SONG FOR THINKERS

BY CHARLES SWAIN.

Take the Spade of Perseverance,
Dig the field of Progress wide;
Every rotten root of faction
Harry out and cast aside;
Every stubborn weed of Error,
Every seed that hurts the soil,
Tares, whose very growth is terror—
Dig them out whate'er the toil.

Give the stream of Education
Broader channel, bolder force;
Hurl the stones of Persecution
Out where'er they block its course;
Seek for strength in self exertion;
Work, and still have faith to wait;
Close the crooked gate to fortune;
Make the road to honor straight!

Men are agents for the future;
As they work, so ages win
Either harvests of advancement,
Or the products of their sin;
Follow out true Cultivation;
Widen Education's plan;
From the Majesty of Nature
Teach the Majesty of Man!

Take the Spade of Perseverance,
Dig the field of Progress wide;
Every bar to true instruction
Carry out and cast aside;
Feed the Plant whose Fruit is Wisdom;
Cleanse from Crime the common Sod;
So that from the Throne of Heaven
It may bear the glance of God.

Their Different Ways.

[An imaginative old bachelor editor, in his desperation, attempts to praise the fair sex by the following picture of the different preliminaries of the Woman and the Man in retiring to rest. Hear him!]

The young lady trips lightly up to her own nice chamber, and firstly fastens the door and draws the curtains, so that no possible nocturnal blunderer or sneak can catch a glimpse of her. That done securely, she turns on the gas to its full, and institutes a general search throughout the apartment, that she may be sure that it does not contain some horrible bugbear, or desperate ruffian, in big whiskers and crisp black hair. Carefully she lifts the bed valance, peers into places where even Tom Thumb could not squeeze his diminutive corporation, and takes a cursory peep into the half-emptied trunk, not forgetting to glance nervously under the sofa, the space between which and the floor is not sufficient to contain the ghost of Calvin Edson, much less an ordinary robber. Having ascertained that she is really alone, she leisurely relieves her glossy hair of the pins and combs which enthrall it, and does it up more compactly. Then off comes the collar, and the light vapory cloud of lace she calls undersleeves, which all the day have been clasped round her arms by a couple of India rubber straps. Next, the love of a dress is unfastened in front. The sundry waist strings and button straps are loosed, and, lo! what a collapse, like that of Prof. Lowe's big balloon. She stands, like Saturn, the centre of rings. There they lie on the soft carpet, partly covered by the linen underfixings and overfixings, with no more expression in them than there is in the bare floor beneath the carpet. Sits she upon the edge of the bed, and begins the unlacing of gaiters; the feet are carefully perched upon the knees—down come the gaiters, off come the elastics, and her thumbs, inserted at the top of the stockings, push down—down over the heel, and the cotton rests beside the prunella. A smile peeps out behind the blushes of her sweet face, as, standing before the glass, she places upon her head the night cap, and with a quick twist of the fingers ties the bewitching bow. The night gown is thrown over the frilled chemise, concealing the heaving bosom and shoulders in its folds. Now the counterpane and sheets are thrown back, and the gas turned down—very, very low—and the form presses the yielding couch, and the angel goes off into the world of dreams!

—But, in the room directly above her, is the great brute of a brother. He comes in, shuts the door with a slam; turns the key with a snap, growls at a chair which happens to be in the way, pulls off his boots, and throws them into a corner, pushes his socks from his feet, drops his pantaloons on the floor, and lets them lie there; gets off his coat and vest by a quick, vindictive sort of a jerk of his arms and body; unpins and unbuttons his collar, throws it carelessly with the tie at, rather than on, the table; travels to the window in his shirt, to let down the curtain, as if he didn't care whether the entire population of the street beheld his anatomy or not; he then puts out the light, and bounces into bed, like a great calf jumping into a pile of hay—curls himself up, his knees nearly touching his nose, lies so a moment or two, turns on his back, stretches his limbs out, swears at the tucking in of the bed clothes, turns over on the other side, and is—asleep. And then comes in the snoring and snorting!

(Isn't there a vast difference in style?)

During Judge Franks' term of office, he had at one time associated with him Mr. F., of Harrisburg, a man remarkable for his mathematical talent, but not particularly brilliant in matters pertaining to the Judiciary. At a certain morning session in court, a dispute arose between the lawyers and Judge relative to the correctness of some testimony that had just been rendered. Not being able to agree, Judge Franks' turning towards Judge F. whom he had observed busy with paper during the trial, said,

"Judge F., you have been taking notes, I see, can not you set us right?"

"No," answered the astonished gentleman, slowly raising his head; "I was no takin any notes; I was shust makin—a—"

BALSAMIC CORDIAL,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Croup, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Diseases of the Bowels, arising from Cold, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief and (if at all possible) cure of Patients in advanced stages of the latter disease.

THE Balsamic Cordial is entirely a Vegetable production, combining the healing properties of the Balsam, with the invigorating qualities of a Cordial, producing a combination so well adapted to the purposes intended, that there are but few cases of disease which will not, at an early period, succumb to its healing and life-giving properties.

