PUBLISHED SEMI-WEEKLY---
Tuesday Morning & Friday Afternoon.

☞Our War News is interesting, and appears to promise substantial success.

☞Mr. Sutton, who advertises seed Potatoes to-day, is well recommended to us as a responsible man.

☞We offer to-day more Real Estate for sale, among our other numerous new advertisements.

☞Mr. Mowry, Photographer, requests us to announce that his Gallery will be closed on Tuesday and Thursday of next week.

☞We have heard nothing further from the deserter, Hummel. His arrest was not attempted until after his sister had been buried.

☞We learn by a Dayton Journal, received from B. C. Taylor, that the Republicans of the Ohio Legislature have provided a chance for the soldiers to vote.

☞L. P. Teed, of White Deer Mills, having received a patent, is engaged in the manufacture of an "Improved Shaker Frame," for separating grain from chaff. He offers Rights for sale.

☞The election of County School Superintendents is properly attracting much attention. In some counties, we notice, the present incumbents of that important station appear to have no opposition.

☞The State Tax in Lycoming county this year is four mills on the dollar. The total valuation of the county was returned as reduced, but the Revenue Commissioners raised it 15 per cent.

☞It is said that the genuine China Tea is growing in Tioga and Clinton counties, Penn. This is corroborated by the fact that a Tea Company, (the corporators mostly from Lock Haven) was incorporated by the Legislature, last winter.

☞The season continues wet, cold and backward, so that many of our farmers have not got their oats in. Wheat is of a good color, and even upon the ground, but rather short. Fruit seems to be uninjured as yet.

☞Wm M. Reber, of Lewisburg, graduated at the Jefferson Medical College, Philad'a, 10th ult. Treatise—"Typhoid Pneumonia." (One chap discussed the "Anatomical Structure of Adam and Eve.")

☞H. A. Furness, Esq., of Philad'a, a Volunteer Agent of the U. S. Sanitary Commission, is expected to hold a public meeting in Lewisburg, Wednesday evening of next week. A general attendance is desired—place to be stated hereafter.

☞The Union League meeting, Tuesday evening, was overflowing in numbers, and full of enthusiasm. Mr. Reese's speech was plain, pointed, logical, and most forcible and entertaining. At its conclusion, on motion of Mr. Geddes, the speaker was saluted with three hearty cheers.

☞The Republicans of the New York Legislature (by a strict party vote) passed an act allowing qualified Soldiers, absent in service, to vote by proxy: see if their Dem. Governor signs it. In Pennsylvania, the Rep. Senate passed a similar bill, but the Dem. House killed it by refusing to act upon it!

☞Young folks who have never seen a log house, can form some idea of the manner they are built, by seeing how the logs were notched and laid upon each other, and "chinked in" with mud and other "daubing," in the old George Metzgar house (second door below our office) which is being removed for a modern brick edifice for Mr. Zimmerman.

A Slave State Pronouncing Against Slavery.

A monster meeting of the Union Loyal League of Baltimore was held in that city on Monday last. It is represented to have been one of the most enthusiastic assemblages ever gathered within the limits of the monumental city.

Here are two of the resolutions:

Resolved, That the origin and progress of the Rebellion, leave no room to doubt that the institution of Slavery has become an instrument in the hands of traitors to build an oligarchy and an aristocracy on the ruins of republican liberty; that its continued existence is incompatible with the maintenance of republican forms of Government in the States in subordination to the Constitution of the United States; that the emancipation proclamation of the President ought to be made law by Congress and a fact by all the power placed by Congress in the hands of the President; that traitors have no right to enforce the obedience of slaves; and that, against traitors in arms, the President should use all men, white or black, in the way they can be most useful, and to the extent they can be used, whether it be to handle a spade or shoulder a musket.

Resolved, That the safety and interest of the State of Maryland, and especially of her white laboring people, require that slavery should cease to be recognized by the law of Maryland, and that the aid of the United States, as recommended by the President, ought to be asked and accepted, to alleviate the public and private inconveniences liable to the change.

Keep Cool!

Hot weather is surely coming on, and a warm political campaign is also expected. At the outset, we exhort all men and women and the boys, to keep as composed as possible. Excitement in the summer, rarely does good, and getting overheated is very injurious.

Especially in affairs of the country, let coolness and moderation prevail. While every man should be earnest, and persevere, in what he esteems to be right and best, he need not be in constant hot water, or pick a quarrel with every man who cannot see as he does. Avoid shop, store, bar room and street corner controversies, which generally provoke evil feelings—convince no one—and do no good. Let us pursue our usual honest business—sleep o' nights—give the Sabbaths to God and the next world. On all proper occasions, seek to show those who we think are in the wrong way, the better way: but indulge in no anger; overlook ignorance and prejudice; avoid altercations, bets, oaths, giving the lie, and everything else that closes the heart of your opponent against the voice of truth. The importance of the contest demands calmness, wisdom, and judgment on the side of best interests of our country.

