November Elections.

MASSACHUSETTS re-elects Gov. Andrew by 20 000 maj., and a legislature which will re-elect to the U. S. Senate that man most hated and feared by the R. bels—Charles Sumner. Her ten Congressmen are all right—one only being chosen in opposition to the regular candidate of the Administration, and he claiming to be a War man.

NEW YORK CITY rolls up 31,000 maj for Seymour, which overbalances the State vote for Wadsworth. The Congressmen are nearly equally divided. Legislature, probably Republican.

NEW JERSEY goes for the Opposition, who gain a Governor (Parker) and one Congressman, and can re-elect a U. S. Senator of their faith.

DELAWARE.—The Adm. gain the Governor (Cannon) by 100 maj., and Fisher (Adm.) is defeated for Congress by 23 votes.

MICHIGAN re-elects Rep. State officers, and 3 or 4 Congressmen—5th and 6th Districts not heard from.

WISCONSIN elects 3 Rep and 2 Dem. Congressmen—1 in doubt.

ILLINOIS elects 5 Rep and 7 Dem. Congressmen—1 in doubt.

MISSOURI.—St. Louis Congressman is uncertain, but certain to be a Rep., each of the two candidates being far ahead of the Opp man. The few returns from the interior of the State look well for two more Adm. Congressmen.

KANSAS elects whole Rep. State ticket, and Wilder to Congress.

(The Soldiers' vote may make some change in States where their votes is polled.)

—Considering the absence of Half a Million soldiers, three fourths of them friends of the Administration—and having in view the disastrous failures of the last few months, of the Democratic Generals, McClellan, Mites, McDowell, and Buell—it may be considered nothing strange that the Administration has apparently lost some ground at the North. We think it unjust, and yet very many people will visit all these losses upon the head of the President.

☞Chetwood slanders of foreign intervention are made—perhaps designed to affect elections and stocks, and perhaps real. The Government was never in better condition than now to strike heavy blows at the Rebellion.....and that fact may invite such interference of the enemies of free government as may call out every power of the Nation to preserve it from Foreign foes as well as Traitors at home.

☞We've got to learn there is trouble at Harrisburg in the organization of the drafted men, who claim the right under the law to choose their own officers, while Adj. Gen. Thomas orders their incorporation with the old regiments. A case is to be brought before Judge Pearson, whose decision we hope will be accepted by all.

☞Lieut. F. M'Farland, late of the Freeburg and M'Allisterville Academies, is elected Lieutenant Colonel of the 151st Reg. Pa Militia, just organized at Harrisburg. He closed his school and raised a company in Juniata county.

HOW IS IT?—One paper exempts J Woods Brown from service, by virtue of election to the Assembly; another says he gave $200, and another report said $500, for a substitute—and we are told he is furloughed indefinitely.

Lieut John D. Musser has received the appointment of Major of the 132d Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, now at Camp Luzerne, near Kingston, Luzerne county.

☞Reuben Moyer has at our office a little job of washing since ordered. We know not his residence; will some one who does, jog his memory to come and take his property, after paying

Lieut. Tucker reached home last evening, unwell. Lieut. Ammon started back this morning, and Capt. Church is about trying to return to his company.

☞The case of —— Hoey for the homicide of Thomas Morton, is on trial at Sunbury, as we go to press.

☞Jacobus Beaver Esq., is appointed Revenue Collator for Union county.

☞The Union county drafted men are with a Company from Snyder.

The New Five Twenty Year Six Per Cent. Loan is the only one which the Government is now issuing at par, and large subscriptions are daily making in all the principal cities. Messrs. Jay Cooke & Co., Bankers, 114 South Third street, are the agents in Philadelphia, and will cheerfully afford every facility and explanation to subscribers.

A thoroughly anti slavery French paper has been started in New Orleans, L'Union, which addresses itself in particular to the French people of color, and calls on them to organize, to strike for the cause of Freedom, and to aid the Federal Government in the restoration of the Union.

The directors of the Harrisburg Gas company will pay the national tax levied on gas directly from the funds of the company, and not charge the same to consumers, as they were authorized to do by the terms of the law.

Obeying Orders.

The last Union victories at Corinth and at Perryville were materially aided by the capture of a Rebel mail, containing recent letters &c., from Gen. Beauregard to Bragg and others of his Officers, enabling our men to meet and to check them. One dated "Chalkum Spring, Bladen, Ala., July 28, 1862," contains the following strong hint:

[illegible]

[illegible] BEAUREGARD.

