Barbarities of the Rebels.

The following reports, from responsible men, of the horrid deeds of what Gov. Andrew Johnson calls the "hell-born and hell-bound Rebellion," are worthy of the thoughts of every reader. The Secession leaders are using every measure, however foul, to exterminate the friends of the Union (who are still numerous though silent) among them. Read and see how "our Southern brethren" carry on the War which they commenced to make Slavery omnipotent on this Continent.

Headquarters, District of Corinth, Corinth, Miss., Jan. 24, 1863.—Captain: I have the honor to submit a statement of a few of the outrages committed upon the citizens of Alabama by the confederate troops. While all their leaders, from the President down, are boasting of their carrying on this war in accordance with the laws that govern nations in such cases, and are charging upon our troops all kinds of depredations and outrages, I think a few simple facts must put them to blush, and make those parties and our press and people, who are seconding the efforts of Davis to cast stigma upon us, ashamed of the work they are doing.

I will merely state what I know to be true. Abe Canadi and Mr. Mitchell were hung, two weeks ago, for being Union men. They lived on the Hackleboro settlement, Marion county, Alabama. Mr. Halwork and daughter, of the same county, were both shot dead for the same cause; the latter instantly killed; the former is yet alive, but will probably die. Peter Lowes, and three of his neighbors, were hunted down by a hundred bloodhounds, and captured. The houses of Messrs. Palmer, Welsby, Williams, and the three Weightmans, and some thirty others, were burnt over their heads the women and children turned out of doors, and the community notified that if they allowed them to go into other houses, or harbored them in any manner they should be served the same. Mr. Peterson, living at the head of Bull mountain, was shot.

I am now feeding one hundred of these families, who, with their women and children, some gray haired old men, and even cripples on crutches, were driven out, and found their way here, through woods and byways without food and shelter, all for the simple reason that they were Union men, or that they had brothers or relatives in our Army.

The statements of these people are almost beyond belief, did we not have the evidence before us. I am informed by them that there are hundreds of loyal men and women, in the woods of Alabama, waiting for an opportunity to escape.

I am, very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
G. M. DODGE, Brig. Gen.
Capt. R. M. Sawyer, A. A. G. Memphis.

REBEL ATROCITIES IN EAST TENNESSEE.

Refugees relate the most horrible barbarities practised here on Union men. Two companies of Cherokee Indians are acting as provost guard in Knoxville, they accompany the cavalry expeditions in search of loyalists. The Provost Marshal offers a bounty of five dollars for every Union man they kill. A short time before the refugees fled, they saw a party of these savages come in with a string of fourteen ears cut from the bodies of Unionists, for which they received the promised bounty.

☞ Is it not about time we should have only one party in the loyal States? If the Rebels treat our friends thus, can they long expect their friends will be allowed to exist among the friends of the Union?

New Bill to regulate Drafts.

This bill provides that the national forces shall consist of all able-bodied male citizens of the United States, and persons of foreign birth who have declared their intention to become citizens, between the ages of twenty and forty-five years, except such as are rejected as physically or mentally unfit for the service; also, first, the Vice President of the United States, the Judges of the various Courts of the United States, the heads of the various Executive departments of the Government, and the Governors of the several States; second, the only son liable to military duty of a widow dependent upon his labor for support; third, the only son of aged or infirm parent or parents dependent upon his labor for support; fourth, where there are two or more sons of aged or infirm parents subject to draft, the father, or, if he be dead, the mother may elect which son may be exempt; fifth, the only brother of children not twelve years old, having neither father nor mother, dependent upon his labor for support; sixth, the father of motherless children under twelve years of age, dependent upon his labor for support; seventh, where there are a father and sons in the same family and household, and two of them are in the military service of the United States as non-commissioned officers, musicians, and privates, the residue of such family and household, not exceeding two, shall be exempt; and no person but such as are herein excepted, shall be exempt; Provided, however, That no person who has been convicted of any felony shall be enrolled or permitted to serve in said forces."

"If I keep on dyeing my whiskers, they'll draft me, as under 45," said a perplexed citizen; "and if I leave off dyeing 'em, Polly won't have me. Anyhow, I calculate, I'm in a tarnation fix, for I hate fighting, and can't give up Polly."

A story is told of a Michigan soldier, in Virginia, who was accused of stealing a goose from a Rebel. He was brought up for trial, and admitted taking the goose, but pleaded, in extenuation, that he caught it in the act of hissing the American flag, and arrested it for treason.

The London Times says: "Recognition is not a question of time, of a minority, or of a majority, but of real existing facts. When the federals find themselves obliged to leave the confederates in quiet possession of their States it will be time to discuss the question." retrogression.

THE DAY SCHOOL BELL.

A New Singing Book for day schools, called the Day School Bell, is now ready. It contains about 2 choice Songs, Rounds, Catches, Duetts, Trios, Quartetts and Choruses, many of them written expressly for this work, besides 32 pages of the Elements of Music. The Elements are so easy and progressive, that ordinary teachers will find themselves entirely successful in instructing even young scholars to sing correctly and scientifically, while the tunes and words embrace such a variety of lively, attractive and soul stirring music and sentiments, that no trouble will be experienced in inducing all beginners to go on with zeal in acquiring skill in one of the most health giving, beauty improving, happiness yielding and order-producing exercises of school life. In simplicity of its elements, in variety and adaptation of music, and in excellence and number of its songs, original, selected and adapted, it claims by much to excel all competitors. It will be found to be the best ever issued for Seminaries, Academies and Public Schools. A few sample pages of the Elements, Tunes, and Songs are given in a circular; send and get one. It is compiled by HORACE WATERS, author of "Sabbath School Bells," Nos. 1 and 2, which have had the enormous sale of 700,000 copies. Prices—paper cover, 25 cents, $18 per 100; boards, 30 cents, $22 per 100; cloth bound, embossed, gilt, 40 cents, $30 per 100. 25 copies furnished at the 100 price. Mailed free at the retail price
