

UNION COUNTY STAR AND LEWISBURG CHRONICLE.

BY O. N. WORDEN AND J. R. CORNELIUS.

LEWISBURG, UNION CO., PA., TUESDAY, NOV. 18, 1862.

"THE UNION," established in 1814---Whole No., 2,692.

"CHRONICLE," established in 1843---Whole No., 971.

Published Semi-Weekly-- Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon. New Lewisburg Mail Arrangements.

Missouri for Freedom! From returns received, it is probable the Missouri delegation in the next Congress will stand as follows:

Teachers' District Institutes. The present School Laws of Pennsylvania ordain that "two Saturdays of each month, as the proper Board of Directors may designate, shall be appropriated to exercises or institutes for the improvement of the teachers of the district."

CONDENMED.—The people have rebuked the officers of both parties, who have entered into contests for civil stations. Two Republicans—Gen. Devens and Gen. Wadsworth—left the Potomac, to become Governors, the former of Massachusetts, and the latter of New-York; both are re-elected. Two Democrats—Gen. McCall and Col. Biddle, both late of the army—were elected to Congress; both failed. In every case civilians are elected over these soldiers. All right—men are rarely good statesmen and good fighters also.

Latest News Holly Springs Occupied. The Rebels, by their boast, had 70,000 men at this point on the Railway in Northern Mississippi. Whether few or many, Gen. Grant has occupied it for Gen. Sherman, the Rebels falling back at every advance, in earnest of Union forces.

Auditor's Notice. THE undersigned having been appointed by the Orphan's Court of Union county to audit and make distribution of the balance in the hands of John A. Metz, Administrator of the estate of James Devoe, deceased, he has received the same, will meet all persons interested in the said fund, at the house of C. D. Cox, in Lewisburg, on Friday, the 28th day of November, 1862, at 10 o'clock A. M., at which time and place all may attend who think proper. A SWINFIELD, Auditor.

R. R. Zimmerman, MERCHANT TAILOR, MARKET Square, Lewisburg, is now prepared to furnish Officers' Military Clothing according to regulations at short notice. Also a general assortment of Cloths, Cassimers, Vestings and ready-made Clothing. Asst at Zimmerman's, Red, White & Blue.

The approbation of the loyal press generally—and the bitter denunciations of every open or half way Tory press in the land—with all the facts in the case given officially, satisfy us that the appointment of Gen. Burnside was a change none too soon. All who know, confide in him more than in McClellan. The soldiers are as satisfied as could be expected. The threatened "resignation" of hundreds of suspected traitors in office, unfortunately, do not appear: four have resigned, and scores of worthless fellows, who vapor loud, would receive the thanks of Government and of all true soldiers if they would leave the service they hinder and disgrace, while receiving their pay. A gentleman who left Washington, Friday, says he "knew no McClellan men" when he left.

Correct Distinctions. While it is very unjust to say that every Democrat is a traitor, it is true that every traitor claims to be a Democrat.—J.W. Foxsey. The above is an essential point. The Semi-Secessionists falsely but cunningly seek to make honest War Democrats suppose Republicans mean them when they denounce Rebel sympathizers. Not so!—for the President—the Cabinet—all Administration men—every Republican newspaper, confess with sincere joy that there are thousands of true Democrats faithfully sitting in the Union service or arms, as officers or privates, and tens of thousands of Democrats at home, who do faithfully sustain the Government in various ways. Yet no honest and well informed man can properly deny that the REBEL SYMPATHIZERS, ANTILOYALS, AND CO-WORKERS, DO CLAIM TO BE DEMOCRATS, and do have a great control of the party. Until those traitor leaders are east off, the honest masses must (like "poor Tray") suffer from their connections with false, bad men.

Call on Little Rhoda! During the Revolutionary War, no State was more patriotic and useful than one of the smallest—Rhode Island. When Gates and others had failed in their Southern campaign, NATHANIEL GREENE, the Rhode Island blacksmith, was called on to give the finishing stroke to the war in that quarter. In the War of 1812, OLIVER HAZARD PERRY, another Rhode Islander, by his victory on Lake Erie, raised the national feeling to a high pitch, and gave a mighty impetus to the American cause. And in this greatest of contests to preserve all that is good that we have gained in the past, Rhode Island presents her adopted son, AMOSHEE EVERETT BUNSTON, as one fitted by education and by temperament to lead our armies to conquest. God guide and speed him!

