UNION COUNTY STAR AND LEWISBURG CHRONICLE.

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.

At $1.50 per Year, always in Advance.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., TUESDAY, NOV. 11, 1862.

"THE UNION," established in 1814---Whole No., 3,591.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843---Whole No., 970.

PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY---
Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

☞Now is the time to plant out Fruit Trees. A large variety will be sold at auction, near the Lewisburg Bridge, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

☞Two Lewisburg boys were in the recent heavy battle in South Carolina: we will give their account of it in our next paper.

☞Returns indicate the election of at least THREE Emancipation Congressmen from the Slave State of Missouri! That is a telling endorsement of the President.

☞The recent snow storm was more severe, we should think, in Northern Virginia, and Kentucky, than in Central Pennsylvania. The army in Eastern Virginia had their first snow and cold Friday morning.

☞Monday, as we go to press, there is some promise of the welcome advent of the hazy, smoky, dreamy, balmy, golden, delicious "Indian Summer," of which enthusiasts and poets have so much to say and to sing.

☞Saturday afternoon's Harrisburg Telegraph says the drafted men are allowed to choose, every man for himself, between entering old regiments, or entering new organizations. How unspeakably important to the men that they select good officers!

☞The trial of George Honey, for the killing of Thomas Morton, near Sunbury, resulted in a verdict of not guilty. The deceased, with others, tried to break into the house of Honey, at night, when the latter fired buckshot, (intending to hit another person,) and Morton was fatally wounded.

☞Last year, the Democrats boasted they had elected a majority of the Assembly of Pennsylvania: but many of these "Democrats" so-called were so much Union men that they preferred acting with the Republicans rather than with the Breckinridgers. The same claim is made this year, and they may be as much disappointed again, for in these times more party ties are loose, and the Caucus is not superior to the demands of an imperiled Country with true Democrats of the real stamp.

☞Capt. James Chamberlin, from the army near Yorktown, has just made a short visit home. Samuel Harman also reached here, from Hospital, still badly crippled. Joshua Beale of Lewisburg acts as substitute for John Kincade of Chillisquaque. Capt. R. M. Musser has returned to Washington for exchange—his son, John, is promoted to be Commissary.

☞After visiting Scotland, Gen. Simon Cameron reached New York, last Saturday morning, in a vessel with Lord Lyons, the British Minister. Playing courtier, and doing nothing, ill suits the temperament of Gen. Cameron, and as Cassius M. Clay seems not to have found his place in the army, it is believed Clay will return to Russia.

What Henry Clay said of Rebellion.

[In 1850, Georgia threatened to secede. Henry Clay said, in the U. S. Senate:]

Now, Mr. President, I stand here in my place, meaning to be unawed by any threats, whether they come from individuals or from States. I should deplore, as much as any man, living or dead, that arms should be raised against the authority of the Union, either by individuals or by States. But, after all that has occurred, if any State, or a portion of the people of any State, choose to place themselves in military array against the Government of the Union, I am for trying the strength of the Government. I am for ascertaining whether we have a government or not—practical, efficient, capable of maintaining its authority, and of upholding the powers and interests which belong to a government. Nor, sir, am I to be alarmed or dissuaded from any such course by intimation of the spilling of blood. If blood is to be spilt, by whose fault is it? Upon the supposition, I maintain it will be the fault of those who choose to raise the standard of Disunion, and endeavor to prostrate this Government; and, sir, when that is done, so long as it pleases God to give me a voice to express my sentiments, or an arm, weak and enfeebled as it may be by age, that voice and that arm will be on the side of my country, for the support of the general authority, and for the maintenance of the powers of this Union.

Glorious Thought.

There is not a single Republican or "Abolitionist" in the Rebel army opposing the re-establishment of the Union. They are either in the Army of the Government fighting the battles of Freedom, or at home encouraging and sustaining the country's cause.

☞New Goods at King's Store in Water Gap Mills. (Advt. in our next.) Cash paid for Rags at same place.

Brig. Gen. Andrew Porter is appointed Provost Marshal of Pennsylvania.

Who takes Best Care?

"The poor ye have always with you," and they should be sustained in some degree of comfort—especially those who have been or are willing to labor. Those who have worked hardest, are best entitled to support. This is humanity—this is Christian charity—this is common sense and self-interest—this is true Republican Democracy, true political economy. But we find certain politicians howling because a few blacks share in the distribution of rations from the Government stores at New Orleans, to relieve the more extreme cases of destitution, arising from the effects of the War upon that city. From the publication, for the week ending Sept. 27th, of the particulars of this charity, we get the following statement of the nativities of the families relieved:

Irish	3,663
Germans	3,250
Americans	897
Colored	610
French	575
English	508
All other foreigners	349
	9,852

It will be seen, therefore, that the colored race receive one sixteenth of this charity, or less than the white Americans, and also that the Irish and the Germans each receive one sixth part—6 of each of those nations to 1 colored person.

