GRAND POEM.

[The author of the stirring ballad, "Three Hundred Thousand More," is ELDRIDGE JEFFERSON CUTLER, of Massachusetts. Mr. Cutler graduated at Harvard University, in the class of '53, and in '61 delivered before the "Phi Beta Kappa" Society of Harvard the most striking poem of the times. We have sought to make some extracts from it, but it is all so good, and so perfect as a whole, that we give it as delivered.]

"Law and Liberty."

The drum's wild roll awakes the land, the fife is calling shrill;
Ten thousand starry banners blaze on town and bay and hill;
Our crowded streets are throbbing with the soldiers' measured tramp;
Among our bladed cornfields gleam the white tents of the camp;
The thunders of the rousing war hush Labor's drowsy hum,
And heavy to the ground the first dark drops of battle come;
The souls of men flame up anew, the narrow heart expands;
And woman brings her patient faith to nerve her eager hands.
Thank God! we are not buried yet, though long in trance we lay;
Thank God! the fathers need not blush to own their sons to-day!
Oh! slow and sad the weeks went by—each held his anxious breath,
Like one who waits in helpless fear some sorrow great as death.
Oh! scarcely was there faith in God, nor any trust in man,
While fast along the Southern sky the blighting shadow ran;
It veiled the Stars, one, after one, it hushed the patriot's song,
And stole from men the sacred sense that parted right and wrong.
Then a red flash like lightning's gleam across the darkness broke,
And with a voice that shook the land the guns of Sumpter spoke:
"Wake, sons of heroes, wake! The age of heroes dawns again:
Truth takes in hand her ancient sword and calls her loyal men.
Lo! brightly o'er the breaking day shineth Freedom's holy star.
Peace can not cure the sickly time. All hail the healer, War!"

That call was heard by Plymouth Rock, 'twas heard in Boston Bay;
Then, up the piney streams of Maine, sped on its ringing way;
New Hampshire's rocks; Vermont's green hills, it kindled into flame;
Rhode Island felt her mighty soul bursting her little frame;
The Empire City started up, her golden fetters rent;
And meteor like across the North the fiery message sent;
Over the breezy prairie land, by bluff and lake it ran;
Till Kansas bent his arm, and laughed to find himself a man;
Then on by cabin and by camp, by stony wastes and sands,
It ran exultant down the sea where the golden city stands.
And wheresoe'r the summons came, there rose an angry din,
As when upon a rocky coast a stormy tide comes in;
Straightway the fathers' gathered voice, straightway the sons arose
With flushing cheek as when the East with day's red current glows.
Hurrah! the long despair is past; our fading hopes renew;
The fog is lifting from the land, and, lo! the ancient blue!
We learn the secret of the deeds the sires have handed down
To fire the youthful patriot's zeal and lend his green renown.
Who lives for country, through his arm feels all her forces flow;
'Tis easy to be brave for Truth as for the rose to blow.
O Law, fair form of Liberty! God's light is on thy brow;
O Liberty, the soul of Law! God's very self art thou—
One the clear river's sparkling flood that clothes the bank in green,
And one the line of stubborn rock that holds the waters in.
Friends, whom we can not think apart, seeming each other's foe—
Twin flowers upon a single stalk with equal grace that grow—
O fair ideas! we write your names across our banner's fold;
For you the sluggard's brain is fire, for you the coward bold.
O, daughter of the bleeding past! O, hope the Prophets saw!
God give us Law in Liberty, and Liberty in Law!

Full many a heart is aching with mingled joy and pain
For those who go so proudly forth and may not come again;
And many a heart is aching for those it leaves behind,
As a thousand tender histories throng in upon the mind.
The old men bless the young men, and praise their bearing high;
The women in the doorway stand, to wave them bravely by,
One threw her arms about her boy, and said, "Good bye my son,
God help thee do the valiant deeds thy father would have done!"
One held up to a bearded man a little child to kiss,
And said, "I shall not be alone, for thy dear love and this."
And one, a rose bud in her hand, leant at a soldier's side—
"Thy country weds you first," she said, "she I thy second bride."

O, mothers! when around your hearths ye count your cherished ones,
And miss from the enchanted ring the flower of all your sons;
O, wives when o'er the cradled child ye bend at evening fall,
And voices which the heart can hear across the distance call;
O, maids! when in the sleepless nights ye ope the little case,
And look till ye can look no more upon the proud young face—
Not only praise the Lord of life, who measures mortal breath,
To bring the absent back, unscathed, out of the fire of death;
Oh! pray, with that divine content which God's best favor draws,
That, whatsoever lives or dies, He save His holy cause!

