☞By request, we re-print the following beautiful waif of the Mexican War. Col. Henry Petriken has been credited as its author.

"On Buena Vista's Bloody Field."

On Buena Vista's bloody field
A soldier, dying, lay;
His thoughts were of his mountain home,
Some thousand miles away;
He called his comrade to his side,
For much he had to say,
In briefest tone, to those who were
Some thousand miles away.

"My father, comrade! you will tell
About this bloody fray—
My country's standard, say to him,
Was safe, with me to-day!
I've made a pillow of it, now,
On which to lay my head—
A winding sheet you'll make of it,
When I am with the dead.

"I know 'twill grieve his inmost soul
To think, that never more
I'll sit with him beneath the oak
That shades his cottage door;
But tell the time-worn patriot,
That, mindful of his fame,
Upon this bloody battle field
I sullied not his name.

"My mother's form is with me now,
Her wail is in mine ear,
And drop by drop, as flows my blood,
So drops from her the tear;
Then, O, when you shall tell to her
The tidings of the day,
Speak softly, comrade! softly speak
What you may have to say.

"Speak not to her in hurried words
The blighting news you bear;
The cords of life might snap too soon—
So, comrade! have a care.
I am her only, cherished child;
But, tell her that I died
Rejoicing that she taught me, young,
To take my country's side.

"But, comrade! there is one I fain
Once more would look upon;
She lives upon the sloping hill
That overlooks the lawn—
The lawn, where I shall never more,
In spring time's pleasant hours,
Go forth with her in merry mood
To gather wood and flowers.

"Tell her, when death was on my brow,
And life receding fast,
Her voice, her form, her parting words,
Were with me to the last.
On Buena Vista's bloody field,
Tell her, I dying lay,
And that I knew she thought of me
Some thousand miles away.

Sabbath Order.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, Nov. 16, 1862

The President, commander in chief of the army and navy, desires and enjoins the orderly observance of the Sabbath day by the officers and men in the military and naval service. The importance, for man and beast, of the prescribed weekly rest; the sacred rights of Christian soldiers and sailors; a becoming deference to the best sentiment of a Christian people; and a due regard for the divine will, demand that Sunday labor in the army and navy be reduced to the measure of strict necessity. The discipline and character of the national forces should not suffer, nor the cause they defend be imperilled, by the profanation of the day and name of the Most High.

At this time of public distress, adopting the words of Washington, in 1776, "Men may find enough to do in the service of God and their country, without abandoning themselves to vice and immorality." The first General Order issued by the Father of his Country, after the Declaration of Independence, indicates the spirit on which our institutions were founded, and should ever be defended: "The General hopes and trusts that every officer and man will endeavor to act as becomes a Christian soldier defending the dearest rights and liberties of his country."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

When the first instalment of drafted men from Crawford county, Pennsylvania, passed through Cleveland on the way to Pittsburg, an outsider stole his ride from Erie, on pretence of being a drafted man. Between Cleveland and Pittsburg, Commissioner White called the roll of the men, and found he had one man more than was set down. He inquired the name of the interloper, and added it to his list. On reaching Pittsburg, the man attempted to leave, but he was arrested and turned over to camp as a drafted man, he having obtained his passage in that character, at the expense of the State.

THE SEASON.—Summer's gone and over, fogs are falling down, and with her russet tinges Autumn's doing brown. Boughs are daily rifled by the gusty thieves, and the Book of Nature getteth short of leaves. Round the tops of houses, swallows, as they flit, give, like yearly tenants, notices to quit. Skies of fickle temper weep by turns and laugh, night and day together taking half and half. So November endeth—cold and most perverse—but the month that follows sure will pinch us worse.

GOOD.—A number of democrats were complaining bitterly of the removal of M'Clellan, just after it was announced, in the presence of our efficient constable, Roesler, when he asked: "Well, what did you all vote for at the late election—didn't you vote for a change?" "Why, yes," "yes," "what of it?" "Well, you have got it, that's all, and I don't see why you should complain about it."—They were non plussed, naturally.

Rev. John B. Pinney, for many years connected with the American Colonization Society, has been recognized by President Lincoln, as Consul General of the Republic of Liberia for the United States. This does away the awful fear that Liberia would send "a nigger" to guard the interests of that young nation. We can all snore in peace, and eat our dinners as usual—Mr. Pinney is a white man!