This direction may account for the fact that—North as well as South—the opponents of the Administration generally no longer call its friends "Yankees," "Black Republicans," "Nigger Worshipers," but, —as directed to do by Beauregard—they lump us all together as "Abolitionists" The Rebels and all Northern co-operators talk alike about "constitutional rights." Nearly every Democratic paper in Pennsylvania now calls all of the Union party, "Abolitionists." They are getting pretty numerous, by these accounts!

☞The cool piercing winds—the small flurry of snow—the ice and frost on the pavement in the morning, all indicate the approach of winter. Very soon old Boreas will have everything his own way, and it behooves us every one to prepare for it. There are those among us who are already making extravagant preparations for the "cold and dreary season," and there are others—God pity them—who are ill prepared for the emergency. "The poor ye have always among you."—To them—

[illegible]

LIBERATION FROM PLANTATIONS.—A New Orleans letter in the New York Journal of Commerce says the plantations in that vicinity are deserted. The cane is breaking, and no one there seems to care to do it. Everybody is in search of protection, either arresting to take the oath, or trying to have the negroes they think, at all duties for the men and five dollars for the women, a month, to be worked on levees or on the plantation under such regulations as they will probably issue for the next crop, ungrowing year for some time to come.

GOOD PAPER.—A worthy, industrious, but poor man, having a sick wife (not old) and a family of six children and her helpless relatives, the oldest only nine years of age, was among the militia recently drafted in Chester county. Three days, he made strenuous efforts to obtain a substitute, offering his pay—a cow, two pigs, and a lot of chickens. But substitutes rated higher. A good neighbor, becoming acquainted with these facts, made known the case, and four friends procured him a substitute for the sum of three hundred dollars. There's a deed worthy of record. We might mention many such which the draft has brought out.

Nick Biddle's partner, Baron Steinberger, died in St. Louis on the 14th inst. in reduced circumstances. With Biddle he once wielded three millions of dollars in a cotton speculation. He used to give dinners that cost $10,000. Finally, however, he took to speculating, lost his money, began to drink, and at last "threw up his hand," poor and friendless.

The "Republican," of Green Co., Pa., says that at the recent Fair at Carmichael's was a fuck that this year yielded seventeen lbs. of Wool at a clip, and that wool-growing is becoming the staple of that country. Other hilly portions of our State might be employed in the same way.

Samuel Rock, said to be from Northumberland county, Pa., was arrested in Washington city on Saturday last, for the murder of a man named James M'Kinney. These men were engaged as teamsters in the army, and the affray, during which the murder was committed, grew out of dispute concerning—a dog.

A seaman on board a schooner while on the passage from Buffalo to Cleveland, was killed by the parting of the main sheet. He got caught in the coil in some manner, and his body was cut completely in two, falling into the lake. The remains were not recovered.

A MAN INDEED.—Mathias Meily, of Warwick, Lancaster Co., Pa., was exempted after being drafted, under the honest belief that he was over 45 years of age. Afterwards on finding he was surely mistaken, he returned to the Commissioner, had his name enrolled for service, and is determined to "act well his part" under the law.

A soldier from Delaware county, Iowa, states that the first information he had of the President's proclamation was from a runaway negro slave in Northern Mississippi. The soldier did not hear it from northern sources to be had arrived within twelve miles of the Ohio river.

The 101th Illinois Regiment, in Camp at Shelbyville, Ky., took a vote on the Emancipation Proclamation, which resulted thus: In favor, 804: against, 16—a maj. of 788 approving the measure.

The Northern Conference of the Central Synod was to meet in the Lutheran Church, Middleburg, Thursday evening.

Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 20.

The Potomac Union Armies are advancing in force southward, both sides of the Blue Ridge, and have occupied important points, after several skirmishes highly honorable to our side. Wednesday, Bayard and Pleasanton were west of Manassas, opposite Front Royal.

Gen. Rosecrans is advancing to the relief of Nashville.

Two Rebel reports state that Gen. Butler has taken Mobile.

The Rebels are again driven out of Missouri. Altogether, the West looks favorable to our progress.

Gen. Mitchell died of yellow fever at Beaufort, and Gen. Richardson of wounds received at Antietam. In them, we lose two gallant and noble Union commanders.

Gen. Grant marched into La Grange, Mississippi, 4th inst.

We hold Warrenton, Va., again.

The war does not affect the prosperity of the farming interests, as grain is probably twenty per cent. higher to-day than it would be if we had no war. The high premium on gold is an advantage to all the interests which export, and as the farmers are in that list, they necessarily reap some of the harvest. If their taxes should be somewhat heavier, the increased prices the war has brought them would enable them to meet their taxes without feeling them as burdensome.

A bear was captured in a pen on Shade Mountain a few weeks ago, and placed in the ice house of Amos Snyder for safe keeping; but, not liking his quarters, he broke out and absconded.
