SERIES OF BATTLES.

The past week will be memorable in history for its great movements and terrific conflicts on the south bank of the Rappahannock. Gen. Hooker, with a large force, crossed that river some miles south-west of Fredericksburg, and, turning downward toward that city again, flanked it, at a hamlet called Chancellorville. His movement surprised even the sentinels, and was highly successful.

Stoneman, with the Cavalry, was sent still further South and West, to cut off all railway and telegraph connection between Richmond and Fredericksburg. Upon learning of this large force almost in his rear, Gen. Lee withdrew most of his men from Fredericksburg, and threw them with perfect desperation against Hooker's extreme right, (the 11th, under Howard,) which gave way and fell back, but were supported, took a stronger position, and repulsed the assault. The Rebels were mowed down by thousands by our artillery.

In the meantime, Gen. Sedgwick crossed near Fredericksburg, and occupied its stone wall and other defenses, in good style, after a sharp contest, and with little loss. Afterwards, however, a larger force (probably from below, watching the river) pressed against Sedgwick, compelling him to return over the river, with loss.

The Rebel Gen. Paxton is killed, and Jackson, Heth and A.P.Hill, wounded. Richmond papers confessed that their line of communications was interrupted—if by Stoneman, a great matter.

Heintzelman, with 30,000 men, and Sedgwick, are both reported on the way to reinforce Hooker.

—Omitting varying rumors, such as appears (Thursday evening) to have been the situation, Tuesday noon. All agree that Hooker has displayed masterly Generalship, in plans and execution, and has been in the thickest of the fights when needed. Our troops generally have fought like veterans. They have 5,000 to 8,000 prisoners, including Gen. Evans, Fitzhugh Lee, and other noted Rebels. Among other brave officers we lost Gen. Berry of Maine, and Maj. Strouse of Sbamokin.

Col. Jas. A. Beaver, and Fairbank of Bellefonte, are wounded, and Bible and Stevenson are killed. The losses on both sides must be large. Gov. Curtin and others were prompt in forwarding surgeons, nurses and comforts for the sick and wounded. We know, as yet, of no losses from Union county, but judge some of our Companies must have been engaged.

TUESDAY'S WORK.

The failure of Sedgwick to hold the foe in check from below—the rains sweeping away bridges, and pontoons endangered—and uncertainty as to Stoneman's work—induced Hooker to recross, which he did with much regret. Tuesday, wounded were removed; the rain fell in torrents; pine boughs were spread on the pontoons to prevent noise; and at midnight, over terrible roads, the whole army moved on toward Falmouth, which they reached in sad plight, Wednesday, with an estimated loss during the week of ten thousand in killed, wounded and prisoners. Many of our wounded and dead were necessarily left behind.

STONEMAN'S GRAND RAID.

From Richmond papers and other sources it seems Gen. Stoneman's cavalry were most successful in their object. One column, under Col. Davis, broke up the Railroad from Hanover Junction to within five miles of Richmond, alarming the city greatly.

A third column, under Gen. Buford, at Gordonsville, obstructed the two Railways leading thence southwardly.

Notwithstanding these hindrances, the Rebel front both in number and spirit indicated reinforcements.

Stoneman is said to be now ranging on the west of Hooker, and the two, with Heintzelman, have a powerful force, that may soon resume operations.

Hooker and Stoneman have displayed great military skill and force, and are in no wise at fault for not accomplishing greater present results.

The next meeting of the Central Union League for Union county, is appointed for Tuesday evening of Court Week.

A general attendance, from all parts of the county, is requested. To counteract the mischief of the secret organizations of the Opposition, the friends of the Union must ORGANIZE—openly, manfully, and see that we are not again taken at a disadvantage as we were last year.

Capt. Jos. J. R. Orwig's Company, and Capt. T. R. Jones' Company, are among those shortly to be discharged. These Companies have done good service, and acted well the soldiers' part. Will our Union League give them a welcome home?