It has the treatment of pulmonary diseases acquired the greater portion of the attention of the scientific of the medical world, but none acquired more eminence in his treatment of these diseases, than the celebrated Prussian Dr. Hoofland, the originator of the Balsamic Cordial. His life was devoted to the production of remedies that would stand unrivaled. How well he has succeeded, the American people are able to judge: and we positively assert, that no preparations that have ever been placed before them, have conferred the same amount of benefits on suffering humanity, or have elicited so many commendations from all classes of society, as the remedies of Hoofland, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., of Philadelphia.

The Cordial is designed for a class of diseases more general and more fatal than any other to which the people of this country are subject—those springing from a slight cold." That eminent authority, Dr. Bell, says: "I will not say that Colds are to our inhabitants what the Plague and Yellow Fever are to those of other countries; but I can aver confidently that they usher in disease of greater complexity and mortality than these latter

Read what the eminent Glass Manufacturer, JOHN M. WHITALL, says of the BALSAMIC CORDIAL.

Dr. C. M. JACKSON—Respected Friend: Having for a long time been acquainted with the virtues of thy BALSAMIC CORDIAL in Coughs, Colds, Inflammation of the Lungs, &c., I thus freely bear testimony to its efficacy. For several years I have never been without it in my family. It is also gives me pleasure to state that I have used it with entire success in the treatment of Bowel Complaints. Thy friend truly, JOHN M. WHITALL,

BUCKEYE ALL RIGHT

For the Harvest of 1863!

The most approved Agricultural Implements now in the Market!

MANUFACTURED BY

SLIFER, WALLS, SHRINER & CO.,

Lewisburg, Pa.

Buckeye Reaper & Mower.

THE unprecedented success of the "Buckeye" is the strongest proof of its superior excellency. The BUCKEYE has caused a complete Revolution in the Manufacture of REAPING AND MOWING Machines, and its reputation is so well established that it is scarcely necessary to particularize its advantages. We will, however, call the attention of the farmers to a few of its merits.

The TWO DRIVING WHEELS—the Pawls and Springs, by which the machine may be thrown out of gear, or be backed without vibrating the knives—the Steel Cutter Bar—the Wrought Iron Guard, with Hardened Steel Face or Cutting Edge—the Double-Hinged Joint, by which the Cutter Bar may be Folded—the long Crank Shaft—the Steel Spring and Wheel, by which the Cutter Bar may be raised and lowered so as to cut as low to the ground as may be desired—the Steel Pitman and Brass Box—its Light Draft—(no Side Draft)—no weight on the horses' necks—backs as easily as a cart—all of which form a combination of advantages which no other machine possesses.

No Gearing on the Driving Wheels.

A team of horses weighing 900 lbs. each, will cut an acre of grass an hour with ease.

The machine is furnished with two Cutter Bars—one for cutting grass, and the other for cutting grain (each expressly adapted to the use intended).

No effort will be wanting to maintain the Buckeye in the enviable position it now occupies, that of being the

The above is a portrait of David N. Creary, of Naples Twp., who, on the 31st day of August, 1861, made affidavit before Justice Gerlet that he was cured for the time by Cancer by three physicians of Rochester, and by Dr. Newton of the Newton Cancer College, Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which he (operator, and a portion of his left cheek bone entirely gone away! He had given up all hope—how he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although badly disfigured, there is no question but that the disease is entirely eradicated. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a Circular to be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to the case of Nancy Hershey, of Elderton, Armstrong Co., Pa., cured of Scrofula after being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the case of a lady in Auburntile, Crawford Co., who was also cured of Scrofula, after suffering for 12 years.

To the case of Henry Shoemaker, residing in Carrollton, Cambria Co., Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it eat his entire nose off, and his case was worse, if possible, than Mr. Creary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the "Blood Searcher"—may also be found in a pamphlet to be had of the Agents.

COMMENDATIONS.

From Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, M. C., Ohio

Mr. family and friends all concur in the opinion that the (Newell) Picture is more like than any thing they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which pleased me so much as this, all the features and expression of countenance is life.

From Hon. E. Joy Morris, late Minister to Italy.

The exquisite finish, the perfect likeness of your portraits, coupled with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, can not fail to command them the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

From Chs. James Pond.

Having occasion to get a picture, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia—a miniature in Oil Colors, under the most favorable aerial effect, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, and only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and can commend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art. JAMES PAUL.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BEDFORD, Mass., 20th Dec., 1853.

DR. J. C. AYER: I found it impossible to stay the heat remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness, Influenza, and the extraordinary prevalence of Colds, is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last few years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. ERAS KNIGHT, M. D.

A. B. MORTLEY, Esq., of UTICA, N. Y., writes: "I have used your Pectoral myself and in my family ever since you furnished it, and believe it the best medicine for the purpose ever put up. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty-five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SHARPSBURG, MD., Feb. 7, 1858.

DR. AYER: I was entirely cured by your Pectoral in the last severe attack of croup, whooping cough, and the chief physician of this village, who has used your medicine for years, pronounces it the best remedy for