AN OLD SOLDIER.—Thomas Stewart, aged ninety-two years, of East Newton, Ohio, was a private in the 10th Ohio Regiment, and took part in the battle of Perryville, where his bravery and soldierly bearing. He has four sons, two grandsons, and three great-grandchildren at present in the army. He was born in 1770, at Littlefield, Conn., where his father now resides, aged one hundred and twenty-two years.

Ladies of Milton are making arrangements for a course of lectures the present winter, the proceeds of which are to be applied for the sanitary relief of the soldier.

Rags Wanted. THE HIGHEST CASH PRICE paid for Mixed and White and Colored RAGS by Jno. D. Markner, Paper and Rag Warehouse, N. E. Corner Fifth and Commerce Sts. Oct. 17, 1862. Wm. Jones.

UNION BOOT AND SHOE STORE. STEEL-AHEAD!—Come and come all— and examine for yourselves the largest and cheapest stock of Home made Boots and Shoes in Union county. Just received a FRESH SUPPLY of City made work at unusually low prices. "Quick Sales and Small Profits" is the order of the day at "SQUIRES", Opposite the Bank, Lewisburg.

When Gen. Burnside was about to start on his North Carolina expedition, a flag was presented him. His only speech was—"THANK YOU! MOVE ON, MEN!" That was a good speech. He "went on" and his men, to victory and to glory. The words reveal the character of the man. May they still be found emblematic of his efforts and of his success! No more delays—but, "move on, men," to the work for which you came. "Move on!" West and East. "Move on!" Army and Navy. Of course, Burnside is left in a condition of much doubt and uncertainty as to his enemy's position—but that is no fault of his.

General Nathaniel P. Banks delivered a speech in Boston on Saturday evening, in the course of which he said: "The period of war is never one of continued success, or perpetual disaster. Alternate triumphs and defeats diversify the history of every warlike nation. We had our disasters, as other nations in like circumstances, and despondency rested momentarily upon many loyal foes. He saw nothing in future to justify apprehension, or to strengthen for a moment a fear that our earnest efforts for the re-establishment of the Government, of the Constitution, and the Union, would fail. The material and physical strength of the nation has not yet been appreciated, much less exhausted. Not a loyal State, except perhaps, Maryland, exhibits, or has exhibited, the slightest evidence that the Government was engaged in a serious war. Whenever their power shall be completely developed, the Rebellion will be suppressed. It can never resist, successfully, an enormous power of the loyal States. The approaching winter, was not to be lost by inaction. The Government was determined to put forth its strength. Numerous expeditions were on foot, that could not, if vigorously pressed, but be fatal to the revolted States. He hoped to bear his share (in Texas), in the hardships and perils of these labors, and he asked no other satisfaction and support, in the coming trials, as in those past, but to be surrounded and sustained by such gallant spirits as Massachusetts had sent forth to battle for the great and imperishable principles of humanity and liberty."

There is great excitement in Gainesville, Texas, (according to Rebel accounts,) owing to the discovery of a secret organization of Lincolnites, the object of which was to murder all Secessionists and take movable plunder to Missouri, and burn what might be left. Five hundred militia collected and caught 29 Lincolnites, and hung two of them.

Gov. Morehead, of Kentucky, recently boasted, to a Session committee in London, that he and some other slaveholders tried to bully President Lincoln into becoming a traitor and a dogface, just as they did Tyler and Fillmore, and as that same sort of gaudy tyrant vainly tried to do with Jackson and with Taylor.

The Rebels prisoners at Warrenton, Va., beat the Yankees in asking questions, and praised Buell and McClellan as the best of the Union generals!

Independent Battalion of Sea-Coast Artillery. FOR Garrison of Fortress Monroe. Capt. H. A. Cott, of Northumberland, has been authorized to raise a company for this Battalion under Major Joseph Roberts U. S. A., now in command of Fortress Monroe. The express object of organizing the raising of this Battalion is to secure a permanent garrison for Fortress Monroe. Being heavy artillery, they will not be subject to hard marches, will have no need of scouting duty, and no unhealthy exposures. Their duties and pay will be regular. Major Roberts is one of the best artillery officers in the service and is the author of the standard work on Artillery Tactics. An opportunity is now offered to Patriotic Young Men to join this most attractive branch of the service. Apply to EDWIN A. EVANS, 1st Lieut., Northumberland or Lewisburg.