There have been clouds and rain in this region every day since Sunday. Grass and Wheat flourish finely, but the summer crops and fruit need the sun.

Election of County Superintendent.

The choice of a Common School officer, last Monday, at our Court House, called out a most respectable assemblage—men who left their labors and business for a public service, at their own expense. The following Directors were present:

Brady—Uriah Reed
Buffalo—James Sumonton, The Cornelius, Wm. Steans, Andw. Rubl, Jos. Dieffenderfer.
East Buffalo—Day Schrack, W. Linn, Ab. Aurand, Fr. Hippel, Ja. Stifer, Geo. Kreisher.
West Buffalo—Fr. Dieffenderfer, G. E. Sheary, S. L. Shuemaker, Wm. Behler, Jos. Klingman.
Hartleton—Dan. Long, J. F. Charles, Henry Katherman.
Hartley—D. B. Kerst, Robert Reed, R. V. B. Lincoln.

Adly—Jas. Shields, Laird Howard, Th. Clingan, Peter Guyer, Ja. Rodenbaugh, El. Meizer.
Lewisburg—H. P. Sheller, Johnson Walls, Da. Reber, F. A. Donachy, Wm. Jones, Wm. Leiser.
Lewistown—Th. W. Shipton, A. C. Mench, Jacob Spigelmeier.
Limestone—Saml. Stees, John Rinkert, John Syers.
Millburg—Jay Bosh, John Badger, R. V. Barber, J. M. Taylor, Joshua Weiser.
New Berlin—Ab. Schuch, Chs. Wilson, Joo. Kessler, Emil Snyder, Abs. Swineford.
Union—Chas. Cawley, Joo. Youngman, Levi Rooke.

Adly—Jas. Shields, Laird Howard, Th. Clingan, Peter Guyer, Ja. Rodenbaugh, El. Meizer.
Lewisburg—H. P. Sheller, Johnson Walls, Da. Reber, F. A. Donachy, Wm. Jones, Wm. Leiser.
Lewistown—Th. W. Shipton, A. C. Mench, Jacob Spigelmeier.
Limestone—Saml. Stees, John Rinkert, John Syers.
Millburg—Jay Bosh, John Badger, R. V. Barber, J. M. Taylor, Joshua Weiser.
New Berlin—Ab. Schuch, Chs. Wilson, Joo. Kessler, Emil Snyder, Abs. Swineford.
Union—Chas. Cawley, Joo. Youngman, Levi Rooke.

Dr. Chas. Wilson was chosen President, and Abs. Swineford and Wm. Jones, Esqs., Secretaries.

Reversing the usual order, Convention decided (31 to 27) to fix the salary first. Mr. Swineford stated that Mr. Heckendorn had found it difficult to support himself with $500 salary, and urged, that, in view of the rise in most articles of living, and the addition of a township to our territory, the compensation be $600.

Other sums were named, and the first vote stood as follows:

One voted for $700
22 for 600
24 for 500
12 for 400

No sum having a majority, the highest two were voted for, as follows:

For $500 36—14 maj.
600 22

So $500 was fixed as the salary.

On motion of C. Cawley, Esq. seconded by Dr. Rooke, the following was passed without a dissenting voice:

That in view of our country's condition the candidates to be voted for before this Convention shall first publicly assent to the following avowal of principles, viz:

Resolved, That we will support the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of Pennsylvania, and that we will give our earnest and unflinching support in sustaining the constituted authorities of our Government in suppressing Rebellion, punishing Treason, and maintaining the Government without compromise with traitors.

The following were nominated for County Superintendent:

Luther W. Anspach of Millburg.
John A. Owens of East Buffalo.
Charles E. Haus of Millburg.
Mr. Haus thanked his friends for their good wishes, but declined being a candidate, and thought he could serve the cause equally well in another sphere.

Being called upon, Mr. Anspach said he thought he could endorse the pledge of loyalty required by the Convention.

