your worth is abided;
We trust your reward with Jehovah—
To those who, in valor, died.

Like tempests in the clouds that o'er sprinkle
Your graves with the gift of Heaven,
And flood as shall live with the vigor
Bequeathed by your deeds to the right.

M. WOLF, Dec. 1861. H. B. HARTMAN.

DESTRUCTION OF PRINTING OFFICE.—We learn from several gentlemen direct from Carlisle, that the Carlisle Volunteer printing office was attacked by some of the soldiers in that borough, on Friday, and completely demolished. The issue of the Volunteer of last week, it is said, contained a malignant assault on the President, the army, and loyal men generally, for which the soldiers attacked and destroyed the office. It would have pleased us more if the soldiers had displayed their indignation in some other style, and if this rumor is true, for the sake of the law which has been thus outraged, we regret it exceedingly.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

SUFFERING.—The Indian massacres in Minnesota have produced great distress among the settlers all along the frontier counties. Appeals for contributions to aid them are being made in the principal cities, and no object of charity can be more pressing and worthy. The Governor of Minnesota states that at least thirty thousand men, women, and abject children are wandering, homeless, and starving. Certainly our country affords no parallel of suffering such as this. Clothing is greatly needed by the suffering, for the rigors of winter are close at hand.

☞Two companies of Volunteers, from Juniata county, voted. They gave Cochran 24 majority, and if counted their vote would elect Wharton over Strouse by 5 maj. We do not know that any other soldiers in our Assembly district voted. Suppose we "compromise"—let the poor brave soldiers all have their vote, as the law was when they enlisted? We will bear all our losses, under such a count.

"The Yankee idea that free negroes will not work, is all nonsense," exclaims the southern eulogizing representative Wickliff, of Kentucky. And if he speaks the truth, why should doughface howlers for conservatism be alarmed about competition between white and free negro laborers?

The Cincinnati Enquirer, (Dem.) moans dismally, over the defeat of Vallandigham, saying that "in every part of the Union, the defeat of this gallant, patriotic, and noble statesman is deeply regretted." All their gains of Congressmen in Ohio seem to be nothing to the loss of this notorious traitor.

The following is the Congress vote in the Potter, Tioga, Lycoming, Centre and Clinton district:

Jas. T. Hale, Independent Rep.	9,272
Wm. H. Armstrong, Rep. nominee	8,900
Hiram A. Childs, Democrat	639

Hale over Armstrong, 372. Armstrong and Childs over Hale, 277.

The Harrisburg Telegraph is giving a good airing to both sides of alleged abuses in Camp Curtin. Let the ventilation be complete! Some soldiers grumble needlessly, and lie—and some men in authority are too apt to tyranize, neglect and speculate even upon soldiers and the sick.

With forged or altered drafts, a stranger, pretending to be in the fur business, lately "did" the Jersey Shore Bank out of $3,400; the Lock Haven Bank out of $3,000; and two banking houses of Bellefonte out of $2,000—in all $8,400.

Tuesday morning, Mr. Basom, of Perry township, Snyder county, caught a large wild-cat between Jacob Mengles and Rathfon's mill.

Rev. J. A. Kirkpatrick has become pastor of the Lock Haven Baptist church—Rev. A. J. Furman being a Chaplain in the Union army.

On Wednesday the 15th Oct., was a severe thunder storm in Tioga Co., Pa., the lightning burning one barn full of hay &c., and also striking a tree.

The "Draft" is death on the lawyers—it took all but one in Tamaqua. They'll be good fellows on a charge.

Cairo, Oct. 31.—A late Grenada Appeal says that Gen. Price is reported to have evacuated Holly Springs, Sunday last.

The Columbus (Georgia) Times of 29th October, says that General Butler, with seven thousand men, had landed at Pensacola, and it was expected he would advance on the junction of the Mobile, Montgomery & Pensacola railroads.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Passengers from Harpers Ferry report that the Rebels are falling back along the Shenandoah valley. In consequence of this, they will reach Richmond in rather a roundabout way, and, perhaps, somewhat later than our army.

It is the impression here that there will now be no battle until the Rebels are in the vicinity of Richmond.

Gen. Edwin Price, a son of Gen. Sterling Price, has renounced the Confederate cause in whose Army he was.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The prize brig Robert Bruce, from Bristol, England, captured by the United States gunboat Penobscot, off Shallott inlet, N. C., with a cargo of medicines and woolen goods, has arrived here.

The Union arms have been victorious in several heavy skirmishes last week in Missouri and Kentucky.

The Rebels are annoying Nashville by cutting off some of its supplies.

PUBLIC DEBT.—The representations made in some quarters that the public debt has reached two thousand millions, is a gross exaggeration. On the first day of the last month it was only six hundred sixty millions, and it is now less than six hundred and eighty millions.

"Mean as Dirt."—Before election, both parties in Butler Co. Pa., agreed to receive and count the Soldiers' vote, which turns out to be Republican. But one Democrat had a maj of the home vote, on some small office—and, to gain him that, the Democratic Return Judges (a minority) "seceded," and gave him a certificate of election.

One Company of Volunteers, at Harrisburg, returned to Perry county, and voted—electing Magee (Dem.) to the Legislature. Other companies, in Maryland, voted for Kennedy (Rep.) but are denied the right by the Supreme Court. Rejecting both, elects Kennedy; but receiving the Dem. and rejecting the Rep., Companies, gives Magee 7 maj, and he makes a Dem. maj. of 1 on joint ballot in the Legislature. Is that fair or lawful?

A bear weighing two hundred pounds was caught by Anderson Roberts, and shot by Robert M'Cormick, on the mountain side opposite Daniel Strohegh's farm, in Lycoming county, Pa. An old settler says that a bear had been entrapped at this same place every year for the last thirty four years.