WATCHES, JEWELRY, &c. THE undersigned, having removed their Watch and Jewelry establishment to the corner of the rooms recently occupied by Thos. G. Greer, (opposite Miss Amanda L. Zeller's Millinery Shop) Market street between Front and Second, has prepared to Repair Watches, Jewelry, Musical Instruments, &c. in the most approved and satisfactory manner. He keeps on hand an assortment of choice JEWELRY, for the Ladies and Gentlemen, which he offers at prices to suit the times. Also CLOCKS and WATCHES. All work and wares warranted as represented. MARIA S. ZELLER, Lewisburg, Dec. 25, 1862.

GEN. A. E. BURNSIDE, was born, of genuine Scottish parents, in Liberty, Union Co., Ind., in 1824, and graduated at West Point. He served with distinction in the Mexican war, and afterwards, on the frontier and elsewhere. Marrying Miss Bishop, of Providence, R. I., he entered into important duties on the Illinois Central Railroad, and was serving as Treasurer, in New York, when the Slavery Rebellion broke out. He was one of the first to respond, under Gen. Sprague, to the President's call, in April, 1861. In the Bull Run disaster, Col. Burnside and his men fought most manfully. His reduction of the North Carolina coast is fresh in the minds of all. It is said the President offered Gen. Burnside the command of the Army of the Potomac after Pope's failure, but he declined in favor of his old friend, McClellan. At Antietam, Burnside's men won the field. Thus, step by step, he has been led, without his own endeavor, to his present important position. Let us not commit the error all did with McClellan, in depending too much upon him. Let us rather fondly hope and trust the hand of the Lord is moving in the matter.

That most satirical wit, Orpheus C. Kerr, who is following our Armies up so sharply, in his last gives this dig at those spurious Southern "Unionists" who are harassing and hindering every earnest step towards crushing the Rebellion: "It is the 'Union as it was,' we want, my boy, and those who have other articles to sell are hereby accused of being accused Abolitionists. I was talking, the other day, to a venerable Congressman from Maryland, who had just arrived to protest against the disturbance of mail facilities between Baltimore and the capital of the Southern Confederacy, and says he, 'I have several friends who are Confederates, and they inform me they are perfectly willing to return to the Union as it was, in case they should fall in their present enterprise. "If I thought," says the Congressman, 'hadly placing a lottery ticket in his vest pocket, if I thought that this war was to be waged for the purpose of injuring the Southern Confederacy, rather than to restore the 'Union as it was,' I should at once demand more mileage of the Government.'"

Loyal Churches. We use the word loyal on purpose—LOYAL CHURCH: loyal to Christ; loyal to his truth; loyal to the free and noble institutions he has given us; loyal to the magistrate he has set up over us; loyal to the flock committed to her charge; loyal to the fallen race it is her sublime privilege to evangelize. Yes—loyal, and not perfidious; loyal, and not faithless; loyal, and not lawless; loyal, and not traitorous. A term most comprehensive, most precious, most distinctive of a true patriot, a true gentleman, a true hero, a true Christian, a true race, a true church; nay, of everything that is faithful to duties, faithful to obligations, faithful to trusts, faithful to oaths.—Dr. R. J. Breckinridge.

Stuart's Rebel cavalry met a funeral procession in Franklin Co., Pa., when they took the horse from the hearse, and said it was "by order of Gen. McClellan."

James B. Clay, the only "Democrat" in Henry Clay's family, has turned Rebel. The others have all died, Whigs and Union men.

Robert Reed has taken the oath as a Commissioner of Union county. Hartley township furnishes, so long a time, a superior Commissioner, that the people thought they would try another from the same quarter—one who can say "No," when duty requires it: a little word, which everybody's friend, D. H. Kelly, found it hard to use.

Philadelphia and Boston have filled up their quotas of soldiers without a draft.