Being also called upon, Capt. Owens responded, "Now and for ever." [Applause.]

The first vote resulted as follows:

J. A. Owens 36—13 maj.
L. W. Anspach 23

So Mr. Owens was declared elected, and the Convention adjourned. It was harmonious, and those best acquainted with the successful candidate most heartily approve the choice. He served honorably in the Army until exhausted, but has recovered so that he can attend to this post. Some Directors who voted for $500 salary, not knowing what the new officer might be, are willing to increase the compensation if he prove worthy of it. Mr. Owens' residence is with Adam Gundy, his father-in-law, near Lewisburg, which is his P. O. address. His commission issues 1st June.

*Mr. Haus and Mr. Owens both declined being candidates (in favor of Mr. Heckendorn) until Thursday last, and each took the field without the other's knowledge. On meeting together, Mr. Haus thinking Mr. Owens' claims the better, manfully resigned in his favor.

—By the way, it was all along urged by the Democracy that this should be "no party matter"—a soothing cry under which they got several Republican votes for Anspach—at the same time rallying all their forces (one coming on crutches) in his favor! Even in Republican Kelly and other districts, the "Democratic" Director therein could not vote for our Republican Captain! Verily, if we live to be a hundred years old or so, we may perhaps learn that neglecting our friends, and bestowing honors and power upon our opponents, is poor policy!

The trial in Philadelphia of Huber and others of Berks county for treasonable preparations against the Government, has proved a Secret Political Society, meeting in barns at midnight, with grips and passwords and money fees—inflaming certain laws as unconstitutional—advising shooting (but not to kill) law officers.....and in addition to all, intimidating its members so they dare not testify! This—we regret to be compelled to believe—is the sort of secret combination being formed by certain politicians through our land!

For the Campaign!

We will send the Star & Chronicle for May Court until October Election, for FIFTY CENTS per copy. Send on the cash.

The following are the names of the new Common School Superintendents, and their salaries, as far as received by us.

Union—John A. Owens	500
Dauphin—S. D. Ingram*	800
Luzerne—Abel Marcy*	800
Perry—Jacob Gantt	300

*Re-elected.

The Sexton of the Lewisburg Cemetery reports the following burials therein for the year ending 1st May, 1863:

Age	Male	Female	Total
20 years and under	48	15	63
From 20 to 60	10	3	13
60 years and over	15	4	19
	73	22	95

The proportion of youth is very large. Of the aged, two were 62, one 70, three 71, two 73, three 75, one 76, two 77, two 79, one 81, one 84, and one 88—average, over 75 years; aggregate, 1429 years.

Good.—A joker, on hearing that some persons of questionable loyalty had gone to mutilating copper coin by cutting out the Liberty head and wearing it upon pro-Slavery bosoms as a badge, suggested the following happy definition:

"Copperhead—One who outrages the good sense (cents) of the nation."

Can this description be improved?

Last Sabbath, Rev. C. H. Leinbach of the Lewisburg Ger. Ref. church, admitted twenty-three persons to the church, and about 220 partook of the Holy Supper.

Last Sabbath a week, the same pastor received twenty-two persons into the G.R. Dreisbach church, and administered the Lord's Supper to about 125 persons.

Henry W. son of David Mattes of West Buffalo, died in Middleburg, last Friday morning, of typhoid fever, aged 24 years, 7 months and 12 days. He was a member of Capt. Ryan's Company, and fought in the battle of Fredericksburg. He was discharged on account of physical disability.

Gen. J. Kay Clement of Sunbury is appointed Provost Marshal for Union, Northumberland, Snyder, Juniata and Dauphin district—office in Harrisburg.

The West Susquehanna Classis of the Ger. Ref. Church meets at Millburg, at 7 P.M. of Thursday, 21st May inst.

Wolfe Geo. Merrill and Capt. Jona. E. Madsen reached Lewisburg, yesterday.