	Population, 1850.	Indigent, 1862
Native whites	50,000	897
Foreign born	51,000	8,350
Colored	18,000	610
Totals	119,000	9,857

Receivers are,

Foreigners	1 out of every 5
Colored	1 out of every 30
Native whites	1 out of every 56

These colored persons have earned much of the wealth, and performed much of the labor, of New Orleans. Yet, with all their disadvantages—their Rebel masters fleeing, after robbing them of everything, and work hard to get on account of the stopping of business by the Rebellion—the 18,000 colored people are less expensive, are more self-supporting, in proportion, than those 51,000 who have white skins on an average, and who have all better chances. In proportion to number, 15 foreign-born to 1 native colored person is dependent upon Uncle Sam, who does not grudge a living to any one under the Stars and Stripes, and least of all to those most loyal and faithful to him.

P. S. The point is taken off this most inhuman, unchristian, partizan outcry, by the statement that this poor fund is all expended upon the rich Secession leaders who created most of the poverty. So that charity, in this case, does not cost the Government a dollar. On the contrary, Gen. Butler taxes the Secesh more than he expends on their dupes, so as to be on the safe side.

PROGRESS OF ABOLITION.—The cause of the Abolition of Slavery and Serfdom is making good progress in Europe. The States of Holland have passed the law for the Abolition of Slavery in the Dutch West Indies by the great majority of 45 to 7. In Russia the serfs are rapidly complying with the conditions on which the land cultivated by them will become their property. Their social condition has already wonderfully improved. At the fair of Niji—the great commercial barometer of the Empire—the sale of articles for the use of the former serfs was—considerable—a clear proof of their prosperity. The taxes have been fully collected this year—something quite unprecedented during the period of serfdom.

GALLANT CHARGE.—Last Wednesday, the advance guard of the Union army, near Manassas Gap, at a small town called Barber, came upon 3,000 of Stuart's cavalry. Col. Gregg, of the 8th Penn'a cavalry, charged upon a regiment of Rebels, and routed them. The Rebels left 36 dead upon the field: our loss was 5 killed and 10 wounded. It was a decided victory, in a fair cavalry fight of the best men on both sides, and shows our cavalry are becoming a match for the enemy's.

The Rebels retreated from Warrenton, but Jackson is said to hold the Chester Gap entrance to the Blue Ridge, and Longstreet is said to be at Culpepper with a large force. Whether Lee's army is retreating towards Richmond, is matter of conjecture, but the Union forces were on the march at last dates, Friday.

VICTORY IN N. C.—Gen. Foster, with 12, or 15,000 men, from Newbern, 29th Oct., started up the Albermarle Sound, some think for Weldon—an important junction. At Plymouth, he "bagged" 3000 Rebel soldiers, completely surprising them.

Wednesday and Thursday last, Breckinridge, with 20,000 men, moved from Murfreesborough against Nashville, and after a heavy bombardment, retired. Gen. M'Cook has added his force to those in Nashville, which is nearly surrounded, but not considered in danger.

The pirate "290" or Alabama, having robbed three English, as well as many American vessels, old Bull will begin to roar in another direction.

La Grange, Miss., is occupied by our army. The Rebels hold possession of Holly Springs.

☞Last Saturday—as a military necessity—Gen. Burnside was placed over Gen. M'Clellan, in the Army of the Potomac.

It is said Lee is escaped to Richmond.

not in service 1165. Ex. or serv. 1861

—Thus, almost half the legally liable men of Union county, (except those from 18 to 21 years) have been in the 3 mo's, 3 yrs, or 12 days' ranks.* This speaks well for the patriotism of an inland county, mostly of farmers, distant from the scene of strife. But—like the yeomen of the Revolution of '76—they generally realized the importance of the struggle, and almost every household has yielded an inmate for the service of the country.

Of the List, the 2 resigned since entered into service—16 (and probably some not reported) have been discharged—23 have died in camp or from disease there contracted—and 8 certainly have fallen in battle or from wounds there received, while it is probable some of the 10 to 20 "missing" have also been slain in contest, with none to bear witness to their devotion. A few it is feared have deserted, or "skulked," but no more (if as many) than the common proportion of such unworthy men in all armies.

——As to their POLITICS, we request two or three well informed gentlemen in every district to carefully examine their own list, write down the names of those they suppose voted for Lincoln—those who voted against him—and those not voters, or doubtful, each in columns: and send us the additions of the columns. Let us see if the "Democrats do most of the fighting."

*We do not claim that the List is complete or correct, but have no doubt it is nearly so. Some persons were counted twice, and W. Kramer Crites of Lewisburg, and doubtless others, were forgotten or omitted by accident.