☞Several of the Knights of the Golden Circle in Berks county, alarmed at the arrest of their leaders, have publicly renounced it, in the following honest and original form (not to be found in the ritual of that traitorous midnight club:)

SCHUYLKILL, April 9th.

We, the undersigned, will have our names withdrawn from that list of those meetings which were called through these townships. We will take our oaths back again. We will have nothing to do with those meetings any more; we will not stay to those meetings at all any more.

(Signed by Jacob and two other Sellers.)

EDWARD EVERETT presides over the Boston Union League, and in a splendid Oration at its opening demolished every justification of Secession. He proved the loss of the Crittenden Compromise was an intentional, pre-concerted act of the Rebel Senators, and affirmed that its passage would not have prevented Secession. He argued against all peace propositions.

Mr. Everett was formerly pro-slavery, and latterly for many years the idol and leader of the Conservatives.

☞The "Female Medical College of Penn'a" held their 11th Commencement, 14th ult., when Mrs. Prof. Cleveland delivered an eloquent and sensible valedictory to a graduating class of three. The 14th annual session commences 14th Oct. next. The Institution is not yet self-sustaining, and last year aided over 1500 in their Hospital for diseased Women and Children. For information, address Mrs. E H. Cleveland, M.D., Woman's Hospital, North College Avenue, Philadelphia.

ARMY NEWS.

TO THE EDITORS STAR & CHRONICLE: Please give the enclosed a place in your columns, to show our friends at home the sentiments entertained throughout our entire Regiment. The meeting adjourned with three hearty cheers for Pres. Lincoln, three for Gen. Hooker, and three more for our Lt. Col. M'Michael.

Yours, S. D. HAGENBUCH.

Camp, 53d Reg. Pa. Vol., April 13.

At a meeting of the officers and enlisted men of the 53d P.V., the following were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has come to our knowledge that there are certain parties in the North who, by their recent acts and speeches, have shown that they coincide and sympathize with those in rebellion to the Government of the United States, and are holding meetings, both public and private, denouncing the Administration and the officers and soldiers in the field, who are fighting to uphold the Constitution and the enforcement of the Laws, Therefore, be it resolved—

1. That we regard all those persons holding such feelings as the above, and being under the protection of our glorious old Flag, as infinitely deeper dyed traitors than those in open rebellion.

2. That we, as a regiment, will, to the best of our ability and power, endeavor, by even the sacrifice of life itself, to uphold the President of these United States in the enforcement of the laws against open traitors or hidden foes.

3. That we place firm reliance and implicit confidence in our brave and noble leader, Major General Joseph Hooker, and believe him to be a capable and fearless commander.

4. That we earnestly call upon all loyal freemen of the North to ferret out, expose and punish all "Copperheads" now in their midst, as we will endeavor to do the enemy in our front when once more led forward.

5. That we look forward with great expectation to the Loyal League Associations now being formed in the different cities of the North, and we earnestly urge the establishment of such associations throughout the entire country.

6. That there be no compromise made with the traitors of the South—who are endeavoring to destroy the best Government on the face of the earth, bequeathed to us by our forefathers, and bought with their blood—except in their entire submission to the Constitution and Laws of the United States.

7. That the reports now circulated by the disloyal parties of the North, in regard to the demoralization of the army, are false in every particular, as it was never in better condition, discipline, and spirits than at the present time.

Lt. Col. R. M'MICHAEL, Pres.
Lt. A. B. MANN, Sec.

Retrospect of Co. D., 5th Reg. P.R.C.

MINER'S HILL, April 10.

In a recent Chronicle, I noticed a description of the trials and hardships which Co. E, 51st P. V., have endured. Not wishing to detract from Co. E any honor which they have so nobly won, yet I have thought it advisable to give you also, from our books, the record of Company D. of the Reserves. Your readers can compare the records.

Shortly after being mustered into service at Harrisburg, our regiment, with the famous Bucktails, made a forced march to Western Virginia to reinforce the Indiana Zouaves. After remaining there several weeks, returned to Harrisburg, thence to Camp Tenally, D. C., where we constructed several very important rifle pits and fortifications. Thence to Camp Pierpoint, Va., for about five months, where we went out on a great many foraging expeditions, always proving successful. From this place we were pushed on to Manassas on the hunt of Reb, but instead of this we found nothing but mud, were ordered back to Alexandria; thence to Fredericksburg by way of Manassas, where we joined M'Dowell's Corps; then, ordered to report to Gen. M'Clellan on the Peninsula, where we arrived in time to participate in the seven days' struggle; then reinforced Pope, taking an active part in the second battle of Bull Run and every subsequent engagement up to the present time. After giving this hasty description of our doings, I will proceed to lay before your readers a statement of our losses sustained:

Camp near Falmouth, April 11.