So, out of shop and farmhouse, from shore and inland glen,
Thick as the bees in clover-time, are swarming armed men;
Along the dusty roads in hast the eager columns come,
With flash of sword and musket's gleam, the bugle and the drum.
Ho! comrades, see the starry flag, broad waving at our head.
Ho! comrades, mark the tender light on the dear emblems spread.
Our father's blood has hallowed it; 'tis part of their renown;
And palsied be the caitiff hand would pluck its glories down!
Hurrah! Hurrah! it is our home where-e'er those colors fly.
We win with thee the victory, or in thy shadow die!
O, women, drive the rattling loom, and gather in the hay;
For all the youth worth love and truth are marshalled for the fray.
Southward the hosts are hurrying, with banners wide unfurled,
From where the stately Hudson floats the wealth of half the world;
From where amid his clustered isles lake Huron's waters gleam;
From where the Mississippi pours an unpolluted stream;
From where Kentucky's fields of corn bend in the Southern air;
From broad Ohio's luscious vines; from Jersey's orchards fair;
From where between his fertile slopes Nebraska's rivers run;
From Pennsylvania's iron hills, from wooded Oregon;
And Massachusetts led the van, as in the days of yore,
And gave her reddest blood to cleanse the stones of Baltimore.
O, mothers, sisters, daughters! spare the tears ye fain would shed.
Who seem to die in such a cause ye can not call them dead.
They live upon the lips of men, in picture, bust, and song;
And nature folds them in her heart and keeps them safe from wrong.
Oh! length of days is not a boon the brave man prayeth for;
There are a thousand evils worse than death or any war—
Oppression with his iron strength fed on the souls of men,
And license with the hungry brood that haunt his ghastly den.
But like bright stars ye fill the eye—adoring hearts ye draw,
O, sacred grace of Liberty! O, majesty of Law!
Hurrah! the drums are beating; the fife is calling shrill;
Ten thousand starry banners flame on town and bay and hill;
The thunders of the rising war drown Labor's peaceful hum;
Thank God that we have lived to see the saffron morning come!
The morning of the battle-call, to every soldier dear—
O, joy, the cry is "Forward!" O, joy, the foe is near!
For all the crafty men of peace have failed to purge the land:
Hurrah! the tasks of battle close, God takes His cause in hand.

DR. HOOFLAND'S
BALSAMIC CORDIAL,
FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF
Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Croup, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief and cure of all Pulmonary Cases of Patients in advanced stages of the Disease.

THE Balsamic Cordial is entirely a Vegetable production, containing the healing properties of the Balsam, with the invigorating qualities of a Cordial, producing a combination so well adapted to the purposes intended, that there are but few cases of disease which will not, at an early period, succumb to its healing and life-giving properties.

For some time the treatment of pulmonary diseases engaged the greater portion of the attention of the scientific of the medical world, but none acquired more eminence in his treatment of these diseases, than the celebrated Prussian Dr. Hoofland, the originator of the Balsamic Cordial. His life was devoted to the production of remedies that would stand unrivaled. How well he has succeeded, the American people are able to judge; and we positively assert that no preparation that has ever been introduced to the public has ever met the same amount of benefits on suffering humanity, or have elicited so many commendations from all classes of society, as the remedies of Hoofland, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., of Philadelphia.

The Cordial is designed for a class of Diseases more general and more fatal than any other to which the people of this country are subject, those originating from a weight cold. That eminent authority, Dr. Dull, says—"I will not say that Colds are to our inhabitants, but the Plague and Yellow Fever are to those of other countries; but I can aver confidently that they usher in diseases of greater complexity and mortality than these latter

Read what the eminent Glass Manufacturer, JOHN M. WHITALL, says of the BALSAMIC CORDIAL.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Respected Friend: Having for a long time been acquainted with the virtues of thy BALSAMIC CORDIAL, in coughs, Colds, Inflammation of the Lungs, &c., I thus freely bear testimony to the Cordial. For several years I have never been without it in my family. It is strange to me that anyone can say that I have ever used any other treatment of Diseased Complaints. Thy friend truly, JOHN M. WHITALL.

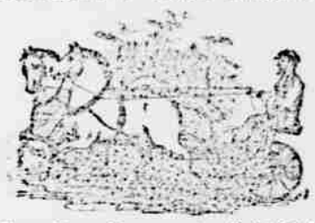
BUCKEYE ALL RIGHT



For the Harvest of 1863!

