FRIDAY, Feb 20. On motion of Mr. Johnson, the bill passed Senate increasing the time for making the Jersey Shore, Pine Creek and State Line Railway.

On motion of Mr. Turrell, the bill passed for a Railway from the Towards coal mines to a point on the road to Eimirs between Canton and Troy, Pa.

Ou motion of Mr. Clymer, the bill compelling the recording of deeds and other imilar instruments of writing which should be recorded.

On motion of Mr. M'Sherry (of Adams) the resolution asking Congress to compensate citizens of our State for losses sustained by the late "Rebel raid." (It is refreshing to hear our Democratic friends, when gored in their own districts, call the ox "Rebel.")

SATURDAY, Feb. 21, 1863. The Legislature has adjourned over until Monday-two-thirds of the Members of each House now being on the lines of Railroads, by which they can spend the Subbath at home-and those not thus privileged, going to other places, generally, to do business or "kill time," while a portion remain to make acquaintances, perfect correspondence, and regale their minds with the contents of the library in the second story of the Capital.

The House was yesterday engaged in a bill, asked for by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which passed.
