Well, let him go, and let him stay-I do not mean to die; I guess he'll find that I can live

Without him, if I try. He thought to frighten me, with frowns So terrible and black -He'li stay away a thousand years Before I ask him back!

He said that I had acted wrong, And foolishly beside; I wont forgive him, after that-I wouldn't if I died;

If I was wrong, what right had he To be so cross to me I know I'm not an angel, quite-I don't pretend to bu.

He had another sweetheart, once: And now, when we fall out, He always says site was not cross, And that she didn't pout : It is enough to vex a saint -It's more than I can bear; I wish that other girl of his

He thinks that she was pretty, too-Was beautiful as good; I wonder if she'd get him back Again, now, if she could !

Was-well, I don't care where.

I know she would -- and there she is! She lives almost in eight; And now, it's after eight o'clock-Perhaps he's there to night!

I'd almost write to him to come-But then I've said I won't-I do not care so much, but sun Sha'n't have him, if I don't. Bosides, I know that I was wrong,

And he was in the right: I guess I'll tell him so-and, then-I WISH HE'D COME TO NIGHT!

STICKING TO IT - Under Rosecraps, is the regiment of Col. Heg, composed of Norwegians or Scandinavians, from North Wisconsin. They are good fellows, albeit they speak broken English-as witness the terms in which one of the Captains swore in some Rebel prisoners:

"Say, you fellers-you Putternuts-I wants you all to sebwear a little. It do you good to schwear mit de constitution. I schwear him tree year ago-uow you schwear bim. Now recollect you schwear him goot-no tam nonsense. You must schwear him and keep him down, and not | Evans, who is authorized to settle the busipuke bim up again."

Just so. - During a religious revival in a certain congregation, a nominal member | same. was so deeply moved by the changes and excitements that he arose and said "I pay my dollar for the preacher, regular, and I am willing to double it. But I'm opposed to all disturbances, and so, when Religion comes to this church, I leaves it." That is like the Copperheads who threaten to leave the party if it seeks to do good to by studying the wants of my friends and en-