E. L. Mowry has just received a lot of splendid Photograph Albums.

The annual report of the Superintendent of the Catawissa Railroad gives the following comparison of the earnings in 1861 and 1862:

1861.	1862.
Net Earnings, $219,518 37	$200,366 23
Gross Earnings, 279,075 86	416,911 42

The increase of net earnings was $70,817 86; and the increase of gross earnings was $137,835 56. No passenger had been killed or injured on the road during the year.

The notorious Vallandigham was arrested last Monday, at his home in Dayton, O., whereupon his friends set fire to and burned down a Union news office, and several large buildings adjoining, cut the telegraph wires, and raged like madmen until the military, called out, put them down. These are the chaps who boast of "free press" and "enforcement of the laws" and "no mob violence!" Vallandigham is safe in Cincinnati.

The subscriptions to the Government loans are immense. Jay Cooke, agent for the Government in Philadelphia, is receiving very heavy subscriptions to the fifty-two bonds, reaching, on Monday $2,250,000. This shows the public confidence in the Government.

The Opposition are falsely boasting that they elected the Judge in Wisconsin. On a local railroad issue, he had a small majority of the home vote, but the soldiers gave Dixon (Adm.) 9,013 votes, to 1,668 for Foster fellow, and Dixon is elected by 5000 to 6000 majority.

A lawyer has been arrested in Washington for speculating on the bodies of dead soldiers. He would write to bereaved friends, offer to forward the "departed," pocket the fees in advance, and then send any corpse he could obtain.

The estate of the late Stephen A. Douglas, in Chicago, has been inventoried at seven hundred thousand dollars, but there are encumbrances upon it equal to its appraised value. The executors report that there is no personal property.

The fire in Williamsport, 2d May, came from a boy lighting a cigar in Garman's stable, and consumed thirteen wooden buildings, mostly westward of William St. Loss about $10,000, about $4,000 insured.

Capt. W. W. White (office in Williamsport) is appointed Provost Marshal for the Lycoming, Center, Clinton, Tioga and Potter district: Robert Hawley, Esq., Commissioner.

Several Boston friends of the late Gen. Reno have presented $100,000 to his widow, and raised a fund of $10,000 for benefit of his family.

The Muddy Insurance Company has made an assessment of 5 per cent.

The Cincinnati Commercial gives to the public the following, furnished by a soldier in Tennessee. It is a specimen of hundreds of letters written by seeking traitors at home, to try to make mischief among our soldiers, whose replies are like the one we copy below:

Spicy Correspondence between a Copperhead and a Soldier.

HAMILTON, O., Sunday, Mar. 22.

DEAR BOB: I suppose you were in a harder battle New Year's than I and Rash were with the skunk, and more serious, too. I suppose that before this reaches you, you will have been in another. From what you say, I suppose it is an awful sight to see the slaughter of men. You undoubtedly know of the heavy draft that is awaiting us. The people here are all of one mind—that is, to resist the draft. They all say that they will rebel against it. I don't know how that will work, but if they do I am in. Do you think the soldiers will fight us if they are brought up here to take us? I don't, I think they will be wise to throw down their arms. Bob, we had a big Democratic meeting in Hamilton, and the speakers all said they would have big fighting here soon. One said that Lincoln would be out of the White House in three months. Bob, there must certainly be some rough times here before long. Bob, you may know that our boys had big times in Hamilton yesterday. We listened to the speaking until we got tired, the next was cussing and bar. Well, Bob, I must quit for this time. Write soon if you don't get killed.

J. H., Jr.

MURKESBORO, April 2.

