The Second "Battle of the Kegs."

[One of the most amusing—yet quite important—events of the Slavery war, is well told, below. Com. Porter, when above Vicksburg, rigged and painted up a large, crazy, old, tow-boat, so that she appeared like some new-fangled gun-boat, then let her float into the broad current of the Mississippi. The Rebels thought it was some fresh infernal Yankee invention, and fired all their guns at her; but as she was freighted with mud and coal only, she did not "explode," and kept steadily, gloomily, portentously upon her way. So frightened were the Rebels, that they blew up their recent splendid prize, the "Indianola," and got the "Queen of the West" and all their other traps out of the way of this perfectly innocent, grim-looking monster, which did the Unionists more good (at less expense) than any of our "boats" on the Father of Waters.]

REBEL DOODLE FIZZLE.

There is an honest Yankee man,
With cannon and with mortar,
Upon the Mississippi stream—
That gallant man is PORTER.

CHORUS.

Rebel doodle, hip—hurrah!
O, Rebel doodle fizzle;
A "right smart chance" of powder lost
In Rebel's naval drizzle.

He sent an old scow load of mud
And boards, in bad condition,
To draw the sneaking Rebels out,
And waste their ammunition.

A ragged conscript 'spied the thing,
And cried, "Old Jeff! save us—
A MONITOR is coming down—
Abolitionists 'll have us!

"For your life, boys, to the guns!
Don't stop to eat your bacon;
I reckon we shall all be killed
Afore this thing is taken!"

The gallant slaves of Rebeldom
Now set their guns all blazing,
But still the "Monitor" kept on—
Her strength it was amazing!

"Now stop," a Rebel captain said,
"Don't let me hear a snivel;
We'll shoot again when daylight comes—
If she don't prove the Divel."

He "toted" up a telescope,
And aimed "the trick" right at her;
He grew so faint his knees did knock—
"O what, what is the matter?"

"Why, sir, it is an awful thing—
With ten feet iron sheathing,
And quartor boats, and great big guns,
And two big bilers seething."

And then they banged away again,
And thought to bust her kettle;
They shot her through and through amain,
But could not make her settle.

The cane-brakes shook with awful din,
The ducks did quack with wonder,
The gar-fish blew their boy; snouts,
And wild-cats squalled like thunder.

A perfect rain of shot and shell;
What ship could this withstand, sir?
A possum from a gum tree winked,
And thought it awful grand, sir!

The wolves a special pow-wow held,
The bears an extra session;
A wild goose danced her feathers off,
And looked like Old Secession!

The Rebel thunder shook the ground
Like forty thousand chaises;
It made the alligators sneeze,
And cat-fish sweat like blazes.

Yet onward went our "Monitor,"
Just as the waves did paddle;
They blew their "Indianola" up—
A terrible skedaddle!

The Rebel "Queen," half dead with fright,
"Turned and ran down the river,"
For fear the wooden Yankee ram
Would blow her all to sliver!

Rebel doodle! did you faint,
And sickish feel, and sore, sir?
Then eat mock turtle soup for greens,
And take a glass of PORTER!

Bristol, March 21, 1863. P. F. P.

How a Man Feels in Battle.

There can be nothing more puzzling than the analysis of one's feelings on a battle field. You can not describe them satisfactorily to yourself or others. To march steadily up to the mouths of a hundred cannon while they pour out fire and smoke, and shot and shell, in a storm that mows the men like grass, is horrible beyond description—appalling. It is absurd to say a man can do it without fear. During Hancock's charge at Fredericksburg, for a long distance, the slope was swept by such a hurricane of death that we thought every step would be our last, and I am willing to say, for one, that I was pretty badly scared. Whatever may be said about "getting used to it," old soldiers secretly dread a battle equally with new ones. But the most difficult thing to stand up under is the suspense while waiting, as we waited in Fredericksburg, drawn up in line of battle on the edge of the field watching the columns file past us and disappear in a cloud of smoke, where horses and men and colors go down in confusion, where all sounds are lost in the screaming of shells, and the cracking of musketry, the thunder of artillery, and knowing that our turn comes next, expecting each moment the word "forward." It brings a strange kind of relief when "forward" comes. You move mechanically with the rest. Once fairly in for it your sensibilities are strangely blunted; you care comparatively nothing about the sights that shocked you at first; men torn to pieces by cannon shot become a matter of course. At such a time, there comes a latent sustenance from within us, or above us, which no man anticipates who has not been in such a place before, and which most men pass through life without knowing anything about. What is it? Where does it come from?

Nine persons concerned in the robbery of Adams' Express, have been detected, and are now "incarcerated in a Bastile," (as the Tory papers call it.) Most of the great haul of plunder they had "seceded" with, was recovered, and returned by the "tyrannical government." Of course, Old Abe commenced the fuss, by issuing the securities which caused a desire to steal.

Refugees (foreigners) from Richmond, say they paid, in Confederate notes, 650 for gold, and 875 for U. S. currency.

DR. HOOFLAND'S

BALSAMIC CORDIAL,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Croup, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, Diseases of the Throat, arising from Cold, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief and (if at all possible) cure of Patients in advanced stages of the latter disease.

THE Balsamic Cordial is entirely a Vegetable production, combining the healing properties of the Balsam, with the invigorating qualities of a Cordial, producing a combination so well adapted to the purposes intended, that there are but few cases of disease which will not, at an early period, succumb to its healing and life-giving properties.