THE DRAFT.—Had the advice of some of the most loyal and earnest in putting this rebellion of slaveholders, been taken, and loyal colored troops been raised, as might have readily been done, the draft would have been avoided. But false democracy and treason disguised, prevented it, and brought this on us. When will the people learn to disregard the tricks of demagogues and traitors?

F. Montgomery, late editor of the Vicksburg Whig, who recently made his escape from the South, is stumping Illinois for the "Abolitionists."

NATIONAL FINANCES.

Now that the Election is over, the following statement as to the National Debt, and the means of meeting it, will be read with interest by every Taxpayer and every Patriot. It is from Sam'l Hallett & Co's Circular for the steamers, Oct. 29, 1862.

"The exact amount of the aggregate indebtedness of the Government, will foot up as follows:

Debt contracted prior to July, 1861	$118,000,000
Bonds bearing 7-30 per cent. interest	150,000,000
do 6 per cent. payable in 1881	50,000,000
Certificates of indebtedness	86,000,000
Deposits with Pay Treasury, payable on call	83,000,000
Treasury notes, new issue	150,000,000
Custom House notes	26,000,000
The Five Twenty year bonds	18,571,100
Total indebtedness	$681,571,100

The statement we believe approximately correct, taking the figures as they stood on the 22d Oct., making the liabilities of Government considerably less than the current estimates. It should relieve all apprehensions as to any embarrassment to be caused by our public debt. The interest on the total amount, at 6 per cent., is $39,214,266. But only $149,571,100 draw interest, reducing the charge upon the Treasury from this quarter, to $2,6,-974,266.

To meet this charge, we have the revenue from customs, which will probably equal $60,000,000 the present year, and the revenues from the extraordinary sources already provided. These sources were designed to realize fully $200,000,-000 annually. So far, they promise to prove productive beyond the estimate. There can be no doubt of their realizing an immense sum, and forming a secure basis, not only for payment of interest accruing on the public debt, but for its rapid extinguishment, upon the close of the war. The abundance of money demonstrates the ability of Government to borrow to any required amount. The nation finds no difficulty in sustaining the burdens of the war, as it possesses in abundance whatever is necessary for its prosecution—men, food, and materials and munitions of all kinds. So long as the people will dispose of these for the obligations of Government, no financial embarrassment need be feared.

In the present financial condition of the nation, consequently, all is well. The people have not lost a jot of their confidence, notwithstanding the failures in the military operations of the Government. They feel that want of success has been due to incompetency in those who have directed affairs, not to any weakness of the cause, or in the means of its maintenance and support. Confidence is unabated that the right men in the right place will at last appear. More than a year ago, it was felt, on all hands, that military successes were essential to the negotiation of loans. They have not come in the degree predicted, or expected; yet it would be far easier for the Government to borrow, to-day, than it was a year ago.

We refer to this to show that it is always unsafe to under estimate the financial strength of the people. On the contrary, the war will demonstrate a strength on the part of the nation far transcending whatever was claimed for it by its most ardent advocates. The natural resources of this country are so vast, that no limit can be placed upon its productiveness, under the stimulus of a great necessity, or demand, especially so long as the war is not waged upon Northern soil. With our financial strength unabated, all other things will come in due time. The experience, under similar circumstances, of all nations addicted to peace, has been similar to our own. But the work of preparation is going on, while military talent is being developed, so that we are really making vastly greater progress than is generally supposed. In the meantime, we are consolidating our political unity, gaining in confidence and in experience, which can not fail, in the end, to conduct to complete success.

LIBERALITY OF PHYSICIANS.—It has always been said that physicians would disparage any remedy, however valuable, which they did not originate themselves. This has been disproved by their liberal course towards Dr. J. C. Ayer's preparations. They have adopted them into general use in their practice, which shows a willingness to countenance articles that have intrinsic merits which deserve their attention. This does the learned profession great credit, and effectually contradicts the prevalent erroneous notion that their opposition to proprietary remedies is based in their interest to discard them. We have always had confidence in the honorable motives of our medical men, and are glad to find it sustained by the liberal welcome they accord to such remedies as Ayer & Co's inimitable remedies, even though they are not ordained in the books but are made known to the people through the newspapers. [New Orleans Delta.]

It is believed Gen. M'Clernand of Ill. is about to command a force to clear out the Mississippi river from Cairo to New Orleans, while Gen. Banks, with 8,000 men, from Mass., completes the emancipation of Texas from her Rebel oppressors.

Gen. Wm. O. Butler, "Democratic" candidate for Vice-President on the Cass ticket in 1848, has joined the Rebels in Kentucky.

In Kansas war-days, send an intelligent Democrat to Kansas, and he came back a Republican. Now, send one South, and ten to one he comes back one peg higher—an Abolitionist!