The Richmond Examiner enumerates five men in the North whom it compares to the "five just men in Sodom"—Franklin Pierce, C. L. Vallandigham, Fernando Wood, Thomas and Horatio Seymour. For reasons which are hardly obvious, "five" more well-known sympathizers—enough to save New York—are not named

GREAT Work on the HORSE.
The Horse and his Diseases.

By ROBERT JENNINGS, V. S., Professor of Pathology and Operative Surgery in the Veterinary College of Philadelphia.

The book contains 264 pages, appropriately illustrated by nearly 100 Engraving. It is printed in clear, open type—the price, half bound $1, or in cloth extra $1,25.

IT TELLS YOU the origin, history and distinctive traits of the various breeds of European, Asiatic, African and American horses, with the physical formation and peculiarities of the animal, and how to ascertain his age by the number and condition of his teeth—illustrated with numerous explanatory Engravings.

IT TELLS YOU of breeding, breaking, stabling, feeding, grooming, shoeing, and the general management of the horse, with the best modes of administering medicine, also how to treat biting, kicking, rearing, shying, stumbling, crib-biting, restlessness, and other vices to which he is subject—with numerous explanatory Engravings.

IT EXPLAINS the symptoms, causes and treatment of strangles, sore throat, distemper, catarrh, influenza, bronchitis, pneumonia, pleurisy, broken wind, chronic cough, roaring and whistling, lampas, sore mouth and ulcers, and decayed teeth, with other diseases of the mouth and respiratory organs.

IT NARRATES the causes, symptoms and treatment of worms, bots, chalic, strangulation, stony concretions, ruptures, palsy, diarrhœa, jaundice, hematirrhœa, bloody urine, stones in the kidneys and bladder, inflamation and other diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver, and urinary organs.

IT TREATS OF the causes, symptoms and treatment of hoof, head and hog spavin, ringbone, sweeny, strains, broken knees, wind galls, founder, sore tender and gravel, cracked hoofs, scratches, canker, thrush and corns; also of mealine, partigo, epilepsy, staggers, and other diseases of the feet, legs and head.

IT TALKS about the causes, symptoms, and treatment of fistula, poll evil, glanders, farcy, scarlet fever, mixed, putrid, locked jaw, rheumatism, cramp, galls, diseases of the eyes and heart, &c., &c., and how to manage castration, blood-ing, trephining, roweling, firing, hernia amputation, tapping, and other surgical operations.

IT GIVES YOU Haley's method of taming horses—how to approach, halter or stable a colt—how to accustom a horse to strange sounds and sights, and how to hitch, saddle, ride, and break him to harness, also the form and law of warranty—the whole being the result of more than fifteen years' careful study of the habits, peculiarities, wants and weaknesses of this noble and useful animal.

Writ of Partition.

UNION COUNTY SS:

L.S. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Sheriff of Union County, Greeting:

