The following X R tation is Addressed 2 N E 1.

GIRLS.—There are two kind of girls. One is the kind that appear best abroad—the girls that are good for parties, rides, visits, balls, ect., and whose chief delight is in such things. The other is the kind that appears best at home—the girls that are useful and cheerful in the dining room, the sick room, and all the precincts of their home. They differ widely in character. One is often a torment at home, the other a blessing. One is a moth, consuming everything about her; the other a sunbeam, inspiring life and gladness all along her pathway. Now, it does not necessarily follow that there should be two classes of girls. A slight education of the right sort will modify both a little, and unite their good qualities in one.

Four Battles and Four Union Victories.

Headquarters Dep. North Carolina,
December 23, 1862.

To Maj. Gen. Halleck, General in-Chief:

My expedition was a perfect success. I burned the railroad bridge at Goldsboro and Mount Olive, and tore up several miles of the track of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad. We fought four engagements, viz. At Southwest Creek, Kinston, White Hall and Goldsboro', and whipped them handsomely each time.

J. G. FOSTER, Brig. Gen.

"Ah, Jemmy, Jemmy," said the kind hearted Dr. Ponsonby, Bishop of Derry, to a drunken blacksmith, "I am sorry to see you beginning your evil course again; and, Jemmy, I am very anxious to know what you intend to do with that fine lad, your son."

"Intend, sir," said Jemmy, "to do for him what you can not do for your son."

"Eh! how's that—how's that?"

To which Jemmy, with a burst of genuine feeling, said, "I intend to make him a better man than his father."

THOUGHTS OVER THE KILLED.—What Cato is made, by Addison, to say about his son, fallen in honorable battle, may be said of hundreds, now:

"Thanks to the gods, my boy has done his duty.
Welcome, my son! Welcome all cowards, my friends.
Tell in my sight, that I may view at once
The bloody corpse, and count the glorious wounds.
How beautiful is death, when earned by virtue!
Who would not be that youth? What pity 'tis
That we can die but once to serve our country!
Why sits this sadness on your brow, my friends?
I should have blushed if I had lost my friend
Secure, and flourished in a civil war."

Garibaldi writes to a friend, in reference to our war, that he "is at a loss why a nation like the American Republic, with such absolute and soul-inspiring declarations of freedom engrafted in her Constitution and laws, should be so regardless of the dictates of humanity, and the enlightened civilization of the nineteenth century, as not to have Slavery, the barbarous relic of a barbarous age, at once and forever abolished."

Gertrude, daughter of Judge Eldred, of Montoursville, aged about one year and a half, was burned to death on Wednesday morning last. An older sister was playing with Gertrude alone in the room, and is supposed to have lighted a stick at the stove, by which the fire was communicated to the clothes of the little one, resulting in almost immediate death.

Artemus Ward says, that, "unless there's different management of the war, right off, the American Eagle will have to disguise himself as a Shanghi Rooster, and make tracks for Canada, while the Goddess of Liberty will have to go out doin' gen'ral housework at two dollars a week!"

Lock Haven Democrat gives $32,200 as the amount of the destroyed property in Lock Haven, insured in the Company at Muncy. The Democrat censures the company's agents for "insuring the most dangerous shells of buildings, often at extremely high rates, thereby inducing carelessness about fires."

The price of rags is going down. The amount of paper stock which the present high prices have brought forward, is immense. Old paper has fallen to four cents a pound, and one person in Boston, who had been buying very largely, has stopped purchasing, having now over fifty thousand pounds on hand.—Philad Press.

Elias Howe Jr., of sewing machine celebrity, who is a private in the 17th Connecticut Volunteers, has an income of $200,000. He last week advanced the money out of his own pocket to pay off his regiment.

Mr. H. F. M'Reynolds is "advertised" out of the "Patriot & Union" concern at Harrisburg. It is believed by many that he is too patriotic a man to endorse all its poorly disguised hostility to the government.

The City Court of Brooklyn gives a colored man six cents damages for being put off a city car because he had not change, the conductor refusing to change a bill.

In the case of Russel Sturgis, to recover "commission" for the charter of a vessel for the Government, the jury failed to agree.

May a judge who retires from the bench be said to lay down the law?

Harper's Pictorial History
OF THE
GREAT REBELLION
IN THE UNITED STATES

MESSRS. HARPER & BROTHERS have commenced the issue, in Numbers, of a Complete History of the Great Rebellion in the U.S. The work has been for many months in course of preparation, by a writer every way qualified for the task.

The INTRODUCTION contains a clear account of the formation of the Confederacy of the States; the formation and adoption of the Constitution of the United States, and the establishment of the National Government; the origin, development, and progress of the doctrines of Nullification and Secession, and the various phases which they assumed, until the final culmination in the Great Rebellion.

The HISTORY comprises an account, drawn from the most authentic sources, of the Events of the War; intrigues of the Southern leaders at home and abroad; the gradual defection of one section; the great Uprising of the People for the maintenance of the National Life and Existence; the rapid creation of an immense Army and Navy; Battles by Land and Sea.

The ILLUSTRATIONS comprise Portraits of those who have borne a prominent part in the struggle; Maps of different localities; Plans of leading actions; Views of scenes of interest, and of the most important Battles. These Illustrations are mostly from drawings taken on the spot, by artists deputed for that purpose, to accompany every division of our Army and Navy.

Every facility at the command of the Publishers has been employed in the preparation and execution of this work; and they confidently believe that it will form the most trustworthy and valuable history which can be prepared of THE GREAT STRUGGLE FOR THE AMERICAN UNION.

Mode and Terms of Publication.

The work will be issued in Numbers, consisting of 24 pages of the size of "Harper's Weekly," printed from clear type, upon fine paper, and will probably be completed in about Twenty Numbers.

The Numbers will be issued at intervals, if possible, of about three or four weeks.

The Price of each Number, which contains matter equivalent to an ordinary volume, will be Twenty-five Cents.

The Illustrations in each Number are alone worth the price asked. Men out of employment, especially SICK OR DISABLED SOLDIERS, can find no other work so sure of ready sale and good profits. For further particulars, apply to the Publishers.