For more than the treatment of pulmonary diseases or, engaged the greater portion of the attention of the scientific of the medical world, but none acquired more eminence in his treatment of these diseases, than the celebrated Prussian Dr. Hoofland, the originator of the Balsamic Cordial. His life was devoted to the production of remedies that would stand unrivaled. How well he has succeeded, the American people are able to judge; and we positively assert, that no preparation of the kind has ever acquired for itself, in them, more confirmed the same amount of benefits on suffering humanity, or have elicited so many commendations from all classes of society, as the remedies of Hoofland, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson & Co., of Philadelphia.

The Cordial is designed for a class of diseases more general and more fatal than any other to which the people of this country are subject—those springing from a "chilly cold." That eminent authority, Dr. Bell, says: "I will not say that Colds are to our inhabitants what the Plague and Yellow Fever are to those of other countries; but I can aver confidently that they usher in disease of greater complexity and mortality than Consumption."

Read what the eminent Glass Manufacturer, JOHN M. WHITALL, says of the BALSAMIC CORDIAL.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—Respected Friend: Having for a long time been acquainted with the virtues of thy BALSAMIC CORDIAL in Coughs, Colds, Inflammation of the Lungs, &c., I thus freely bear testimony to its efficacy. For several years I have never been without it in my family. It is also given me pleasure to state that I have used it with entire success in the treatment of Bowel Complaints. Thy friend truly, JOHN M. WHITALL.

BUCKEYE ALL RIGHT

For the Harvest of 1863!

The most approved Agricultural Implements now in the Market!

MANUFACTURED BY

SLIFER, WALLS, SHRINER & CO.,

Lewisburg, Pa.

Buckeye Reaper & Mower.

THE unprecedented success of the "Buckeye" is the strongest proof of its superior excellency. The BUCKEYE has caused a complete Revolution in the Manufacture of REAPING AND MOWING Machines, and its reputation is so well established that it is scarcely necessary to particularize its advantages. We will, however, call the attention of the farmers to a few of its merits.

The TWO DRIVING WHEELS—the Pawls and Springs, by which the machine may be thrown out of gear, or be backed without vibrating the knives—the Steel Cutter Bar—the Wrought Iron Guard, with Hardened Steel Face or Cutting Edge—the Double-Hinged Joint, by which the Cutter Bar may be Folded—the long Crank Shaft—the Steel Spring and Wheel, by which the Cutter Bar may be raised and lowered so as to cut as low to the ground as may be desired—the Steel Pitman and Brass Box—its Light Draft—(no Side Draft)—no weight on the horses' necks—backs as easily as a cart—all of which form a combination of advantages which no other machine possesses.

No Gearing on the Driving Wheels.

A team of horses weighing 900 lbs. each, will cut an acre of grass an hour with ease.

The machine is furnished with two Cutter Bars—one for cutting grass, and the other for cutting grain (each expressly adapted to the use intended).

No effort will be wanting to maintain the Buckeye in the enviable position it now occupies, that of being the Best Machine in the World!

—The subscribers return their sincere thanks to their friends for the generous support they have received in introducing the celebrated Buckeye Reaper and Mower into Central and Northern Pennsylvania, and are much indebted to them for their warm greetings and kind offices in recommending it to their friends and neighbors.

For Certificates, &c., see Circulars, which may be had of any of their Agents.

They also manufacture Meyer's Patent Piston Grain Drill, which is acknowledged to be the BEST SEED SOWER IN USE, and the only one which

LINDSEY'S Improved BLOOD SEARCHER,

A STANDARD MEDICINE

For the speedy, radical and effectual cure of ALL diseases arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD!

THIS medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of

Scrofula,	Cancerous formations,
Cutaneous diseases,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Pimples on the face,	Sore Eyes, Scald Head,
Old, stubborn Ulcers,	Rheumatic disorders,
Tetter affections,	Costiveness,
Dyspepsia, Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Sexual diseases,	General debility,
Liver Complaint,	Loss of Appetite,
Low Spirits,	Foul Stomach,

Female Complaints—and all diseases having their origin in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of David M'Creary of Naples Twp, who, on the 31st day of August 1858, mad oath to it before Justice Hosler that he was cured for the cure of Cancer in the Stomach by using Lindsey's Blood Searcher, by Dr. Newton of the Eclectic College, Cincinnati, for a part of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which, his age, sons, and a portion of his self, think were entirely eaten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and callousness totally disfigured, there is no question but this revelation to medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a Circular to be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to a case of Nancy Rumsey, of Elderton, Armstrong Co., Pa., cured of SCROFULA after being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the case of a lady in Somersville, Chesterfield Co., who was also afflicted with Scrofula in its worst form.

To the case of George Shuler, residing in Carrolltown, Cambria Co., Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it eat his entire nose off, and in this case was worse, if possible, than M'Creary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the "Blood Searcher"—may also be found in a Circular to be had of any of the Agents.

COMMENDATIONS.

From Hon. JAMES D. CAMPBELL, M. C., Ohio

My family and friends all concur in the opinion that the Newell Picture is more like than any thing they ever saw. My likeness has been repeatedly taken by different Artists in various ways, but I have as yet had one which gave satisfaction to others, all the features and expression of countenance as this.

From Hon. E. JOY MORRIS, late Minister to Italy.

The execution finish, beauty and softness of your portraits, are joined with their durability of color and faithfulness to life-time rare and highly to be prized in the attention and patronage of all who appreciate true art.

From Col. JAMES PAGE.

Having seen life for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in oil of Colors, executed in the highest style of excellence, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommend him to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art. ☞ Those JAMES PAGE.