Whereas, Jacob Womer and Magdelena his wife late Magdelena Walter, John Walter, Michael Alspach and Sarah his wife late Sarah Walter, Isaac Walter, William Cornelius and Elizabeth his wife late Elizabeth Walter, Joseph Cramer and Susanna his wife late Susanna Walter, Daniel Walter, Joseph Walter, Philip Coler and Lydia Ann his wife late Lydia Ann Angstadt, and Samuel Angstadt by his guardian Joseph Angstadt, were summoned to appear in the Court of Common Pleas of the said County, before the judges of the same court at Lewisburg on the third Monday of September A. D. 1862, to answer Edward B. Walter of a plea wherefore whereas, Edward B. Walter and the aforesaid Jacob Womer and Magdelena his wife late Magdelena Walter, John Walter, Michael Alspach and Sarah his wife late Sarah Walter, Isaac Walter, William Cornelius and Elizabeth his wife late Elizabeth Walter, Joseph Cramer and Susanna his wife late Susanna Walter, Daniel Walter, Joseph Walter, Philip Coler and Lydia Ann his wife late Lydia Ann Angstadt, and Samuel Angstadt by his guardian Joseph, together and undivided, do hold the following real estate, viz: all that certain House and lot of ground situate in the Borough of Lewisburg, bounded on the South by St. Catharine street, on the west by Blackberry alley, on the north by lot number one hundred and twenty eight, (128,) and on the east by Third street, numbered in the general plan of said borough with the number one hundred and thirty (130,) with the appurtenances. And it was in such manner proceed in our said court, that partitions should be made between the parties aforesaid, of the house and lot of ground in the aforesaid. Therefore we command you, that taking with you twelve honest and lawful men of your bailiwick, by whom the truth of the matter may be better known, in your proper persons you go to the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances, and there by the oaths and affirmations, to the presence of the parties aforesaid, by you to be warned, if upon being warned they will be present, all the premises aforesaid with the appurtenances (having respect to the true value thereof,) into ten equal parts you cause to be parted and divided, and one of the said ten parts to Edward B. Walter, another of the said ten parts to Jacob Womer and Magdelena his wife late Magdelena Walter, another of the said ten parts to John Walter, another of the said ten parts to Michael Alspach and Sarah his wife late Sarah Walter, another of the said ten parts to Isaac Walter, another of the said ten parts to William Cornelius and Elizabeth his wife late Elizabeth Walter, another of the said ten part to Joseph Cramer and Susannah his wife late Susannah Walter, another of the said ten parts to Daniel Walter, another of the said ten parts to Joseph Walter, and another of the said ten parts to Joseph and Lydia Ann his wife late Lydia Ann Angstadt, and Samuel Angstadt by his guardian Joseph Angstadt, to hold them in severalty, you cause to be assigned and delivered, so that neither the said Edward B. Walter nor the said Jacob Womer and Magdelena his wife late Magdelena Walter, John Walter, Michael Alspach and Sarah his wife late Sarah Walter, Isaac Walter, William Cornelius and Elizabeth his wife late Elizabeth Walter, Joseph Cramer and Susanna his wife late Susanna Walter, Daniel Walter, Joseph Walter and Philip Coler and Lydia Ann his wife late Lydia Ann Angstadt, and Samuel Angstadt by his guardian Joseph Angstadt, their part of the tenements aforesaid, with the appurtenances respectively happening severally may appropriate to themselves.

But if the in quest, by you to be summoned as aforesaid, to make partition as aforesaid, shall be of opinion that the lands and tenements aforesaid cannot be equally parted and divided, without prejudice to, or spoiling the whole, then we command you that you cause the said inquest to make a just valuation and appraisement of the lands and tenements aforesaid, and their oath and affirmation aforesaid, due notice having been first given to the several parties concerned or interested therein, to appear if they shall see fit, at the time and place of holding such inquisition, and that the partition or valuation and appraisement, which you shall so make, you distinctly and openly have under your hand and seal, and under the hands and seals of those by whom the same shall be made before the Judges of the said Court of Common Pleas in and for the county of Union at Lewisburg, then to be held the third Monday in December next, that such further proceedings may be had as to law and justice shall appertain, and have you then and there this writ.

Witness the Hon. S. S. Woods, President of our said Court at Lewisburg, the 22d day of Oct. A. D. 1862.
SAMUEL BOGGS, Prothy.

Take notice, that according to the above order a Partition will be held on the premises on Saturday the 6th day of December, A. D. 1862, at 1 o'clock, P. M., of which all concerned will please take notice.

THE DAY SCHOOL BELL.

A New Singing Book for day schools, called the Day School Bell, is now ready. It contains about Fourteen Songs, Rounds, Catches, Duetts, Trios, Quartettes and Choruses, many of them written expressly for this work, besides 32 pages of the Elements of Music. The Elements are simple and progressive, and ordinary teachers will find them sufficiently successful in instructing even young scholars to sing correctly and scientifically, while the tunes and words combine such a variety of lively, attractive and soul stirring music and sentiments, that no scholar will be prejudiced in learning, but will be sure to go on with zeal acquiring himself in the use of those healthful, life giving, beauty improving, happiness yielding and order producing exercises of school life. In simplicity of the elements, in variety and adaptation of music, and in excellence and number of its songs, original, selected and adapted, it claims by much to excel all competitors. It will be found to be the best ever issued for Seminaries, Academies and Public Schools. A few sample pages of the Elements, Tunes and Songs are given in a circular; send and get one. It is entitled to HORACE WATERS, author of "Sabbath School Bells," Nos. 1 and 2, which have had the enormous sale of 700,000 copies. Prices—paper cover, 20 cents, $15 per 100; bound, 30 cents, $22 per 100; cloth bound, embossed, gilt, 50 cents, $40 per 100. 25 copies furnished at the lowest price. Mailed free at the retail price.