The most approved Agricultural Implements now in the Market!

MANUFACTURED BY
SLIFER, WALLS, SHRINER & CO.,
Lewisburg, Pa.

Buckeye Reaper & Mower.

THE unprecedented success of the "Buckeye" is the strongest proof of its superior excellency. The BUCKEYE has caused a complete Revolution in the Manufacture of REAPING AND MOWING Machines, and its reputation is so well established that it is scarcely necessary to particularize its advantages. We will, however, call the attention of the farmers to a few of its merits.

The TWO DRIVING WHEELS—the Pawls and Springs, by which the machine may be thrown out of gear, or be backed without vibrating the knives—the Steel Cutter Bar—the Wrought Iron Guard, with Hardened Steel Face or Cutting Edge—the Double-Hinged Joint, by which the Cutter Bar may be Folded—the long Crank Shaft—the Steel Spring and Wheel, by which the Cutter Bar may be raised and lowered so as to cut as low to the ground as may be desired—the Steel Pitman and Brass Box—its Light Draft—(no Side Draft)—no weight on the horses' necks—backs as easily as a cart—all of which form a combination of advantages which no other machine possesses.

No Gearing on the Driving Wheels.

A team of horses weighing 900 lbs. each, will cut an acre of grass an hour with ease.

The machine is furnished with two Cutter Bars—one for cutting grass, and the other for cutting grain (each expressly adapted to the use intended).

No effort will be wanting to maintain the Buckeye in the enviable position it now occupies, that of being the Best Machine in the World!

—The subscribers return their sincere thanks to their friends for the generous support they have received in introducing the celebrated Buckeye Reaper and Mower into Central and Northern Pennsylvania, and are much indebted to them for their warm greetings and kind offices in recommending it to their friends and neighbors.

For Certificates, &c., see Circulars, which may be had of any of their Agents.

They also manufacture Meyer's Patent Piston Grain Drill, which is acknowledged to be the BEST SEED SOWER IN USE, and the only one which

LINDSEY'S Improved
BLOOD SEARCHER, OR A STANDARD MEDICINE
For the speedy, radical and effectual cure of ALL diseases arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD!

THIS medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of

Scrofula	Cancerous Formations,
Cutaneous diseases,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Ringworm, Tetter,	Sore Eyes, Scald Head,
Old, stubborn Ulcers,	Rheumatic disorders,
Tumor affections,	Costiveness,
Dyspepsia, Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Mercurial diseases,	General debility,
Liver Complaint,	Loss of Appetite,
Low Spirits,	Foul Stomach,
Female Complaints—and all diseases having their origin in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of Daniel McCreary, of Naples Tompkins co., taken the 23d day of August last, one month after he had been cured of the most inveterate case of Scrofula in the Worst Form, by the use of the Blood Searcher. Dr. McCreary, for a period of nearly eight months, was confined to his bed, for support, and a portion of the time was entirely unable to move. He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Before he had used half a bottle, he found himself decidedly better; in two months he was able to walk about, and in three months was entirely cured. There is no question but that the above is a correct likeness of Mr. McCreary, and that the facts in the case are as stated. The full particulars of this remarkable cure may be seen in a Circular to be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to a case of Nasal Weakness, of Elkerton, Armstrong Co., Pa., whose health was entirely restored by the use of a few bottles of the Searcher.

To the case of a lady in Auburndale, Clearfield Co., who was also afflicted with Scrofula in an aggravated form.

To the case of a lady in Curwensville, Clearfield Co., Pa., who was in a bad way with Cancer, that it cut her entire nose off, and his case was given up as incurable, then Mr. Lindsey.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the "Blood Searcher"—may also be found in a circular to be had of any of the Agents.

COMMENDATIONS.

From Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, M. C., Ohio

My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the Chromatic Picture is more like them than any they ever saw. My likeness is very regularly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presented so true to nature all the features and expression of countenance as this.

From Hon. E. D. Morgan, late Minister to Paris

The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraits, conjoined with the naturality of color and faithfulness as likenesses, can not fail to commend them to the attention and patronage of all who appreciate fine art.

From Gov. James Pollock.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, who is a artist in our country, and who has devoted much time, and taken great pleasure in improving the collodion process, and has succeeded in producing pictures of the highest degree of excellence in every respect, and he is entitled to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art. JAMES POLLOCK.