JOHN: Your cowardly and disgraceful letter is just received. You can better imagine than I can define my disgust, at receiving such a contemptible and treasonable letter, from one claiming to be a citizen of the American Republic; a man raised and educated under the auspices of the best Government ever enjoyed by any people, who have so degenerated in the scale of morality and love of country, as to have become an object of contempt rather than of sympathy. I blush to think that a short time since associated of love for his country and her free institutions, is, to-day, from motives of dastardly cowardice, cringing, in the attitude of supplication, at the shrine of the Southern Confederacy. What has so recently come over the spirit of your dreams, that you can thus so cheaply repudiate both your God and your country? The sentiments you express, savor very much of human depravity. Have you lost all the pride of manhood? Have you become so demoralized as thus to acknowledge yourself at once a traitor and a disgrace to the free institutions which gave you birth? My God in his infinite justice, prosper the glorious cause for which the Federal armies are contending, while to the wretched torment of fire and brimstone, in the deepest gorge of hell, consign not only the Rebels in arms against our Government, but also, and three-fold more deserving, the unprincipled and cowardly wretches, who openly avow themselves traitors, but who have not the moral courage to take up arms in favor of the rebellion for which they profess so much sympathy! If such men as Vallandigham and his followers expect to receive mild treatment at the hands of the soldiers of this department of the Army, they are laboring under a most woeful delusion. You greatly mistake the loyalty of those who so freely gave their blood at the battle of Stone River, if for a single moment you entertain the opinion that we would justify you in resisting the draft. We will, with one accord, lay down our lives for the cause in which we have enlisted; but never, till the last armed foe expires, will we ingloriously lay down our arms, as intimated in your letter. We will return home for no other purpose than to bayonet (and, if need be, exterminate,) all such treason mongers as you described.

This letter will no doubt conclude our correspondence, to which I do not object; and since you have taken the liberty to write such an insulting letter to me, I propose to deal plainly with you, in doing so, allow me to say that all your boasts about resisting the draft are mere cowardly bombast. You an all your stripe lack the courage to lift an arm to oppose the draft. You will, no doubt, purchase a revolver, and talk loudly about resistance, as all cowards do; but mark me for the expression, you will never use them. I despise a coward as I despise the devil, and for ever hence you are in my humble estimation a cringing coward of the lowest order. Only think for a moment of a spirit so contemptible as to express the wish that we might desert the graves of our brethren on the decoration of the Rebels! Go on in your mad career of opposition to the war; but, remember, the time is fast approaching, when you will gladly give your right arm to be able to recall the treasonable acts of the past. If you desire to know how your letter was received, you can readily determine by the following. One of the boys present when it was read, remarked, that "if you were here, your skin would be taken off, and twisted into whip-lashes with which to lash your soul on the road to hell." All denounce the author of such a treasonable letter as a mean, contemptible coward, who dare not fight for or against his country.

With every sentiment of profound disgust, I subscribe myself for ever the enemy of traitors at home and Rebels in arms, while I am unalterably for the Union.

HARRISBURG, May 8.—Hooker recrossed the Rappahannock, without loss in the movement, and occupies his former position.

Stoneman's operation was a brilliant success. The organization and efficiency of the army is not seriously affected, but will speedily resume offensive operations.

WASHINGTON, May 7.

The following appears in the National Intelligencer this morning, (Thursday): Official information received at the War Department last evening, authorize us to state that Gen. Hooker, after waiting on the rain near Chancellorville, on Tuesday, for a renewal of the battle by the enemy, recrossed the Rappahannock on the evening of that day, influenced by prudential motives, springing, doubtless in part from the great and sudden rise of the Virginia rivers, in consequence of the recent heavy rains, threatening our supplies.

We do not learn that Gen. Hooker was apprised, before making this movement, of the success which is alleged to have attended the operations of Gen. Stoneman in breaking the Rebel communications with Richmond. If this fact had been known to him, assuming it to be a fact, it may be doubted whether Gen. Hooker would have deemed it necessary to take a step which most tend to deprive him of some at least, of the advantages resulting from Stoneman's co-operative expedition.

The assault upon Haines Bluff was not successful. But all other accounts from our armies, South and West, are very encouraging: several important advances had been made, greatly to our gain.