In Feb. last, our Division General, Humphreys—one of those supercilious, red-tape aristocrats of the regular service, by whom our army is unfortunately cursed—issued orders to have this regim't furnished with dress coats. The men are allowed a certain sum, per month, for clothing; all of them had taken out their full allowance; they had sufficient clothing to last to the end of their term of enlistment; and they were therefore opposed to being forced to take the dress coats, which would have taken some $7.50 of their slender pay. Col. Jacob G. Frick and Lieut. Col. Wm. H. Armstrong, knowing the feelings of the men, and that many of them had families dependent upon their wages for support, refused to sign a requisition for the coats. For this, Gen. Humphreys had them arrested, tried by Court Martial, and dismissed the service! But the War Department—upon a review of the case—reinstated both the Col. and Lieut. Col. Their return to the Regiment, yesterday, was the occasion of a scene of enthusiasm and rejoicing not often witnessed even in the army. The regiment was drawn up in line, with open ranks, and as Frick and Armstrong rode into camp, the cheers which broke forth gave abundant evidence of the esteem and affection which the officers and men of the 129th have for those commanders.

T. G. EVANS.

☞Maj John D. Musser writes, 13th inst., from near Belle Plains, Va. He is in the 143d P. V., Col. E. L. Dana; 2d Brigade, Roy Stone; 3d Division, Doubleday; 1st Army Corps, Reynolds; Grand Army of the Potomac, Hooker. The Regiment was recruited from Luzerne, Susquehanna and Wyoming counties. They spent the winter working on Fort Slocum, until "demoralized," hailed with joy the order to join Gen. Hooker; and on the 19th Feb. were brigaded with the Bucktails. On the 22d, Musser was sent, with 500 men, to go in the front, as pickets: it was intensely cold, and snowing hard: their three days' service, without tents, made them realize what was a true soldier's duty. Since then, they have been drilling, resting, &c. The President and wife visited them, when that review of 15,000 cavalry took place—a magnificent sight. Infantry have since been reviewed—and looked exceedingly well. Had cooked rations ready to move at any moment. Maj. Musser says:

"No one, except those present, can believe the change produced since Gen. Hooker assumed command. It has been brought around, not by writing orders alone, but by enforcing them.

"Our cause looks brighter to me than it did a few months since, when we thought the North had deserted the army and was going to let us be sacrificed for want of reinforcements. We thought we had not the full sympathy of the North, and dreaded—we scarcely knew what. Lately things look better, and we feel encouraged. New life is infused into our hearts, and must it not to some extent paralyze the masses of the Rebels?

"But I must close, hoping we may all meet again, in happier times, to talk over the past in peace and plenty."

☞Norman Ball writes us, 1st inst., from the Army of the Potomac. He is in Co. L., 16th Pa. Cav., under Col. J. Irvin Gregg, in the 2d Cav. Brigade, commanded by Gen. Averill—two officers, confided in by the men, and whose battle across the Rappahannock, in March, won the praise of the Rebels, and is best described in the "Press" of 26th ult. The 16th was in that engagement. Mr. Ball says:

"We soldiers feel, as a general thing, that we want to see this war waged with energy, as the best means of securing a speedy and honorable peace. We think the prospects are brightening; that Jeff. trembles in the knees; and all we ask is the hearty co-operation of the North, by their prayers and efforts. We are willing to sacrifice the comforts of home, the companionship of friends, and even our lives if need be, to secure the object so dear to every patriot heart. But, for Heaven's sake, do not stand in our way and discourage our hearts by political divisions at home. Unite all your efforts to sustain our Government and Administration, until the war is ended—and then it will be time enough to redress your [less] grievances, peaceably, at the ballot box."

True Enough.—A soldier, "born and bred a Democrat," in Sullivan Co., Pa., writes home a letter (which the Laporte Democrat refused to publish) containing the following pregnant thoughts:

"I firmly believe, that, had it not been for the clamor of Northern sympathizers, this war would have been over long before now, and with half the blood and treasure which it has cost. I say, sir, that Northern traitors have virtually shed more innocent blood than ever has been spilled by the Army of the Potomac, (and that has been no small amount,) and the natural conclusion is, hanging is too good for them. I admit that John Brown got his dues as a traitor, and why not deal the same with traitors at the present day?" S. S. S.

