There's a little, mischief-making Elfin, who is ever nigh, Thwarting every undertaking, And his name is By and By.

What we ought to do this minute, "Will be better done," he'll cry, elf to-morrow we begin it-Put it off!" says By-and-By.

Those who heed his treacherous wooing, Will his faithless guidance rue-What we always pur our point, We shall, clearly, NEVER DO!

"ARBITRARY ARRESTS."

Very much has been said, and not without a show of reason, against the summary arrests and imprisonment of persons residing or being in the loyal States who evince too openly and actively their sympathy with the Slaveholders' Rebellion. We have hitherto pointedly condemned those arrests, on the assumption that it can not be difficult, in loyal communities. to indict, try and convict overt traitors in the ordinary legal tribunals-We confess that some recent occur. ances have rudely shaken our faith in the soundness of this assumption. From among these we will only adduce the trial of Andrew J. Houston before the U. S. District Court lately sitting at Indiunapolis. Houston was clearly PROVED to have last Summer piloted a small party of Rebel guerrillas over from the Kentucky side of the Ohio to Newburg, Indiana, where he resided, and where they proceeded forthwith to plunder the U. S. Hospitol at that place—he knowing that there was no Federal force there but a few score of sick in the hospital, whem they paroled. Of course, the Rebels would not have ventured over but for the information and guidance thus traitorously afforded them by this Houston; and yet four of the jury refused, in defiance of the clearest proof, to convict him! We should like to know what our "conservative" cotemporaries would have the Government do in such cases. Our course would be to proclaim martial law in every infected locality, and send all such Copperheads as this Houston at once before a drumhead court martial. composed of thoroughly loyal military men, try them in short meter, and shoot them directly after conviction, giving each a full hour to make his will and say his prayers. Such a policy, firmly pursued, would save the lives of ten loyal men for every traitor thus summarily prevented from doing further mischief. -Let us further illustrate by the massacre of the Massachusetts volunteers in the streets of Baltimore, and when all connection between the Free North and Federal Metropolis had just been traitorously broken at that place-telegraphed to a leading Secessionist at Frederick (who soon after led a band of Maryland traitors to join the Rebel forces in Virginia) as follows:

"Thank you for your offer. Bring your men by the first train, and we will arrange with the rational afterward. Streets red with valleys of Maryland and Virginia for the rifle-men to come without delay. Fresh hordes [of Union Volunteers] will be down upon us to morrow (the 20th.) We tell fight them and whip them or die. GEO. P. KANE."

This was but one of a series of demonstrations by this Marshal of Baltimore, each of them proving him a malignant traiter in full communion with Jeff. Davis and Beauregard. On and incarcerated for months, but finally set free without trial or indictment. Hereupon, he writes and publishes a letter, boiling over with abulishes a letter, boiling over with abuses of "Mr. Secretary Seward and his hired minions"-said Secretary having, according to Kane, made him a "special victim," heaped upon him all manner of "accusations which he knew to be false," and thereby merited "the contempt of every honest man and woman in the land," &c., &c.

We do not like the Bastile mode of government. We think a better can very generally be relied on. Yet, if we were asked to say whether it would be of any use to try Kane s before a fairly selected Baltimore jury, we should have to answer in the negative. There would probably be a majority for convicting him; but it would be hard to keep the panel entirely clear of "Democrats"—that is, ative. There would probably be a tirely clear of "Domocrats"-that is, made and letter Secessionists - and one of those would suffice to save him from conviction, we vessere But if Gov. Seward can fully vindicate himself from all complicity in letting this traitor loose to serve his two masters, Jeff. Davis and Satan. we think it will not be difficult to by James B Hambu Esq. deceased instify whatever part the Secretary Lewisburg, April 4, 1861 justify whatever part the Secretary may have had in his arrest and incar-N.Y.