☞D. B. M'Gregor, 76th Pa., writes, 14th inst., that they had seen the steeples of Charleston the second time, and wanted another chance to take it. None of the Lewisburg boys were in the fight—were all well when he wrote.

☞Dr. Theo. S. Christ has been promoted Medical Director under Gen. Welch, who has joined the army in Kentucky.

☞Camp near Helena, Ark., April 10, Paul Lahr writes to us; he is with Co. D, 93d Reg. Ill. Vols. (via Cairo. Ill.)

"STRAWS."—Springfield, Ill., (home of the President) last fall gave 200 maj. for the Democrats: this Spring it elects the whole Republican ticket. In Chicago, last year's Dem. maj. of 1000 is now reduced to 118. Cincinnati, Detroit, and all the Free State cities, show similar Union gains and Copperhead losses. In Missouri and Kansas, the most radical Republicans had far the largest votes.

The Lancaster papers say there was not a note protested in that city, on the 1st of April, the great pay day. Bucks county papers say the Sheriff has nothing to do. Money was rarely if ever more plenty, as a general thing.

Private John Brandt, of Co. A, 127th Regiment, P. V., who, in Reading, several months since, shot a deserter from the army, has been honorable acquitted, by the court in session at Reading, and relieved from arrest.

From New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, April 18.—The news to-day from Brashier City is of the utmost importance. The enemy evacuated his works at Centreville last night, but will probably be captured entire, as he is enclosed between Grover's forces on one side and those of Emory and Weitzel on the other. He is leaving his guns and ammunition behind him.

The steamer Diana, lately taken from us, will certainly be recaptured, as the U. S. steamer Clifton has removed the obstructions in the river and is rapidly approaching her.

The ram Queen of the West was captured from the enemy in Grand Lake at 10 o'clock this morning. Capt. Fuller, her commander, and all her crew and officers, numbering ninety souls, are now prisoners at Berwick Bay.

CAIRO, April 22.—Our gunboats have destroyed the rebel battery at Warrenton below Vicksburg, and the fleet was lying at anchor before Carthage on the 17th. Gen. Grant was to go down on the same day. Gen. Ellet's marine brigade, and Gen. Fitch's light draft gunboats have nearly swept the Cumberland river of rebel cavalry who were sent out on both sides of the river. Some severe fighting occurred and many prisoners were taken. Florence, Tuscumbia and other places were visited.

The Mumfordville expedition to Celina returned to Glasgow, having destroyed the town of Celina, 100,000 pounds of bacon, 20,000 bushels of wheat and corn, one hundred barrels each of whisky and flour, a considerable quantity of sugar, tea, coffee, salt and other stores, and forty boats used by the Rebels for transporting supplies. The rebels admit a loss of 90 killed. Col. Graham thinks their loss greater. The Union loss was one killed and one missing.

NEW ORLEANS.—Gen. Banks' plan of free negro labor for the plantations, meets with daily success. Cheering reports from all quarters continue to be received. It was stated by paroled seamen from the U. S. frigate Mississippi, that the rebel gunboat Webb was destroyed in the Red River Fight, and that our fleet did great damage to the batteries there, on one alone of which 25 rebels were killed.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 20.—Heavy firing has been going on for the last 24 hours on the Nansemond river, occasioned by our gunboats shelling out the rebels, who are attempting to plant batteries at different points on the river. Last night our gunboats, with the 89th New York and 8th Connecticut Regiments, captured a rebel battery of six pieces of artillery, together with 200 prisoners, from the 44th Alabama regiment.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Official dispatches received last night, say that a portion of Admiral Porter's fleet laden with a large number of soldiers from Gen. Grant's army have succeeded in running the batteries at Vicksburg, and are now in a condition to either help Gen. Banks in an attack upon Port Hudson or make an assault on Vicksburg from the south.

The President has issued a proclamation declaring that the act for the admission of the State West Virginia into the Union, shall take effect from and after 60 days from yesterday, proof having been submitted to him that the condition of admission, namely, certain emancipation changes in her Constitution, have been complied with.

William Muthart, horse thief, recently arrested in Luzerne county, and committed to jail at Williamsport, succeeded in making his escape from prison. The Sheriff offers a reward of $75 for his re-arrest.

Anonymous handbills, posted up in Mobile and other Secesh cities, demand "Bread or Blood!" It is evident that the poor and common people there are robbed to keep the soldiers in fighting condition.

The Evening Post, publishes a despatch stating that the French in Mexico have been totally defeated. They had lost 8,000 prisoners, and sixty pieces of artillery. Their troops were completely routed.

Some influential persons in England seem to be in earnest in trying to stop the Rebels from obtaining ships and other supplies in England.

The Rebels have abandoned their attack upon Washington, N. C., and our forces in that neighborhood are relieved.
